"SHANKAR'S" NEW YEAR GREETINGS

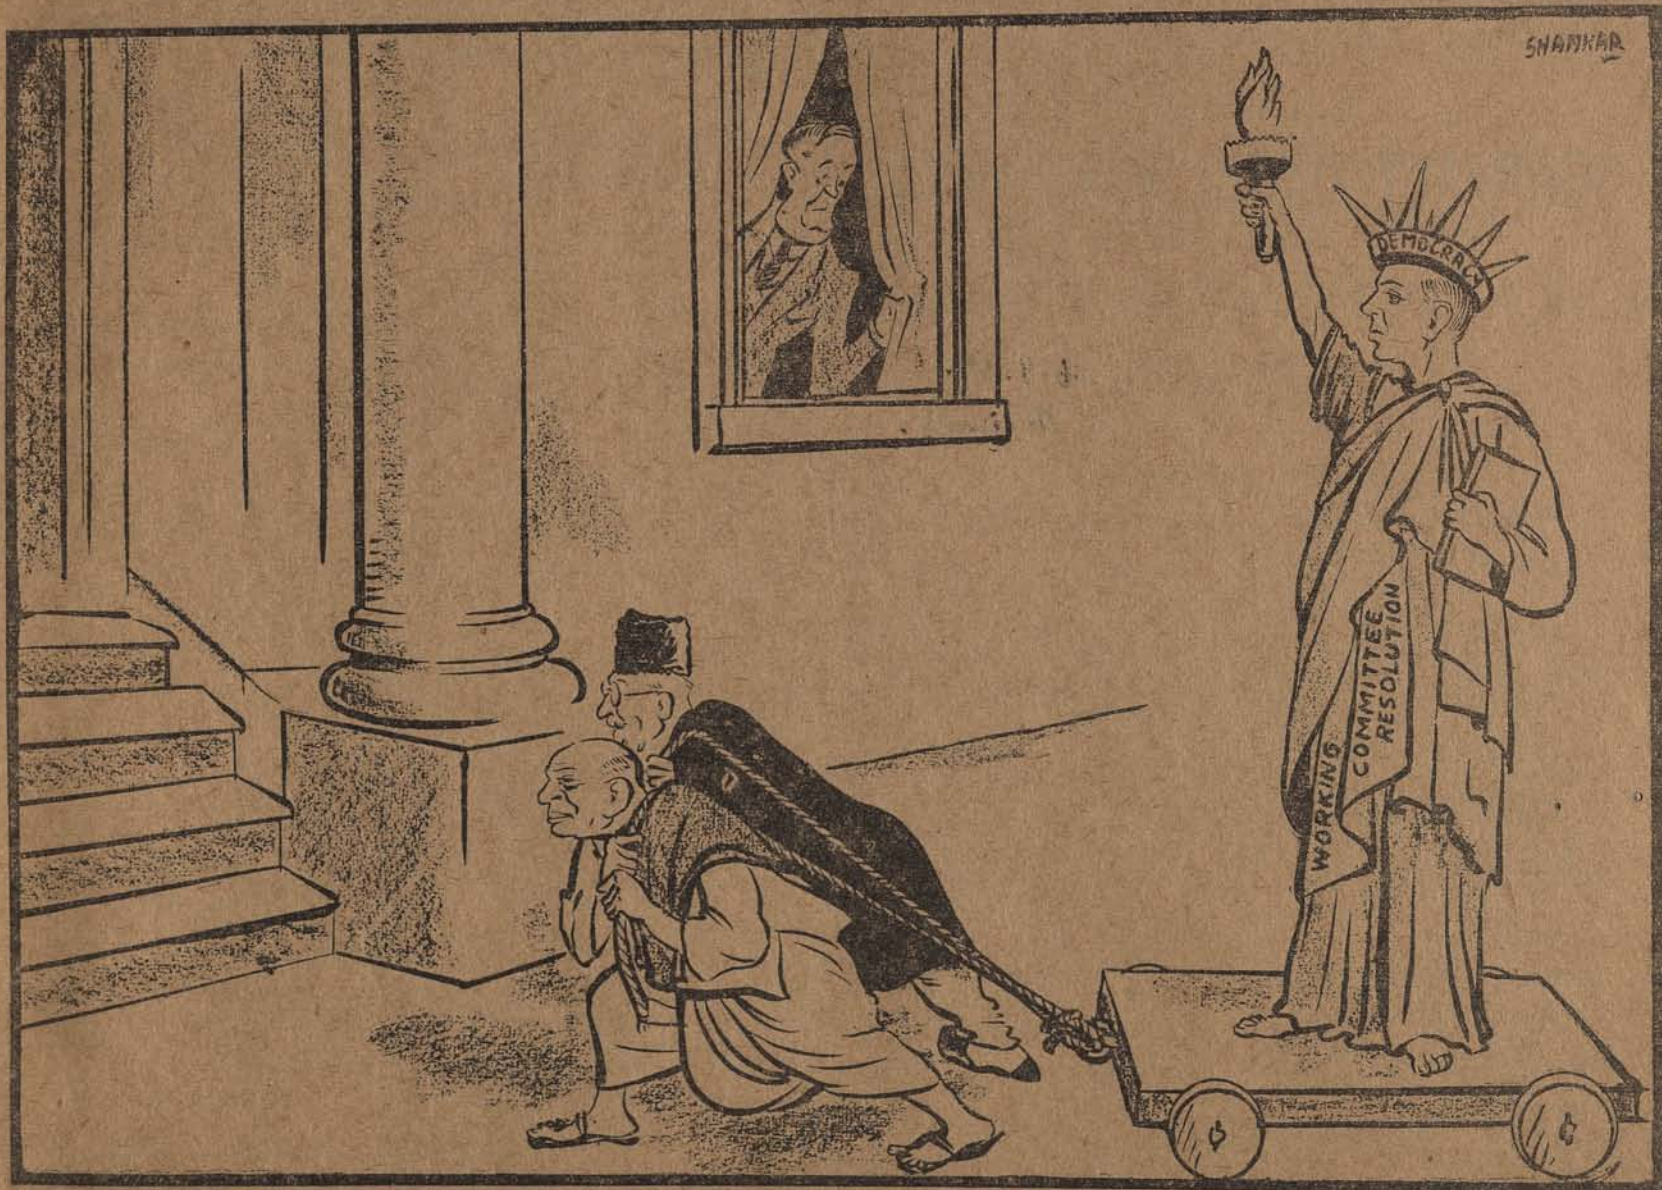

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR YOU

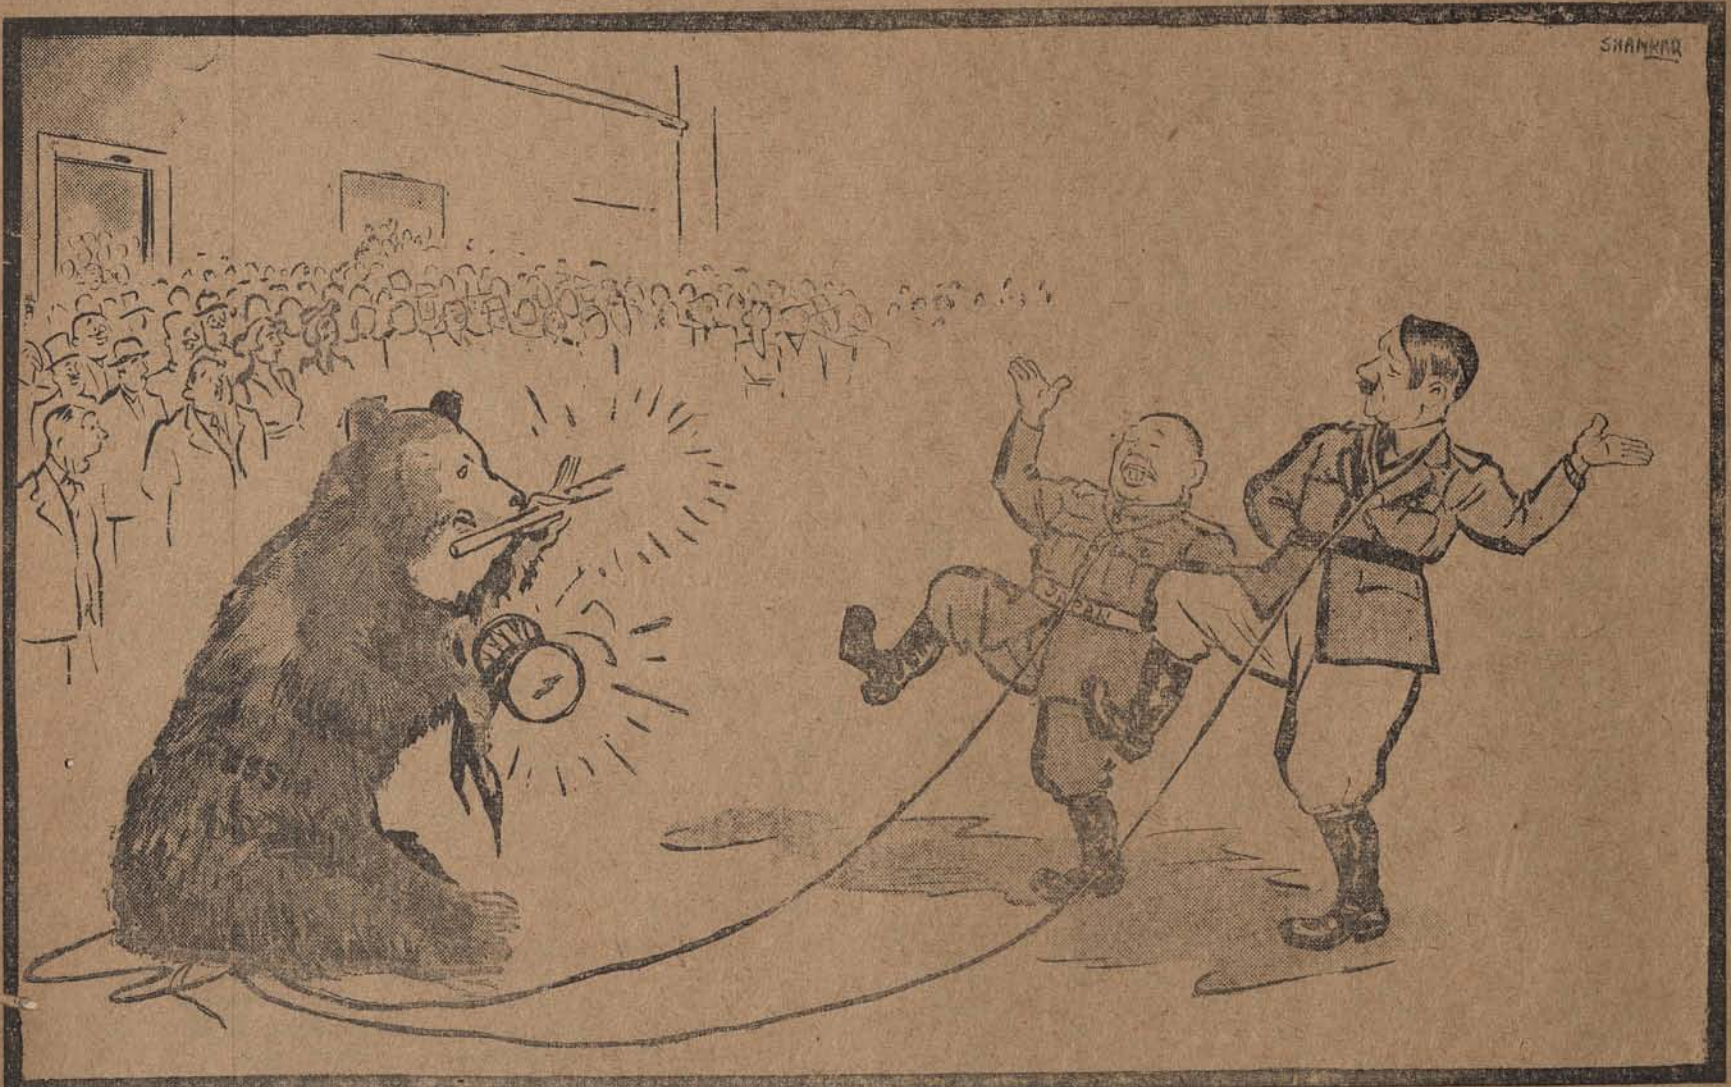

The Muslim League will decide its attitude on the War Issue today.

DOWN WITH HITLERISM!

The Working Committee resolution demands democracy for India also.

EVERY BEAR HAS ITS DAY

Following on the Soviet-German Non-Aggression Pact, Japan and Russia have agreed to an armistice in Outer Mongolia.

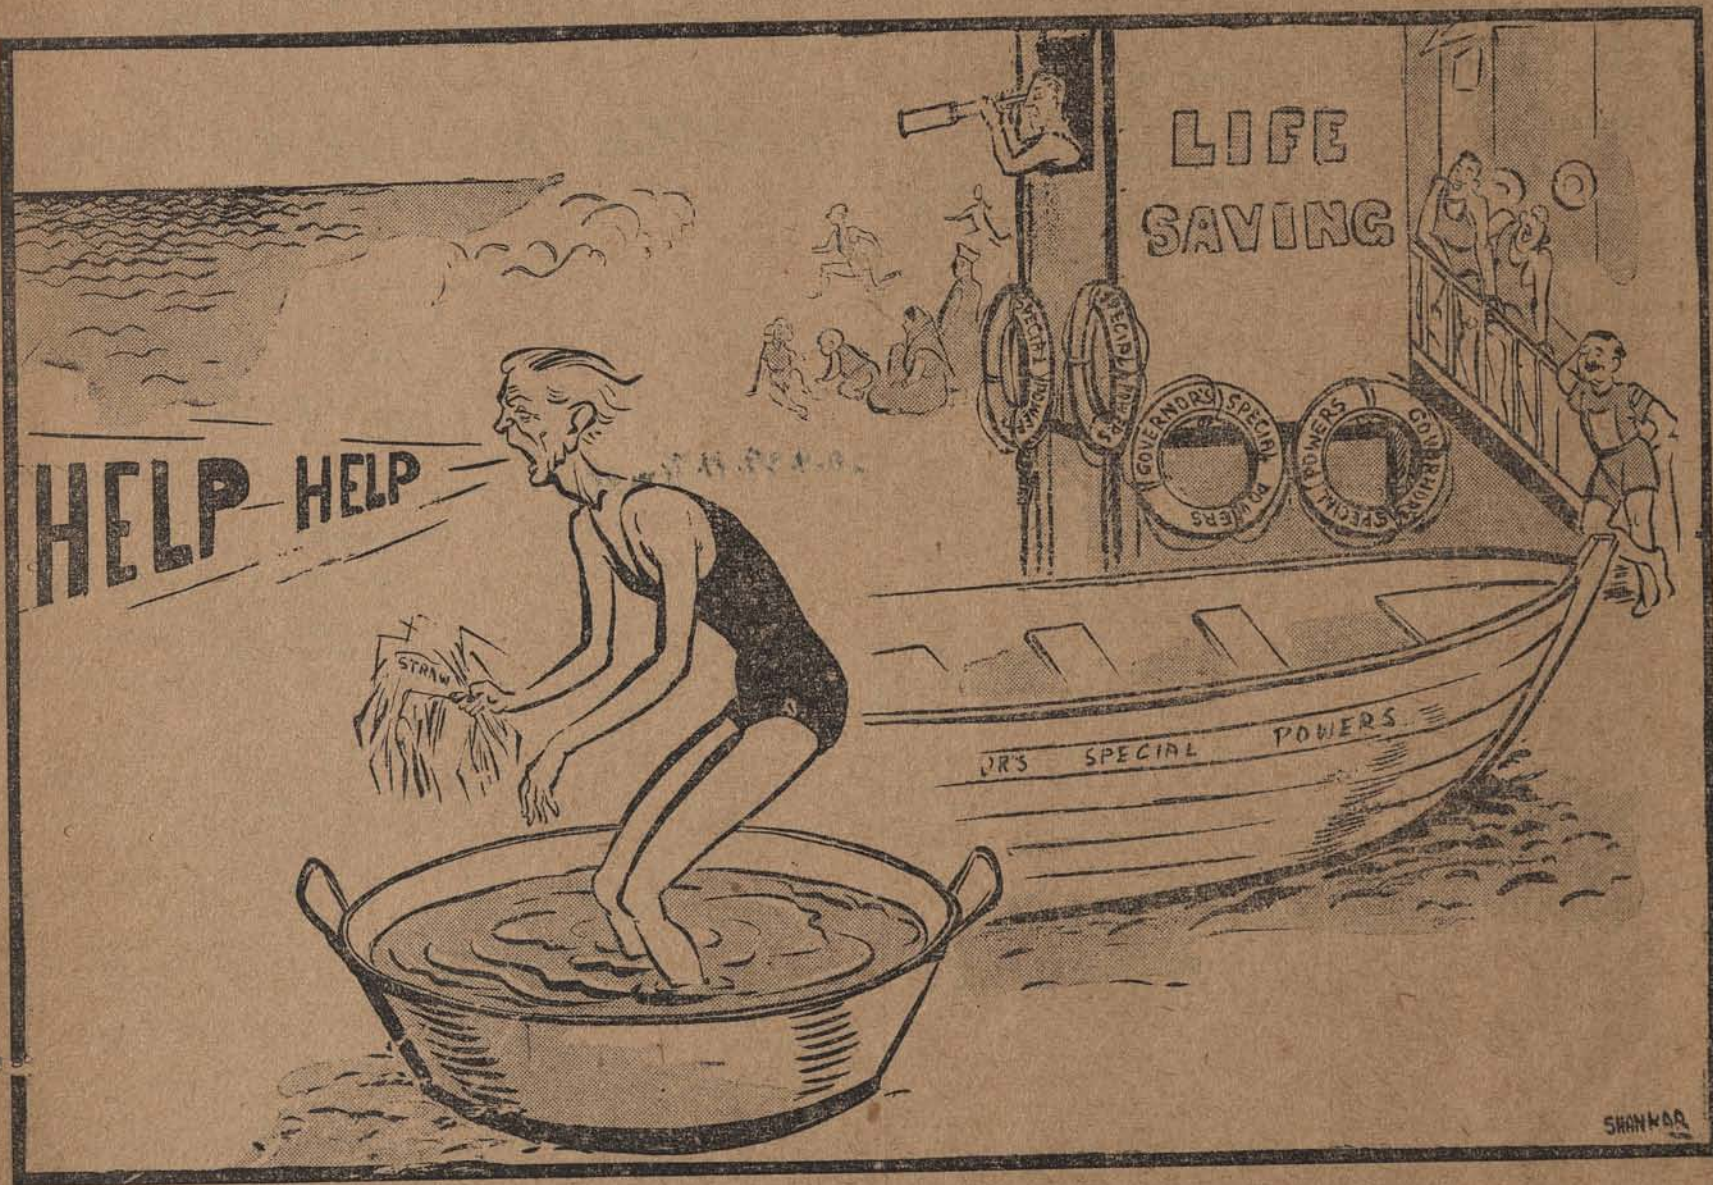

Hindustan Times
18. 9. 39.

COUP DE GRACE

M. Molotov says that the Red Army marched into Poland to save Russia's Polish comrades.

"I WILL BE DROWNED"

The resolution passed by the Working Committee of the Muslim League states: "So far the special powers of the Governors have remained dormant and obsolete and the Governors have failed to protect the rights of the Muslims."

THE WAR EMERGENCY HAS PUT TO TEMPORARY DEATH THE FEDERAL SCHEME.

DOVES OF PEACE

According to Reuter Herr Hitler's speech is regarded in America as laying the groundwork for the Fuchrer's expected peace offensive to be carried forward by diplomatic action by Italy and even possibly by Russia.

"I REMEMBER, I REMEMBER"

"If Britain and France have been unable to avert the defeat of the armies of Poland, they have assured her that they have not forgotten their obligations to her nor were they weakened in their determination to carry on the struggle."

—Mr. Chamberlain.

King of the jungle ?

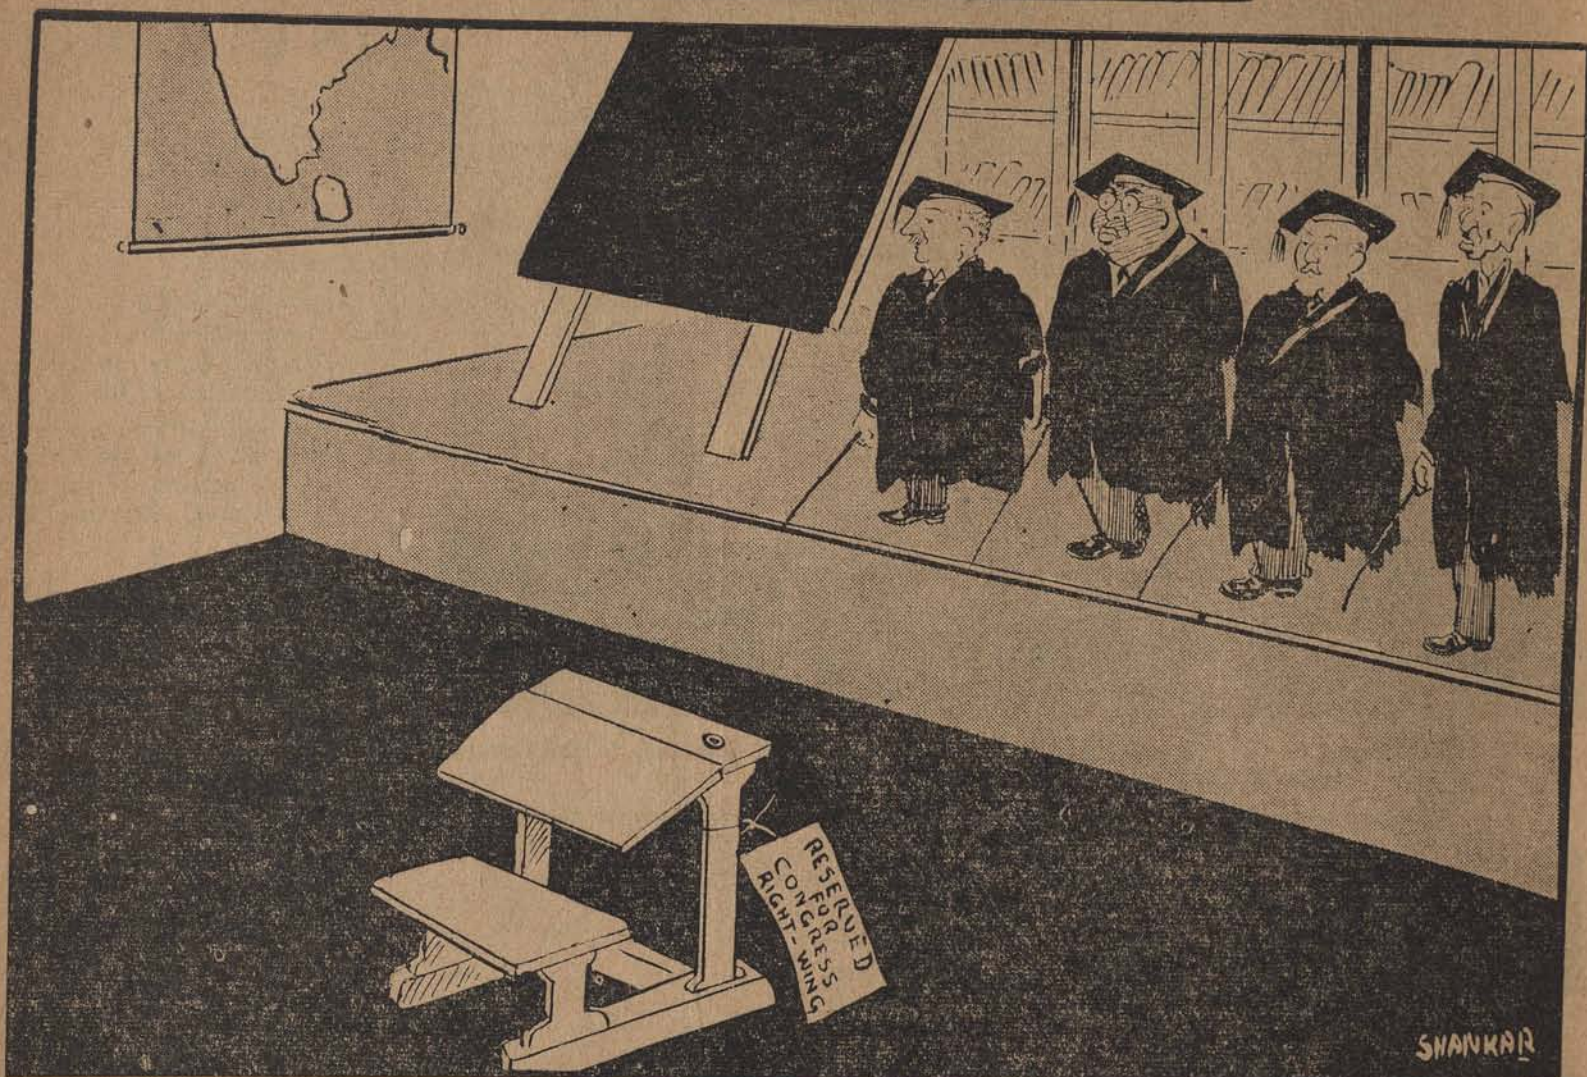

THE AGE OF CHIVALRY

...“Women all over the country will feel deeply disillusioned about the co-operation and understanding from men of which they had so far been quite sure,” says Rani Lakshmbai Rajwade on the rejection of Dr. Deshmukh’s Divorce Bill by the Central Legislative Assembly.

Hindustan Times,
23.9.39.

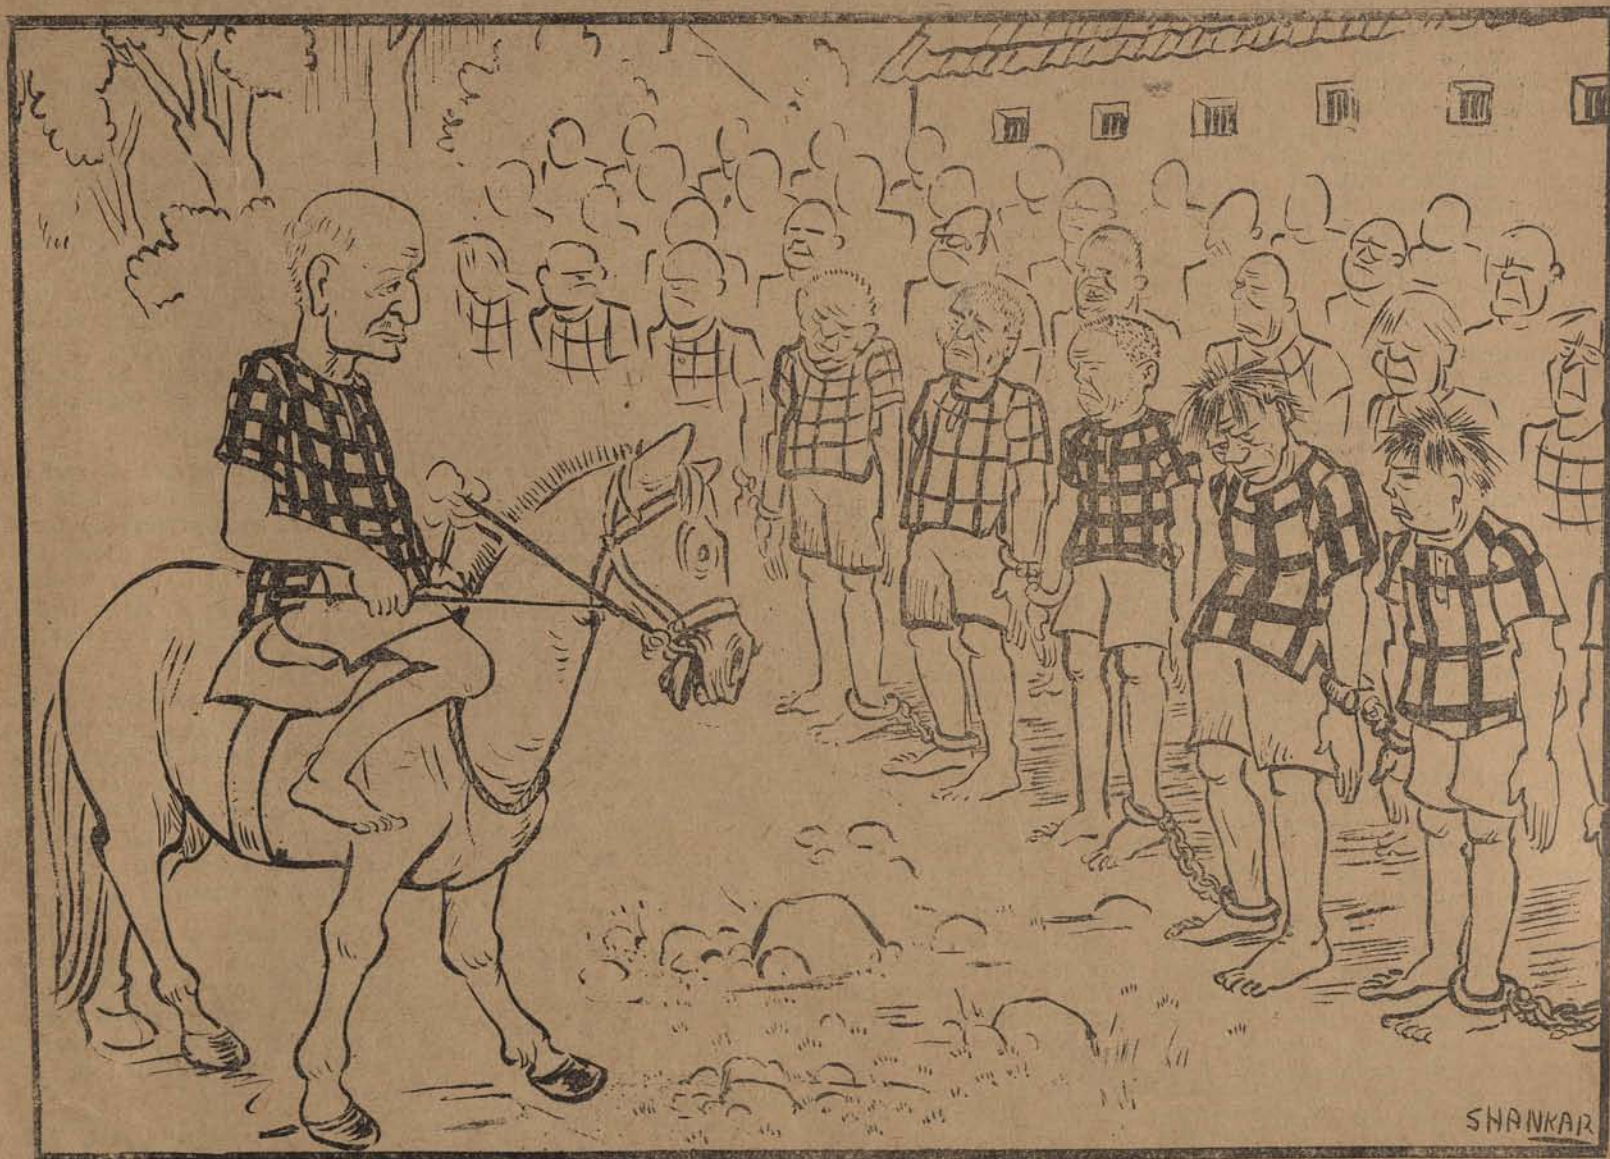

THE "RIGHT" EDUCATION

“Sooner or later, owing to the growing power of the Left Wing, there was bound to be a split in the Congress ranks and when such a situation arose, he felt confident that the Right Wing of the Congress would adopt for their guidance the principles which the Liberal Party advocated.”—Sir Cawasji Jehangir.

INSPECTING THE GUARD OF HONOUR

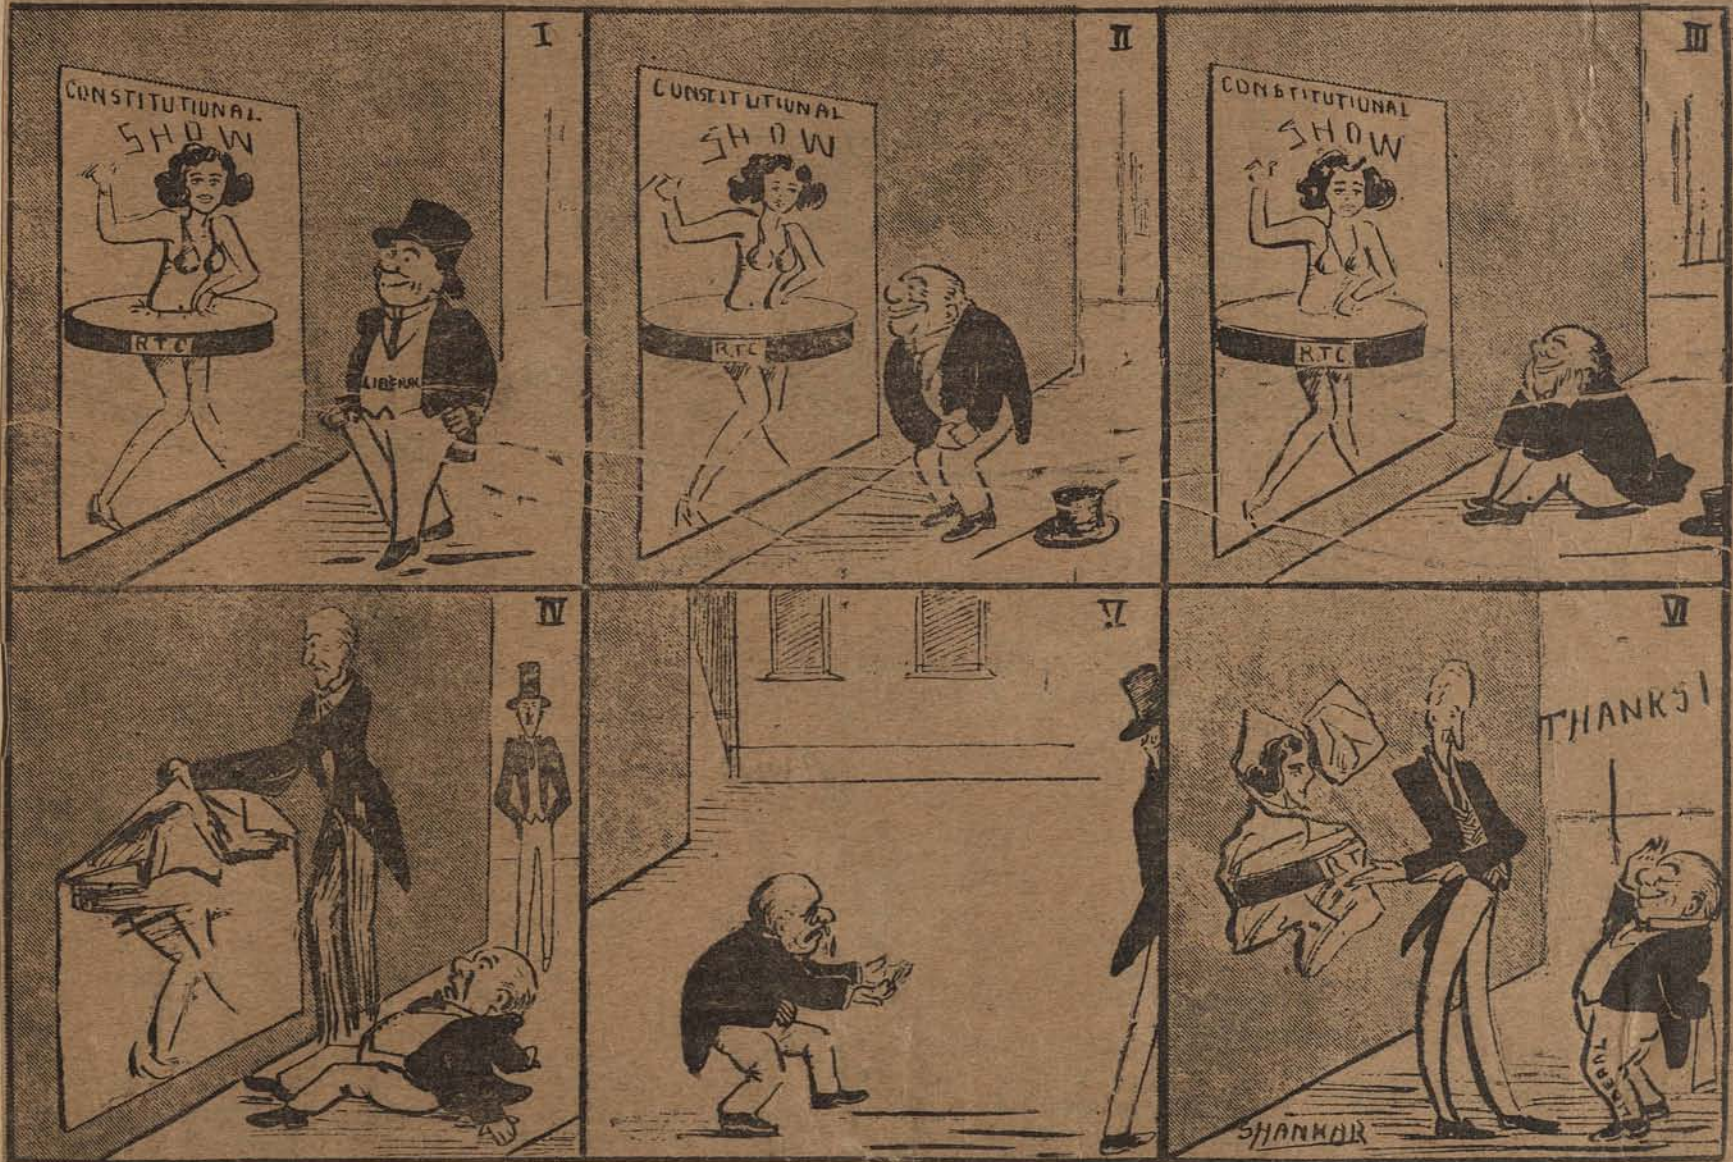

A "United Press" message says that Sir Henry Craik, the Home Member is visiting the Andmans.

SUKA AND RAMBHA ON THAMES

The conversation between Mr. Malcolm MacDonald and Mr. de Valera, it is believed, was for a better understanding between the Irish Free State and Great Britain.

SPIRAL TURNS ROUND "FIXED AGENDA"

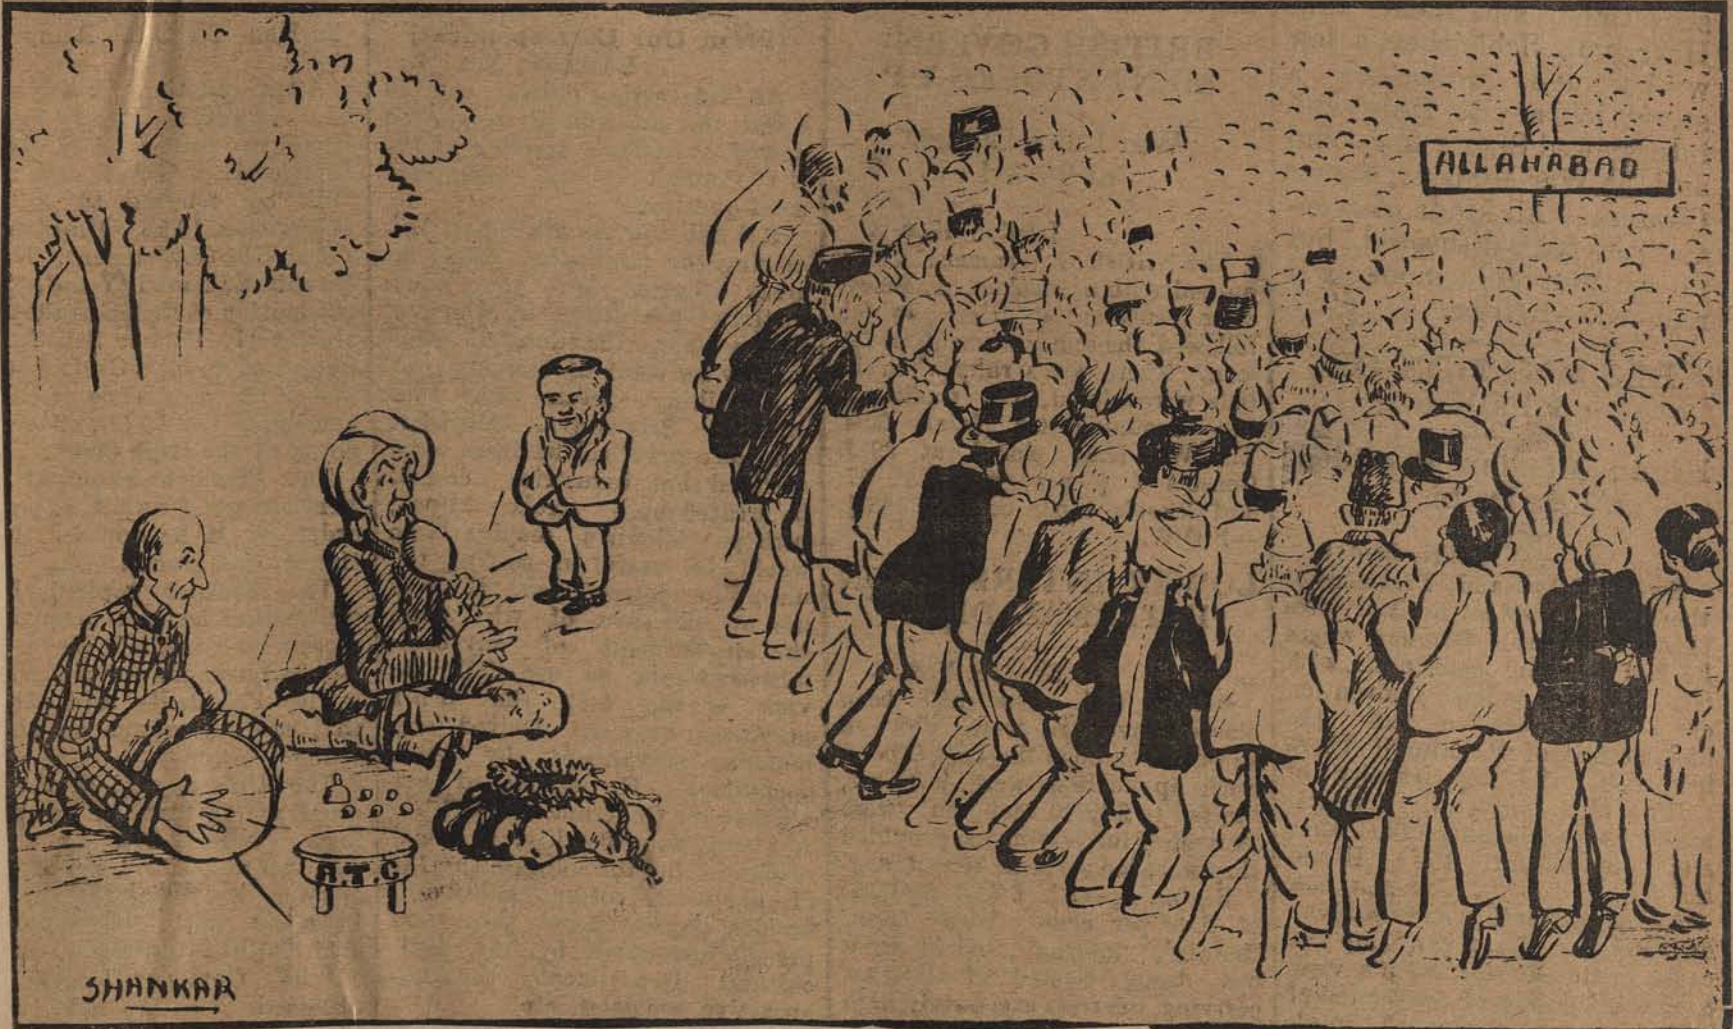

THE COMMUNAL ORCHESTRA

Old King Cole was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he;
He called for his pipe, he called for his glass,
And he called for his fiddlers three.—“Old Song.”

LITTLE BENN SEES A JOKE

SHANKAR

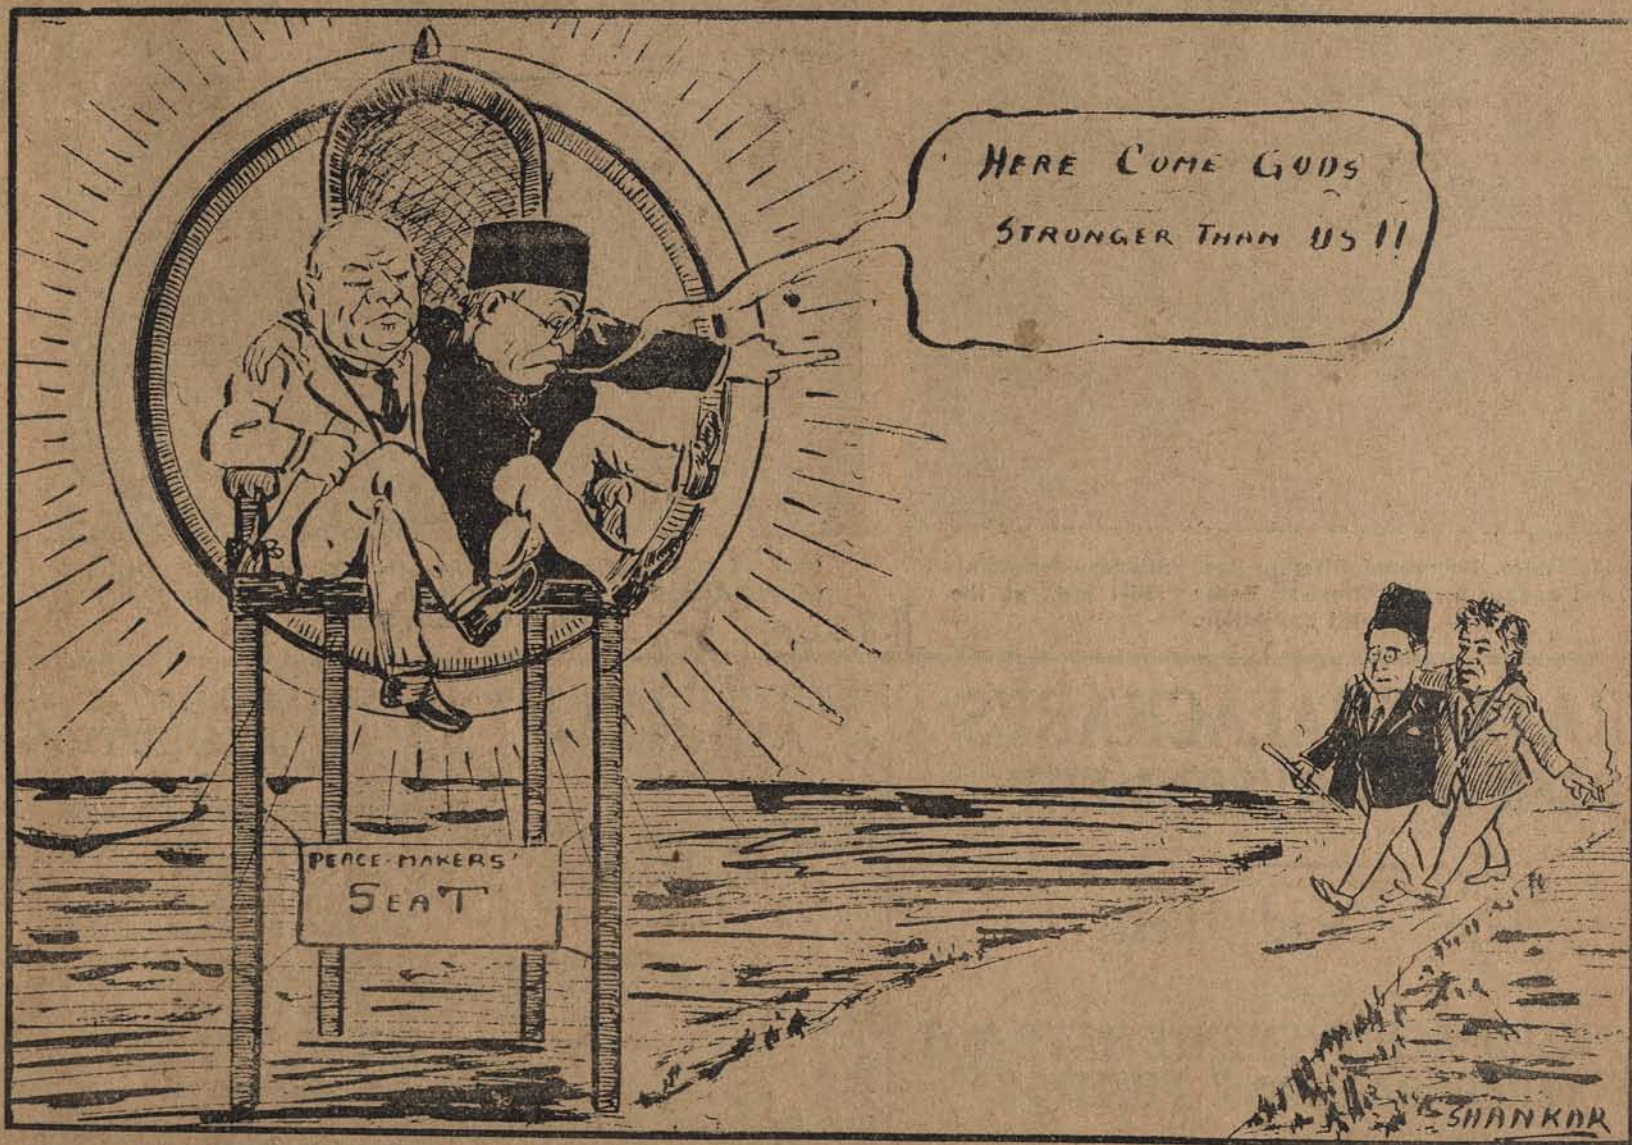

IGNORED TOO LONG!

SHANKAR

During the debate on the White Paper in the U. P. Council Mrs. Srivastava said she was greatly disappointed with it inasmuch as it seeks to enfranchise only one woman for every seven men.

"ECCE DEUS FORTIOR ME"

During the adjournment motion of Mr. Lalchand Navalrai in the Assembly on Saturday, Mr. Anwar-ul-Azim said that if Mr. B. Das and Mr. Abdul Matin Chowdhury wanted to play the Sapru-Jayakar role, the Government might consider the position.

EUROPA AND THE BULL

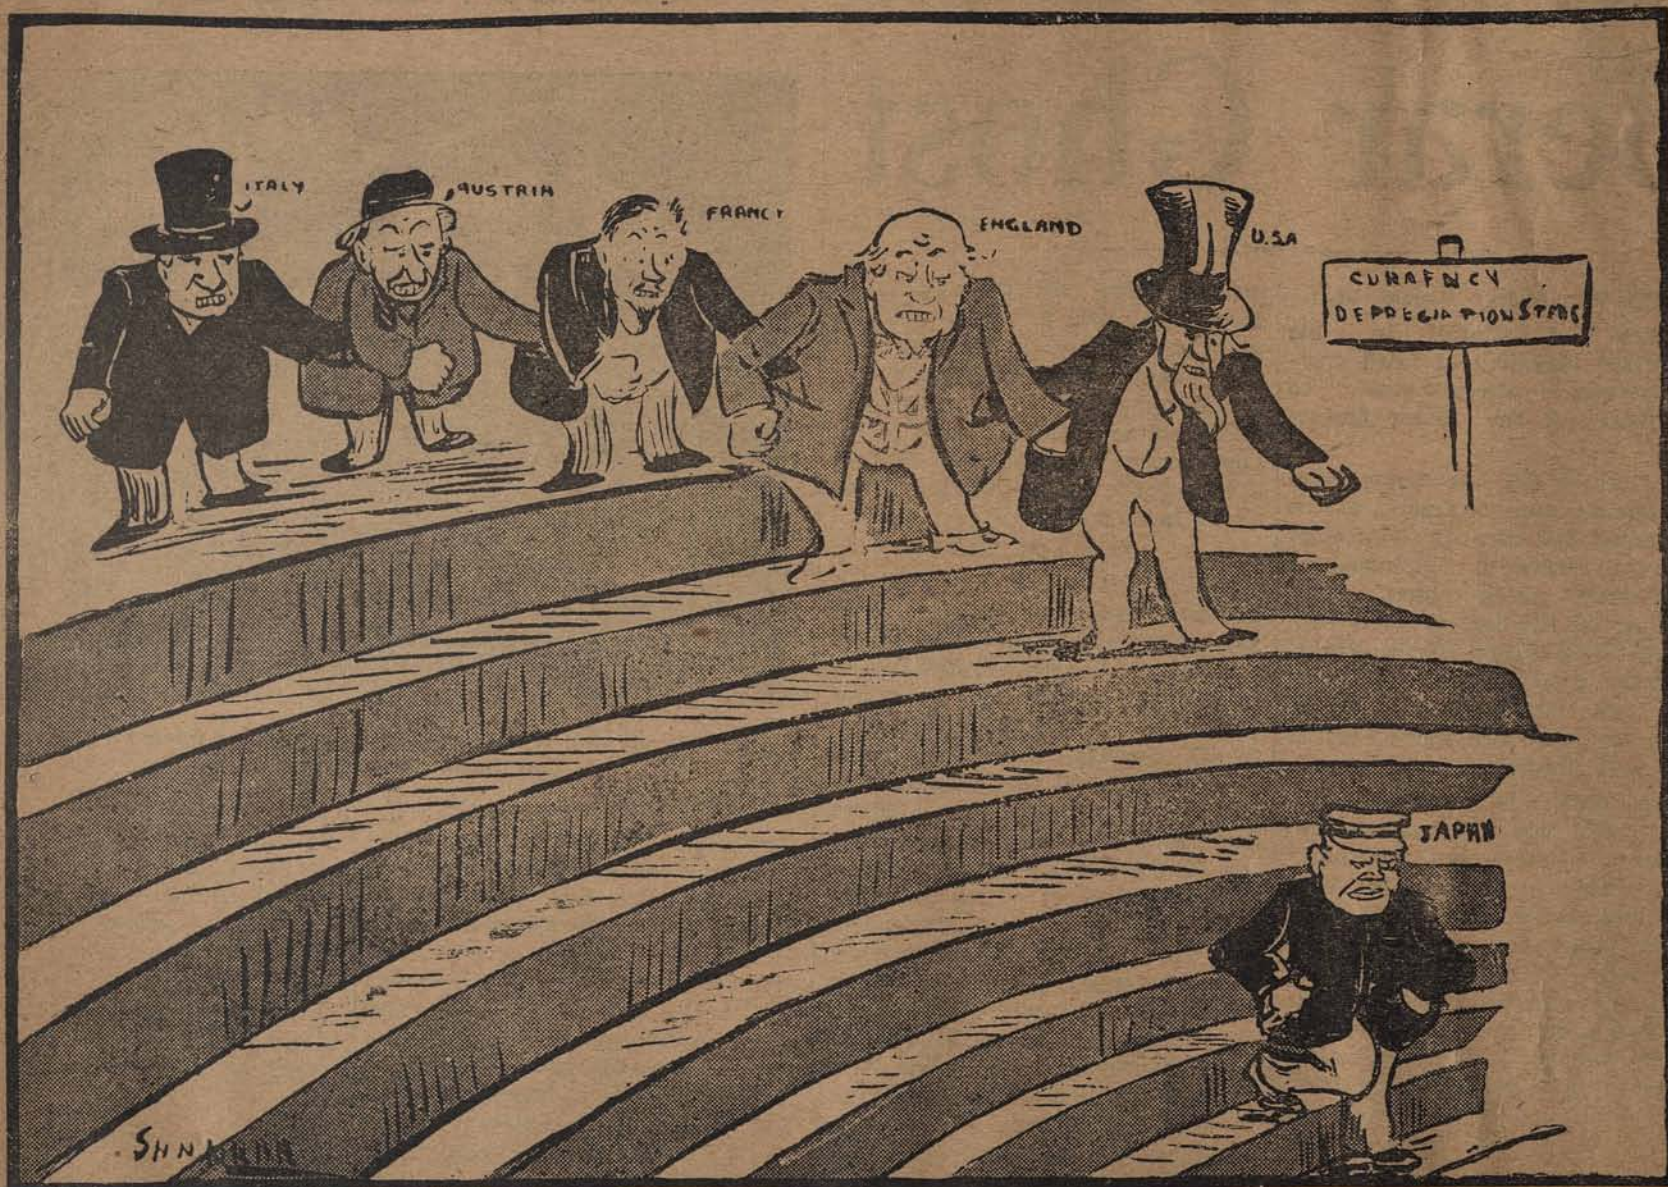

Europa, the playful daughter of King Agenor was tempted to mount a handsome bull and she did not dare to throw herself off, as the animal leapt to its feet, galloped away and plunged with her into the deep sea.

MAR'S CHRISTMAS GIFT FOR THE WORLD

STANDING TOGETHER

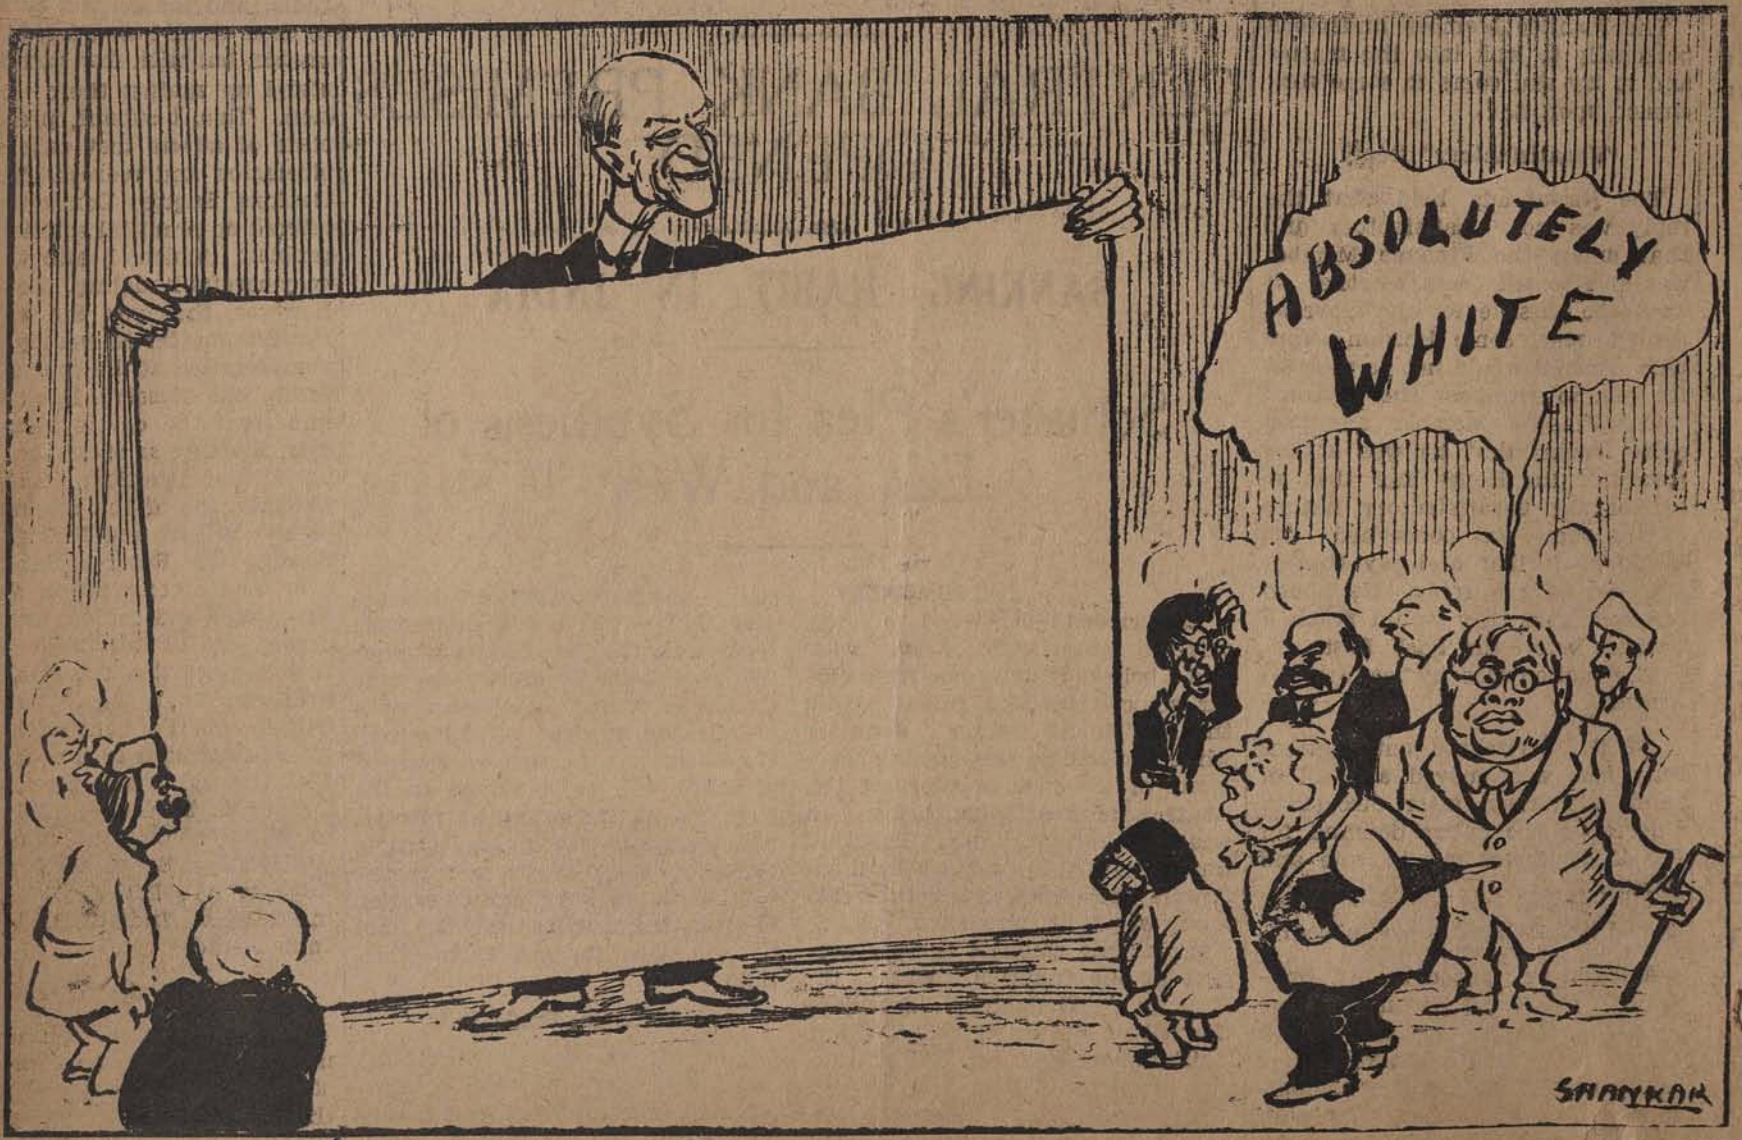

"Britain and all other Western countries were having great trouble with Japan and it might be necessary for them to stand together in a great economic cause" was part of a "Revised" message dealing with the present difficult international situation.

A TORY MISCONCEPTION

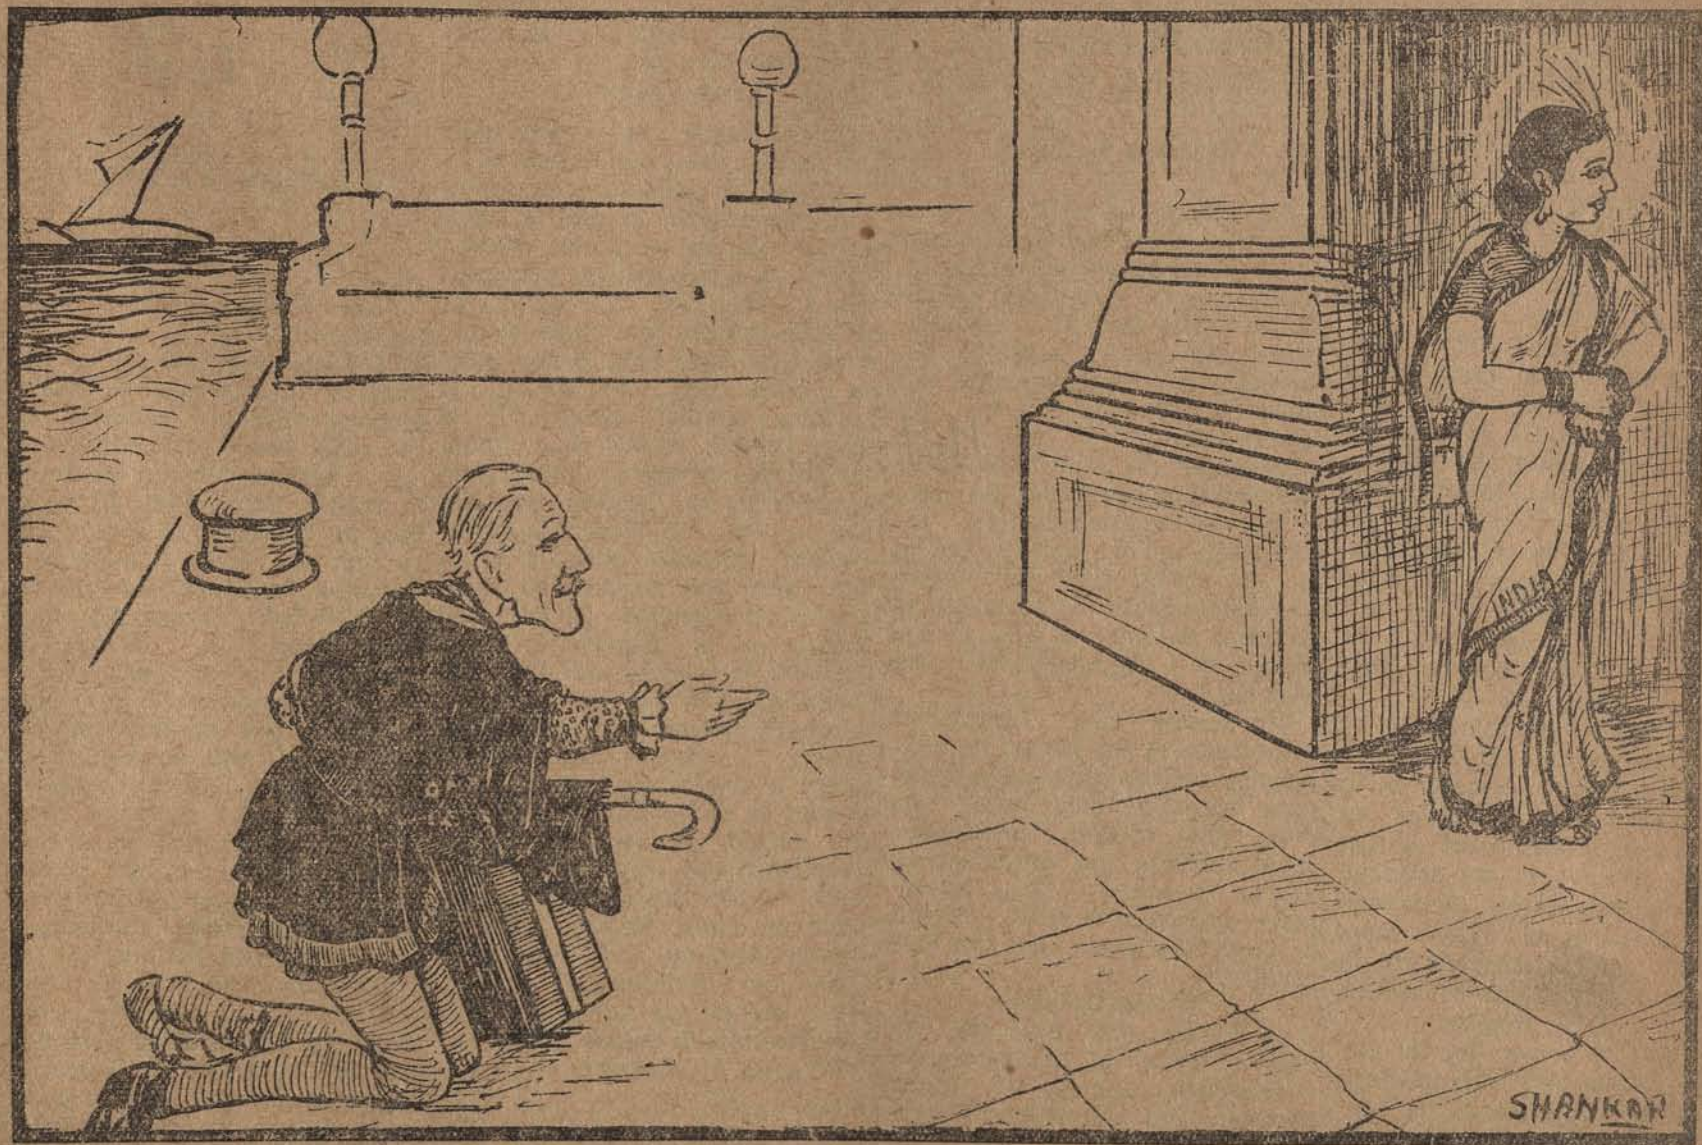

Much of the tory ill temper manifested by Churchill and others can be overcome by Sir Samuel Hoare explaining to them that his White Paper will only purge Indian legislative institutions of what ever little power they have.

MAKE THE BEST OF IT!

A FAREWELL SENTIMENT

"Maid of Athens, ere we part
Give me, give me back my heart."

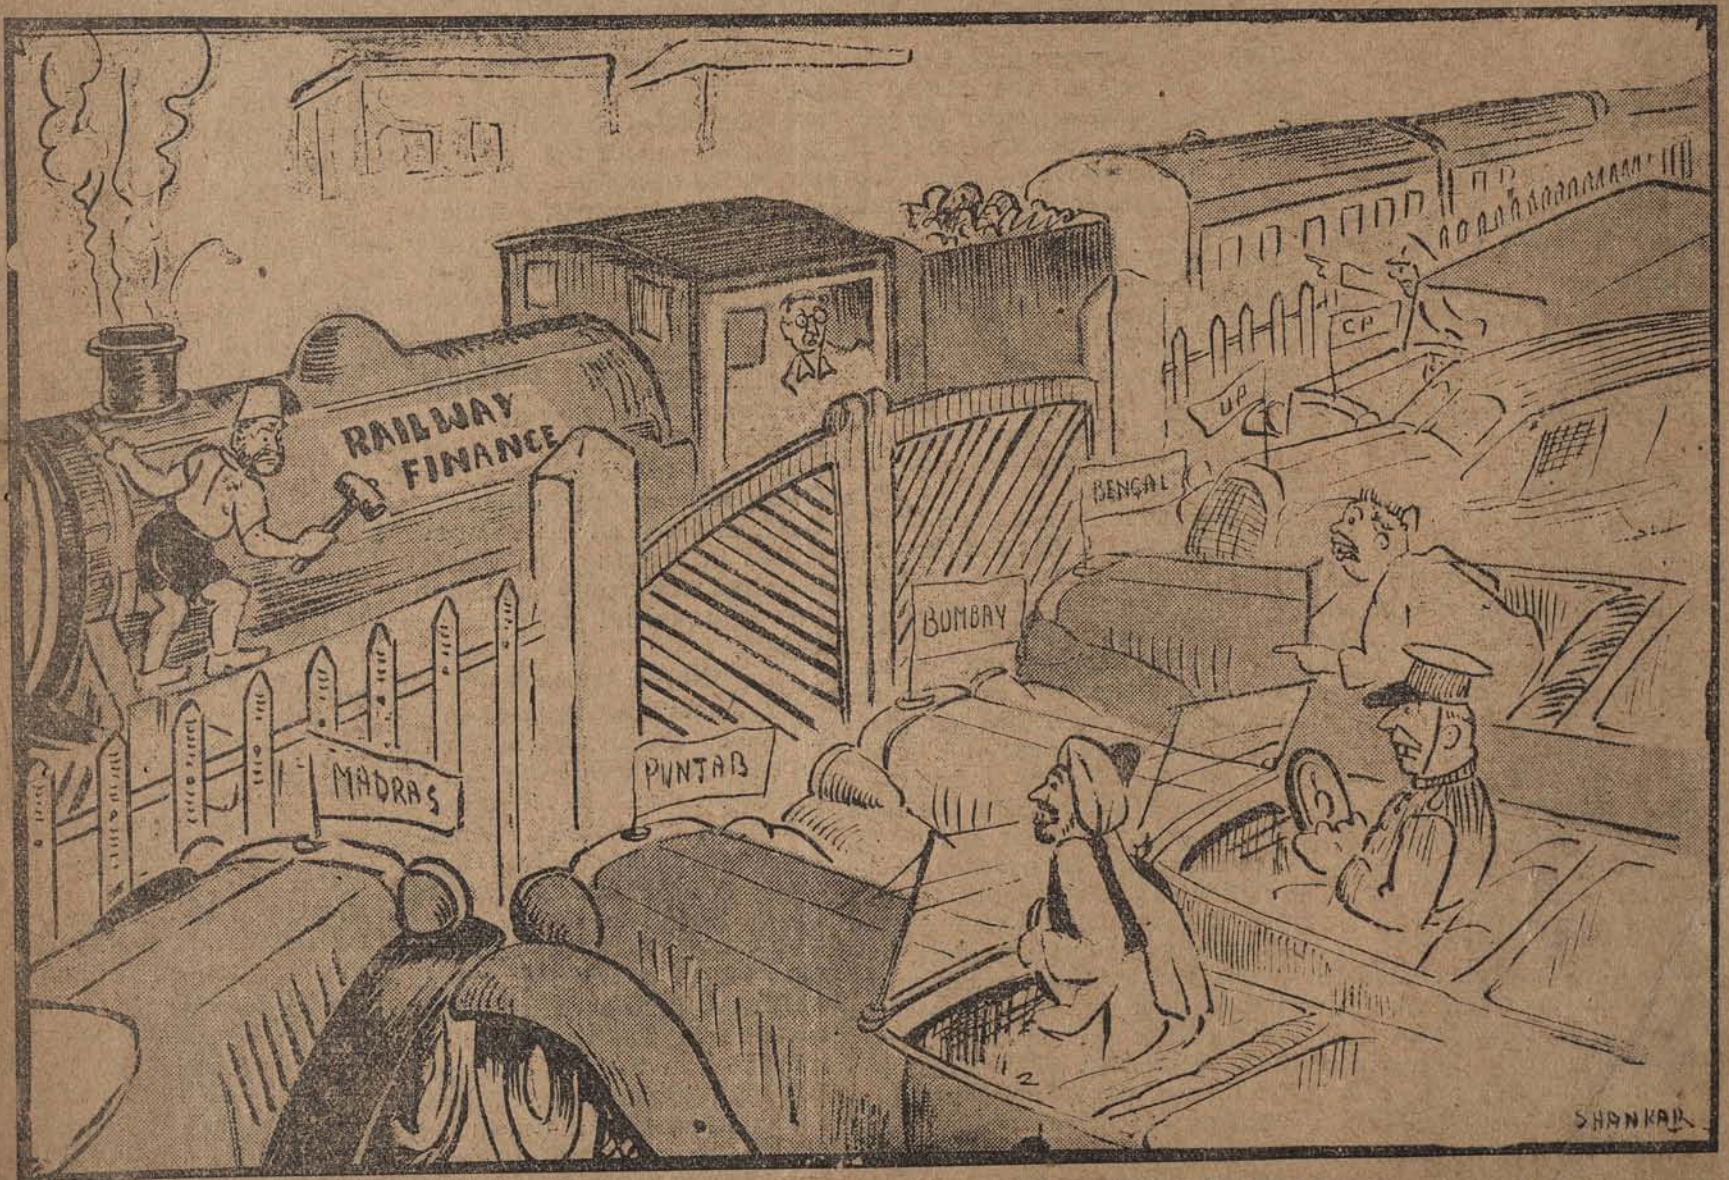

J. P. C. heroes coming back from England are full of the wonderful luck that was theirs. Everyone of them has told us of the hospitality they enjoyed.

WILL IT KEEP STANDING?

The Morning Post writing on the White Paper Scheme says: Considering that nobody wants the scheme, that it is admittedly dangerous and that there is no money to pay for it, we cannot see how it "stands up."

WHEN WILL SHE MOVE ON ?

Income-tax amounting to six crores, assignable to the provinces, be retained by the Centre for the first five years, unless the railway resume substantial contributions. —Niemeyer report.

MODERATES WILL SOON BE ON THEIR LEGS!

SHANKAR

MACE-O-MANIA?

The Bengal Legislative Council was presented with a mace by the Honourable the President who advised the members to behave hereafter as men who possessed a mace. The next day the President turned out a member who was too talkative.

A WAY OF ESCAPE?

"If the League of Nations were to-day to order a census of henpecked husbands of the world, India probably would top the list" says a Lahore Professor. But will even registration under the head "Henpecked" openly, provide any relief?

THE LAST OF A GREAT ORDER

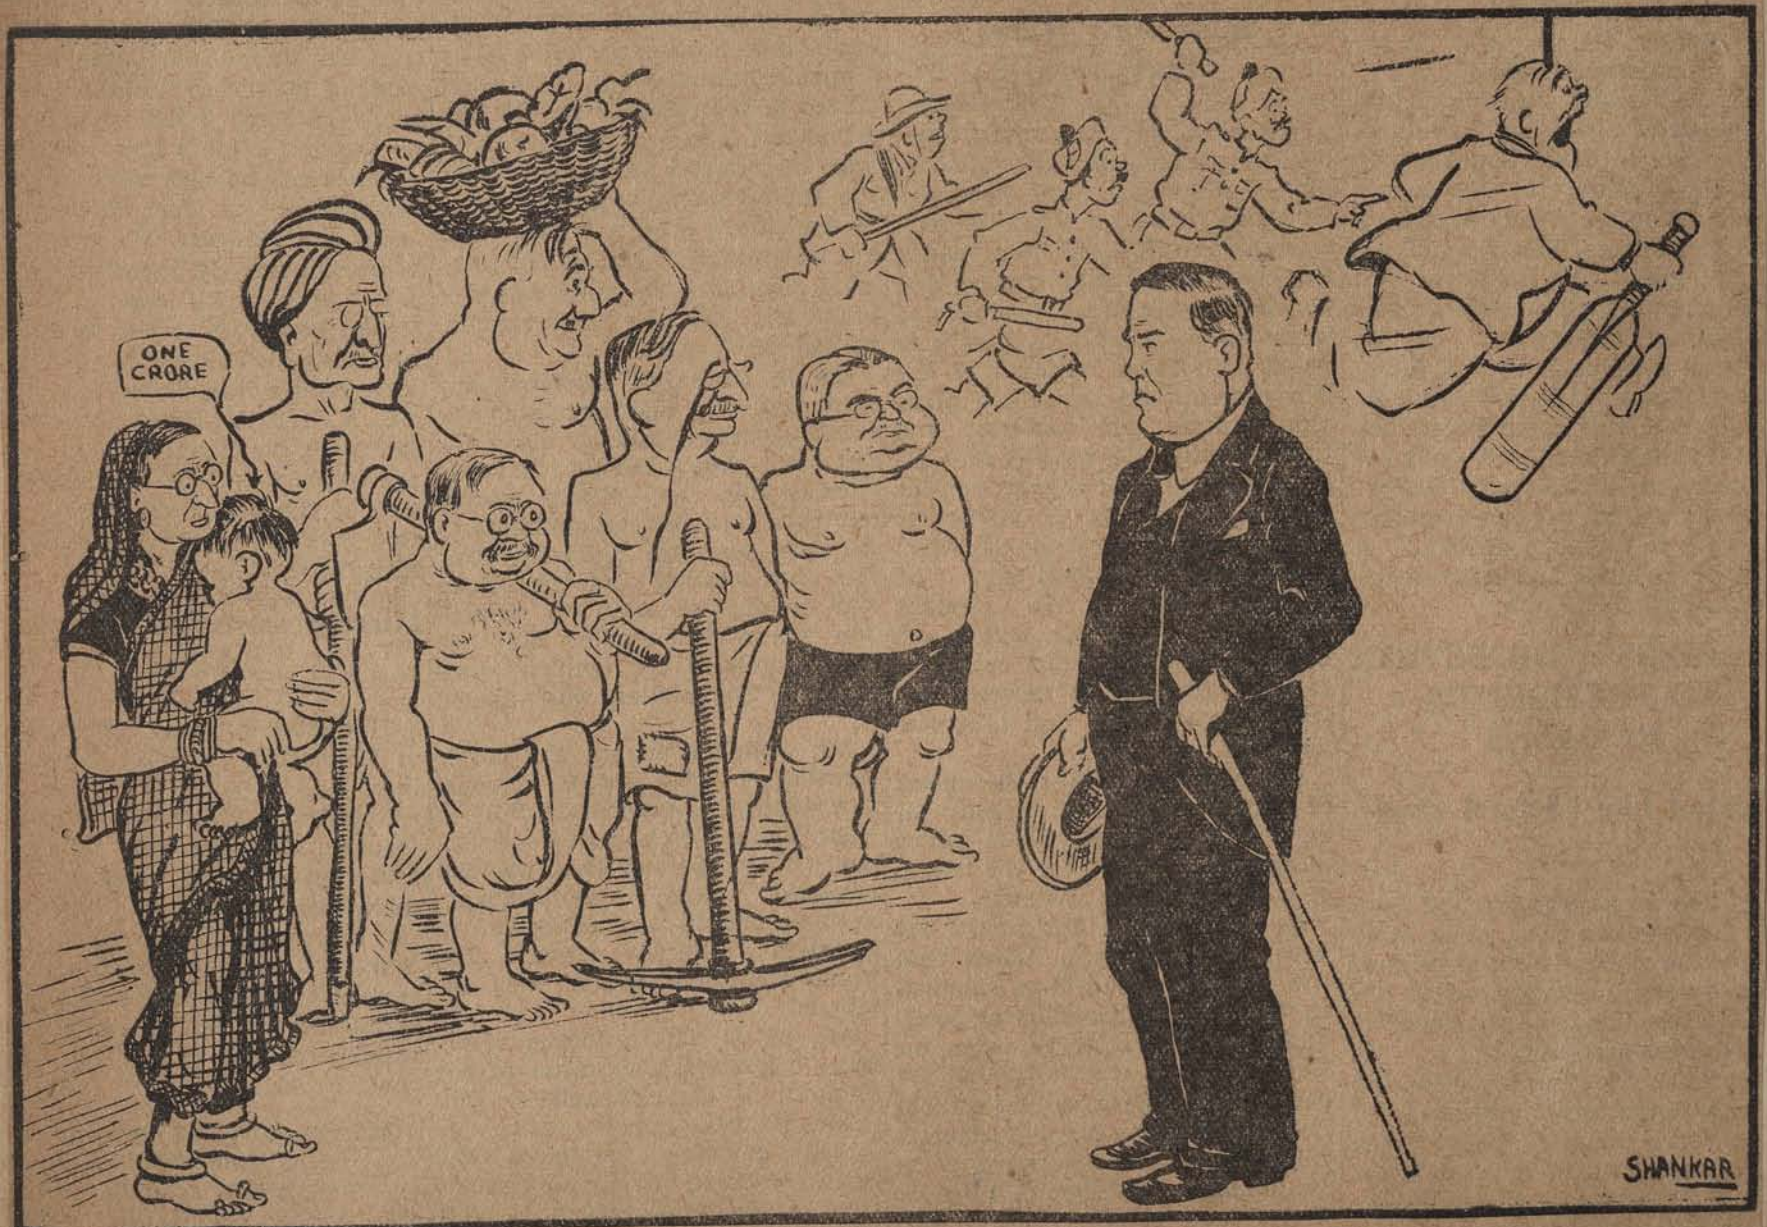

The Census Report says: "Order No. 49, Letters, Arts and Sciences also shows a decrease (—19,000). This is a heterogeneous order including as it does, Artists, Scientists, Witches, Astrologers, Economists, Journalists and public scribes."

ATMOSPHERICS

"Simla monkeys do their bit towards contributing to the atmospherics of which owners of wire less sets complain so much, reports the Statesman."

A BUCOLIC HOPE

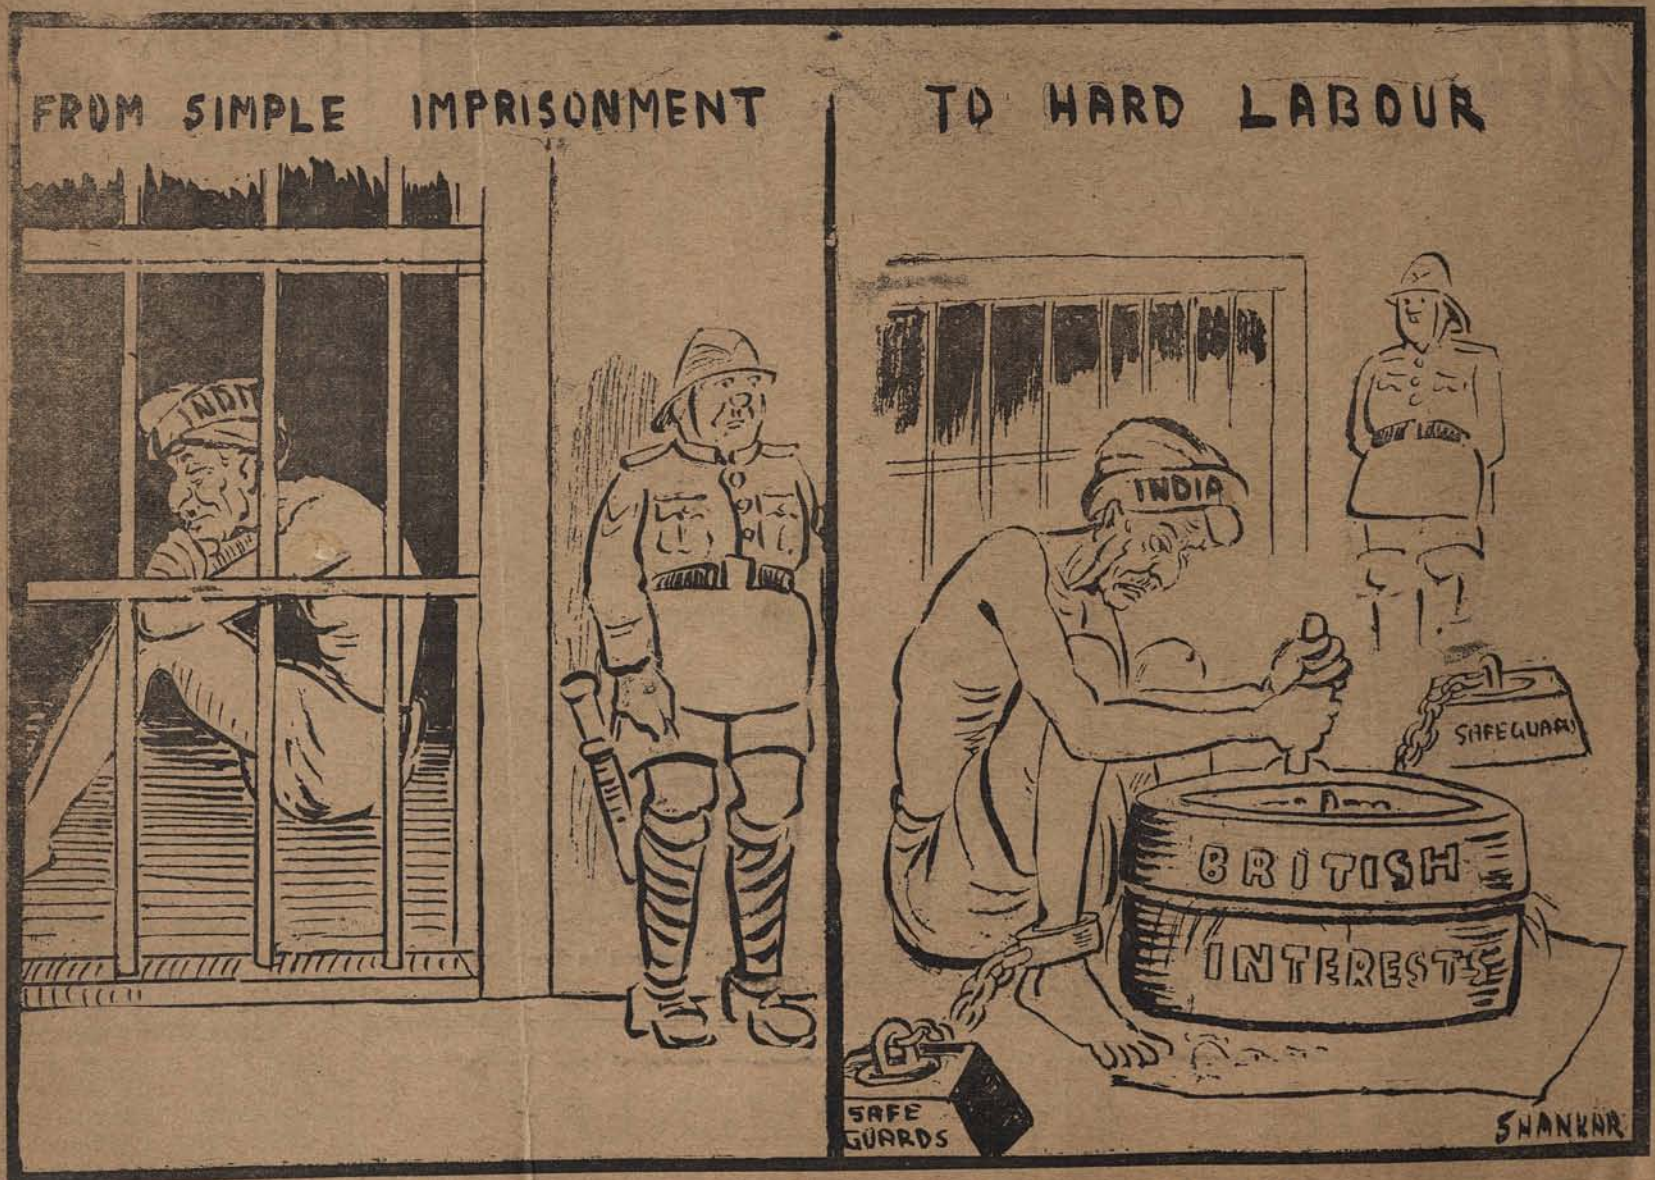

Forecasting what would happen at the arrival of Lord Linlithgow, the "Statesman" said:—"A novel touch at the Gateway will be the presence of a party of mofussil cultivators who will be inspected by the Marquess."

Describing conditions in the Delhi Civil Hospital, Col. Paton is said to have remarked recently that "the relatives of a patient are more of a problem than the patient himself." "Shanker" who has had hospital experience also admits this.

"SELF GOVERNMENT" IN ACTION

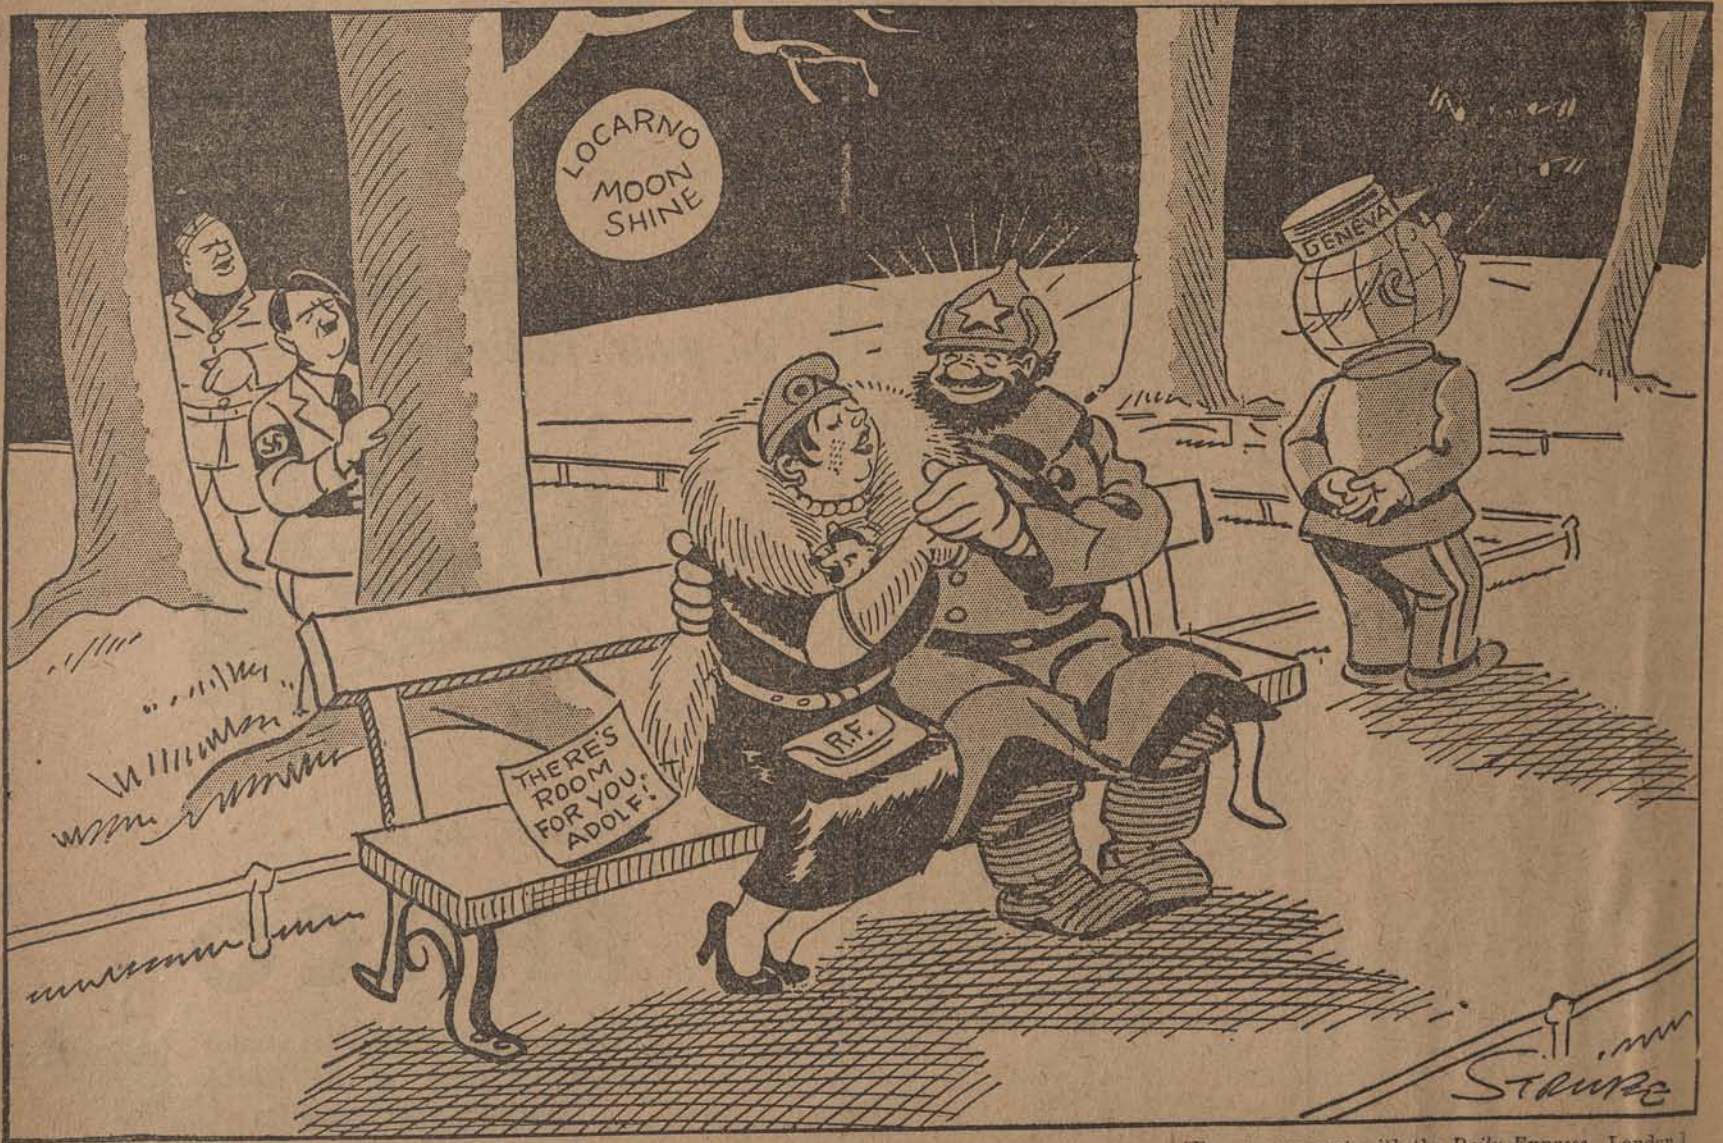

That "safeguards" imply freedom is a favourite theory of high officials.

MARCH TO DEMILITARIZED ZONE

“Evolving a militant programme of action” is the latest formula of the Working Committee. Scene given above is after the Rhineland pattern.

For a million years, at least, men have lived on this earth, struggling up from deepest barbarism. All through the years the citadel of man has been attacked by the battering ram of Time, Discontent, Suffering.

But all these attacks the human race has withstood.

Three towers of strength, SELF-PRESERVATION, AMBITION, PATER-NITY, have been man's protection.

Against the three great instincts implanted in man by Divine Providence, time works in vain.

The Sino-Japanese dispute in Caricature

What Is The Manchurian Question?

1. The 30,000,000 inhabitants of the Four Northeastern Provinces being exploited by the War Lords.
2. "Mutual Trust between Nations" being trampled under foot as if it were a mere sheet of paper.
3. The former War Magnates playing havoc with the 30,000,000 people of Manchuria.
4. Papers of the Sino-Japanese Negotiations piled up still unsettled.
5. The dynamiting of the South Manchuria Railway, the butchering of Koreans at Wanpaoshan, the illegal shooting of Major Nakamura none of these should be allowed to go unpunished.
6. After the Russo-Japanese war, Japan was patient with China for twenty years, turning the left cheek after being smitten on the right, but this Japanese patience for the sake of peace was sorely abused. Japan at last broke the string that held shut the mouth of the patience bag.
7. After the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese dispute, the new Manchurian State was born under the banner of the Open Door and Equal Opportunity, backed with Mutual Trust between Nations.
8. Lincoln emancipated three million slaves, but the foundation of the Manchu State has set free thirty million people from the yoke of the War Lords.

THE NEW-DEAL QUINTUPLETS ARE DOING NICELY

He Asked for Bread

Copyright, 1933, by
The Chicago Herald and Examiner.

With the employers and wage earners of the nation putting forth their best efforts to bring about national recovery there is one class of citizens that awakens slowly to the spirit of the times.

The politicians still regard taxation as an inexhaustible resource. If this sort of thing continues the public will lose its taste for politicians.

The people want their taxes simplified so that they will not have to pay at every turn. The politicians invent more complicated taxes, hoping that they will not be recognized as taxes.

The income tax is a creation of politicians. It lacks the fundamental principle of fair taxation which considers ability to pay. The Morgans escape and the hard-working citizens pay.

The politicians will have to turn their attention to economy in government instead of hunting out new forms of taxation if they are to survive under the "new deal."

The Winning Hand

Copyright, 1933, by
The Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Crime flourishes in America because we lack a centralized and efficient system of crime detection.

The anti-racketeering committee of the Federal Bar Association proposes drastic changes to remedy this great defect.

In a report prepared by its vice chairman, Franklin P. Russell, professor of law at Brooklyn Law School, the committee indorses the idea of an American "Scotland Yard" to proceed against law breakers.

In addition, the committee would amend the federal Constitution so as to give the national government concurrent jurisdiction with the states over homicide, kidnaping, racketeering, coercion, extortion and assault.

In support of these reforms in the execution of the criminal law the Bar Association committee says:

"There are many serious handicaps to the administration of justice in a state.

"The police officers, prosecuting attorneys and in some cases the judges (particularly of the lower judiciary), are frequently susceptible to influence of one sort or another.

"Probably few will dispute the statement that the criminal classes are much more afraid of the federal government than they are of the state authorities."

Coming from such a group this is an arraignment of our faulty legal system that government and the public must heed.

Organized crime must be crushed out of existence.

The commercial future of the United States is primarily in the Western Hemisphere.

At last we have an enlightened administration in Washington which is able not only to perceive this truth but to act upon it with intelligence and energy.

President Roosevelt is reported to have advised Secretary of State Hull to "lay off" his World Economic Conference obsessions and direct his energies to the subject of new trade alliances with Latin America.

It is gratifying to learn that substantial progress has already been made in the preparation of data necessary for formal negotiations with three South American countries.

Brain Trust Democracy

Copyright, 1935, by American Newspapers, Inc

One day last month Representative Pehr G. Holmes, of Massachusetts, made a speech on American Government as it operates at Washington at present. He said:

"I submit that the present course of our Federal Government strikes at the very foundation of our American creed of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"If the present course is followed to its conclusion, we will substitute for representative government a dictatorial bureaucracy regulating our every day lives."

Including the shreds of the late NRA, the Government does present many "angles" that would have made Thomas Jefferson stare and gasp.

And, in point of fact, as good a principle as any is Back to Jeffersonian Democracy!

THE Prince of Wales and the Infanta are then betrothed at the ages of two and thirty-eight, respectively, and the King of England proceeds to France under a Cloth of Gold and asks that France be handed over to him, as stipulated in the dowry.

"What dowry?" asks the King of France, from beneath his Cloth of Gold.

England tells him what dowry.

"Well, he's certainly a fine one," laughs France, referring to the King of Spain. "Just yesterday he and I signed a contract for a marriage between my Dauphin and his other daughter, and he promised me a dowry of ten million florins and England."

"He did! Well, this is awkward. I can't give up England at the moment."

"Nor I France," says France. "What'll we do?"

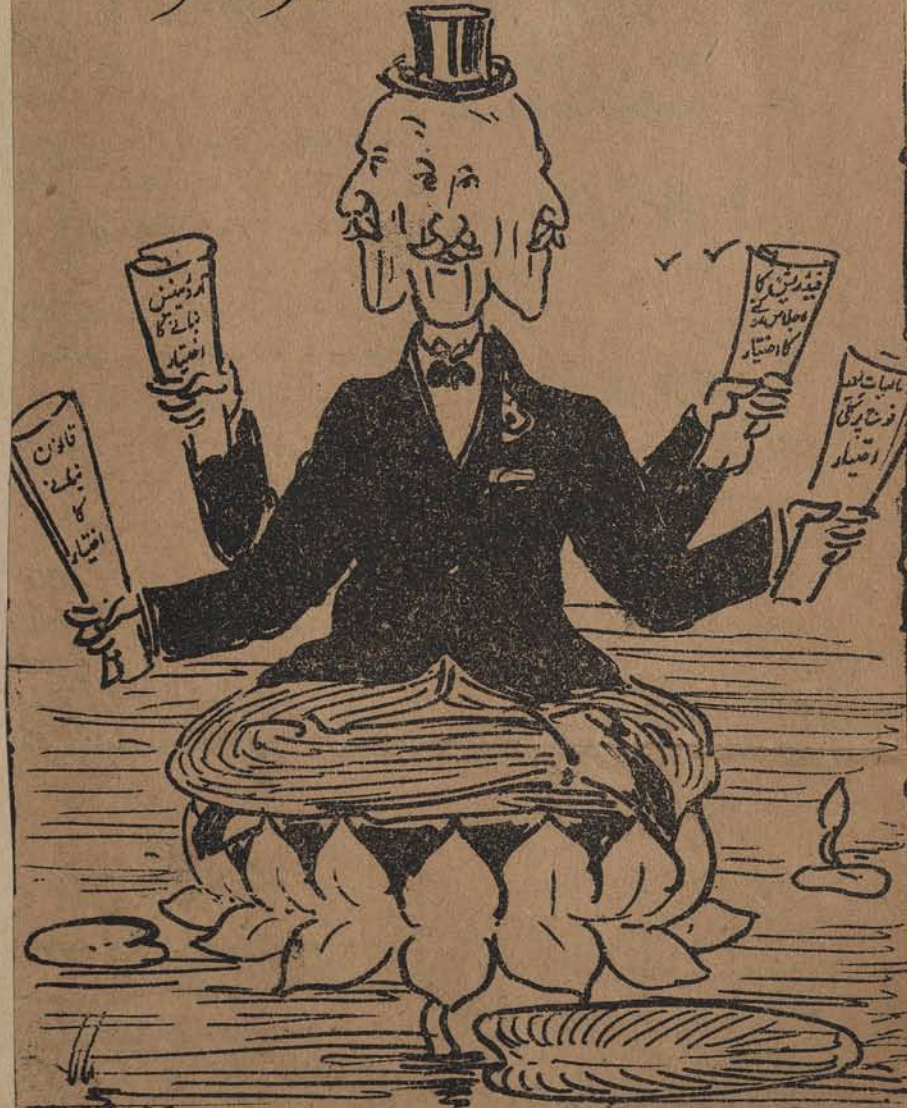

"I tell you," says the King of England, struck by an idea. "You take Spain instead of England with your dowry and instead of taking France I'll take Italy."

"I've got Italy," says France, "got her with a dowry two years ago."

"Then I'll take—let's see—I'll take—the Holy Roman Empire."

"Done and done," says France. "And I think you're wise. It's a nice empire. Roomy, well-ventilated and cool. You're going to like it."

“ How much will you give me not to kick your pants for, say, another twenty-five years?”

(March 13, 1936)

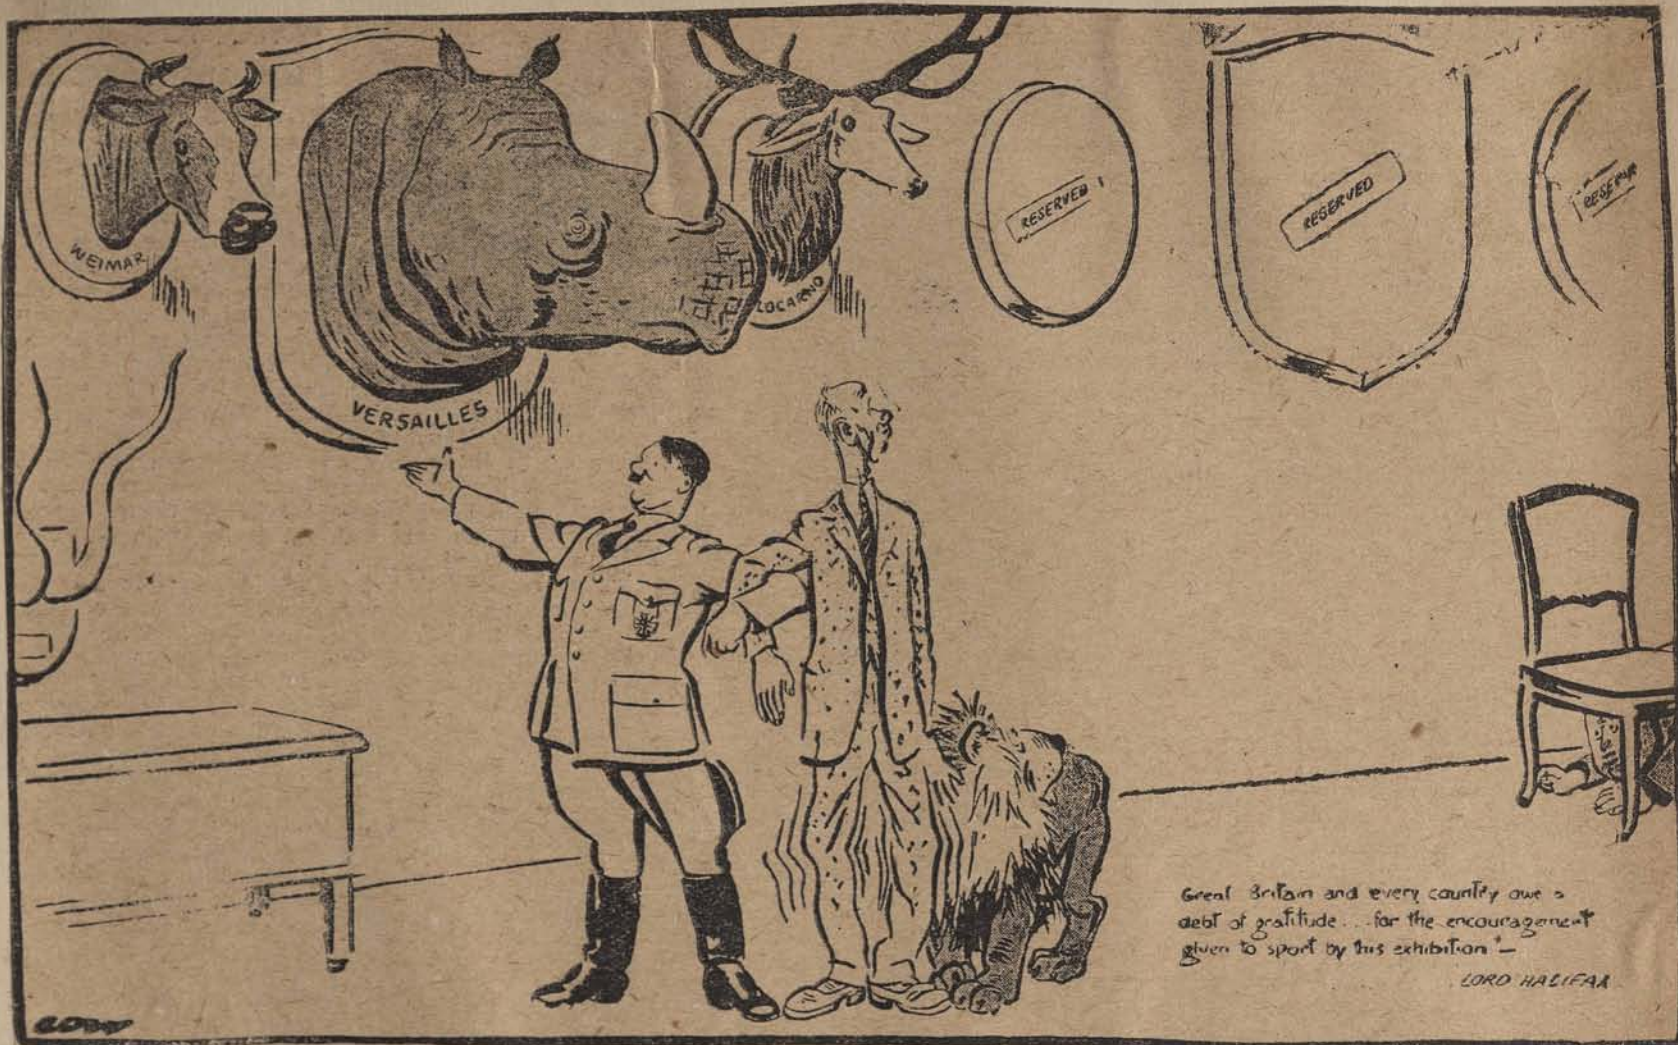

On March 7, 1936, German troops reoccupied the Rhineland. On March 12, Herr Hitler, in announcing that he proposed to remilitarise it, said that this was the prelude to 25 years' peace in Europe, provided that Great Britain and France would engage in "frank negotiations". In the same speech he announced that he had no intention of attacking Czechoslovakia or Poland.

June 21, 1937

“You’ve got to admit I’m bringing peace to the poor suffering Basques.”

In April, 1937, the Basque town of Guernica was destroyed by German bombing aircraft. In June, the resistance of the Basques was broken with the fall of Bilbao, which was also heavily bombed.

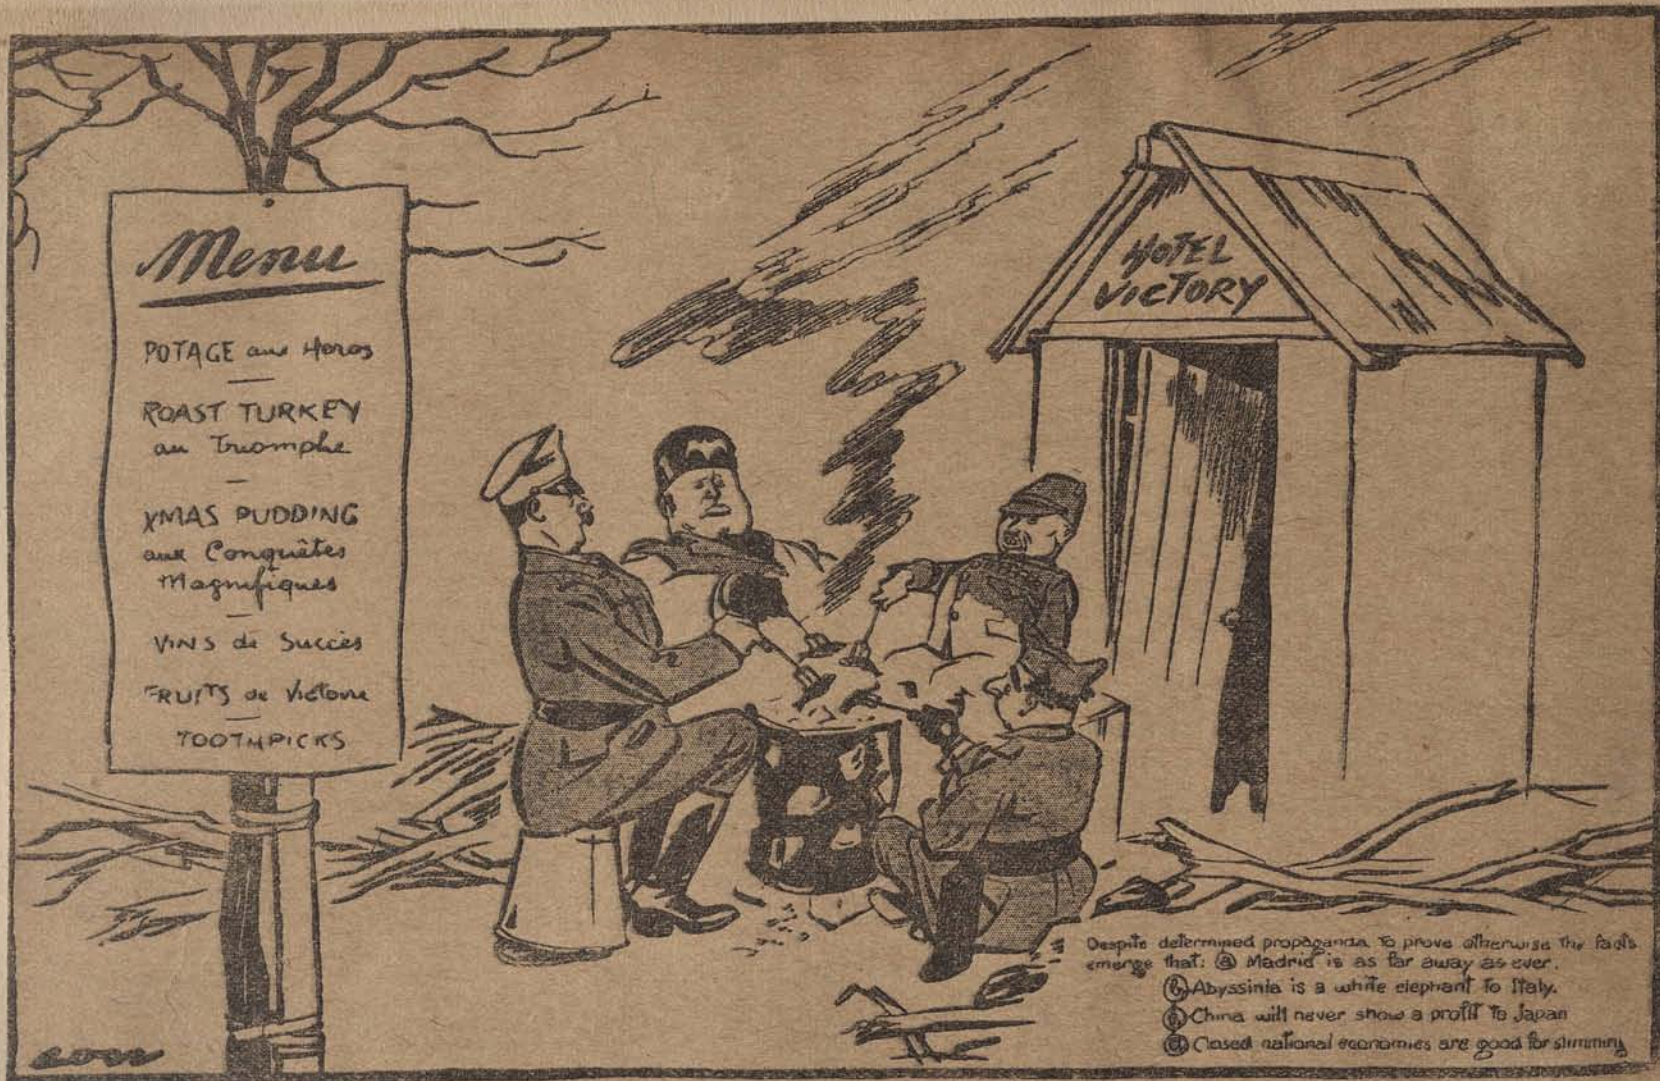

Great Britain and every country owe a debt of gratitude... for the encouragement given to sport by this exhibition -

LORD HALIFAX

November 19, 1937

Nazi Hunting Exhibition

In November 1937, Lord Halifax visited the International Game Exhibition in Berlin. In a statement issued by him on the occasion, he said: "The value of the Exhibition is not purely sporting; from the international point of view it cannot but be of great value in these days to remind sportsmen the world over of all the things they have in common with one another."

December 25, 1937

Celebration Dinner

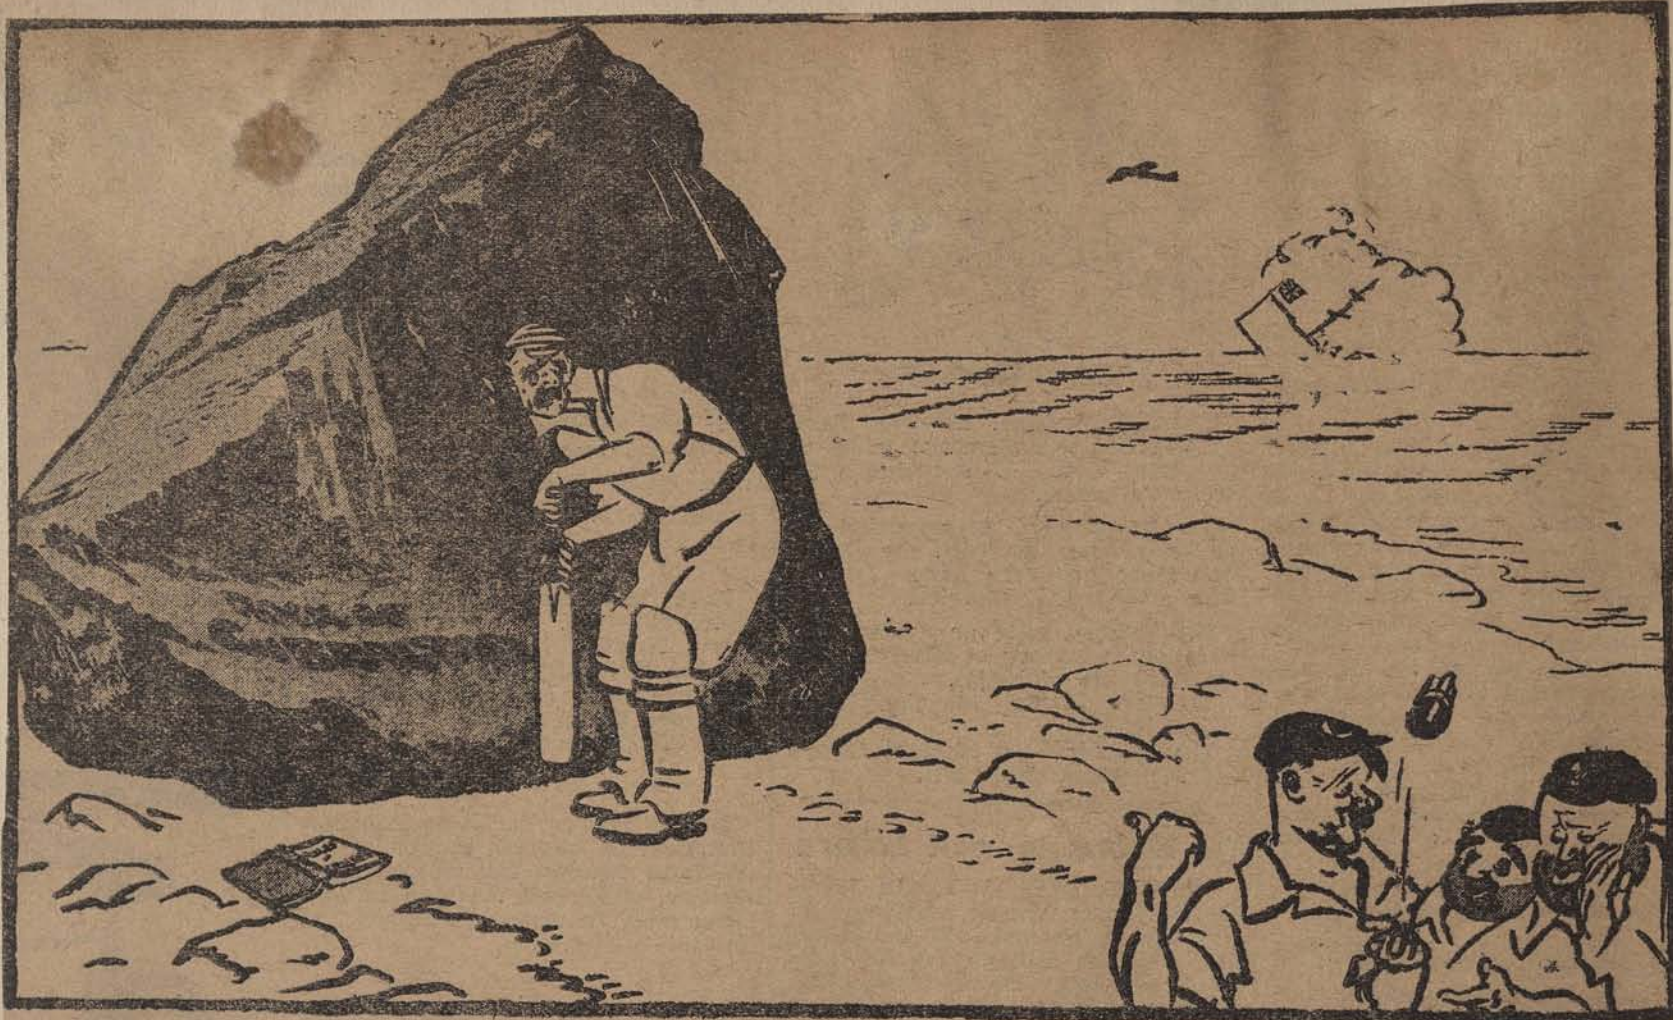

For Christmas, 1937, Low suggested that the victories of the Axis Powers, (and General Franco), were likely to bear only barren fruit. On a short view, he seemed to be proved wrong in 1938; on a long view, he may well be right.

February 23, 1938

“Though every prospect pleases” (?)

On February 12, 1938, a meeting took place at Berchtesgaden between Herr Hitler and Dr. von Schuschnigg, the Austrian Chancellor, where the latter was coerced into accepting a new Cabinet making Austria a vassal of Germany, thus bringing Germany on the border of Italy. Hitler annexed Austria one month later.

June 16, 1938

Test match

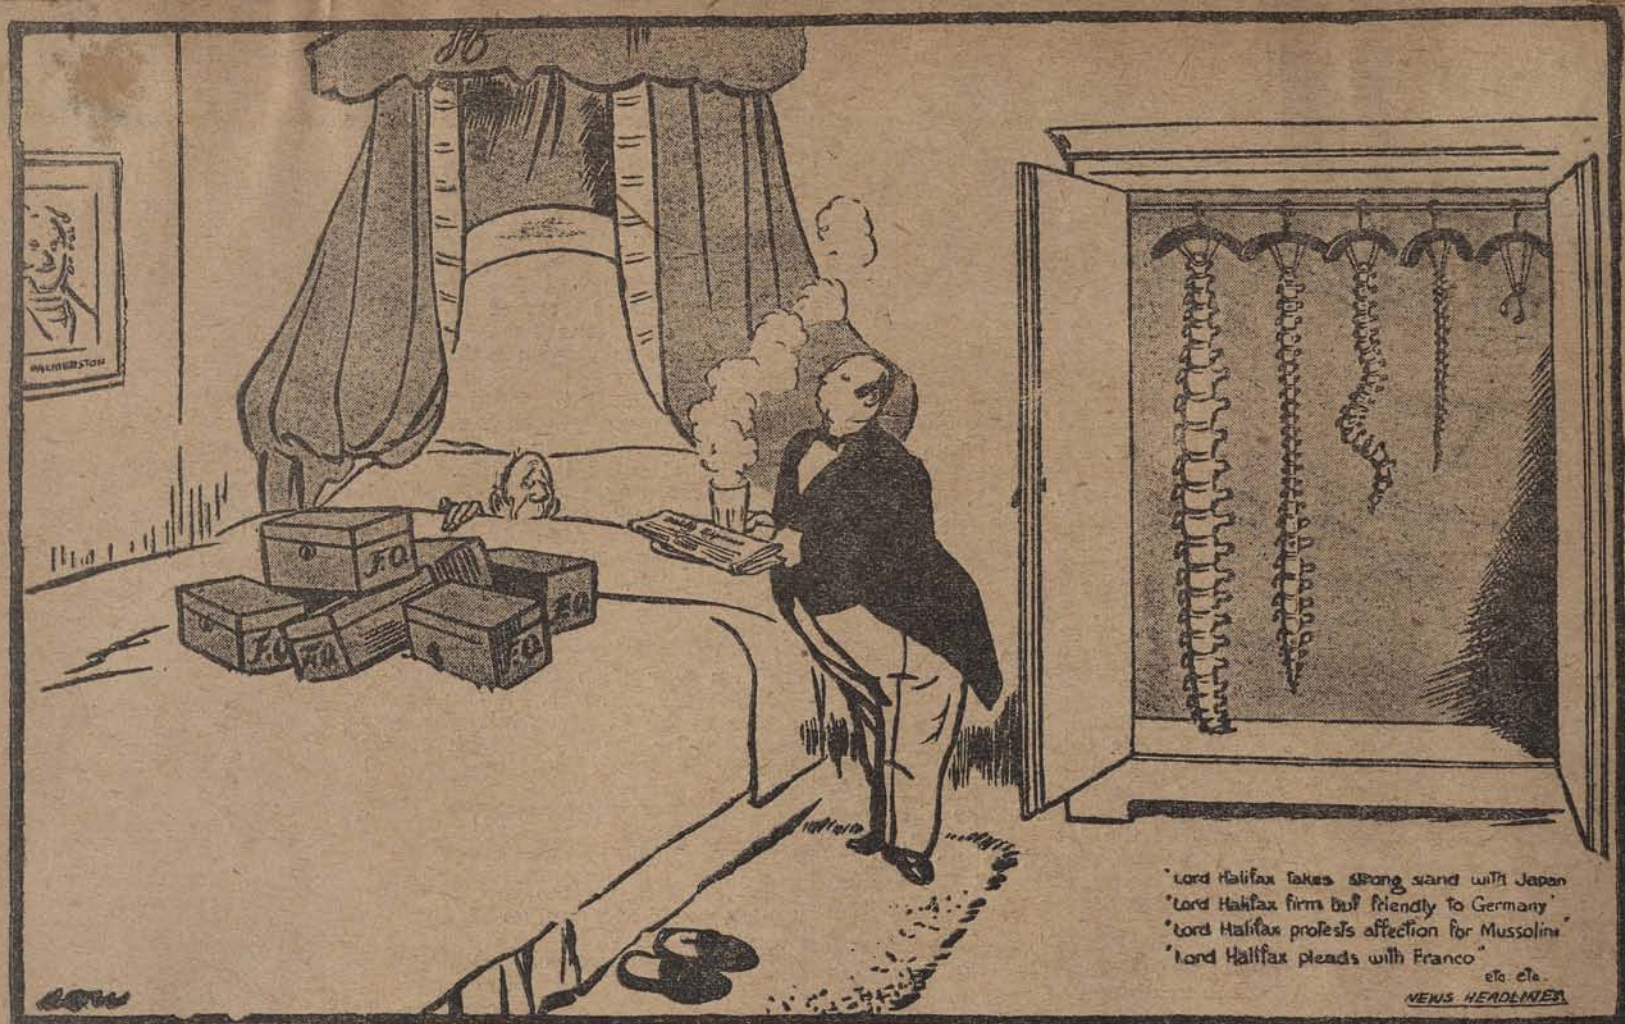

On June 14, 1938, the first test match of the season between England and Australia ended in a draw. On the same day, Mr. Chamberlain made a "rules-of-the-game" statement in Parliament on the British Government's attitude to the recent bombing of British ships in Spanish ports. The Premier said that unless Britain was prepared to depart from the policy of non-intervention, effective protection could not be guaranteed to ships trading with ports in the war zone.

July 28, 1938

What's Czechoslovakia to me, anyway?

A survey of the Czechoslovak situation was made by Mr. Chamberlain in a House of Commons debate on July 26, 1938. After announcing that Lord Runciman had been asked and had agreed to act as an investigator and mediator, the Premier said that the proposal would not necessarily bring a solution of the problem, but "it would go far to inform public opinion generally of the real facts of the case".

"Lord Halifax takes strong stand with Japan"
 "Lord Halifax firm but friendly to Germany"
 "Lord Halifax protests affection for Mussolini"
 "Lord Halifax pleads with Franco"
 etc. etc.
