

 mimy for heik in

Prom an Original in the Bodleian Library

INSTITUTES

POLITICALAND MILITARY,

WRITTEN ORIGINALEY

IN THE MOGUL LANGUAGE,

BY THE GREAT

TIMOUR, IMPROPERLY CALLED TAMERLANE;

Firft tranflated into Persian by Abu Taulib Alhusseini; and thence into English, with Marginal Notes,

$$
B \Psi \quad M A J O R \quad D \text { A } V Y
$$

PERSIAN SECRETARY TO THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE BENGAL FORCES
From the Year mdcclex to m dec lxxini. AND NOW PERSIAN SECR, TO the GOYERNOR GENERAL OF bengal.

The Original Persian tranfribed from a MS, in the Poffeffion of Dr. William Hunter, Physician Extraordinary to the Queen, F.R. & A.S. and of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Paris; and the Whole Work publifhed with a Preface, Indexes, Geographical Notes, &cc. & c.
BY JOSEPH WHITE, B. D.

Frllow of Wadham College, and Laudian Professor of Arabic in the University of Oxford.

$$
O X F O R D: \quad 188306 .
$$

AT THE CLARENDON-PRESS. MDCC LXXXIII. SOLD EY J. MURRAY, No. 32 Flectfrect, London ; AND EX D. PRINCE and J. COOKE, Oxford.

WILLIAM DEVAYNES, Es@

C HA I R M A N,

$$
\begin{gathered}
\text { AND THE OTHER DIRECTORS } \\
\text { OFTHE } \end{gathered}
$$

HONOURABLETHE EAST INDIA COMPANY

$$
\text { IN THE YEAR } 1780 \text {; }
$$

THIS WORK,

WHICH THEIR MUNIFICENCE

HAS CAUSED TO BE PUBLISHED,

FOR THE INSTRUCTION OF THE COMPANY'S SERVANTS

IN THE LANGUAGE OF THEIR SETTLEMENTS IN THE EAST,

IS WITH MUCH RESPECT AND GRATITUDE INSCRIBED
B Y

> W. DAVY AND J. WHITE.

$\times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times 0 \times \times \times \infty \times \infty \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times$

PREFACE.

T${ }^{4}$ HE illuftrious Name of TIMOUR was firft made known to Europe by tradition : and his, heroic actions are ftill celebrated by many who have never feen the hiftory written by Ali Yezdi, nor perufed the accounts of D'Herbelot and Voltaire. I am therefore happily unencumbered with the embarrafiments of an author who labours to combat general prejudices, or to introduce a new character to the world.

THE life of this great conqueror was written, in obedience to the command of his grandfon, by Ali Yezdi, a native of Perfia. That work, which has been tranflated into French by Petis de la Croix (and from his tranflation into Englifh) is valuable, not fo much for the flowery phrafes with which it abounds, as for the authenticity of its materials: it was collected from the journals regularly kept by the Emperor's fecretaries, in which were recorded every event and tranfaction of his reign.

In the thirty fixth year after the death of TimOUR, his life was again written, in Arabic, by Ahmed Ibn Arabfhah, a Syrian. That author poffeffed, like the former, a lively and defcriptive pen: but what he gains in elegance, he lofes in truth and candour; for in every page of his work may be difcerned the hatred of a conquered enemy, and thofe national prejudices which are difgraceful to an hiftorian.

Other hiftories of Timour's life and actions have been written, and fome of them are now preferved in European cabinets. One of them which has eclipfed the reft, and which alone deferves to be the object of our particular notice, was written under the conqueror's infpection, if not by his own hand. The fuperior value of this hiftory is at once perceived: for it was drawn not only from thofe authentic fources to which Ali Yezdi found accefs, but alfo from a perfonal recollection of thofe tranfactions whofe motives and objects were perhaps known only to himfelf. It has not yet found its way into Europe: but I have been informed by Mr. Davy, who has read it in the Eaft, that it is a minute and faithful narrative of an interefting and eventful period. I therefore hope my friend, who will fpare no fearch or expence to procure it, will bring it with him when he returns from his public fation abroad, and tranflate for the information and entertainment of his country, a larger and more certain account of TIMOUR's conquefts than we now poffefs. To this hiftory, fome who have no other wifh than to leffen its eftimation, have objected, that it muft certainly be partial, and that its imperial author muft have ftudioully concealed his vices from the reader's eye, and reflected upon his virtues more light than they will bear. But thefe harfh opinions can be pronounced or credited by thofe only who are unacquainted with his writings, and the praife which his enemies have given him, that he was a lover of veraciy, who hated, detected, and punifhed falfehood, with fincerity, penetration and conftancy. That he might purfue his great objects by the light of truth, he made ufe of every friend and every foe: and in his Inftitutes he does not blufh to acknowledge his errors and miffortunes, but glories that he has profited by them. Ambition, the infirmity of noble minds, was perhaps his only fault. The defire of conqueft is a principle which the liberty of modern times has juftly reprobated. But Timour's conquefts were in a great meafure produced by other caufes; by the manners of the age and country in which he lived, and by the treachery of kings, who whilft they envied his greatnefs, profefled themfelves his friends. It is needlefs to fpeak of his valour; for who has not heard of his fuccefsful wars, his perfeverance and refolution in diftrefs, and his ferene and temperate conduct after victory? That he poffeffed the humane and liberal virtues cannot be doubted, when we read that he forbore to take revenge when it could not interfere with his intereft, and that he extended the rights of fubjects and citizens to nations who were willing to be flaves. When he had feen his vaft empire rifing, like the infant world, out of anarchy under his victorious hands, he difpenfed order through every part of the dominion he had created, and governed it with wifdom, juftice and benevolence. There is therefore lefs reafon to blame his ambition, than to admire the amiable moderation by which it was reftrained.

P R E F A C E., vii

If the reader of this preface has not peruled any hiftory of Timouk's actions, he will think thefe praifes laboured, perhaps will call them extravagant; if he has, he will confider them as the free tribute which honef admiration and a feeling heart pays to the virtues of an exalted character. There is, however, another reafon which has induced me to fpeak fo largely in this place of Timour's character, and of the Hiftory written by himfelf: for from that Hiftory he felected thofe Defigns and Inftitutes which I have the honour of prefenting in this volume to the public.

There is ever a folemnity and a kind of facred authority in the inftructions which a dying parent delivers to his offspring. When the Lord of the Eaft laid down his fceptre, which he had long and well fupported, he did not leave to his fucceffor a verbal injunction, a fhort leffon of morality, which might foon be forgotten amidft the cares and pleafures of a court ; but beftowed with his empire a gift more valuable, the art to preferve it. In the leifure of his declining years, he had thrown a retrofpective eye over the fcenes of a long and various life, and thence he committed to writing for the perpetual infruction of his imperial defcendants, thofe rules of government and thofe meafures of policy which himfelf had invariably followed : and from his Hifory he collected, without regard to chronological order, the feveral plans he had formed, and their fuccefs. To thefe he added his Omens, which are omitted in this publication, becaufe, however confiftent they might have been, when they were written, with the manners and religion of the Eaft, and whatever political purpofes they might then have tended to promote, the prefent age wifely difregards fuch fuperftitions.

The MS. of which I now prefent a tranflation to the public, is to be found in that ineftimable repofitory of literary treafures, Dr. Wiliiam Hunter's Mufeum. *

* This Mufeum is univerfally known as one of the moft auguft monuments of a love of fcience now exifting in the world, and is become much too illuftrious an object of curiofity not to merit a more exact defcription than has yet been given of it to the public. My reader therefore will, I am perfuaded, readily forgive me, if I embrace this opportunity of acquainting him in a more detailed manner, with the great extent and variety of thofe obligations which its generous poffeffor has already conferred, and is likely to confer in a ftill higher degree upon the learned world.

In faying that the Mufeum ftands unrivalled in the number, ufefulnefs, and neatnefs of the ANATOMICAL PREPARATIONS, I fay no no more than what every perfon is prepared to expect. No man could approach Dr. Hunter's Mufeum without a conviction that no exertion of art, no expence would be wanting to illuftrate and embellifh a fcience which his own ftudies have carried to a degree of excellence, that has made our Metropolis the firft fchool of anatomy in the world.

The collection of medals acquired at an immenfe expence, defies the competition of any Royal Cabinet in Europe, that of his moft Chriftian Majefty only excepted. The latter, which before the eftablifhment of Dr. Hunter's was without a rival, can hardly claim a decided fuperiority; in many refpects is confeffedly its inferior. The Doctor, who is not more diftinguifhed by his poffeffion than by his knowledge of thefe treafures, is at prefent employed, with the learned and ingenious Mr. Combe, in publifing a part of them in three divifions; one containing the Greek cities, another the Perfian, Phenician, Samaritan, Palmyrene, Punic &c. and the third the Greek Kings.

OF this MS. I publifhed in 1780 a tranflated Specimen. The attention with which that experiment of the public favour and opinion was received, gave birth to the prefent work,

The work will be executed not only with elegance and fplendor, but with a degree of accuracy and fidelity totally unufual in poblications of this fort.

The Library comprehends moft of the early printed books of the xv . century, the rare editions of the claffics, the expenfive works of natural hiftory, of general hiftory, and antiquities ; and particularly all the curious and valuable books in medicine. And in addition to this collection of printed books, there is a confiderable collection of MSS. in all the languages that are cultivated by men of erudition.

The collection of natural history is enriched with fpecimens of the moft beautiful productions in every clafs. The clafs of fossils, and likewife that of corals, and of Birds poffefs many feecimens that are peculiar to this cabinet. The clafs of sheles is ample and elegant; the fame character is applicable to that of insects. And there is a numerous catalogue of mifcellaneous curiofities not reducible to any particular arrangement.

This Mufeum, thus fplendidly and fcientifically eftablifhed, has been the laborious and expenfive acquifition of a Gentleman, to whofe love of fience the academies of our own and other countries have borne the moft honourable teftimonies.

The public muft be anxious to know the final deftination of fuch treafures; it is largely interefted in their fate, and would have abundant reafon to lament their difperfion. But, happily for the world, their proprietor is actuated by much higher motives than thofe of mere perfonal gratification; a felfifh, folitary love of letters was not the primary inducement that influenced his mind; and in proportion as his treafures become more important, he feels more ftrongly the obligation of devoting them to the ufe of the public. Such an act of munificence, as, I hear, He intends to perform in bequeathing his collection to the which I immediately determined to execute. As I proceeded in the tranflation, I found difficulties in the fequel, which had not occurred in the fpecimen: and I obferved in the courfe of the work fo many terms of the Military Art, which my ftudies had never led me to examine, and fo many idioms of the Tartar Language which no lexicon in Europe has explained, that I chofe to decline the firft honours of the prefent publication, and defired to devolve the whole tafk of tranflation on Mr. Davy. His knowledge of that art and language pointed him out as one peculiarly qualified to undertake it ; and his ready compliance with my requeft has added an obligation of a public nature to many inftances of private friendinip. The tranflation was fortunately completed, when Mr. Davy was called to India by an honourable appointment under Lord Macartney. The fubordinate duties of an Editor, therefore, reverted to me: and I hope that by my accuracy in fuperintending the impreffion of the Original, and my diligence in compiling the Indexes, I fhall give fatisfaction to my friendly affociate as well as to the public. That I may not however lofe any affiftance which a colleague fo ingenious and intelligent can contribute, I have fubjoined to this preface a Letter on the Authenticity of the Inftitutes, with public, is all that is wanting to perpetuate the gratitude of the learned world, and to place the name of Hunter on a footing of equality, in the eftimation of future ages, with the Sloanes, the Maffeis, and other illuftrious benefactors of mankind.

Is was to the Doctor's library that this publication was indebted for the original MS; and it was fill further affifted by a donation of three plates, and a very liberal encouragement of fubfcription.

xii  PREFA C.

which I was favoured in anfwer to my earneft requeft, and which has received the praife and affent of all who have read it.

This is all, concerning the Author and the Edition, that I think neceffary to be obferved to the general readers of TrMOUR's Inftitutes; a work, which if I am not mifled by the prepoffeffions of an editor, will be efteemed curious and vaIuable by men of various profeffions. The fcholar is ever delighted with a larger knowledge of illuftrious characters, with their remains refcued from long oblivion, and all that tends to throw additional light on the hiftory of mankind. He who ftudies and profeffes the military art, will furvey with pleafure modes of marhalling and encamping armies, and the ftratagems of a great conqueror, judicioufly and fuccefsfully formed, though different from his own. The politician muft be interefted in the perufal of meafures, by which diftant nations were united under the fame government, and which baffled all the dangerous intrigues of powerful courts and defigning men.

But the mof immediate and evident advantage that can be derived from the prefent publication, remains yet to be told. The fuperiority which a knowledge of the Perfian language confers on its poffeflors in our Eaft India fettlements is allowed by all whofe civil or military ftations have obliged them to refide in thofe countries. To thofe readers who have not received this perfonal conviction, I recommend an attentive confideration of Mr . Davy's letter upon the fubject, which I have added for their perufal at the end of this volume, and by which every doubt that remains will be removed. To facilitate the attainment of this beautiful language, a Dictionary, and a Grammar, have been publifhed by two Gentlemen, whom I have the honour to call my friends. The firft of thefe performances is diftinguifhed by immenfe labour and accuracy, the other by that propriety of arrangement which is peculiar to an elegant mind. But a language is neither learnt nor ftudied in a grammar or a dictionary. It can only be acquired by the help of books, or oral converfe : and it has often been lamented by gentlemen intending to enter into the company's fervice abroad, and therefore defirous of learning the Perfian language, that in England where it cannot be acquired by colloquial methods of inftruction, the fecondary advantages of printed Perfian volumes fhould be wanting.

That this deficiency may no longer be the occafion of difficulties and a reafon of complaint, the Inflitutes of Timour are now publifhed in a faithful Englifh verfion, and the Perfian from which it is tranflated. Nothing can be more happily calculated for the purpofe of teaching a language than a work like the prefent, abounding with that fimple grandeur which is peculiar to Eaftern compofitions, and which has been so often admired in the fcriptures of the Hebrew teftament.

Gratitude will not fuffer me to conclude thefe prefatory remarks, withoutexpreffing acknowledgements to C.W.BoU GHton Rouse, Efq; for favours which he has conferred with a friendly politenefs on the work and its editor; for the ufe of a valuable Perfian MS. which containing a confiderable portion of the original work, has enabled me to collate and correct many faulty paffages; and for the communication of feveral curious Perfian papers, by the help of which my pupils in that language have derived fuch advantages from my lectures as could not be fupplied by the fingle affiftance of the printed volume.

I also defire the fame ingenious Gentleman to accept my public thanks for the tranflation of the Brahminic Prayer, * with which he has favoured me, and which, in compliance

[^0]with my wifhes he has given me permiffion to publifh. I have therefore inferted it, annexed to the fpecimen of Eufoof and Zoolleikba, in the prefent publication : not merely for the fake of that beauty of thought and expreffion, of which there is much in both to be admired; but becaufe, like the work of Timour, it ferves to prove that a knowledge of the Perfian difplays to the European fcholar not only whatever is valuable in its native compofitions, but alfo the yet undifcovered treafures of the Shanfcrit, the Mogul, and other remote languages of the Eaft.

Wadh. Colz.

Oct. $15 \cdot 1782$.
J. White.

The knowledge of the particulars contained in this note I owe to my converfations on the fubject with Mr. Rouse, from whofe general acquaintance with the literature of India I have derived much curious and ufeful information.

Mr. Davy's Letter on the Authenticity of the Inftitutes.

Gloucefter, OEt. 24. 1779.

* My good Friend,

IHAVE received your favour of the 20th inftant, and wifh mof heartily that my ability to comply with your requeft was equal to my inclination.
"You apply to me for external evidence to eftablifh the Authenticity of Timour's Inftitutes : it is by nn meats an ealy tafk which you impofe on me; fuch reafons, however, as have led me to believe them genuine, I fhall freely communicate. How far they may tend to remove the doubts of unbelieving Critics, I cannot pretend to fay; poffibly, in the opinions of fuch Gentlemen, they may only ferve to eftablinh my own credulity: be that as it may, I fhall fet out with declaring to you, that I cannot produce any biforical proofs of the Authenticity of thefe Inftitutes.
"The only Hiftories of Timour, which I have read (that written by himfelf excepted,) are thofe of Sburruf u'deen All; Yezzudi and Mirkbond: the latter is in the Rouzut ul Suffau. True it is that neither of thefe authors, to the beft of my remembrance, take any notice of the Inftitutes, or of the Hiftory (or Commentaries) of Timour, faid to be written by himfelf. Alli $\Upsilon_{e z z u d i}$ fays, that Timour was always attended by feveral learned and able men, whofe fole employment was to keep a fort of hiftorical Journals of all Tranfactions as they occurred, both military and civil; that they were directed to adhere minutely to the truth in their relations of the moft trifling facts, and that they were ftill more particularly enjoined to obferve the fricteft impartiality in their narratives of the conduct and actions of the Emperor himfeif. Thefe hiftorical Journals, if they may be fo called, were, from time to time, read in his prefence, in the prefence of his Minifter, and Officers, and of the learned : they were compared with, and corrected by, each other, by the Emperor himfelf, and by fuch of his people as had a perfonal knowledge of the Tranfactions therein related. It muft be allowed, that this was no bad way of collecting authentic materials for the hiftory of a mighty Emperor, governing a mighty Empire ; if he took care to enforce his commands by proving himfelf fuperior to flattery, and by an encouragement of that truth and impartiality, which he fo ftrictly enjoined. From thefe materials, fome of which were in profe, fome in verfe, fome in the Turki (or Mogul) language. fome in the Perfian, Alli Yezzudi, afterwards compiled the Hiftn $\because y$ of the Reign and Conquefts of Timour, as he himfelf declares: and with the affiftance of thefe very materials, it is concluded that Timour wrote that voluminous and valuable Hiftory of his own Life, to which he added his Inftitutes. How it came to pafs that that Hiftory and thofe Inftitutes were not taken notice of either by Alli Yezzudi, or Mirkbond, it is impoffible, at this diftance of time, to tell ; but though the caufe cannot with certainty be pointed out, there is room for many plaufible conjectures. The hiftorical Journals before mentioned were numerous, and they were public alfo; the great and the learned had free accefs to them; many copies of them were taken, and, with the originals, handed down to pofterity : the Life of Timour, and his Inflitutes, on the contrary, was a private work, compofed by himfelf, with the affiftance which thofe materials afforded him. This work the Conqueror was led to engage in from motives to us unknown: amufement or ambition, or both, might urge him to the arduous undertaking. Whether it was written with his own hand, or by a favourite and trufty amanuenfis, is uncertain; but which ever was the cafe, it is moft probable, that one copy only exifted during his life-time, and poffibly for many years afterwards : what became of that copy, during the confufions that followed his death, is equally uncertain and open to conjecture. But after all, it is no unreafonable fuppofition, that fuch a we.k in manufript might have exifted, though Alli Yezzudi and Nikkbond knew nothing of the matter. That they were not acquaited with it, is evident: for if they had, and thought it authentic, they would have beftowed upon it all the applaufe which is due to the intrinfic merit of the work; if they had known and thought it fpurious, they would have refuted its authenticity. But they have done neither; they are totally filent on the fubject: from whence we may conclude, that they were ftrangers to the work. But it by no means follows, that fuch a work could not exift, becaufe they, or even cotemporary authors, knew nothing about it.
"The Hiftory of Timour, written by himfelf, carries with it the ftrongeft proofs that he wrote for pofterity only; and that he could not, in prudence, or in policy, make his work public during his life: for it contains not only the fame accurate detail of the Facts and Occurrences of his reign, as are found in other Authors, but it goes much further. He gives you that which he only had the power to give, the fecret Springs and Motives which influenced his conduct in the various political and military tranffactions of his life, the arts by which he governed, as well as the power by which he conquered. He acknowledges his weakneffefs, honeftly owns his errors, defcribes the difficulties in which he was occafionally involved by thofe errors, and the policy by which he furmounted and overcame thofe difficulties. In a word, it is a complete Index to his head and his heart ; and tho gh, take it all in all, it redounds to the honour of both the one and the other, yet it was a work by no means calculated for the perufal of his enemies, or even his fubjects during his life; fince it would have enabled thofe who chofe it, to combat him with his own weapons, or, in other words, to have turned his arts and his policy againft himfelf. Hence it is reafonable to fuppofe, that the Work in queftion was entirely unknown during his life; and its fubfequent temporary obfcurity may, I think, be plaufibly facoparted for, by the probability of one copy only exifting 2 the time of his death, by the uncertainty into whofe hapids that copy fell, and by the divifions which followed in his family after the death of Sbaabroch.
> "Abu Taulib ul Hufeini, in the Dedication of his Tranflation to Sultaun ul Audil, fays, that in the Library of Fafir, Haukim of Yemmun, he met with a manufcript in the Turki, or Mogul language, which, on infpection, proved to be the Hiftory of Timour, written by himfelf; containing an account of his Life and Actions from the feventh to the feventy-fourth year of his age, &&c. Dsci. Le then proceeds to give the Tranflation of the faid Hiftory, in which are included the Inftitutes.

"It may appear remarkable that the Tranflator fhould fay fo little, or in fact nothing, to prove the authenticity of the valuable work, which he was about to tranflate. It has an extraordinary appearance, I allow; but, I think, the following inferences only can be drawn from it : either that he thought the work itfelf contained fufficient proofs of its own authenticity, or that at the period when he tranflated it, it was fo well known, as not to admit of doubt, or difpute. For my part, I think his inattention to this point is a very ftrong, if not the ftrongeft poffible proof, that the Hiftory and Inflitutes of Timour are genuine.
"An European Critic may fay, that this fame Abu Taulib might have wrote the work himfelf in the Perfian language, and have impofed it upon the world as a Tranflation from the Royal Mogul author. This I take to be impofible. Authors in the Eaft neither fold their works to bookfellers, nor publifhed by fubfeription, nor depended for fupport on the applaufe, the generofity, or the credulity of the public: they were patronized by Princes, who rewarded their labours in proportion tp the value of their works. And therefore, if $A b u$ Taulib hawheen capable of writing fuch a work, he never would have been guiity of fo dangerous and foolifh an artifice, which could tend only to diminifh both his fame and his profit. The applaufe and the reward due to the Tranflator of an excellent work, muft, whatever his merit, be inferior to thofe which are due to the author of fuch a work; if therefore he had been mafter of abilities to write the Life and Inftitutes of Timour, as there written, he would have fpoke in the third perfon inftead of the firf (no other alteration being neceffary, and have ftood forth as the author of the firft and beft Hiftory of the Life of Trmour, that ever was wrote; for which he muft have obtained both applaufe and profit tenfols. . Fine fame mode of reafoning will hold good to prove that the Turki copy could not be wrote by any Mogul author, but him to whom it is afcribed, Timour himself.

"The noble fimplicity of Diction, the plain and unadorned Egotifin that runs through the whole of the Inflitutes and Hiftory of Timour, are peculiarities which mark their originality and their antiquity alfo. The Orientals, for fome centuries paft, have adopted a very different mode of writing; the beft of their hiftorical works are filled with poetical and hyperbolical Flowers and Flourifhes, which are fo numerous, and occur fo frequently, that many a folio volume, weeded and pruned of thefe fuperfluities, would be reduced to a very moderate octavo.
"The only work bearing the leaft refemblance to the Life and Inftitutes of Timour, which has fallen under my obfervation, is the Hiftory (or Commentaries) of Sultaun Babour, written written by himfelf. Babour was defcended from Timour in the fifth degree; he was the fon of Omer, the fon of Abu Saeed, the fon of Mahummud, the fon of Meraun Shaah, the fon of Timour. About eighty years elapfed between the death of Timuur and the birth of Babour. Babour in the twelfth year of his age, and the 899th year of the Hejra, fat upon the throne of his father, in the kingdom of Furgauneh. D, ceearlier part of his life very much refembled that of his great predeceffor, Timour : and his abilities in the Field find in the Cabinet, his fortitude in diftrefs, his activity and courage when furrounded with difficulties and danger, and the glory and fuccefs with which his Enterprizes were finally crowned, make the refemblance between there two Princes ftill more friking. Like Timour, Babour wrote an accurate Hiftory of his own Life and Actions in the Turki language; which though by no means equal to the admirable compofition of his renowned anceftor, is a work of infinite merit. Yet this hiftory, great as the Royai stuthet was, remained in obfcurity till the middle of the reign of his grandfon Acbur, when it was tranflated into the Perfian language by one of his Omrahs, Khaun a Kbaunaun. It is more difficult to account for the temporary obfcurity of this valuable work, than for that of Timour's; for, at the death of Babour it muft have fallen into the hands of his fon $\mathrm{H}_{u-}$ maioon, and on his death, into thofe of Acbur. Yet till the middle of his reign it remained unknown and untranflated: and if Acbur had, in the early part of his life, been driven from his throne, if Divifions had taken place in his family, and his pofterity had been fcattered abroad, this valuable Manufcript might have fallen into private hands, and have remained unknown for a century longer; poffibly, have been totally loft. No Critic, either Oriental or European, pretends to difpute the authenticity of Babour's Hiftory ; and, as far as I have been able to difcover, the Learned of the Eaft confider the In fitutes and Hiftory of Timour as equally genuine.

ON THE AUTHENTICITY, &c, sxiii

"I was acquainted with feveral great and learned Men in India, both Natives and Perfians: on perufing the works of Timour, I was led to make the fame enquiry which you have made, Whether they were, or were not authentic? The anfwers I rectired were always in the affirmative, and attended with fome tokeine and expreflions of furprize, that I hould, or could, doubt their bei. g genuine. Shafh Aulum, the prefent Mogul, has a beautiful cspy of the Hiftory and Inftitutes of Timour; which he holds in fuch efteem, and of which he is fo exceedingly careful, that though he granted me the ufe of any other book in his poffeffion, this he pofitively excepted by name, as a work fo rare and valuable, that he could not truft it to the care of any perfon whatever.
" Upon the whole, if the learned of the Eaft, for feveral generations, have been induced to give implicit credit to the Inftitutes and Hiftory of Timour, which is certainly the cafe, I do not fee how Europeans can, with any degree of propriety, doubt their authenticity. The Oriental Critics have the very beft materials on which to form their opinions; our fmall fock of knowledge in the language, and ftill fmaller ftock of Afiatic Hiftorians, render us very incompetent judges of the point in queftion. There are a great number of Oriental Manufcripts in the libraries of the Learned; but I am convinced, that there are ftill many, very many, which never have found, and poffibly never will find, their way into Europe ; and therefore, though no biflorical evidence can be produced to prove the authenticity of the Works of Timour, yet no one can pretend to fay, that fuch biftorical Proofs do not exif. The learned of the Eaft muft be the beft judges whether they do, or do not merit their belief and veneration; and they have thought proper to beftow upon them both the one and the other. It is much to be regretted, that the Life of Timour, written by himfelf, is not to be found in Europe : if that, and the Infti-xxiv Mr. DAVY's LETTER, &c.
tutes could be tranflated and publifhed together, fuch is the accuracy of the narrative, fuch the importance of the matter, and fuch the lights that they would mutually reflect on each other, that it would, I conceive, be impoffible for any one to read them, without acquiefcing in their Authenticity from the ternal Evidence alone.

Yours, moft affuredly,

WILLIAM DAVY."

Account of the Portrait of Timour.

The Note and Letter bere following are printed from a Book of Eaftern Portraits given by Mr. Pope to the Uniwerfoty. They are fufficiently explicit in themfelves ana require no Illuftration.

TH I S Book (containing one hundred and feventy eight Portraits of the Indian Rajahs continued to Tamer"lane and the great Mogols his fucceffors as far as to Au"rengzebe) was procured at Surat by Mr. John Cleland, " and given to the Bodley-Library, as a token of refpect by ALEX. P O PE."
1737.

To Mr. Everard, Fellow of Braze-Nofe College, Oxford, London, the $8^{\text {th }} . \mathrm{Ful}_{\mathrm{l}}$, 1760 .

* W ITH great pleafure it is, $\mathrm{Sir}^{2}$, that I comply with your intimation to me of a defire to know fome particulars of that Collection of the Miniature Portraits of the fovereigns of Indoftan prefented by Mr. Pope to the Bodleian, library at Oxford, infcribed with his name and mine.
" While I was in India fometime before the year feventeen hundred and forty, one of the Mogul's generals was with an army incamped before the town of Surat, of which Tegbeg Khaun was then governor for the Mogul. On thofe occafions

xxvi

ACCOUNT OF THE

the general never enters the town himfelf, but deputes certain officers to the governor, under pretext of taking cognizance of his conduct, but in fact to receive a bribe, in form of a prefent, not to make too ftrict a forutiny.
"Tegbeg Khaun, who was far from being on goot'terms with the court, being obliged to proportion his prefent to the need he ftood in of abfolution for the paft, and protection for the future, fent the general fome lacks of rupdes, not lefs than to the amount of three or four hundred thoufand pounds. But that fuch a tranfaction may not appear too barefacedly what it always is, a corrupt bargain, the general ufually makes the governor fome prefent, which is to pais for a return. On this occafion then the Mogul general fent Tegbeg Khaun a fabre fet with rubies, emeralds and diamonds, worth perhaps at moft three or four thoufand pounds, together with this Book containing a fet of Miniature Portraits of the fucceffive fovereigns of Indoftan for feverai ages back. They are in colours, on vellum-leaves, and are copies from a feries of originals in the Mogul's palace.
" That they are not fancy-pictures, there is great reafon to believe (independent of the prefumption in their favour from the circumftance of their being a prefent on fo capital an occafion from one great officer of fate to another) it being well known, that fuch a fet of pictures actually exifts in the royal palace, it hardly feems improbable that a copy was taken from them. And here it is obfervable, that the Mogul-moors have nothing of that averfion to images or pictures, which is even a point of religion to the Mahomedans in general. But thefe Moguls retain fo much of their Tartarian origin as to tolerate all religions, and even to incorporate theirs of the Thien, fuch as the court of China alfo profeffes, with the predominant religion of whatever country they conquer; for the greater eafe of preferving their conquefts by this political conformity. of The portrait of Tamerlan (Timur-lang) in this collection, and perhaps the only one extant in Europe on which any dependence for genuinenefs may be reafonably had, feems to favour the belief of its authenticity, in that you may very clearly remark in it the diftinctive Tartar lineaments, a broad flattif face, with fmall eyes. Thefe in his fon and fucceffor, are fomewhat lefs confpicuous, and, as the line of defcent proceeds, they melt by degrees wholly into the foftnefs of the Indian features.
"It may alfo be obferved, that the Moors, or Mahomedan fovereigns of Indoftan, are in this collection diftinguihed from the Gentoo ones, by the fafhion of the fkitts of their robes, which in the Gentoos, hang on each fide, cut at bottom into an angular form, as all the Rajahs wear them to this day for an enfign of royalty.
"However, this book, fuch as it is, was by the governor Tegbeg Khaun made a prefent of to Mr. Frazer, the fame who, at my inftance and requeft, tranflated from a Perfian manufcript the account of Shah Nadir's (the famous Thamas Kooly Khaun's) expedition into India; and who brought home a curious collection of oriental manufcripts, moft of which once belonged to the royal library of Ifpahan, and had efcaped the rage and barbarifm of the Aphgoons, or Ophguan invaders, under Emir Veifs and his fucceffors.
> ${ }^{6 c}$ Mr. Frazer having parted with this Set of Portraits to me, I fent it to Mr. Pope, with whom I was then in correfpondence ; and who wrote me, That judging it too great a curiofity for his private ftudy, he had done it the honour of prefenting it to the Bodleian Library.
"I NEED not, I prefume, infift on how agreeable fuch a difpofal muft be to one fo penetrated as I have ever been with fentiments of veneration for an univerfity, which in quality both of a fpring-head of learning and of a noble confervatory of literature, is fo juftly confidered as a national ornament and honour. But I now receive from that circumftance a frefh pleafure in its furnifhing me an occafion of affuring yourfelf of the truth with which I moft refpectfully am,

SIR,

Your mof obedient humble Servant,

JOHN CLELAND。"

。

THE INSTITUTES OF

T I M O U R.

BOOK THE FIRST.
DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES.

[ 2 ]

Jg

* In order to account for the abruptness of this Exordium; it is neceflary to inform the Reader, that this part of the Work in the Original followed the Institutes, and by the Royal author was undoubtedly confidered as a part of them, under the Denomination of DESIGNs and Enterprises; which he appears to have given as Models of Conduct to others in fimilar fituations. But as it is prefumed that little more than the Name of TimOUR is known to the generality of Europeans, and as this part of the Work contains an abridged account of his mort

[3]

BOOK THE FIRST.

DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES.

*H U S I formed meafures and defigns for the reduction of kingdoms, and for the obtainment of empire, and for defeating armies, and for circumventing enemies, and for making friends of foes, and for going out, and for coming in, amongft friends and enemies.
moft important Schemes and Enterprifes, which confequently lead to a knowledge of the genius, abilities, and extraordinary actions of the man; it has been deemed a proper introduction to that part of the Work, which may with propriety beffiled his Institutes. Another reafon for prefixing this part of the Work to the other, is, that from the fimplicity of the Narrative, it will (in the beginning) be better adapted to the ufe of thofe who are inclined to fudy the Perfian Language.
A 2
For

4 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
, ابـ المنصور تبهور 范 (安 ك بسر تشيهاني وid dre des dolores از تعارi , انی plamert

وكوبا ابن مآتوب هاني d تiblw y-d 0 d a ت ت

+ Koottub ul Aktaub Sheikh Zine u deen Aboo Bukkur: a devout and learned man defcended from the Mahummudan Lawgiver, who foretold to Trimour the power and greatnefs to which he would arrive. It appears that this prince confidered him in the light of a ghoftly father, confulted him diص

OF T I M O UR.

For my PEER + wrote unto me, faying, Book I.
" Let Abu'l Munsour Timour, in conducting the " important concerns of government, take by the hand " four affiftants ; to wit, Deliberation, and Counfel, and * Vigilance, and Circumfpection.
"FOR every government which fhall be © void of deliberation and counfel, is like unto a foolifh " man, who erreth in all which he fayeth and doeth; " and whofe actions and words bring forth no fruit but " fhame and repentance. It is therefore good that in " conducting the affairs of thy government, thou act " with deliberation and with counfel; that thou mayeft " not in the end be afhamed and confounded.
"And know, that the requifites for con"ducting the concerns of empire are one portion pa" tience and forbearance, and one portion pretended neg" ligence and feigning to know not that which thou "knoweft - and that by acting with refolution, and with "uprightnefs, and with patience, and with vigilance, and " with caution, and with bravery, every undertaking "will become eafy and fucceffful. Farewell."

And behold this letter was a guide which pointed out to me the way; and fhewed unto me, that him on all occafions, and paid the moft implicit attention to his counfels. Peer in the Perfian language fignifies old or aged; hence a Father: which is the appellation by which TIMOUR diftinguifhes him throughout this work.
號 ك 0.
,离 هزار

وبتّجربه ن
 U

 وبا
of the requifites for conducting the affairs of dominion Book I. nine tenths are Deliberation, and Counfel, and provident Meafures; and that the Sword is one portion only.

For the experienced have faid, "By Po" licy kingdoms may be conquered, and numerous hofts " may be defeated, which by the Swords of united ar" mies cannot be overthrown."

And by experience it is known unto me, that one tried foldier, of magnanimity, and of bravery, and of refolution, and of fkill, and of circumfpection is more valuable than a thoufand men who want difcretion and knowledge. For one experienced and able foldier can direct the efforts of thoufands of thoufands.

AND by experience it is known unto me, that victory over the foe proceedeth not from the greatnefs of armies, nor defeat from inferiority of numbers : for conqueft is obtained by the Divine Favour, and by fkilful and judicious meafures.

THUS, aided by deliberation and forefight, with two hundred and forty three warriors only, I came down on the cafte of Kurfhee. $\dagger$ And in the caftle and the neighbourhood thereof, Ameer Moofi and MuIlik Bahaudur had fat down with twelve thoufand horfemen ; and by the aid of Almighty God and by fkilful meafures I fubdued the caftle of Kurfhee.

[^1]8 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES وبا

 از قلعه بر آمام وْرتبه بهرتبه ת ر㲘
號 آي

 0, ك ب

و و و ارِ كه نا ر

OF TIM O UR.

And Ameer Moofi and Mullik Bahaudur, Book I. with their twelve thoufand horfemen, came and furrounded me in the caftle of Khurfhee. And I refted on the favour of the Almighty, and I fallied forth with fkill and with circumfpection from the caftle, and I affaulted them repeatedly. And with thofe two hundred and forty and three people I defeated twelve thoufand horfemen, and purfued them for many Furfungs.*

And by experience it is known unto me, that counfel, and deliberation, and fkilful meafures are only to be found with the wife and the fagacious. Therefore, notwithftanding the conclufion of every worldly event, is covered by the curtain of Fate, yet, according to the holy word of Mahummud (on whom be the Bleffing of the Almighty) in every enterprife which I undertook, I acted from counfel and deliberation.

And when my counfellors and my advifers were affembled together, I demanded their opinions on the good and on the evil, and on the advantages and on the difadvantages of undertaking, or relinquifhing, the enterprife before us. And when I had heard their opinions thereon, I myfelf examined both fides of their opinions. And I duly weighed the advantages and the dif-

[^2]10 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES ण ر ر U.

چ rle عـا

 pär

كار

$$
x_{0} \int^{1}
$$

advantages; and I confidered the perils thereof with the Book I. eye of attention. And every plan, in which I difcovered a two-fold hazard, I rejected; and I chofe that in which the peril was fingle.

Thus I advifed Tughulluk Timour Khaun, when his Ameers exalted the ftandard of rebellion in the Dufht of Jitteh. Behold he demanded counfel from me; and thus I faid unto him - "If thou fend an army " to difperfe and expel them, a two-fold danger may be " apprehended therefrom:* but if thou thyfelf advance "againft them, one peril only." And he acted according to my counfel, and turned towards the Durht of Jitteh : and that which I had fore-told unto him, came to pafs.

And I entered on every meafure with counfel and advice; and in the execution of that meafure I acted on a plan which was uniform and good. And after examining the avenue of retreat, I entered on the execution thereof. And by fkill, and by refolution, and by caution, and by circumppection, and by fore-fight, and by penetration I brought that enterprife to a fortunate conclufion.

[^3]
和碞位 1＿iu，

 بJun

准隹 از愔 اختيار مينهونم ，

AND by experience it is known unto me, Book I. that thofe are worthy to be counfellors, who feadfaftly adhere to that which they fay, and to that which they do; and who on no account relinquifh the meafures on which they have refolved; and who, if they fay, "We " will not do this," keep far from the action which they have condemned.

And by experience it is known unto me, that there are two kinds of counfel - that which proceedeth from the tongue, and that which proceedeth from the recefs of the heart. I turned my ear to that which proceeded from the tongue; but to the counfel of the heart, which I heard, I gave a place in the treafury of my foul.

AND in times of hoftility I fought counfel relative to peace and to war; and I ftudied the hearts of my chiefs, whether they were defirous of war or of peace. And if they advifed peace, I compared the advantages of peace with the perils of war. And if they propofed war, I oppofed the profits and advantages thereof to the inconveniences and dangers that might follow from peace : and which ever appeared moft profitable, that I preferred and approved.

14 DESIGNS

سـا

 HT آـ

 g, Ur نـيره Si
 ن

- i. e. Such as occafioned a difunion of fentiments among them, or cendered them doubtful or apprehenfive.
five. To Timour &c. commanding them to fubmit and come in to him.
I Ameer fignifies a Prince, or Leader; and is a title given to all the nobility $10 \mathrm{~F} \quad \mathrm{~T} \mathrm{I} O \mathrm{O}$.
AND I hearkened not to thofe counfels Book I. which divided the hearts of my foldiers.* And every counfellor who gave his opinion under the dominion of fear, I turned my ear unto him: but to the man who fpoke with judgment and with firmnefs, I liftened with attention.

And I afked counfel from all: but I confidered the good and the evil of every opinion; and from each I felected thofe things which were juft and expedient.

THuS when Tughulluk Timour Khaun, of the line of Chungaze, croffed the waters of Khujjund with a determination to reduce the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur, and iffued mandates of fummons in my name, $\dagger$ and in the names of Ameer Haujee Burlaus $\ddagger$, and Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir; thofe chiefs afked counfel of me, faying, "Shall we flee into Khoraufaun, with our fa" milies and with our hords, or fhall we go and fee Tu"ghulluk Timour Khaun ?" I counfelled them, faying, "There are two advantages and one peril in feeing "Tughtlluk Timour; and in fleeing to Khoraufaun bilisy of the firtt rank in the Mogul empire; alfo to the commanders of bodies of troops. Ameer Haujee Burlaus was the uncle of Timour. He and Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir were both chiefs of tribes in the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur.
"there

Nj, un dog gun تغاقتيبهور ذان دو JU شا Nl

涺

 ,
 Sd در خا
 ور بـي ورزته تغانتّيهور خانرا ديهم

* i.e. By obeying the fummons of Tughulluk Timour it was poffible that they might preferve their country from depredation, and enfure the fafety of their families and effects, at the rifque perhaps of their own lives. Whereas by difobeying the fummons, and retiring into Khoraufaun, they would 0
OF T I M O UR.
"c there are two perils, and but one advantage." * And Book I. they approved not of my counfel, and they turned towards Khoraufaun : and I alfo was divided within myfelf, whether I fhould retire into Khoraufaun, or whether I fhould fee Tughulluk Timour.

And on this occafion I afked counfel of my Peer ; who in his anfwer wrote unto me, faying, "It was once demanded of the fourth Khulleefeh + (on " whom be the mercy of the creator), If the canopy of " heaven were a bow; and if the earth were the cord "thereof; and if calamities were the arrows ; if man" kind were the mark for thofe arrows; and if Almighty " God (the tremendous and the glorious) were the uner"ring Archer; to whom could the fons of Adam flee "for protection?" The Khulleefeh anfwered, faying, " The fons of Adam muft flee unto the Lord? Thus, it " is thy duty at this time to flee unto Tughulluk Timour; " and to take from his hand the bow and the arrows of "wrath." And when I received this Anfwer, I became ftrong of heart, and I went, and I faw Tughulluk Timour Khaun.
would be banifhed from their country, and deprived of their Principalities ; with no other advantage, but that of having fecured for a time their own perfonal fafety.
$t$ The Caliph Aali.

$$
\text { C } \quad \text { But }
$$

3 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

! Pون
و و

U,

ذان از مشرت دلم سر بر زل اين بود

تخالقتيوو ذان بيك تقتّهو
 Ail oUgr الونو据

$49 \geqslant 2$
OF TIMOUR.

But in every action of the actions of my Book I. life, on which I had deliberated, I drew an omen from the facred Koraun, and I acted according to the direction thereof.

And when I fought a prefage in the Koraun concerning the feeing of Tughulluk Timour, the Chapter of Eufoof* (peace be with him) came forth : and I followed the direction of the facred book.

The first measure which my heart Design dietated unto me concerning the feeing of Tughulluk 1. Timour, was this.

Having heard that Tughulluk Timour A.D. Khaun had appointed Begchuk, and Haujee Beg of the A. Tim. Tribe of Arkunut, and Allugh Tuktimour of the Tribe ${ }^{25}$ of Kurreet, and other Ameers of Jitteh, with three armies, to ravage and lay wafte the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur ; and that thofe three armies under thofe Ameers were arrived at Khuzzaur, behold, I deemed it neceflary that I fhould firft go unto them, and deceive them by prefents, and excite their avarice by temptations, that they might withdraw their hands from defolating and ravaging the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur, and from flaughtering the inhabitants thereof; until I fhould go and fee Tughulluk Timour Khaun.

[^4]C 2 And
20. DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 Ci_ S So : ن I, on jj

 I الغ از So س

$$
0, \leqslant
$$

و و july

$$
O F \quad \text { I M O UR. }
$$

AND when I came unto thofe Ameers, my Book I. power * made an impreffion upon them, and they received me with honour and refpect. And behold their hearts, like unto their eyes, were blind and contracted, and the prefents which I gave unto them, feemed great in their fight: and they withdrew their hands from ravaging and deftroying the kingdom of Mauwur u Nu hur. And I went, and faw Tughulluk Timour Khaun; and he took my coming for a happy omen : and he afked counfel of me, and all that which he heard me fay, he approved.

And at this time news came to the ears of Tughulluk Timour Khaun that the Ameers of the three armies had taken monies and gifts from the inhabitants of Mauwur u Nuhur : and he inftantly commanded thofe fums to be delivered up, and he appointed collectors thereof. And he forbad them to enter into Mauwur $u$ Nuhur; and he turned them out from their commands ; and he appointed Haujee Muhmood Shaah Yerfoori to fupply their place.

AND when intelligence of there things reached the ears of the chiefs, they elevated the enfign of enmity, and they retired towards their homes. And at this time they were met on their way by Aghlaun

[^5]22. DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

牰 كرك كِ (اهر رو (5 بك

 ك Jj د aićno

- The prefident of his council.
t This circumftance is erroneoufly related in Aali Yezzudi; who fays that the Toumaun of Kurrauchaur Nooyaun only was conferred upon him, and that not by Tughulluk Timour Khaun himfelf, but by the Leaders of bis advanced guard. Vide Petis de la Croix's Hiffoire de Timour Bee. Tom. 1. p. 30 .
$\ddagger$ A Toumaun is a military fief capable of fending forth ten thoufand fighting men: it alpo fignifies that number of men collected together.
Nooyaun, in the Mogul language fignifies a prince, or the defendant of a prince. Kurrauchaur Nooyaun was the fifth anceftor of Timour, and Khaujeh, who was the Deewaunbeghee, * and the chief Book I. counfellor of the Khaun, and they drew him alfo over to their fide : and they proceeded on their way to Jitteh.

AND at this time alfo news arrived that the Ameers of Tughulluk Timour had exalted the fandard of rebellion in the Dufht of Kipchauk : and the Khaun was difturbed in heart, and he afked counfel of me; and he turned back his face to the Duifht of Jitteh.

And he gave unto me the government of Mauwur u Nuhur, $t$ and in this matter he wrote a commiffion and an agreement; and he reftored unto me the Toumaun $\ddagger$ of Ameer Kurrauchaur Nooyaun in that kingdom: and I became the ruler of all the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur, even to the waters of Jihoon.§ And this action came to pafs in the beginning of my fortune and power. And I found by experience that one fkilful plan can perform the fervice of a hundred thoufand warriors.
and the Vizzeer of Chughtai Khaun, one of the fons of Chungaze Khaun. (Ghenghis Can.) § Thus it appears that Tughulluk Timour Khaun, who had advanced no farther than Khojjund on the river Sihoon, and was unable to profecute: the reduction of Mauwur $u$ Nuhur on account of the diffenfions which. Timour had fown betwixt him and the chiefs of his army, and alfo on account of the rebellion of his Ameers in the Dufht of Kipchauk, took advantage of the fubmiffion of Timour to obtain a nominal dominion over Mauwur $u$ Nuhur, by conferring upon him the title of Viceroy in that kingdom.

The

ضود كركب اين :ود ix چون تغالتّيهور ذان مرتبه ديكر بر
 i)希 يس وعهـ

* Kubbul Khaun and Kaujooli Bahaudur were twin brothers, and the Pons of Toumuneh Khaun. Kubbul Khaun was the great grandfather of Chungaze Khaun [Genghis Can], and Kaujooli Bahaudur was the eighth anceftor of Timour, and the great grandfather of Kurrauchaur Nooyaun, mentioned before.

Thus it appears, that Chungaze Khaun and Timour both fprang from the fame flock, ie. from Toumuneh Shaun; who was the fourth anceftor of Chungaze Shaun, and the ninth anceftor of Timour. Toumuneh Khaun was fucceeded by his fon Kubbul Khaun, and Kubbul Khaun was Succeeded by Burtun Khaun in the fovereignty of the Moguls.

And it appears that an agreement had taken place between Kubbul Khaun and Kaujooli Bahaudur (at the defire perhaps of their father Toumuneh Shaun) that the former (who was the elder brother) and his pofterity fhould fucceed to the dignity of Khaun, and that the latter (who was the younger brother) and his pofterity fhould always fill the oft of chief minifter and leader of the forces; and that the defendants of both fhould, by this agreement between their fathers, be bound to live in conftant friendfhip and amity with each other. And this is the agreement fhewn by Tughulluk Timour Shaun, who was defended in a right line from Chungaze and Kubbul Shaun

$$
O F T I M O U R \text {. }
$$

The second design which I formed in Book I． the beginning of my fortune and power，was this．

When Tughulluk Timour Khan drew an army on the kingdom of Mauwur $u$ Nuhur a fecond time，and broke his engagements，and took from me

A．D．
1370. A．Tim． 26. the government of Mauwur $u$ Nuhur，and delivered it over to Ouleaus Khaujeh his con，and offered me the poft of counfellor and general to that prince，and shewed unto me the agreement between Kaujooli Bahaudur，and Kubbul Khaun；＊I alfo，on account of the engagements and agreements of my anceftors，confented to lead his armies．

Khaun，to Timour，defended in a right line from Kaujooli Bahaudur 3 who，on perufing the above－mentioned agreement，confidered himfelf bound to accept the appointment offered him by Tughulluk Timour． Thus Timour，in Fragm．of Riff．p．128．1．3．MS．Hunter，fays， ن的 gr．．
保
 0．．تـ 1）بانـ in ر花 Hills joilgho 0 ر بیبیر تioldj of وبه تغالقتيهور ذان نوشتال كه تيهور

1, 1 رانــت برلنغ بِست بـ انتار
 (J) i. e. "In the beginning of the year of the Hejra 762 [A. D. 1360] when "Tughulluk Timour Khaun drew an army a fecond time into Mauwur u "Nubur, he fent unto me a mandate, ordering me before him; and I "went to meet him, and I raw him. And he broke his engagements, and "delivered over Mauwur u Nuhur to his for Ouleaus Khaujeh, and ap" pointed me the leader of his forces. And when he raw that I was diflia"tisfied with his proceedings, he fhewed unto me the agreement between " my anceftor Kaujooli Bahaudur and Kubbul Khaun. And when I read "that agreement (which they had engraved on a tablet of feel) retting "forth,

OF TIMOUR.

And when the cruelties and the oppreffions of the Ouzbuks became great in the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur, (for behold they had carried into flavery feventy Siuds, and fons of Siuds) and the power of Ouleaus Khaujeh availed him nought, and he was no longer able to reftrain their cruelties and oppreffions; in the fpirit of authority I rufhed upon the Ouzbuks, and I delivered the oppreffed from the hand of the oppreffors. And this circumftance was the caufe of difobedience in the Ameers of Ouleaus Khaujeh, and in the foldiers under them.

And they wrote unto Tughulluk Timour Khaun, faying, "Timour hath exalted the ftandard of "rebellion." And the Khaun thought that the accufation was true: and he iffued an order to put me to death: and that order fell into my hands.
"forth, that the dignity of Khaun fhould appertain to the pofterity of "Kubbul Khaun, and that the poft of minifter and general fhould belong " to the pofterity of Kaujooli Bahaudur, and that they fhould live in amity " with each other : I alfo to fulfil the engagement of my ancefors, refrai"s ned from enmity, and confented to lead his armies."

This note is formed from autborities found in Abulgbazi Khan's genealogical biflory of the Tartars, in D'Herbelot, and in the Fragment of the hiffory of Timour, p. 153. 1.9.- And the paflages illufrated bere and in the notes on page 23. will to the oriental Ccholar ferve to refute the faljeboods of the Arabian author Ibn Arabbbaah, and to prove the fuperior accuracy and autbenticity of the life of Timour written by himfelf over that compofed by Alli Yezzudi,s who has bitherto been confidered by the learned of Europe as the moft perfeci and faitbful narrator of the aEtions of Timour.
尾
 JJ Ur.

هو \#民 pillgho ${ }^{\text {plo l }}(0)$ inly, யligngy b اني

* Alous, of which Aloufaut is the plural, fignifies a tribe, or bord. A true explanation of the Tartar word Ku/boon has not been met with. Mr. Petis de la Croix calls it a body of a hundred folders: but this interpretation is undoubtedly erroneous. The words Kubbeeleh, Taueefeh, Ouemauk, Alous and Kußboon, (forme of which are Arabic) all appear to fignify a tribe or bord; but there muff be forme diftinction between them unknown to Europeans.

AND I reflected upon my danger: and to Book I. remedy the evil, this was the defign which I formed that I fhould gather round me the valiant youth of the tribe of Burlaus, and attach them unto me. And the firft man who gave unto me the hand of obedience, was Eekou Timour; and the fecond was Ameer Jaukoo Burlaus : and after him other warriors, from their hearts and from their fouls, confented to receive my commands.

When the inhabitants of Mauwur $\mathfrak{u}$ Nuhur obtained knowledge of my purpofe, that I had refolved to rife in oppofition to the tribe of Ouzbuk; as their hearts were turned afide from that oppreflive people, both the rich and the poor of the people of Mauwur u Nuhur united themfelves unto me. And the religious, and the holy men iffued forth a decree, authorizing the expulfion and the extirpation of the Ouzbuks. And in this undertaking certain of the Ameers of Aloufaut and and of Kufhoonaut joined alfo. *

AND the decree and the engagement to which they had agreed, and which they caufed to be written, is this. "According to the conduct and the ex-

Europeans. The Ku/boonaut (which is the plural of Ku/boon) may here mean bodies of military men drawn from tribes or hords, as the word Toumaun fometimes fignifies. The number of the Toumaun is known to be ten thoufand; that of the Kuhioon may perhaps be fomewhat lefs: but it can hardly fignify fo infignificant a number as a hundred men. Several particulars in this work tend to confirm this opinion, > of example

30 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 gik تسا ونا .illano准 jا هول وقو

 اوز اوبـ ? u.iu, $<$ pus uilte ug نـبايم
"ample of the orthodox Khulleefehs, + (on whom be $\underbrace{\text { Book I. }}$ " the favour of Almighty God) the followers of Ilaum, "the doctors, and the holy men, and the foldiers, and the "fubjects, feeing Him noble and worthy thereof, have "nominated Ameer Timour (the Polar ftar of do" minion, on whom be the favour of God) to the em" pire: and with their wealth, and with their lives they " will exert themfelves in expelling and in driving out, " and in extirpating and in deftroying the tribe of Ouzbuk, " who have ftretched forth the hand of cruelty and ra"pine over the families and over the wealth, and over "the property and over the effects of the faithful." "AnD we will be firm in our engagements; " and if we deviate from our agreement and from our "compact, may we be deprived of the grace and of "the protection of Almighty God; and be delivered "over to the power and the dominion of the devil!"

And when they fhewed unto me the decree, I was eager to exalt the ftandard of war and of laughter, and to draw down an army on the people of Jitteh, and to revenge the opprefled on the heads of the oppreffors : but certain of the worthlefs revealed my intentions.

Again, I deliberated with myfelf, that if I made war upon them in the city of Summurkund, it might come to pafs that the people of Mauwur a Nu-

[^6]32
DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
验
 .

院 (ii) JU Jun ن أي رíj

 خ خ خ

OF T I M OUR.
hur might flrink back from their engagements : there- Book I. fore I refolved to come forth from Summurkund, and to fix my habitation in the hills, that every one who was united with me might come in unto me; and that having gathered together an army, I might advance and make war upon the Ouzbuks.

And when I came forth from Summurkund, fixty warriors only came forth with me; and I faw that I had not erred in my deliberations.

And when I had remained feven days in thofe hills, and no one had come in unto me, I determined with myfelf that I would proceed to Buddukhfhaun, and draw unto my flandard the princes thereof.

And I fet out, and I went into the prefence of Ameer Goolaul. * And he directed me that I fhould turn the reins of my intention towards Khauruzm. And I promifed unto him the revenue of Summurkund for one year - that I would lay it before him, if I proved victorious over the Ouzbuks. And he repeated over me the prayer of victory, and permitted me to depart.

AND when I came forth from the prefence of Ameer Goolaul, fixty horfemen were all that were with me. And when the news of my arrival in Khauruzm reached the ears of Ouleaus Khaujeh, he wrote

[^7]

 Lig phor 0 位 «g ume dilo un ou umo uncon عor ذور ذو (

ذون كرن ابن بود un تisod , !

* An afterisk placed after a word (in the Perfian text) fignifies that it is of Mogul origin. un unto Tukkul Bahaudur the governor of Khiook, that he Book I. fhould fall upon me and deftroy me. And Tukkul Bahaudur came upon me with a thoufand horfemen : and I oppofed him with my fixty warriors, and with Ameer Hooffein who had come and joined me in the way; and I entered into battle. And I fought with fuch obftinacy and refolution, that of the one thoufand horfemen of Tukkul Bahaudur fifty remained, and of my fixty warriors ten remained; and the victory in effect was mine.

> OF T I M O UR.

And when the news of my fuccefs reached the ears of Ouleaus Khaujeh and the Ameers of Jitteh, they faid among themfelves, "Timour is a won" derful man: fortune and the Divine favour are with "him." And I called this victory a favour from heaven conferred upon me: and the eyes of the tribe of Jitteh wore darkened by my fuccefs.

The third design which I formed for the reftoration of my power, was this.

Desicn III.

AT the time when the fate of my fortune was reduced low, and when the foundation of my power was broken afunder, fo that my affociates were ten only (and feven of them were on horfes, and three of them were foot-men) and none other remained with me; in thofe days the fifter of Ameer Hooffein, who was my honoured wife, I placed behind me on my horfe, and I E $2 \quad$ wandered DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES fug dístw

 نيا dï ور

 تشاشی j ; (Sg)

 بils'g

- TIM OUR.

wandered to and fro in the defart of Khaurazm, until Book I on a certain night $I$ alighted at a well. And even in that night the three faithlefs Khoraufauni* feized on three horfes, and mounted them and fled: and four horfes only remained for feven people, and my diftreffes were very great: but I was ftrong of heart, and I lamented not over my misfortunes.

And I departed from the well; and at this time Aali Beg Choun Ghoorbauni came upon me, and he carried me away, and confined me in a habitation filled with vermin, and placed a guard over me, and kept me imprifoned for fixty and two days.

And I deliberated with myfelf, and aided by the affiftance of Almighty God, with the ftrength of the arm of vigour I wrefted a fword from my guards and I rufhed upon them : and the guards turned their faces to flight, and I went and ftood before Aali Beg. And he was afhamed and confounded at his evil conduct, that he had thrown me into prifon; and he made excufes.

And he ordered my horfes and my arms to be brought forth; and he gave me a horfe that was lean, and a camel that was paft fervice as a prefent. But he thirfted after the gifts which his brother Mahummud Beg had fent unto me, and he kept back a part thereof; and he fuffered me to depart.

[^8], شـر
 i i هت̈ * * : $a_{0}$ حانه场

خود ك, كرم اين بوه
 S

* The word thus tranflated is in the original Agburi, and evidently of Mogul origin. The Mogul language is, in this work and in mot other oriental authors, called Toori Zubaun and Zubaun a Toorki, or the langage of the Toorks. But notwithftanding the language, known in Europe by the name of Turkifh, muff have been derived from the fame origin, this and feveral other Mogul words retained by the Perfian tranflator تطاوJ

And I fet out toward the defart of Khau- Book I. ruzm, and twelve horfemen united themfelves unto me: And after two days I came to an inhabited place, and I alighted at one of the dwellings thereof. And certain of the Toorkummauns, who were in that place, gave a loud fhout,* and rufhed upon me. And I fecured the fifter of Ameer Hooffein in the houfe, and I affaulted thofe people in my own perfon. And at this time a man among the Toorkummauns, whofe name was Haujee Mahummud, knew me again; and he exclaimed aloud, "It is Ameer "Timour." And he ordered the people to defift, and he kneeled before me. And I received him kindly, and I placed my turban on his head; and he came with his. brethren, and was my fervant.

The fourth design which I formed in the early days of my power, was this.

Destam IV.

When fixty horfemen were gathered round me, I reflected with myfelf, that if I continued in the place where I then fojourned, perhaps the inhabitants thereof might extend the hand of treachery over me, and fend news of my condition to the tribe of Jitteh, in this work, are not to be found in any Lexicon, and are confequently unknown. Where the probable fenfe is difcoverable from the context, as in the prefent cafe, an interpretation is given in the tranflation; and whereever the meaning is beyond the reach of conjecture, the Mogul word is retained in the verfion; its origin in both cafes being marked for the benefit of the Perfian fcholar. See note on pag. 34.

40 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES تشا égo .
 plı

 وبهيان اله dï
 - أهِ

OF TIMOUR.

And I faw that my fafety confifted in this - that I fhould Book I. come forth from that place, and that I fhould fojourn in the defart, far from the habitations of men; until an army, which is the finews of Empire, fhould be gathered around me.

And I journeyed from that place toward Khoraufaun; and Mubauruk Shah Sunjuri, the governor of Maukhaun, came to me on the way with an hundred foldiers, and prefented fome chofen horfes to me : and certain of the defcendants of the prophet and of the inhabitants alfo came in unto me; and near two hundred men, horfe-men and foot-men, joined me in the defart.

And at this time Mubauruk Shaah, and Siud Hoofun, and Siud Zeau u deen faid unto me, "Our tarrying in this defart is the caufe of our diftrefs; " we muft go from hence, and we muft feize on fome "Province for an habitation." And I deliberated with myfelf, and I faid unto them, "This meafure occurreth " to my mind - that we advance towards Summurkund, " and that I difperfe you in the fecure places of Bokh"f aura; and that I myfelf go into the parts adjacent to "Summurkund, and enter among the people and the " tribes, and unite them with me: and having collected " an army, and called you unto me, that I encounter "Ouleaus Khaujeh and the forces of Jitteh and fubdue "the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur."

42 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 gin g diluchims 10)
 و وتر

 ر dilwg با

و لوهو (sا لا ${ }^{\prime}$ ا (

丘 vijes

OF T I M O UR.

THEY all approved of my counfel and my Book I. defign; and having repeated the prayer of fuccefs on our attempt, I proceeded forward. And I difperfed thofe two hundred people in the environs of Bokhaura, and I fecreted Aljaié Turkaun Aughau, the fifter of Ameer Hooflein, in that place; and I advanced toward Summurkund.

And Tumookeh Kouchein met me on the way with fifteen horfemen, and joined me. And I communicated my fecret unto him, and fent him to Mubauruk Shaah. And entering myfelf among the tribes, I confederated with me near two thoufand of the people: and whenever I exalted the ftandard of empire in Summurkund, they were to join me.

And I entered the city of Summurkund under the cover of the night ; and going to the dwelling of my eldeft fifter Kuttulugh Turkaun Aughau, I fojourned therein. And I was buried in thought and reflection night and day. And I paffed forty eight days undifcovered; until at length certain of the inhabitants gave information of my arrival, and my fituation was near to be revealed. I was without remedy; and with fifty horfemen, who were with me in the city, I came forth from Summurkund by night, and I proceeded toward Khauruzm : and certain of the foot-foldiers alfo came with

$$
F 2
$$

44 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

بار li

 Jو دو و وilü

 Ja Jg oJ إين

* It may be proper to observe, for the credit of Timour, that before he took thole horfes, he enquired out the owners and feat for them, and gave them a written order for their value. This happened in the principality of Kufh.

$$
0 \text { F T I M O U R. }
$$

me. And on the road I took horfes from among the Book I. droves of the Toorkummaun; * and I mounted my footfoldiers thereon.

AND I came and I encamped at Atcheghi

 in the hilly grounds on the banks of the waters of Amuveah: in this place my family, and Mubauruk Shaah, and Siud Hooffun, and all thofe whom I had left in the environs of Bokhaura, came and joined themfelves unto me. And Timour Khaujeh Aghlaun and Behraum Jullauir, with their forces, came and ferved me; and near a thoufand horfemen were gathered round me. And I deliberated with myfelf, and I fet out from thence towards Baukhtur Zemeen and Kundahaur, and I fubdued thofe countries.
The fifthedeign which I formed in the days of enterprife, was this.When I departed towards Kundahaur and Baukhtur Zemeen, I came to the border of the river of Hiremun, and I fojourned there, and I made for myfelf an habitation; and I tarried fome days on the border of that river to refrefh my people.

AND at this time the foldiers and the inhabitants of Kurrumfeer came in unto me; and neas a Kufh. Vide Timour's full account of this tranfaction in the Fragment of his Hiftory. pag. 355. 1. 5. MS. Hunter.

thoufand

36 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES䒚 g． وليت

 ，وته ا， روّ

 g وהون هور و ونـا تئ 安 யソท
thoufand horfemen alfo, Toork and Taucheek, were ga- Book I. thered round me; and the country of Kurrumfeer fubmitted to my authority.

AND at this time I refolved that I would invade the province of Seiftaun. And when the ruler of Seiftaun received accounts thereof, he fent offerings and rich gifts unto me, and he demanded fuccour, faying, "Certain of my enemies have oppreffed me, and they " have feized upon my lands, and upon feven caftles."If the hands of my enemies be withdrawn from my "dominions, I will advance fix months wages to the fol"diers."

AND I faw it was good that I fhould turn the reins of my intentions toward Seiftaun. And of the feven caftles which were in the hands of his enemies, I fubdued five caftles by force and by affault. - And feat found admiffion into the heart of the ruler of Seiftaun, and he made his enemies his friends; and they faid among themfelves, "If Ameer Timour tarry in this country, the province of Seiftaun will pafs out from our hands." And they gathered together the foldiers and the people of all the country of Seiftaun, and they came upon me.

And when I faw that the ruler of Seiftaun fulfilled not his engagement, I was without remedy; and I advanced toward them, and gave them battle. And an arrow came and pierced my arm, and another arrow alfo came upon my foot, but in the end I obtained the victory over them.
$4^{8}$ DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 قو ر دو
 كر0 اين بود
 ورز وزه
 بتّس二ی

 (

 ونرّن

AND when I faw that the air and the wa- Book I. ter of that country fuited not with me, I departed from thence, and I came back to Kurrumfeer ; and I fojourned in that land for two months, until my wounds were healed.

The sixth design which I formed in Desion the days of enterprife, was this.

When Kurrumfeer had fubmitted to my authority, and my wounds were healed, I faw it was good that I fhould go and fojourn in the mountains on the borders of Bullukh; and having collected an army, that I fhould proceed to fubdue the kingdom of Mauwus u Nuhur. And when I refolved on this meafure, I departed from thence: and forty horfemen were all that were with me. But they were all refolute men, and the fons of refolute men, and the fons of Ameers. And I gave praife unto God, for that in fuch diftrefs fuch men fhould come, without purfe and without fcrip, and follow me, and be obedient unto me. And I faid unto myfelf, God Almighty doeth great things for me ; feeing he hath made fuch men, even my equals, my fervants.

And I went on towards the mountains of Bullukh, and Suddeuk Burlaus (of the race of Yeldureen Kurrauchaur Nouyaun) who was wandering in fearch of me, met me in the way with fifteen horfemen, and joined me; and I took his coming for a happy omen. DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
(5)
& dillı诸 oun ا (sgrus

 الرْ jgg pog.i Jy; ; olne inin oflyg oj ulu jug (Svils (SNil! هїش Nillof U,s

 ا انٌl

AND in thofe days we paffed our time in Book I. hunting, and we proceeded forward. And on the way I beheld a body of men ftanding on a hill; and their numbers increafed from time to time : and I halted, and fent people to obtain intelligence. And they went in among thofe men, and brought back intelligence, faying, " It is "Kurraunchee Bahaudur, the old fervant of Ameer,* who " with an hundred horfemen hath feparated from the ar" mies of Jitteh, and is wandering in fearch of thee." I bowed in gratitude to Almighty God, and I fent orders for Kurraunchee to approach. And he came, and he kneeled before me; and he kiffed my feet. And I received him with affection, and I placed my own turban on his head. And I went on to the valley of Arfuff.

AND I came to the valley of Arfuff, and I pitched my tents. And on the next day I mounted my horfe, and entered into the valley. And in the midtt of that valley there was a hill; and the air thereof was very delightful. And I went and dwelt upon that hill; and my people, each of them, pitched their tents in the neighbourhood thereof,

AND on that night, which was a holy night, $\uparrow$ I kept watch; and when the morning broke, I was employed in prayer. And after repeating the prayers

[^9]$5^{2}$ DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 ； بو

持 تاذته وت丷⿻甲

 I נis

OF T I M O UR.

prefcribed by the law, I lifted up my hands in fupplication, Book I, And in the midft of my fupplication I wept: and I implored Almighty God, that he would deliver me from that wandering life.

AND I had not yet refted from my devations, when a number of people appeared afar off: and they were paffing along in a line with the hill. And I mounted my horfe, and I came in behind them : that I might know their condition, and what men they were. And they were in all feventy horfemen; and I afked of them, faying, "Warriors, who are ye?" And they anfwered unto me, "We are the fervants of Ameer Timour, " and we wander in fearch of him; and lo! we find him " not." And I faid unto them, I alfo am one of the fervants of Ameer: how fay ye, if I be your guide, and conduct you unto him? And one of them put his horfe to fpeed, and went and carried news to the leaders, faying, "We have found a guide, who can lead us to. "Ameer Timour." And the leaders drew back the reins of their horfes, and gave orders that I fhould appear before them. And they were three troops. And the leader of the firft troop was Tughulluk Khaujeh Burlaus, and the leader of the fecond troop was Ameer Sife $u$ deen, and the leader of the third troop was Toubuk Bahaudur. And when their eyes fell upon me, they were overwhelmed with joy; and they alighted from their horfes, and they came and they kneeled, and they kiffed my ftirrup. And

54 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES بغ كال强 يو تِ垴 jوwg jug polu （s）il $x \leq$ به 0 （f） rï＿

 J场

ulbie Ug ن．U بو با和 «lein d
 dej

I alfo came down from my horfe, and took each of them Book I. in my arms. And I put my turban on the head of Tughulluk Khaujeh; and my girdle, which was very rich in jewels and wrought with gold, I bound on the loins of Ameer Sife u deen, and I cloathed Toubuk Bahaudur in my coat. And they wept, and I wept alfo. And the hour of prayer was arrived, and we prayed together. And we mounted our horfes, and came and alighted at my dwelling: and I collected my people together and made a feaft.

And on the next day Share Behraum, who had feparated from me in the narrownefs of his heart, and had refolved to go into the land of Hind, arrived alfo. And he came into my prefence, and he made excufes. And I took him into my arms, and I accepted his excufes; and I treated him with fuch kindnefs, that he came forth from his confufion.

The seventh design which I formed in the days of enterprife, was this.

When I faw the number of my forces, that they were in all three hundred and thirteen horfemen; I determined with myfelf that I would feize on one of the caftles, and make to myfelf a refidence. And thus I refolved, that I would firft reduce the caftle of Aulaujou; (and Munguli Booghau Suldoze, on the part of Ouleaus Khaujeh, was in that caftle, and that I would make

56 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 p《佺 1, أوغ

و Uو ج الي 1) del od o Jri Jhol dat ulu gg phum لِ dӥllic ر oetig נ, é ging ging ping ing ing ing

 ilg
make it a place wherein to keep my baggage and my ef- Book T. feets. And with this intention I fet out toward the caftle of Aulaujou.

AND Share Behraum had long acquaintance with the governor of that cafle: and he fpoke unto me, faying, "I will go and I will bring Munguli Booghau "over to our fide."

And when Share Behraum went near to the caftle, he fent word unto me, faying, Munguli Booghau fayeth, "Since Ouleaus Khaujeh gave this caftle ${ }^{65}$ in charge unto me, it is far from manhood and from "fidelity that I fhould come over to Ameer Timour, and "give up the caftle:" and he refufed to deliver it up.

But thus much came to pafs, that on receiving information of my approach, terror took poffeflion of his heart, and he left the caftle, and he turned his face to flight. And three hundred men of the tribe of Doulaun Jauwun, who were with him in the caftle, and who from old times were included in the train of my fervants, came and united themfelves unto me.

And I arrived at the defile of Souf, and in thofe days Umlis, the fon of Toumun Bahaudur, who had come down into the neighbourhood of Bullukh to plunder, received news of my coming; and he came with two hundred horfemen and joined me : and I received him kindly, and I encouraged him.
$5^{8}$ DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 هї Jim o 尾隹

وپ
 بالياس خـ ذ

？ NiUg بi ه ル Jje un

- F TIMOUR.

AND even from this place I fent Tum- Book I. mookeh Bahaudur with three horfemen, that having paffed over the waters of Turmuz, he fhould bring intelligence of the army of Jitteh, and inform himfelf of their counfels and defigns.

And Tummookeh returned after four days, and brought intelligence, faying, "The army of Jitteh " is arrived in the land of Turmuz, and they are em"ployed in rapine and in flaughter." When I received this intelligence, I turned the reins of my intention towards the ftreights of Guz. And I faw it was good that I fhould go into the ftreights of Guz , and fojourn there : and feizing an opportunity, that I fhould go down on the army of Jitteh.

And when I came into the ftreights of Guz, I pitched my tents in the plain of Ilchee Booghau, on the border of the waters of Jihoon. And Ouleaus Khaujeh received news of me, that I was arrived in the Atreights of Guz; and he fent his forces upon me.

AND in thofe days intelligence came, that Ameer Soolamaun Burlaus and Ameer Jullaul $u$ deen and Ameer Hindookeh (who were in the army of Jitteh) having turned their faces from the leaders of that tribe, and feparated from them with their forces, were arrived at old Turmuz : and Toulaun Booghau, whom they had $\mathrm{H}_{2}$ fent

行 גї $5 \dot{\omega}$, ب
 Jg تر , Uو ا

ه هأب úsu 0 ,

$$
(3, \leftrightarrows
$$

ulJ位
 Co jor sinil!

$$
\delta_{\mathrm{F}} \mathrm{~T} I \mathrm{M} O \mathrm{U} \text {. }
$$

fent unto me, arrived and faw me, and informed me of Book I. their approach, that they were coming to ferve me with a thouland horfemen.

AND I took their coming for a good omen : and they counfelled me, faying, "Thou muft fall upon "the army of Jitteh by furprife in the night." And when I mounted my horfe, news was brought that the army of Jitteh was arrived and coming down upon me. And I put my forces in order, and I ftood over againft them; and the water was between their army and my army.

And I faw it was good, that I fhould amufe the enemy with words and with perfuafions, and extinguifh the fire of their animofity with the water of policy, and bring them over unto me.

AND I fpoke to the leader of the army of Jitteh (who was Ameer Aboo Saeed), and that which I faid unto him, he took well. But the other leaders: oppofed him and refolved on war. And the fire of my fpirit alfo flafhed forth, and I formed my forces in order of battle.

The eighth design which I formed Design (in defeating the army of Jitteh) was this.

I said unto myfelf, "If I fight with the " army of Jitteh, feeing they are very many, perhaps evil "may come unto my people." And at this time the fpirit

62 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 خ انوا ج كتّ كران در آم وأنـو *

 $\stackrel{i n}{i n} / u_{5}$
 . شٌ愔 u شاك
OF T I M O U R.
of glory affaulted me and faid, Since thou haft advanced Book I. forth with pretenfions to empire, even this is becoming the dignity and the rank of a king, that thou refolve on war; and that thou be either victorious and triumphant, or be flain in battle.

And when I had refolved on this meafure, I faw that the enemy were divided into three bodies; and that they were eager to engage. And I divided my forces into feven fquadrons; and I determined that I would fend down my feven fquadrons upon them, one after the other. And when the flames of war and of flaughter afcended high, I commanded the advanced guards to take to their bows, and to rain arrows upon the enemy.

AND I commanded the fquadrons of the front lines of the left and the right wings to go into battle. And I myfelf advanced with the troops of the fecond lines of the left and the right wings. And in the firf and the fecond charge I drove back the fquadrons of Ameer Aboo Saeed, who was the chief leader of the army of Jitteh.

AND it came to pafs at this time, that Hydur Andookhodee and Munguli Booghau advanced to the fight. And I myfelf oppofed them face to face; and in the firft charge I defeated them alfo. And all the forces of Jitteh diffolved away, and were fcattered and difperfed abroad.

The

64 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

كول كرك با اين بوه ك

位淆

 كرك

$$
0
$$

—

萉 وining

OF TIMOUR.

The ninth design which I formed in Book I. eftablifhing my regal power, was this.

When I had obtained the victory over the leaders of the army of Jitteh, and the news of my advancing forth, and aspiring to the throne, was made public throughout the land of Tooraun; I refolved that I would become a king by generofity and by liberality. And I fam the duration of my power in this, that I fhould divide among my foldiers the treafures which I had gathered together, both the money and the effects: and that I mould firft fubdue the cattle of Kehulkeh.

And when I had given fubfiftence to my army, I put them in order, and I arrived on the border of the water's of Jihoon. And I croffed at the paffage of Turmuz; and I fent out my Kurrauyul * towards the caftle of Kehulkeh ; and I halted fome days on the border of the waters of Jihoon, expecting intelligence from my Kurrauvul.

AND when Ouleaus Khaujeh heard where I was, he fent Alchoun Bahaudur, the brother of Begchuck, with a mighty army upon me. And my Kurrauvulaun were negligent, and went to fleep: and the enemy paffed by them, and advanced night after night, and came upon me by furprife.

\author{

- Scouts, light troops.
}

多
نرو, بی
نرو, ي!
didh $0, \ldots, \ldots$ Jil oth

NiJgri
تn
آر آن
 تا آن ك اليشان فرستارم

تiblm تndë̈rl ر a sou villie
خود كرن ايه بود
गاJ تصس صر pogr نو a ¢ ( 0

AND the land in which I had pitched Book I. my tents was a peninfula : and it had water on three fides. Some tents, which were without the peninfula, were plundered by the forces of Jitteh: and the people that were without, came and entered into the peninfula.

AND I formed my troops in order, and went and ftood on the neck of the peninfula : but the enemy were fearful, and they did not advance to the attack.

AND I tarried ten days in that peninfula; and I afterwards came forth from thence, and pitched my tents + on the border of the river. And I fat down oppofite to the army of Jitteh for the fpace of one month; even till they were feized with fear, and returned back. And I croffed the river, and came down in their camp, and fent forces to purfue them.

The tenth design which I formed for the advancement of my power, was this.

Desten X.

When I had broken the forces of Jitteh, I faw it was good that I fhould go and fubdue the country of Buddukhfhaun, and extend my dominions. And I marched from the border of the river, and encamped at the place called Khullum.

And Ameer Hoofiein, the grandion of Ameer Kurghun, whofe fifter was in my houfe, came;

[^10]6 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 \& 5 عiogo ơ $\mu$ 保

 "
 الی ارU rhing ull

 diujS
 كرU الي بود

品 أِ dïj, yy ung odn the cuns U~O

$$
0 \text { O I I M O UR. }
$$

and we faw each other, and we made a feaft. And I Book I. found it was right, that I fhould go on towards BuddukhShaun. And when I came to Kunduz, I halted in that place until the chiefs of the people of Yeurldaiee came together and joined me. And I gave to each of them a robe of honour, and I encouraged them.

And when the news of the order and the ftrength of my forces arrived to the princes of Buddukhfhaun, they prepared for war. And I faw it was good that I fhould be quick, and break their power, before they could gather their army together. And I marched with expedition, and I came to Taulkhaun.

AND when the news of my arrival at Taulkhaun reached the ears of the princes, they came in at the avenue of peace and faw me. I was fatisfied with my own deliberations, and faw that I had not done wrong. And my power was eftablifhed in the country of Buddukhhaun; and many of the foldiers of Buddukhthaun came unto me and chofe my fervice.

The eleventh design which I formed  Design:  XI.

 for extending my power, was this.When the princes of Buddukhihaun came and fubmitted to my authority, I turned towards Khuttulaun. And when I came into the kingdom of Khuttulaun, Boulaud Booghau and Share Behraum, on account of the ill conduct of Ameer Hooffein, feparated and returned to their tribes.

And

70 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
Uge تiñ

digi

儒 ر审 ها p میا , ریا

 $c^{\infty}$ (slu ت Jog

 digy

$$
O \text { F } \quad \text { I M O UR. }
$$

AND I went and fojourned in the pafture- Book I. lands of the Duht of Koulauk. And I appointed fpies, that they fhould go and bring news of the armies of Jitteh and of Ouleaus Khaujeh.

AND after ten days the fpies brought back intelligence, faying; "The Ameers of Jitteh (and the firft of them is Kooch Timour, the fon of Begchuck; and the fecond of them is Timour Noubukaun ; and the others are Saureek Bahaudur, and Shungoom, and Tughulluk Khaujeh, the brother of Khaujee Beg) with twenty thoufand horfemen, have pitched their tents from the town of Khillautee even to the bridge of Sungheen."

And they fent an ambaffador unto me, that they might know my fituation and the ftrength of my army. And I drew out my army twice in the fight of the ambaffador, and difmiffed him.

AND I faw my advantage in this, that I fhould fet out after the ambaffador : but I found that my forces were not united with me. And to make them unanimous, I faw it was good that I fhould fhew kindnefs to fome, and that with fome I fhould diffemble; and that I fhould tempt fome by riches, and foothe fome by perfuafions, and promifes, and engagements.

AND at this time news arrived, that Tughulluk Suldoze, and Ki Khiffero (who were of my fervants)

DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

「

 U景

*This expreffion occurs in feveral places, and is very obscure. Perhags it means, that if he fucceeded in his views on the kingdom of Maul(#)

- F T I MOUR.
vants) had taken the command of fix thoufand horfemen Book I. of Jitteh, and were bringing them down upon me. And when this news reached the ears of my people, the terror of their hearts was increafed, and they were fore afraid. But I found that Ameer Jaukoo, and Eekoo Timour, and Ameer Soolamaun, and Ameer Jullaul u deen were with me.

The twelfth design which I formed (in uniting the hearts of my people) was this.

I called unto me in private Ameer Jaukoo and Eekoo Timour, and Ameer Soolamaun, and Ameer Jullaul u deen; and I fought to confederate them with me. And when I retired with them in private, my words with them were thefe - "That I had made them "t the partners of my fortune." * And they united firmly in my defigns.

AND of thofe who were diffatisfied, I called each of them unto me in private, and fpoke to them feparately. And thofe who were covetous and avaricious, I tempted by wealth and by riches; and thofe who fixed their eyes on dignities, and commands, and governments, among them I fhared out the countries and the provinces which I had fubdued: and I kept them all fufpended wur u Nuhur, certain principalities fhould be given to them, and rendered independent of the crown.

74 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 －

demo ai倍 ايشْانرا خبر شود بر ايشان ترك كاز آونا

 فية كـنيرة بازن
范』 －Kotul is a Mogul word，and fignifies one appointed to fucceed to the government on the death or difmifion of the governor．By this artful po－ licy he not only fecured his authority over the provinces which he divided J， among between hope and fear, and I appointed a Kotul * to $\underbrace{\text { Book I. }}$ each.

And I raifed the hopes of all my foldiers by gifts and by prefents: and I drew them over unto me by kind words, and by an open countenance. And the fervices which they had done, I extolled ten-fold, and made them joyful: even until thofe who were with me, and thofe who were againft me, all joined with me firmly. And they took an oath, that in fupporting me, and in devoting their lives unto me, they would not be wanting.

AND when my heart was at reft concerning my army, I prepared for the war of Ouleaus Khaujeh. And in defeating him, and in planning the order of battle, thus I determined - that I would ufe fpeed, and that I would go down upon them before they were aware.

AND concerning this I opened the holy book for an omen; and this facred verfe came forth as a fign, "How oft do the weak vanquifh the powerful by " the permiffion of Almighty God!"

AND when I had obtained this token, I formed my foldiers in order, and I divided them into feven fquadrons, and I fet out. And I came in the morning upon Tughulluk Suldoze and Ki Khiffero, (who, among his Ameers, by placing a fpy (for fuch was the Kotul) over the conduct of each of them, but made every province anfwer the purpofe of fatisfying two inftead of one of his Ameers.
$7^{6}$ DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

a انسر 拱

隹

لشّك كه اول الشَ الياس خواج

「їルهしく； ung

$$
O \mathrm{~F} T \mathrm{I} M \bigcirc \mathrm{U} \text {. } being the Hurrauvul, * were advancing) and I over- Book I. powered them at the fecond charge, and I drove them back to the head of the bridge of Sungheen, which was the fation of Ouleaus Khaujeh.
$$

AND as the night was come, I pitched my tents on the ground where I was, and I counfelled with myfelf, that I would not let the plain of battle cool; but that I would charge quick and hot on the army of Ouleaus Khaujeh : and they were near thirty thoufand.

And I confidered, that if I was guilty of delay, fomething might come to pafs, which might caure me to ftand in need of affiftance. And although Ameer Hooffein was encamped behind me, I did not caufe myfelf to ftand in need of his fupport; but by fkilful meafures I defeated the forces of Ouleaus Khaujeh, and the men of Jitteh.

Thethirteenth design which I formed, (in defeating the army of Jitteh and Ouleaus, ``` Khaujeh) was this.

```
Design XIII.

First, I faw it was good, that by a body of my victorious army, I thould confine and make ufelefs. the people of Jitteh: and for this purpofe I ftationed Ameer Muviud Arlaut, and Ouj Kurrau Bahaudur, and Ameer Moofi, with two thoufand horfemen, at the head of the bridge of Sungheen, oppofite to Ouleaus Khaujeh.

\footnotetext{
* Advanced guard.
}

78 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
هتشّ ورك

كانز شضب وته
\(\lambda_{0} 5^{\circ}\), صلي وله

 وظفز تـر \(r\)
ورزبنوقت ديلام كد الياس خواجه با امراء
 ر
 تا vilo آ ue
\[
O F T I M O U R \text {. }
\]

And I myfelf paffed over the river with five thoufand horfemen, and came forth on a hill, which was higher than the army of Ouleaus Khaujeh. And I commanded that in the night they fhould make many fires.

And when the people of Jitteh beheld the fires, and when they faw a ftrong army at the head of the bridge of Sungheen, they were afraid: and the forces of Ouleaus Khaujeh paffed that night in watching.

AND I in that night, on the top of that hill, was employed in humiliations and fupplications to the throne of Almighty God; and I fent forth prayers on Mahummud (may the bleffing of God be upon him, and upon his defcendants, and upon his companions).

And between fleeping and waking I heard a voice, as of fome one fpeaking to me, faying, "Timour, "victory and conqueft and triumph are thine." And when the morning broke, I prayed with my people.

And I faw at this time that Ouleaus Khaujeh and his Ameers were mounted on their horfes, and going troop after troop: and my Ameers and my foldiers called for orders to purfue them. And I faid unto myfelf, I muft delay to purfue them until their intentions be known.

AND after they had travelled four furfungs, they halted : and I difcovered their defign. Behold, their intention

 0و: ou, \(\frac{u^{\prime j} j^{\omega}}{}\) uilie jl unas didul eisg wy إيشان diujgit

 بهانران, وبسياري og unlu \(ر\) o قو روّ
 U.
\[
0 \text { O } \quad \text { I M OUR. }
\]
\[
8 \mathrm{E}
\]
intention was this - that they might bring me down Book I. from the mountain apart, and affault me.

AND the chiefs of the advanced guard, whom I had defeated, had fled unto Ouleaus Khaujeh for Shelter; and he had reproved them.

AND they faw at this time, that I had difcovered their intentions; and that I came not down from the hill : and from neceffity they turned back, and came upon me.

AND I found it was good, that I fhould draw up my forces on the declivity of the hill, and enter into battle. And when the army of Jitteh advanced, and came up on the flope of the hill, and were unable to act, I gave orders to my warriors, that they fhould annoy the enemy with flights of arrows. And they wounded numbers of the foe. And as the night was come, the forces of Jitteh faw that they could effect nothing: and they encamped on the fkirts of the hill, that they might furround it. And in that night I refolved thus - that forming my army into four fquadrons, I myfelf would affault them by furprife. And when this refolution was impreffed on the hearts of my Ameers, I mounted my horfe, and I affaulted the enemy in four different places unawares, toward the morning.

82 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

نران جنك ووانی Ju

 ploir jge jum
 رJg , , وِّا b إ ا Pون نرت wig

\section*{- FT I M OUR.}

AND before the forces of Jitteh could ga- Book I. then themfelves together, my foldiers difperfed them; and in the fkirmifh many warriors of both fides were fain. And the forces of Jitteh cried out, "Let us flee;" and they fled. And I came up to Ouleaus Khaujeh and faid, Yole Bolifhun. \(\dagger\) And when he heard my voice, he rallied his forces in wrath; and they returned.

AND there was fkirmifhing between my army and his army until the rifing of the fun. And the quivers were emptied, and the enemy fought flying. And they fled even to the diftance of four furfungs, where their tents were pitched; and they halted there in a broken condition. And I alfo drew in the reins from purfuing them, and came down \(\ddagger\) in the place where I was.

When the forces of Jitteh fam that they were broken and defeated, they ventured not to renew the fight. And I spread my folders round the camp of Ouleaus Khaujeh, and I fought with them continually: even until Ouleaus Khaujeh, from extreme neceffity, croffed the waters of Khujjund. And I alfo left off parfuing them, and I returned victorious and triumphant to Mauwur u Nuhur.

\section*{AND I deliberated concerning the eftablih-} ment of my power; and my deliberations were there -

\footnotetext{
+ A Mogul expreffion of falutation, the precife meaning of which is not known.
\(\ddagger\) i.e. encamped on the pot where he had arrived.
}

84 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES 1，رو （

保
 ， 0 人 باب

 تio قشّون ايل
余 2

OF TIMOUR.
that I fhould render the Ameers obedient and fubmiffive Book I. unto me. For each of them thought himfelf a chief of exalted dignity; and each of them deemed himfelf greater than the reft. And firf, I named Ameer Hooffein (the grandfon of Ameer Kurghun) who had exalted the fandard of power in Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur, the partner of my fortune; and I treated him with attention. And although he outwardly fhewed friendihip toward me, yet did he always envy and oppofe me.

And he wanted that he himfelf fhould be eftablifhed on the royal throne of Mauwur u Nuhur. And I had no faith in him, and I carried him to the fepulchre of Khaujeh fhums \(u\) deen, and made him fwear friendthip unto me. And he promifed and fwore that he would not fwerve from his engagement.

And concerning his friendfhip with me, he took an oath three times on the holy book. And when at laft he broke his oaths, his breach of faith delivered him into my hands.

And Sheikh Mahummud, the fon of Ameer Biaun Suldoze, thought himfelf a mighty chief. And I gained his affections by foothings; and I brought him with feven Kufhoons to fubmit unto me, and I made him my fervant. And to each of the Ameers of thofe Kufhoons I gave the command of a province.
 （范保范

 د．U0

 و U元 نيآور）
 شَ شَ נ Jத

And Share Behraum, who had feparated from me and returned to his tribe, and remained in a fate of difobedience; to him I gave encouragement, and called him unto me. And he came with his tribe, and fubmitted to my authority. And I made him my fervant, and I conferred a province upon him.

AND there was relationfhip between me and Ameer Hooffein: and although I treated him with affection and with kindnefs, he was not my friend; and he even took from me the country of Bullukh and the caftle of Shaudumaun. And I alfo, for the fake of his fifter who was in my house, regarded it not. And I chewed fuch kindnefs unto him, that the Ameers who were in a fate of enmity with me, fubmitted to my authority. But Ameer Hooffein fill acted towards me with treachery and fraud, and fought to overthrow me: even until I refolved that I would force him to fubmiffion by the edge of the Sword.

AN D when I became the lord of the land of Tooraun, and had made clean the kingdom of Mauiwar \(u\) Nuhur from the abominations \(\dagger\) of the Ouzbuks; certain of the Ameers of Auloofaut fubmitted not to my government. And they, with their tribes, diffembled with me. And certain of my Ameers fpoke in their behalf, flying, "Since we are all partners of the fame for"tune, they mut be confidered as the partners of thy for"tune alto." But their words made no impreffion upon me.

\footnotetext{
+ Literally, the weeds and the briars.
}

愔 یِ

 بس

وبـنــــران 0بــي كريهه بغال

 PJ, S L L M K S
 رتّه وبرا بخور متنت ساختّم jو \(\Lambda_{w}\) ?

 noly

AND I deliberated with myfelf, faying, Book I. Since God is one and hath no partner, therefore the vicegerent over the land of the Lord (the Almighty and the Holy) muft be one only.

AND at this time Baubau Aali Shaah \(\dagger\) came before me and faid, "Timour, God Almighty " hath declared, that if there were two Gods in the " heavens and in the earth, the order of the univerfe "would end in horror and confufion." And I took warning by his words.

AND I opened the holy book for an omen, and this facred verfe came forth as a fign, "Truly we "have appointed thee vicegerent upon "EARTH." And I took this omen as a favour from heaven ; and I formed meafures for reducing to fubmiffion thofe Ameers who thought themfelves the partners of my fortune and dominion.

AND I firf went to the fation, and to the dwelling, of Ameer Haujee Burlaus, and I united him with me.

And Ameer Sheikh Mahummud, the fon of Biaun Suldoze, was always drinking wine and ftrong fpirits; and in the end the wine deftroyed him, and he departed from the world, and I took poffeffion of his lands.
+ One of thofe Dervifhes who profeffed ideotifm. The Eaft is full of this kind of Santons, who are held in great veneration by the Mahummudans.

(

 تibliw do خ

品

 با Niugit و villi

 önvi + i.e. By the extraordinary favours, which he conferred upon him, he made him afhamed of, his former conduct.人noly.

AND to Ameer Bauezeed Jullauir, who Book I. was ruler over the province of Khojjund, I gave advice: but it made not an impreffion upon him, until the people of his tribe role up againft him, and feized him, and brought him unto me. And I exalted him and caused him to bluff. +

And to Ameer Ilchee Booghau Suldoze, who had exalted the ftandard of power in the city of Bullukh, I oppofed Ameer Hooffein; who laid claim to the imperial city \(\ddagger\) of his grandfather, Ameer Kurghun.

And Mahummud Khaujeh Exude (who was of the hord of Tauemun) having feized on the country of Shereghaunaut, had exalted the fandard of enmity againft me: and I gave him another province, and made him my fervant.

AND the princes of Buddukhhhaun, who ruled over the countries of Buddukhfhaun, had elevated the enfigns of hoftility againft me. And I dealt artfully with each of them, \(\|\) until they difputed among themfelves, and returned back unto me.

And Ki Khiffero, and Aljauitoo Burdi had feized on the countries of Khuttulaun, and Arhung. And I font affiftance to Ki Khiffero, until he went and took poffeffion of the lands of Aljauitoo Burdi : and Aljauitoo Burdi came to me for fhelter.
\(\ddagger\) i.e. The city of Bullukh.
Ii.e. Sowed animofities among them, and by that means obliged them to fubmit.

92 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

Ut

 Jun ur \(\longrightarrow\) dg un u and in ai lg filo ii

 \(0 \leqslant\)

And Ameer Khizzur Yeffooree, affifted by Book I. the tribe of Yeffoor, had taken poffeffion of the province of Taurhkund. And I reconciled Aljauitoo Burdi and Ki Khiffero to each other, and fent forces with them; until they went, and over-run, and pillaged the tribe of Yeffoor. And the power of Ameer Khizzur was reduced low, and he fled to me for protection.

AND when I had cleared the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur from difcord and anarchy, my armies acquired great ftrength; and the tribe of Burlaus obtained renown ; and the Kufhoonaut and the Toumaunaut of Chughtauee became celebrated on account of my exploits.

And I became the ruler of all the tribes, and of the Kufhoonaut, and of the Toumaunaut, and of the people. But certain caftles of Mauwur u Nuhur were in the poffeffion of Ameer Hooffein; and in them my authority was not eftablifhed.

And when Ameer Hooffein beheld my might and my power, his envy was excited againft me. And he exalted the ftandard of hoftility, and he broke his oaths. And I advanced a great way toward him, and he came not at all toward me. \(\dagger\) And he took from me the caftle of Kurfhee by fraud. And he appointed Ameer Moofi, with feven thoufand horfemen, to guard the cafte
+ i.e. Endeavoured to bring about a reconciliation, to which Ameer Hooffein continued adverfe.
94. DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
 vol ju uno Jhä̈nt

(S) ذ I ( pos ن

号 م怰 (igl كا ا ا
 IU, خوترg مUlU تnai PJ, ungul?
\[
O \quad T I M O U R \text {. }
\]
of Kurfhee : and he afterwards fent five thoufand horfe- Book I. men more. And he took meafures for my deftruction.

AND on this account the honour of my ftation urged me on, that I fhould take from him the caftle of Kurhee. And certain of my Ameers counfelled me, that I fhould go and feize it by force. But concerning the reduction of the caftle of Kurfhee I deliberated thus - If I attempt to reduce it by a fiege, perhaps my forces may be repulfed. And in a fiege feveral dangers occurred to my mind ; and I rejected that meafure.

And I faw it was good that I fhould turn my face toward Khoraufaun, until the hearts of the keepers of the caftle fhould be at reft; and that then I fhould return and march with fpeed, and affault the caftle by furprife, and reduce it. And I marched, and went toward Khoraufaun.

When I croffed the waters of Amuveah, a Kauruvvaun arrived from Khoraufaun ; and they were journeying toward Kurfhee. And the leader of that Kauruvvaun brought gifts unto me, and I afked of him the ftate of the Ameers of Khoraufaun. And I told him that I was travelling to the kingdom of Khoraufaun ; and I difmiffed him.

AND I fent a fpy with the people of the Kauruvvaun, and I tarried on the border of the waters of Amuveah

96 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 حو diluil
位 , ك јд

 \(r-\operatorname{Lr}_{-} ; x_{-} \rightarrow\) g) هت̈, נ

Amuveah until the fpy brought word, that the people of Book I. the Kauruvvaun had given intelligence to Ameer Mooff, faying; "We faw Ameer Timour on the border of the "waters of Amuveah; and he was going toward Kho"raufaun."

And when Ameer Moofi and the forces of Ameer Hooffein heard this news, they were glad of heart; and they pitched their tents, and fpread abroad the carpet of riot and diffipation.

And when I received intelligence thereof, I felected two hundred and forty three brave, and refolute, and tried, and experienced warriors from among my forces ; and I re-croffed the waters of Amuveah. And I marched quick, and I arrived at Sharekund. And I halted for one night and for one day. And I marched from thence with great fpeed; and I alighted at the diftance of a furfung from the caftle of Kurfhee.

And I commanded that they fhould make ready ladders, and bind them together with ropes. And at this time Ameer Yaukoo kneeled before me, and faid, " Many of our warriors have remained behind: until they "st fhall arrive, delay is neceffary." And at this time it came into my mind that I would go alone and examine the caftle.

AND I took forty warriors with me, and I turned my face toward the caftle of Kurfhee. And when the blacknefs of the caftle appeared in fight, I commanded chol J ilg l j; ; لا

何 Polutivy

 (0) dijg Niش̈ش

位 plilu, e, u a

 u
my warriors to halt. And I took with me Mubbufhur Book I. and Abdullah, who had been born in my houfe. And when I came to the border of the ditch, I faw that the ditch was full of water. And I looked round about, and I beheld a waterpipe; \(\dagger\) and water ran through that pipe to the caftle, and they had laid it acrofs the ditch.

And I delivered my horfe to Mubbufhur, and I croffed the ditch on that pipe, and I came to the foot of the wall. And I went on to the portal, and ftruck on the door with my hand; and I difcovered that the guards of the portal were afleep.

And they had filled up the portal behind the door with clay and with earth. And I looked round the walls of the caftle, and faw the place where the fteps of the ladders could be fixed. And I returned, and I mounted my horfe, and went back to my warriors.

AND the troops who had remained behind came with the ladders, and they were all armed; and they took up the ladders, and I turned my face toward the caftle. And they croffed the ditch on the pipe; and having fixed their ladders, they entered on the walls of the caftle. And when forty refolute men had entered the cafte, I alfo placed my foot on the ladder, and went in unto them. And they founded their trumpets; and by the favour of Almighty God I obtained poffeffion of the caftle.

And when this news reached the ears of Ameer Hooffein, he entered into the road of deceit and diffimulation; and, under the cloak of friendfhip and intimacy, he fought to bring me into his power.

\footnotetext{
+ A trunk of a tree hollowed into a pipe.
}

100 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 ن． （ in er cimilune
 U با
Sc
for pu， 水有 با

 טیル diu

Thus I acted for my deliverance from the Book I. treachery and perfidy of Ameer Hooffein, who fought to make me his prifoner.

WHEN Ameer Hooffein fent unto me a Koraun, by which he had taken an oath that nought was in his heart but friendhip and brotherly affection towards me; and fent a meffage unto me, faying, "If there " be ought in my heart contrary to that which I fay; " and if I break my oath, and do evil unto thee, may "this book of God feize upon me;" - feeing that I thought him a true believer, I put confidence in his words : even until he fent a perfon unto me, and a meffage, faying, "If it may be fo that we may fee each "other in the pafs of Chukchuk, and renew our antient " faith, truly it will be better."

AND this was his defign, that by perfidy and treachery he might feize upon me. And although I knew that much faith was not to be placed on his word, or on his oath; yet, out of refpect to the holy Koraun, I refolved that I would go to meet him. But I determined that I would firft fend a number of my refolute warriors, and fecrete them round about the pafs of Chukchuk, and that I myfelf would go with another body of my people and fee Ameer Hooffein.

AND I fent advice to my friends, who were the followers of Ameer Hooffein, that they fhould inform

DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
辑 保
 ه ها

 وت，واولٍ ＊

仿

 رسيل ك
 4n

\section*{O F I M OUR.}
inform me of his defigns. And Share Behraum, who was Book I. of my friends, informed me of the defigns of Ameer Hooffein. And Ameer Hooffein flew him; and fet out with a thoufand horfemen to come upon me.

AND at that time I had pitched my tents at the entrance of the pafs, and this news came unto me. And I ordered my forces: and, behold, the vanguard of Ameer Hooffein appeared in fight. And my Kurrauvulaun brought word, faying, "It is the army of Ameer "Hooflein; and, lo! Ameer Hoffein himfelf cometh "not with them: for he hath heard that Ameer \(\psi\) is come "alone, and he hath fent an army to feize thee."

AND, behold, I was prepared; and two hundred horfemen were all that were with me. And I waited until the forces of Ameer Hooflein had entered the pafs : and I fent a meffenger to the people whom I had fent before me, and I commanded them to feize the way of their retreat. And I myfelf oppofed them face to face. And I enclofed my enemies in that pafs, and I took many prifoners. And I gathered my people together, and I ordered them, and fet out towards Kurfhee. And by experience it was known unto me, that a friend in all places cometh to ufe. \(\ddagger\)

\section*{AND I wrote to Ameer Hooflein the fenfe} of this verfe, in the Toorki \| language;

\footnotetext{
+ i. e. Timour.
\(\ddagger\) Alluding to the intelligence which he had received from Share Behraume II i, e, the Mogul.
}

104 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
aligi dring \(ل\) ( p, \(\leftrightarrows\); U

0,5 نیپ

 f خطور
据
 بـ 5 gror jor وتون برليغ طالب الياس خواجه بايشأن Juny
"Say, O Zephyr, to that friend, the layer of the fnares \(\underbrace{\text { Book I. }}\) " of treachery,
"Doth not the treachery return back to the doer of " treachery ?"
And when Ameer Hooffein received my meffage, he was afhamed and confounded ; and he made excufes. And I had faith in him no more, and I was no more deceived by his words.

In making clean the land of Tooraun from thofe of the tribe of Ouzbuk who had efcaped the fword, thus I acted.

When I drove forth from Mauwur u Nuhur the armies of Jitteh, and of Ouleaus Khaujeh, and forced them to crofs the waters of Khujjund, certain of the troops of Ouzbuk were enclofed in the caftles of Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur; and when I fought to fend forces upon them, it came into my mind that perhaps the war might be tedious and of long duration.

AND at that time news came unto me, that the Ouzbuks continued in the caftles; and I faw it was not good that I fhould fend my armies againft them. And I wrote a fummons, as if from Ouleaus Khaujeh, and I gave it to an Ouzbuk, and I fent forces along with him. And I commanded them to fhew themfelves, and to raife a great duft.

AND when the Ouzbuks received the fummons of Ouleaus Khaujeh, calling them unto him, 0 and غ岲

人0ly dش tilkut
OF TIMOUR.
and faw the duft raifed by my people ; they quitted the Book I. caftles, night after night, and fled. And the land of Mauwur u Nuhur was delivered from thofe oppreffors who had fought to flay me: and that kingdom fubmitted to my government.

AND I regarded the ties of kindred, and gave to Ameer Hooffein the country of Bullukh and the caftle of Shaudumaun. And he perceived not the degree of my kindnefs and regard ; and he fought to deftroy me. And in reducing Ameer Hooffein thus I determined.

When he faw the figns of my victories and conquefts, his envy was excited; and he molefted me, and he molefted his fifter who was in my houfe; and he fought to take Mauwur u Nuhur from me. And he girded up his loins to flay me. And he came forth many times to fight with me: and he was defeated every time.

When his iniquity and injuftice had reached the limits of excefs, and it was near that he fhould become conqueror over me, and expel me; in thofe days his Ameers, becaufe of the evils which he had done unto them, turned back from him. And he flew Humoochee, the brother of Ameer Ki Khiffero, the ruler of Khuttulaun. And Ameer Ki Khiffero rebelled in Khuttulaun.

AND his Ameers were in a fate of enmity; and he thought that they were his friends. And he \(\mathrm{O}_{2}\) brought lij，gí نr ر． isfarun und ü ar pulu u，lug

 ر delelg g \(\lambda_{0} 1\) d \(x\)＇ا

唯 放

号

＋He was obliged to deliver up the caftle to Timour，from whom he re－ ceived a promife of perfonal fafety；but was Alain neverthelefs fome days after by certain of that prince＇s officers whom he had formerly injured． Vid．Hifoire de Timur－Bef，Tom．I．p．191． suoly brought forth his tents from the land of Bullukh, with a Book I. refolution to drive me out and deftroy me. And they brought unto me this news, and I faw my advantage in this, that even before Ameer Hooffein could put himfelf in motion, I fhould go down upon him.

AND I turned toward Bullukh, with the people that were with me: and my victorious forces came from all parts, and from all fides, and were gathered together. And having arrived on the borders of the land of Bullukh, I pitched my tents. And Ameer Hooffein came forth to fight with, and expel, me; and it availed him not. And he entered into the caftle, and was enclofed therein. And that befel him which did befall him. +

Concerning thofe who had done evil unto me, and who, reflecting on their evil doings, thought in their hearts that I fhould flay them, thus I acted.

When Ameer Hooffein fell into my hands, and his Servants and his Ameers were fufpicious of me, that I would flay them; although I had determined to put them to death, yet, as they were warriors, I faw it was good that I fhould difpel their fears, and employ them in war. \(\ddagger\)

\footnotetext{
\(\ddagger\) The principal Ameers of Bullukh having revolted from Timour, and fubmitted to their former prince Sooltaun Ahmud Iullauir.
}

DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 טت,
(S)

 ت

Uy

ن.

 dou pltain ار ار dof de pus u.j \(1, \mathrm{~J}\) 位
 ©

A N D the Ameer ul Omurau of Ameer Book I. Hooffein was the governor of Buddukhfhaun; and he had met me face to face many times, and had fought againft me. And when he heard that Ameer Hooflein was flain, he feared my juftice, and he collected himfelf together. And if I had appointed an army to feize him, it would not have been proper.

AND I feigned negligence toward him: and I faw it was good that I fhould fpeak well of his conduct, and praife his courage and his magnanimity in the affemblies, and among the people: until his friends wrote unto him, faying, "Ameer Timour is inclined to fhew "favour and mercy unto thee." And he fupplicated me fubmiffively, and he refted on my clemency and favour ; and he came to me for protection.

The design which I formed for fubduing the capital city of Khoraufaun, was this. When the kingdom of Bullukh, and the caftle of Shaudumaun, and the countries of Buddukhihaun were fubdued; and when Ameer Hooffein was flain; the news thereof came to Mullik Gheaus u deen the ruler of Khoraufaun, and he. trembled for himfelf. And he began to gather together his foldiers and his army; and he fought to fecure himfelf.

> AND I faw my fuccefs in this, that I fhould throw the people of Khoraufaun into the fleep of negligence: and for this reafon I turned back the reins

112 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
ण \(\ddagger\) Jeyg p تnl لوت

Niog＿س ونو
úاء

押 说 \＆（s，كin ب ب روس dij，

U U U

 Uo dw Ul \(^{\prime}\) ，片 بايا

\section*{OF T I M O UR.}
of my intention toward Summurkund. And after that a Book I. letter from my Peer came unto me, faying; "Mullik "Gheaus u deen is employed in tyranny and oppreffion."

And when, from the news of my return toward Summurkund, Mullik Gheaus u deen had fat down quiet and fecure, I refolved thus \(\quad\) "Now the hearts "of the people of Khoraufaun are no longer afraid of me, "I muft fall upon them."

And I turned back from the neighbourhood of Bullukh; and with the army which I had left in Bullukh, I marched with fpeed : and, coming to Hurraut, I took Mullik Gheaus u deen in the fleep of fecurity. And he was helplefs, and he came forth from the city of Hurraut, and he prefented unto me his treafures, and his wealth, and his kingdom. And the kingdom of Khoraufaun was fubdued; and the Ameers of Khoraufaun, every one of them, fubmitted unto me.

The designs which I formed for conquering the countries of Seiftaun, and Kundahaur, and the land of the Afghauns, were thefe. When the kingdom of Khoraufaun was reduced to obedience, my Ameers counfelled me, faying, "Thou muft fend armies " to fubdue thefe three countries." I anfwered them, faying, If the matter be not brought to pafs by the armies, without remedy, I myfelf muft turn the reins of

114 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
涫 U． ，بینی

نو⿻丷

「و！

 （少 ＜ ＜ （宛 נुg （1） 9
my intention that way: and, behold, I have very much Book I. bufinefs before me.

AND I faw it was good, that I fhould write mandates of encouragement to the rulers of thofe countries, to this purport - "If ye come in unto me, "come; and if ye refufe, refufe : and do that which ye "fee beft." And, behold, the meafure was good: and as foon as my mandates arrived, they placed the forehead of fubmiffion on the path of obedience.

The design which I formed for vanquifhing Auroos Khaun, and for fubduing the Dufht of Kipchauk, was this. When Touktummifh Buddau Khaun was defeated by Auroos Khaun, and fled to me for fhelter, I counfelled with myfelf whether I fhould fend an army with Touktummifh Khaun, or whether I thould go myfelf.

And at this time the ambaffador of Auroos Khaun arrived. And I faw my advantage in this that I fhould fpeak fair to his ambaffador, and difmifs him, and fhut up the road to the Dufht, and appoint an army to fet out after the ambaffador; -and that on the day after that on which the ambaffador fhould enter the prefence of Auroos Khaun, without fufpicion; whilf Auroos Khaun fhould be unprepared, my forces thould affault him.

116
DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
جون行 díu

ט
 له vill
 ارالده يساتة عاقّ كرم
Jgh od N

 1)

 Jlim;
\[
O \text { F I M O U R. }
\]

AND when I did fo, the meafure proved Book I. fuccefsful. For when the ambaffador arrived, even whilft he related his ftory, my victorious armies, like unto an unforefeen calamity, poured on the head of Auroos Khaun. And Auroos Khaun had not the power to oppofe them; and he refolved on flight. And the Dufht of Kipchauk was fubdued. +

The designs which I formed for fubduing the countries of Kilaun, and Jurjaun, and Mauzinduraun, and Azzurbauejaun, and Shurwaun, and Fauris, and Erauk, were thefe. In thofe days, when the petitions of the people of Erauk, on account of the oppreffions of the race of Muzzuffur, and of the rulers of the nations, came unto me, I refolved to go down upon Erauk.

AND at this time it came into my mind, that if the rulers of thofe countries fhould join together to oppofe me, I muft be well prepared for war : and my Ameers gave this counfel, faying, "We muft go prepa"red for war." And I refolved with myfelf, that I would make them obedient unto me, one by one; and that I would chaftife thofe who refufed to fubmit.

And the firf perfon, who fought my protection, was Ameer Aali the ruler of Mauzinduraun, + Upon the death of Auroos Khaun, which happened foon after his defeat, Touktummifh Khaun was eftablifhed on the throne of the Dufht of Kipchauk, by the affiftance of Timour.

118 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
S

* *㑕出 نا باغي
 pu, e ubial e

Mblo jo
:ارس وتته

 تعين
OF TIMOUR.
who fent gifts unto me; and in the letter which he Book I. wrote unto me, he inferted this - "We, who are of the "pofterity of Aali, have refted fatisfied with this land.
 "csoill + That is to fay; If thou wilt take it from "us, thy power is greater than ours; but if thou wilt "Spare us, it will come nearer to clemency."

I CONSIDERED the fubmiffion of the ruler of Mauzinduraun as a happy omen ; and I turned toward the countries of Kilaun and Jurjaun. And when the princes of thofe countries fubmitted not unto me, I appointed troops to go down upon them ; and I myfelf drew my army into Erauk.

AND I conquered the city of Isfahaun. And I trufted in the people of Isfahaun ; and I delivered the caftle into their hands. And they rebelled; and the Daurogheh, whom I had placed over them, they flew, with three thoufand of the foldiers. And I alfo commanded that a general flaughter fhould be made of the people of Isfahaun.

The design which I formed for the reduction of the chief city of Fauris, and the reft of Erauk, is this.

When I left Sharauze in the hands of the defcendants of Muzzuffur, and ftationed three thoufand.

120 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES 位 ا didg بی：بیرون
据

 ن نـو

جون تiv
 ه و ：رو
 ذان كركب اين بول ～～～ بوأسطه آنكه ثنج 准
\[
0 \text { F I M O UR. }
\]
men in Isfahaun, and drew my armies towards the Dufht Book I. of Kipchauk, to reduce and drive out Touktummifh Khaun, \(\uparrow\) the people of Isfahaun put my Daurogheh to death : and the inhabitants of Sharauze alfo turned afide from their obedience.

AND on thefe accounts I went down upon the kingdom of Erauk a fecond time, and I collected together eighty thoufand horfemen. And I reflected, that if I entered into Erauk at one time with this mighty atmy, that they could not be fupported. And I commanded my armies, that they fhould invade the kingdom of Erauk, one after the other.

AND when I had refolved thus, I divided my forces into three armies, and fent them down before me. And the divided troops who had come together in the kingdom of Erauk, were all difperfed abroad. And I drew an army on Sharauze : and Shaah Munfoor oppofed me face to face. And he met with his reward. \(\ddagger\)

The design which I formed in defeating Touktummifh Khaun was this.

WHEN my armies were weakened by a purfuit of five months after Touktummifh Khaun in the Dufht of Kipchauk, famine and fcarcity were very great in my army, even fo that for many days my people lived

\footnotetext{
+ Who, forgetting the repeated fervices and affiftances which he had received from Timour, had during his abfence in Perfia &xc, made incurfions into Mauwur a Nuhur.
\(\ddagger\) i.e. was flain in the action.
}

 , Sing , ling: Aim, s , um o uniting dig (

 مراز行 نكونسار wازّ
+ To render the importance of this DEsIGN intelligible, it may be proper to observe, that in afiatic encounters the difappearance or retreat of the grand ftandard of the prince has ever been, and fill is, attended with the lofs of the battle. This standard is confpicuous for its fize, and accompanies that body of troops immediately headed by the prince himfelf. The eyes of the whole army are fixed upon it. While it continues difplayed and advancing, the troops are fatisfied that their prince is with them; but the moment it difappears, or retreats, they conclude that he is either fain or flying from the field : and the difperfion of his forces immediately follows.
Ali Yezzudi appears to be totally ignorant of the good underfanding which had taken place between Timour and the ftandard-bearer of Touktummifh Khaun. Unacquainted with this circumftance, he is at a lops to account for certain of the emperor's actions prior to the battle. In relating the movements of the army a thor time before the action, he fays, "Tocat-
" mich
OF T M O U R.
on the fleh of the beafts of the forefts, and on the eggs Book I. of the birds of the defert. And Touktummifh Khaun heard of the fate of my people, and found his advantage; and, with an army more numerous than the ants and the locuits, came upon me, and oppored me face to face.

A ND my people were an hungered, and the army of Touktummifh Khaun were full. And my chiefs and my Ameers fet not their hearts upon battle, until my fons and my grandfons came, and kneeled down, and devoted their lives unto me.

AND at this time the fandard-bearer of Touktummifh plotted fecretly with me. And I found it was good that I fhould affault the foe; and that, when the two armies were engaged, the ftandard-bearer of Touktumminh Khaun fhould invert his ftandard. \(\dagger\)
" mich s'étoit imaginé que lorfque Timur arriveroit au fleuve de Tic, il le "t traverferoit par les paffages ordinaires, c'eft pourquoi il s'étoit mis en em"bufcade pour le furprendre dans ce paflage: mais l'Empereur s'étoit prén"c cautionné contre les deffeins de Tocatmich; il avoit paffé le fleuve à la \({ }^{66}\) nage par un autre endroit, et il étoit arrivé près de lui fans peril. Quoi" qu'il en Joit, ce Prince ayant compris la maniere d'agir de Tocatmich Can, "il s'arrêta dans ce lieu là, jufqu'à ce que toutes les Troupes s'y fuffent "s rendues, &cc." Vid. Hifi. Timur-Bec, Tom. II. p. 98.

This is another proof of the fuperiority of the hiftory of Timour, written by himfelf, over that written by Aali Yezzudi; who, though a tolerably accurate narrator of the exploits of Timour, appears to be, in moft cafes, an abfolute ftranger to the fecret fprings and motives which influenced his conduct.

شرا Uiج \(_{\rightarrow}\) J U U U dilü

俍

 وفرار نهو

将
بغاد وعرات عرب
苋 1） بتو ازانی
 نا + i．e．At the time that the advanced guard was engaged，Timour， affured of fuccefs from his intrigue with the ftandard－bearer of Touktum－ mifh， Jlg

A N D when it reached the ears of the Book I. Ameers and the Leaders, that my children had kneeled before me, and had offered to devote their lives unto me, they became ftrong of heart, and they refolved on battle.

AND I appointed the prince Abau Bukkur, with eight thoufand horfemen, the advanced guard. And when the flames of war and of flaughter afcended high, I commanded that the tents fhould be pitched, and that they fhould prepare victuals. \(\dagger\)

AND at this time the fandard of Touktummifh Khaun was inverted : and Touktummifh, difmayed and confounded, gave the tribe of Jouji to the wind of defolation; and turned his back on the field of flaughter, and fled.

The design which I formed for the reduction of Bughdaud (the city of Iflaum) and Erauk a Arrub, was this.

After I had fubdued Erauk a Ajjum and Fauris, in thofe days a letter from Koottub ul Aktaub, my Peer, came unto me, faying, "The lord of Erauk "a Ajjum and Arrub hath given Erauk unto thee."

AND thus I acted in the reduction of Bughdaud. I firft fent an ambaffador to Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir, that he might inform himfelf of the prowefs mifh, ordered in contempt the cavalry of his main body to difmount and prepare their vietuals Vid. Hif. Timur-Bec, Tom. II. p. 114.
 Aldrer

 Jリ
佔 ت

ناك كردم إين بود

 ا أثّ

侕 pogr \({ }^{\circ}\) 自 rugi r با ilg
and the conduct of Sooltaun Ahmud the ruler of Bugh- Book I. daud, and of the ftrength of his forces.

AND the ambaffador went to Bughdaud, and wrote word unto me, laying, "Behold, Sultaun Ah" mud is a piece of animated flefh: and 10 , he hath "two eyes." +

AND I refted on the favour of the Al mighty; and I marched with fpeed, and I came to Bughdaud fuddenly. And Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir refolved on flight, and he fled toward Kurbullau: and Bughdaud, (the houfe of Illaum) was conquered.

The design which I formed for extirpating Touktummifh Khaun was this.

After he had given up the tribe of Jouji to the wind of defolation, and had been put to flight; he, in the hour of advantage, fent down a mighty army on the kingdom of Azzurbauejan by the way of Durbund and Sharevaun, and began to raife commotions therein. And when I had conquered the two Erauks, thus I refolved to deftroy him - that I would go into the Dufht of: Kipchauk with a mighty army by the way of Durbund.

AND I reviewed my armies, and, behold, they food on four furfungs of ground \(\ddagger\) in battle array : and I gave thanks to God.
+ A mode of fpeech ufed by the ambaffador to exprefs his contempt of the abilities of Sooltaun Ahmud. \(\ddagger\) About \(I_{3}\). Englifh miles.

128 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
(و) vïlg, 小їا 0 ,

 1)

ان

 ب"
1, clio اهر شـشـ
O F T I M O U R.

AND I crofied the waters of Timour \(\uparrow\). Book I. And I wrote mandates to the people, and the tribes of the Dufht of Kipchauk, faying; Whoever cometh in unto me, let him come; and whoever refufeth, let him refufe.

And in the year feven hundred and ninety feven I entered the Dufht of Kipchauk. And I went to the boundaries of the land of the north; and the people, and the tribes of Jouji, who oppofed me, I deftroyed. And I fubdued the countries and the caftles of the fifth and of the fixth region. \(\ddagger\) And I returned victorious and triumphant.

My design, for reducing the empire of Hindoftaun, was this. Firf, to difcover the thoughts of my Sons and of my Ameers, I demanded counfel of them.

The prince Peer Mahummud Jehaungheer faid; "Behold, when we fhall fubdue the empire of "Hind, with the gold of Hind, we fhall become the "conquerors of the world."

AND the prince Mahummud Sooltaun fpoke, faying; "We may fubdue Hina: yet Hindo"ftaun hath many ramparts. Firft, the rivers; and fe"condly, the wilderneffes and the forefts; and thirdly, "the foldiers clad in armour; and fourthly, the ele"phants, deftroyers of men."
+ The word Timour is probably an error.
\(\ddagger\) He penetrated to Mofow, at that time the capital of Ruffia, which he pillaged. Vid. HiJ. Timur-Bec, Tom.II. p. 363 . See alfo note on p. I3t-

130．DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES ds تir unma Ulblw odl；，－ind的保
 Iر J ار ار ا保

 Lo \(\dot{S}^{n m o}\) ก \(\phi\) ا （قا

 تٌ
\[
O \text { F } \quad \text { I M O U R. }
\]

The prince Sooltaun Hooffein fpole, and Book I. faid; "When we fhall have conquered Hindoftaun, we " fhall become the lords and the rulers of four re"gions." +

The prince Shaahrokh faid ; "I have read " in the Toorki,annals, that there are five mighty " kings, whom, becaufe of their greatnefs, they mention " not by their names. For, behold, they call the king " of Hind, Daurau; and the king of Room they call " Keefur ; and the king of Khuttun, and Cheen, and "Maucheen, they file Fughfoor; and they call the king " of Toorkiftaun, Khaukaun ; and they call the lord of "Eraun, and of Tooraun, King of kings. And, 10! " the power of the King of kings hath, in all times, been " over the empire of Hindoftaun : and fince the land of "Eraun, and the land of Tooraun are in our hands, it "behoveth us to conquer Hindoftaun alfo."

The Ameers fpoke, and faid; " Although "we may fubdue Hind, yet if we tarry in that land, our "pofterity will be loft; and our children, and our grand "children, will degenerate from the vigour of their fore"fathers, and become fpeakers of the language of Hind."

AND I had refolved on the conquert of Hindoftaun, and I was loth to defift from my refolution: and I anfwered them, faying; "I will turn to Almighty " God, and I will feek the fign of war in the Koraun,

\footnotetext{
\(t\) i.e. Four fevenths of the known world. For the Arabians and Perfians, following the antient Greek writers, diftribute what they imagine the habitable parts of the earth, into feven regions or climates.
}
 uiv,s جون از
 Nio, ك و

凹
 بينازاز وانـوالج وقشونات ايـشانرا بكوتل & N إي اليشان

 رU 涫

 - اbluyg

> OFITMOUR.
"that whatever be the will of God, that I may do." Book I. And they all confented thereto.

AND when I fought an omen in the holy book, this facred verfe came forth - "OPROPHET "fight with the infidels and the únbe"lievers." And when the doctors of the law explained the meaning of the verfe to the Ameers, they hung down their heads, and they were filent. And my heart was grieved by their filence.

AND I deliberated with myfelf concerning the Ameers who oppofed the reduction of Hindoftaun, whether I fhould throw them down from their commands, and give their troops, and their Kufhoons to their Kom tuls : but fince I myfelf had exalted them, I fought not to pull them down. And I treated them with kindnefs: and although they had angered me, yet, as they were unanimous at laft, I regarded it not.

And I called a council a fecond time; and. having pitched my tents toward Hindoftaun, I repeated the prayer of victory.

Thus I refolved to fend down armies on the chief city of Hindoftaun. I commanded the prince Peer Mahummud Jehaungheer, who was at Kaubul with thirty thoufand horfemen of the left wing of the army, that, going by the way of the mountain of Soolamaun, and croffing the Sind, he fhould go down upon Mooltaun and fubdue it.

134 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 أب

 م all
 （ii）， 5,409 daw ورَ \(\alpha \rightarrow \ddot{q}_{0}\) ه Jg غ்اء ب，ك， j أ⿰亻⿱丶⿻工二又
 un l um وبر + According to D＇Herbelot（Bibl．Orientale，p． 603 ．）the Mahummudans have given 99 names or attributes to their prophet，the fame number by which they diftinguifh the Creator．By this account the names of the pro－ phat Un

A N D I ordered Sooltaun Mahummud Book I. Khaun, and the prince Rooftum, and other Ameers with thirty thoufand horfemen of the right wing, that, croffing the waters of Sind, they fhould go down on the country of Lahore, by the way of the fkirts of the mountains of Kufhmeer, And I myfelf with thirty and two thoufand horfemen, was the main body.

AND behold the whole of my army was ninety and two thoufand horfemen, correfponding and according to the number of the names of Mahummud, the prophet of God, + (be the bleffing of the Almighty on him and on his pofterity) and I took this number as a fortunate and an happy omen.

AND I fet out, and I came and pitched my tents at Anduraub on the border of Budukhfhaun : and having punifhed the infidels of the mountains of Kuttoor, I went on to the holy war of Hindoftaun.

The design which I formed for clearing the road to Hindoftaun, from the Oughauns, \(\ddagger\) was this.

It was reported unto me that certain of the Oughauns infefted the road to Hindoftaun, and robbed and plundered therein : and efpecially Moofi the Oughaun, who was the head of the tribe of Gurkus. And he came down on Lufhkur Shaah the Oughaun, who was phet appear to be only ninety two in number, which feems moft probable.
\(\ddagger\) Or Afghauns. The word is written fometimes Oughaun and fometimes Afghaun in the MS.

政

 بعزص رسانيل

 dig un

 do ir ingot J, 5 vintuns 1 delay از سیاهيان وكي ت̈رك)

4 When Moofi fubmitted, Timour found it prudent to continue him for a time in his government, and fupplied him with people and neceflaries to put the caftle of lreaub in a proper fate of defence. The emperor, on \(\leftrightarrow\)

\section*{OETIMOUR.}
one of my fervants and well-wifhers (and the prince Peer Mahummud had left him to defend the caftle of Ireaub) and he flew him, and plundered all that he had. And at this time Mullik Mahummud, the brother of Lufhkur Shaah, came and demanded juftice; and he fet forth unto me the murder of his brother by the cruelty of Moofi.

An d I gave orders that Mullik Mahummud fhould be thrown into prifon; and I faid that Moofi was my well-wifher; and my Ameers fpoke of my injuftice.

But when the news of the confinement of Mullik Mahummud, and of that which I had faid, reached the ears of Moofi, he became ftrong of heart. And when the mandate which I had written unto him arrived, he came without fear and he delivered up the caftle.

And when I went to view the cafte, one of his foldiers fhot an arrow with an intention to flay me: and Moofi met with his reward. + And the road to Hindoftaun was open.

The design which I formed for vanquifhing Sooltaun Muhmood the ruler of Dehli, and Mulloo Khaun, was this.
his arrival in that neighbourhood, went to view the caftle; when one of the people of Moofi let fly an arrow at him. As he had all along determined to chaftife Moofi, he immediately caufed him to be feized and put to death. Vid. Hiff. Timur-Bec, Tom. III, p. 39.

 NoI , U U. Uiج heï oulu preiml I (loj قن dй نو!
a品 ;
 Jhineran اليشّان و و dilش幺

 :

 (incic
\[
\begin{equation*}
0 \text { F T I M O UR. } \tag{139}
\end{equation*}
\]

Sooltaun Muhmood and Mulloo Khaun, Book I. with fifty thoufand men, horfemen and footmen, and one hundred and twenty elephants, made ftrong the caftle of Dehli, and prepared to oppofe me.

AND it came into my mind, that if I fhould refolve on fubduing the caftle of Dehli, perhaps the war might be long and tedious.

And I counfelled with myfelf, that I would make myfelf appear weak in their fight; that the enemy might gain courage, and come, and fight with me on the plain.

AND on this account I dug a ditch round my army, and Ifrengthened myfelf within that ditch: and I fent a force to meet them. And I commanded the foldiers that they fhould fhow themfelves weak and fearful, that they might give courage to the enemy.

AND when the enemy found themfelves powerful, they exulted : and they came into the plain, and they oppofed my victorious armies face to face. And Sooltaun Muhmood, the ruler of Dehli, came into battle, and he was defeated, and he fled toward the mountains. And fpoils and wealth above meafure, in money and in effects, fell to the lot of my foldiers.

And in the fpace of one year I conquered the chief city of Hind : and at the end of the fame year I returned toward the imperial city of Summurkund.

140 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES Ulima，S UU كركّ اين بول graing jibio Uliwgulio if \(\cup-7 x\) dil از

牦促；\(\leq\)

保 ulimnng glolï̈g ulwl，－

 unsieg
- F T I M O U R.

Tie design which I formed for fubduing Book I. the countries of Goorjiftaun, was this.

When I returned victorious and triumphant from Hindoftaun, I had not yet refted from the fatigues of the war of Hind, when the petitions of the governors of the two Erauks arrived, faying; "The infi"dels of Goorjiftaun have advanced beyond their boun"daries."

And, behold, I at all times thought that there was nought more worthy the valour of princes than the conquering of kingdoms and empires, and the waging holy wars with infidels and unbelievers.
\(A_{N D}\), in thofe days, when the news of the irruption of the infidel inhabitants of Goorjiftaun arrived, I reflected, that if I delayed to chaftife them, perhaps the feditious of that country might rife into open rebellion: and in chaftifing them I ufed expedition.

AND I gave liberty to the foldiers, who had returned from the war of Hind, that every one of them who chofe to flay at home, might ftay; and that every one who chofe to go with me, might go.

AND I fent forth orders to the armies of Khoraufaun and Kundahaur, and Seiftaun and Kurmaun, and Tubburiftaun, and Kilaun, and Mauzinduraun, and Fauris; that they fhould make ready for war, and come down into the neighbourhood of Isfahaun, and be united. to my victorious forces. +
+ i.e. To the army which he commanded in perfon.

142
DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES
位任 ，莨 gi no彻 خimuin jo

 Lo il lo dat our or r，Si
 وآن حورأي
＋Viz．To ret forward in great martial pomp，as afterwards defcribed． \(\ddagger\) Timour，in his firf incurfion into Georgia，reduced Tiflis the capital， and took prifoner Isocrates the chriftian king of that country，who after－ wards

\section*{OF T I M O U R.}

AND I refolved that I would difperfe and fcatter abroad the rebellious and feditious of every country. Thus I fent into the land of Tooraun certain of the feditious of Khoraufaun and of Fauris, and delivered thofe countries from their machinations. And I turned the reins of my intention to the reduction of the caftles of Goorjiftaun.

AND I determined on that meafure which was agreeable to my foldiers. + And I placed a helmet of fteel on my head, and I cloathed myfelf in the armour of Dauood, \(\ddagger\) and I hung a fcymetar of Miffur by my fide, and I fat on the throne of war.

And I let loofe the brave men of Tooraun, and the valiant men of Khoraufaun, and the mighty men of Mauzinduraun, and of Kilaun; and I fubdued the caftle of Seewaus, and the caftles of Goorjiftaun ; and I deftroyed all the people who were in thofe caftes: and the fpoils of thofe caftles I divided among my victorious forces. And I chaftifed the feditious and the plunderers of Azzurbauejaun.

And after this I went to reduce the caftles of Mulluteah and the neighbourhood thereof. And when I had fubdued the caftles, and had taken poffeffion of them, wards turned Mahummudan, and became a great favourite with Timour; to whom he gave a fuit of Armour, which he pretended Dauood (i.e. David) the king of Ifrael had forged with his own hands in a fmith's fhop. Vid. Hift. Timur-Bec, Tom. I. p. 400.

This is the armour which Timour put on, on the prefent oecafion.
I refolved

144 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

伍 gav وشام

 آن, أن,
 \(d<\)
 ルرا ونر

 مung
ت

 ug

I refolved to conquer Hullub and Humfau: \(\uparrow\) and I fub- Book I. dued that country with little labour. And I girded up the loins of my refolution to fubdue the countries of Miffur and of Shaum. \(\ddagger\)

The design which I formed for the reduction of Miffur and of Shaum, was this.

When the news of my power and my ftrength reached the ears of Keefur, \(\|\) that I had conquered the cartles of Seewaus and Mulluteah, and the dependencies thereof, and that I had difperfed and defeated all his foldiers, who were in thofe caftles, he was very wroth. And at the inftigation of Kurrau Eufoof, the Toorkumaun (who had fled from the Chock of my army, and had fought fhelter with Keefur) he refolved on war.

AND, behold, the ruin and overthrow of Keefur was at hand; and Kurrau Eufoof urged him that he fhould draw an army upon me. And Keefur, at the inftigation of Kurrau Eufoof, came down with a mighty army ; and he called the forces of Miffur and of Shaum to his aid.

AND I reflected, that if I alfo divided my people into three armies, it would be better. But, behold, victory and defeat are hidden by the curtain of fate : and I demanded counfel of my Ameers. And they gave foldier-like counfel, faying, "Thou muft go down to battle "with fpeed."
+ Aleppo and Emeffa. I Egypt and Syria.
| Cafar : the title given by the Afiatic nations to the Turkifh emperors.

146 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES شंLir uni尼任 آن

诺 كر راء á ollie ט＇ هвنر

जmil it碞

號
 Niw Nolg

ULـي
 u

\section*{or TIMOUR.}

AND when I reflected by myfelf, thus I Book I. found it was good, that I fhould extinguifh the fire of Keefur by policy. And I wrote a letter to Keefur ; and the fubftance of it was this.
"Praise is due to the God of the uniof verfe, that he hath brought under my authority many " of the kingdoms of the feven regions of the world ; " and that the princes and rulers of the earth have fub"s mitted unto me. May God be merciful to that fer" vant who knoweth his own limits, and who placeth not sf the foot of temerity beyond his proper bounds.
"Where thy race and lineage endeth, is "s known to all men. + It is therefore worthy of thy * condition, that thou advance not forward the foot of " prefumption, and that thou throw not thyfelf into the "abyfs of affliction and calamity; and that thou open -6 not the door of difcord and defolation on thy empire at "s the inftigation of the evil-minded, who have fled unto "s thee for their own ends, and have awakened the fleep"s ing deftruction; but that thou fend bound unto me "Kurrau Eufoof, the Toorkumaun : otherwife, that oc which is concealed by the curtain of fate, after our "6 armies meet, will be known unto thee."

When I had fent the letter to Keefur by the hands of experienced ambaffadors, I found my advan-

\footnotetext{
+ Alluding to the defcent of Bajazet, which was fuppofed to have been from a Toorkumaun failor.
}
 gاز را را ر位 رسی人 وتو اليغار كردم كه انوالج مصر وشامرا نكآلار p وي ريلر

जm＜tir
נالن تيصر كر آين بود
ك
隹 واוيله ，كـ， يسانت
仿 كر ك عزيرت خور نو tage in this, that I fhould go toward the chief city of Book I. Shaum. And I fet out by the way of Hums and Hullub. And when I came to Hullub, I heard that Mullik Furruj, the fon of Mullik Burkook, on hearing the news of my coming from Miffur, had gone to Dummifhk. \(\dagger\)

AND I marched with fpeed, that I might not permit the forces of Miffur and the armies of Shaum to join themfelves together : but Mullik Furruj was quicker than \(I\), and got to Dummifhk. And I arrived after him at Dummihk, and reduced that city.

The design which I formed for fubduing the cities of Room, and for defeating the armies of Keefur, was this.

When I had conquered the cities of Shaum, and Mullik Furruj (the king of Miffur and Shaum) had fled from my battle; my ambaffador returned from Room, and brought the defiance of Yeldurrum Bauezzeed, \(\ddagger\) and fet forth - that when the news of the defeat of the armies of Miffur and of Shaum came to Keefur, that he was amazed and confounded, and prepared for war.

Having conquered Dummifhk and the cities of Shaum, I went towards Bughdaud by the way of Mooful. And I refolved that I would turn toward Azzurbauejaun, that if Keefur fhould perfift in his intentions, it might be known.
\(\dagger\) Damarcus. \(\ddagger\) Bajazet,
\(35^{\circ}\) DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

 Jو
 1） 1 diuje vinls dijs U． 保和隹
洎 ك

 \＆شَا div，

ترو ت rï｜lul نو

AND when I fet out toward Tubburaze, I Book I. Rent down certain of the princes, with a mighty army upon Bughdaud. And Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir had left one of his fervants, whofe name was Furrukh, with numerous forces, and the neceffaries and the implements. of defence, to guard the city and the caftle of Bughdaud.

And the princes arrived at Bughdaud, and they furrounded the city ; and the people in the city oppofed them : and they informed me thereof.

> AND I found it was good that I myfelf fhould go and reduce the city and the caftle of Bughdaud. And I turned back by the way of Tubburaze, and I marched with fpeed, and came to Bughdaud. And I befieged Bughdaud; and when the fiege had continued for two months and fome days, the caftle and the city of Bughdaud were conquered and fubdued.

And Furrukh, the governor, was drowned in the waters of the Tigris. And I entered into Bughdaud, and I commanded that they fhould Alay the feditious inhabitants of that city; and that they fhould throw down the cafle and the buildings thereof, and make them level with the earth.

And from Bughdaud I turned the reins of my intention toward Azzurbauejaun; and I fojourned in that kingdom for fome time.

852 DESIGNS AND ENTERPRISES

侯 （آرأز
㲡
 خوراب ریبن باب ，
 －促 بعز！رزم قيصر روانه شیلهم
碞 بـ بـر
 هتّو ，كر ك رو⿻丷⿻二丨䒑刀

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

AND when it reached my ears that Keefur Book I. had fent down armies on Hullub and on Hums, and on Deaur-a-bukkur ; and that Kurrau Eufoof, the Toorkumaun (who had fled from before me and fought protection with Keefur) was employed in affaulting and molefting the Kauruvvaun which went to the facred cities; (and at this time people came and demanded protection from his cruelty and oppreffion) it became my duty that I Should chaftife Kurrau Eufoof, and awaken Keefur from the fleep of forgetfulnefs.

AND in this matter I found it was good, that I Thould call out the forces of every city and of every tribe, and collect them together and go down upon Keefur. And when my forces were collected together, in the month of Rujjub, in the year of the Hijreh 804, I fet out from Azzurbauejaun to wage war with Keefur.

And I fent an army before me to ravage the kingdom of Room ; and I fent another army to examine the ftages, and the water, and the forage; and I went by the way of Angooreah. And Keefur with four hundred thoufand men, horfe-men and foot-men, advanced with fpeed to oppofe and to expel me. And I affaulted him and obtained the victory; and my foldiers feized upon Keefur, and brought him into my prefence. And after a war of feven years, I returned victorious and triumphant to Summurkund.
\[
\left[3 e^{x}\right]
\]

\section*{}

To تilé。
\[
\operatorname{sig}
\]

Book the Second.
THE INSTITUTES OF
\[
T I M O U R
\]
[ 156 ]

تـزوكـات تـيـهــو
「و

 از وهروهت ذـوه توك

 (sur \(=0\)屈 , (i)

\section*{[ 157 ]}

\section*{BOOK THE SECOND.}

\section*{THE INSTITUTES OF TIMOUR.}

BE it known to my fortunate fons, the conquerors of Book II. kingdoms ; to my mighty defcendants, the lords of the earth; that fince I have hope in Almighty God that many of my children, defcendants, and pofterity, fhall fit upon the throne of power and regal authority; upon this account, having eftablifhed laws and regulations for the well-governing of my dominions, I have collected together thofe regulations and laws as a model for others : to the end, that every one of my children, defcendants, and pofterity, acting agreeably thereto, my power and empire, which I acquired through hardGhips, and difficulties, and perils, and bloodfhed, (by the divine Favour, and by the influence of the holy religion of Mahummud, (God's peace be upon him) and with the affiftance of the powerful defcendants and illuftrious followers of that prophet) may be by them preferved.

華 بإئُان d范 evil die (bicolor
 -
 جاء تقوّ

 خور| بیابشان
+ The maxims here mentioned are not the twelve following rules, but thole given at length in the 18th, 19th, and roth pages of the MS. هüvار

AND let them make thefe regulations the Book II. rule of their conduct in the affairs of their empire, that the fortune, and the power, which fhall defcend from me to them, may be fafe from difcord and diffolution.

Now therefore be it known to my fons, the fortunate and the illuftrious, to my defcendants, the mighty fubduers of kingdoms ; that, in like manner as I by twelve maxims, \(\psi\) which I eftablifhed as the rules of my conduct, attained to regal dignity; and with the affiftance of thefe maxims conquered and governed kingdoms, and decorated and adorned the throne of my empire; let them alfo act according to thefe regulations, and preferve the fplendor of mine and their dominions.

AND among the rules which I eftablifhed for the fupport of my glory and empire, the First was this - That I promoted the worhip of Almighty God, and propagated the religion of the facred Mahummud throughout the world; and at all times, and in all places, fupported the true faith.

Secondiy, with the people of the twelve claffes and tribes I conquered and governed kingdoms; and with them I frengthened the pillars of my fortune, and from them I formed my affembly. \(\ddagger\) \(\ddagger\) The twelve claffes of men, here alluded to, are fully defcribed in a fubfequent part of the inftitutes.

\footnotetext{
Thirdiy,
}

سيو和

 ارْ ii مبرتبه ذور تو
\(1 ـ\) pu * * *
 i ا ا راग
范 ايشان
+ The word which I have rendered policy, cannot be tranlated into the English language with any degree of force or energy. It fignifies political ill

Thirdly, by confultation, and delibera- Book II. tion, and provident meafures; by caution, and by vigilance I vanquifhed armies, and I reduced kingdoms to my authority. And I carried on the bufinefs of my empire by complying with times and occafions, and by generofity, and by patience, and by policy ; \(\psi\) and I acted with courteoufnefs towards my friends and towards my enemies.

Fourthly, by order and by difcipline I regulated the concerns of my government; and by difcipline and by order I fo firmly eftablifhed my authority, that the Ameers, and the Vizzeers, and the foldiers, and the fubjects, could not afpire beyond their refpective degrees; and every one of them was the keeper of his own fation.

Fifthiy, I gave encouragement to my Ameers and to my foldiers, and with money and with jewels I made them glad of heart; and I permitted them to come into the banquet ; and in the field of blood they hazarded their lives. And I withheld not from them my gold nor my filver. And I educated and trained them to arms; and to alleviate their fufferings, I myfelf fhared in their labours, and in their hardhips; until, with the arm of fortitude and refolution, and with the unanimity of my inattention or negligence, or pretending not to fee or difcover fuch things as it would be improper, or impolitical, to take notice of.

 ，عرب وع

 ～＂
il ing و
 （
 تاناو gandig بin

リル」
\(\Rightarrow\) ر \(\rightarrow\) oli PJS

\section*{O. TI MOOR.}
chiefs, and my generals, and my warriors, by the edge Book IT. of the ford I obtained poffeffion of the thrones of seven and twenty kings; and became the king and the ruler of the kingdoms of Eraun and of Tooraun; and of Room, and of Mughrib, and of Shaum ; and of Miffur, and of Erauk-a-Arrub, and of Ajjum; and of Mauzinduraun, and of Kylaunaut; and of Shurvaunaut, and of Azzurbauejaun; and of Fauris, and of Khoraufaun ; and of the Dufht of Jitteh, and the Dufht of Kipchauk; and of Khauruzm, and of Khuttun, and of Kaubooliftaun ; and of Hindofaun, and of Baukhtur Zemeen.

AND when I cloathed myself in the robe of empire, I flout my eyes to fafety, and to the repose which is found on the bed of cafe. And from the twelfth year of my age I travelled over countries, and combated difficulties, and formed enterprifes, and vanquifhed armiss; and experienced mutinies amongst my officers and my foldiers, and was familiarized to the language of difobedience; (and I oppofed them with policy and with fortitude) and I hazarded my perfon in the hour of danger; until in the end I vanquifhed kingdoms and empires, and eftablifhed the glory of my name.

Sixthly, by juftice and equity I gained the affections of the people of God; and I extended my clemency to the guilty as well as to the innocent ; and I

164
I NSTITUTES
解 ر 1 ا，هـ
 مرت
范

 جون仿

 \(\alpha \omega, \omega^{\circ}\)

 \(\alpha \Leftrightarrow\) 若 （تَّ paffed that fentence which truth required: and by be- BookII. nevolence I gained a place in the hearts of men; and by rewards and punifhments I kept both my troops and my fubjects divided between hope and fear. And I compaffionated the lower ranks of my people, and thofe who were diftreffed. And I gave gifts to the foldiers.

AND I delivered the oppreffed from the hand of the oppreflor; and after proof of the oppreffion, whether on the property or the perfon, the decifion which I paffed between them was agreeable to the facred law. And I did not caufe any one perfon to fuffer for the guilt of another. +

Those who had done me injuries, who had attacked my perfon in battle, and had counteracted my fchemes and enterprifes, when they threw themfelves on my mercy, I received them with kindnefs; I conferred on them additional honours, and I drew the pen of oblivion over their evil actions. And I treated them in fuch fort, that if fufpicion remained in their hearts, it was plucked out entirely.

Seventhly, I felected out, and treated with efteem and veneration, the pofterity of the Prophet, and the Theologians, and the Teachers of the true Faith, and the Philofophers, and the Hiftorians. And I loved

\footnotetext{
+ In this obfervation he alludes to a too frequent cuftom of the Eaft, of involving the whole family and connections of an attainted perfon in the fame punifhment with the guilty fubject.
}

吾 riش̉／

بر， g رايشًان促 phimi uta

保 تو ب
 Jimi UEi U U ；U．U il وقـوانین وسبرت טing ：
 بخ باطر آو
 POJ
\[
\text { O F T I M O } \quad \text { R. }
\]
men of courage and valour; for God Almighty loveth the \(\underbrace{\text { Book II. }}\) brave. And I affociated with good and learned men; and I gained their affections, and I entreated their fupport, and I fought fuccefs from theír holy Prayers. And I loved the Dervifhes, and the poor ; and I oppreffed them not, neither did I exclude them from my favour. And I permitted not the evil and the malevolent to enter into my council; and I acted not by their advice: and I liftened not to their infinuations to the prejudice of others.

Eighthly, I aeted with refolution; and on whatever undertaking I refolved, I made that undertaking the only object of my attention : and I withdrew not my hand from that enterprife, until I had brought it to a conclufion. And I acted according to that which I faid. And I dealt not with feverity towards any one, and I was not oppreffive in any of my actions; that God Almighty might not deal feverely towards me, nor render my own actions oppreffive unto me.

And I enquired of learned men into the laws and regulations of antient princes, from the days of Adam to thofe of the prophet, and from the days of the Prophet down to this time. And I weighed their inftitutions, and their actions, and their opinions, one by one. And from their approved manners, and their good qualities, I felected models. And I enquired into the caufes of the fubverfion of their power, and I flunned thofe
; نـهـرو
 ,

از الحوال

 وانـت كرك اليشان al
 واذبار نوِسا ن تrین بأفیال بوتg ا

\[
0,5
\]
rou
actions which tend to the deftruction and overthrow of BookII. regal authority. And from cruelty and from oppreffion, which are the deftroyers of pofterity, and the bringers of famine and of plagues, I found it was good to abftain.

Ninthly, the fituation of my people was known unto me. And thofe who were great among them, I confidered as my brethren; and I regarded the poor as my children. And I made myfelf acquainted with the tempers and the difpofitions of the people of every country and of every city. And I contracted intimacies with the citizens, and the chiefs, and the nobles; and I appointed over them governors adapted to their manners, and their difpofitions, and their wifhes.

AND I knew the circumftances of the inhabitants of every province. And in every kingdom I appointed writers of intelligence, men of truth and integrity, that they might fend me information of the conduct, and the behaviour, and the actions, and the manners, of the troops and of the inhabitants, and of every occurrence that might come to pafs amongft them, And if I difcovered ought contrary to their information, I inflicted punifhment on the intelligencer; and every circumftance of cruelty and oppreffion in the governors, and in the troops, and in the inhabitants, which reached my ear, I chaftifed agreeably to juftice and equity.

170
THE INSTITUTES
ए涫 . \(\leqslant\) umsog rogro , هو

هنا

 (U_L eju

\section*{- F TIMOUR.}

Tenthly, whatever tribe, and whatever BookII. hord, whether Toork or Taucheek, or Arrub or Ajjum, came in unto me, I received their chiefs with diftinction and refpect, and their followers I honoured according to their degrees and their ftations. And to the good among them I did good, and the evil I delivered over to their evil actions.

And whoever attached himfelf unto me, I forgot not the merit of his attachment, and I acted towards him with kindnefs and generofity: and whoever had rendered me fervices, I repaid the value of thofe fervices unto him. And whoever had been my enemy, and was afhamed thereof, and flying to me for protection, humbled himfelf before me, I forgot his enmity; and I purchafed him with liberality and kindnefs.

In fuch manner Share Behraum, the chief of a tribe, was along with me. And he left me in the hour of action, and he united with the enemy, and he drew forth his fword againft me. And at length my falt, which he had eaten, feized upon him; and he again fled to me for refuge, and humbled himfelf before me. As he was a man of illuftrious defcent, and of bravery, and of experience, I covered my eyes from his evil actions; and I magnified him, and I exalted him to a fuperior rank; and I pardoned his difloyalty in confideration of his valour.

172
INSTITUTES

 ك وبكشتن وبستن اليشان الر نكردم ， （元

；－را
伿 و و فشاني مهينكلينا

范
 i وبونا وهيّيقت ويرا شناخت
＊Timour appears to allude to thofe perfons whom he knew in the days of his obfcurity．
UTg

\section*{- F T I M O UR.}

Eleventhly, my children, and my re- \(\underbrace{\text { BookII. }}\) lations, and my affociates, and my neighbours, and fuch as had been connected with me, \(\dagger\) all thefe I diftinguifhed in the days of my fortune and profperity, and I paid unto them their due. And with refpect to my family, I rent not afunder the bands of confanguinity and mercy; and I iffued not commands to flay them, or to bind them with chains. \(\ddagger\)

And 1 dealt with every man, whatever the judgment I had formed of him, according to my own opinion of his worth. As I had feen much of profperity and adverfity, and had acquired knowledge and experience, I conducted myfelf with caution, and with policy, towards my friends and towards my enemies.

Twelfthly, foldiers, whether affociates or adverfaries, I held in efteem ; thofe who fell their permanent happinefs to perifhable honour, and throw themfelves into the field of naughter and battle, and hazard their lives in the hour of danger.

AND the man, who drew his fword on the fide of my enemy, and committed hoftilities againft me, and preferved his fidelity to his mafter, him I greatly honoured ; and when fuch a man came unto me, knowing his worth, I claffed him with my faithful affociates; and I refpected and valued his fidelity and his attachment.

\footnotetext{
\(\ddagger\) This obfervation is frictly confiftent with his conduct: for though feveral of his relations, and fome of his children, at different times rebelled againft him, he ever fubftituted pardon in the place of puni/bment.
}

174
INSTITUTES
リ（s，lu
；
「imil

 توقتش ；رامونّ
 نها U， 5 Niolg

 تُ隹 ． g ر ر ور

 sho

AND the foldier, who forgot his duty and Book II. his honour, and in the hour of action turned his face from his mafter, and came in unto me, I confidered as the moft deteftable of men.

AND in the war with Touktummifh Khaun, his Ameers forgot their duty to Touktumminh, who was their mafter and my foe, and fent propofals and wrote letters unto me. And I uttered execrations upon them; becaufe unmindful of that which they owed to their lord, they had thrown afide their honour and their duty, and come in unto me. I faid unto myfelf, What fidelity have they obferved to their liege lord? What fidelity will they fhew unto me?

AND, behold, it was known unto me by experience, that every empire, which is not eftablifhed in morality and religion, nor ftrengthened by regulations and laws, from that empire all order, grandeur and power Shall pafs away. And that empire may be likened unto a naked man, who, when expofed to view, commandeth the eye of modefty to be covered: and it is like unto a houfe, which hath neither roof, nor gates, nor defences; into which, whoever willeth, may enter unmolefted.

Therefore, I eftablifhed the foundation of my empire on the morality and the religion of Inaum; and by regulations, and laws I gave it fability. And by laws and by regulations, I executed every bufinefs and

d IV اله

 بششريعت آراسته di ك

（ （范
t The man appointed to fill the fation mentioned in the original，is called Sedr．He is a perron of great authority in the empire，who has the absolute ぞ
OF TIM O U R.
every tranfaction that came before me in the courfe of Book II. my government.

AND the firft regulation which my heart dictated unto me, was the promulgation of the true faith, and the fupport of the facred tenets of Mahummud (God's peace be upon him). And I encouraged the progrefs of the holy laws and the religion of Iflaum through all the cities, and the provinces, and the kingdoms of the earth; and I adorned my empire by the facred laws.

Thus I regulated the promulgation of the true faith. I appointed a man of holinefs, + and of illuftrious dignity, to watch over the conduct of the faithful, that he might regulate the manners of the times, and appoint fuperiors in holy offices; and eftablifh in every city and in every town a judge of penetration, and a doctor learned in the facred law, and a fupervifor of the markets, of the weights and of the meafures : and that he might ordain penfions and falaries for the defcendants of the prophet, and for fuperior ecclefiaftics, and for holy men, and for men of knowledge.

And I eftablifhed a judge for the army and a judge for the fubjects: and I fent into every province abfolute management of church lands, and what revenues are appropriated towards the maintaining of public fchools, falaries to learned men, and other pious ufes.
\(17^{8}\)
INSTITUTES
少 بیا

\(\vdots\) lino 0 （
Nii كا vilit，\(ب\) بو

促保 \(\lambda-i-2 \leqslant\) und

ت أهr和行

چون تو
范

 （g）\((5, \ldots\) ； u儿〒？

\section*{- F. T I M O U R.}
and kingdom an inftructor in the law, to deter the faithful from thofe things which are forbidden, and to lead them in the truth.

AND I commanded that they fhould build places of worfhip and monafteries in every city ; and that they fhould erect fructures for the reception of travellers on the high roads, and that they fhould make bridges acrofs the rivers.

And I appointed ecclefiaftics and religious teachers in every city, to inftruct the followers of Iflaum in the abftrufe and fundamental principles of our holy law ; and to preach to them the doctrines of religion, with the holy traditions, and the facred commentaries upon them.

And I ordered that the fuddur + and the judge, from time to time, fhould lay before me all the ecclefiaftical affairs of my empire; and I appointed a judge in equity, that he might tranfmit unto me all civil matters of litigation, that came to pafs amongft my troops and my fubjects.

When I had regulated all religious concerns, and had promoted the progrefs of the facred tenets throughout the cities of Illaum ; and when the rumour of the promulgation of the true faith had reached the ears of all ranks of the faithful; the doctors of our holy faith publifhed a decree - That as Almighty God in each century had fent a promoter and propagator of the faith,
+ Or Sedr: fee note on p. 177.

180

,-w \(\mu d \leq\) dï) (sulso clug auts all (sho su aly ( 0

碞
\(\lambda^{2}=0\) un ju \(a_{r} \Psi^{\circ}\) u Jús un Jisly

 3
for the promulgation and reftoration of the religion of Book II. Mahummud (God's peace be upon him) ; and as in the eighth century Ameer Sa uhiba Kurraunt hath reftored the purity of the holy laws, he therefore muft be THE restorer of the religion of Mahummud.

And Meer Siud Shurreef, the moft refpectable of the doctors of the age, wrote unto me on this fubject, faying, 'The holy men of all ages have agreed, - that in every century from the days of the prophet, - Almighty God hath fent forth a propagator of the faith, - for the purpofe of promulgating the religion of Ma -- hummud (God's peace be upon him) : and fince in the - beginning of this the eighth century, Ameer Sauhiba - Kurraun, hath propagated the laws of the holy prophet, and the true religion hath been diffured through-- out the different cities and kingdoms of the earth; - it is apparent that Ameer Sauhiba Kurraun is the true ' promoter and fupporter of the faith.' And the Letter is this.
"O God affilt thou the promoter of the religion of thy prophet, and abandon thou the deferter of the faith of Mahummud.
"Since from the time of the Hijrut of the great and holy apofle down to the prefent period 800 years have elapfed, and fince the pure and omnipotent

\footnotetext{
+ Saubiba Kurraun is a royal title firf affumed by Timour. It literally fignifies Lord of the Conjunction; it being faid, that there was a fortunate conjunction of planets at his birth.
}

182
INSTITUTES

وراز
رين تّبع نوره در تصانيو خور نوشته انل اين اثبر تسil J بر ( \(0^{\circ}\) plwl dol ulo d 5 (glusg vixig 1) , بـر

 ن, كو نو -2,

Creator hath in each century infpired and fent forth a pro- Book II. moter and reftorer of religion, for the advancement of the faith of his meffenger and friend, and the re-eftablifhment of his facred doctrines; praife be to the moft high! that in the beginning of this the eighth century Ameer Sauhiba Kurraun, who hath encouraged and eftablifhed the holy religion of Mahummud in various nations and regions of the earth, is by the Almighty evidently appointed the reftorer and promoter of the faith of Illaum.
"From all that former Theologians have difcovered and inferted in their works concerning the promoters of our holy faith, the following are felections.
"In the first century from the Hijrut Omur Abdul Azeez ftood forth the fupporter of the faith. For when the holy religion of Iflaum was weakened by the revilings of the fchifmatics, who dared to execrate from their pulpits the moft excellent Aali, he abolifhed that profane practice.
"AND whereas divifions and hatred had fprung up amongt the followers of Iflaum, fo that one faction fulminated curfes on the three orthodox Khalifs, whilft their opponents denounced execrations on Aali (the commander of the faithful) on Hooffein and on Ubbaus; and at length proceeded to open diffentions and hoftilities; he put an end to thofe divifions, and by fo doing gave ftrength to our holy law.

184
INSTITUTES

(g) リ リت

(surme men
 dro

( \(\mathrm{SN}_{0} \leftrightarrows 0\).
 ug

\section*{- F T I M O UR.}
"AND the fupporter of the faith in the SE- BookII.
cond century was Maumoon ul Rufheed. For he abrogated and annulled feventy two pernicious and unor- . thodox tenets, and eftablifhed the true rites and ceremonies on the faith of the Sunna, and on the facred traditions. And he called Aali, the fon of Moofi Jaufir (on whom be the bleffing of God) from Khoraufaun ; and appointed him fucceffor to the Immaumut, and with his confent took poffeffion of the government.
"And in the third century Mocktaudir Billau Ubbaufi was the promoter of the faith. For when the fect of the Kuraumuteh, headed by Abou Tauhir, feized the holy city of Mecca, and martyred 30,000 pilgrims on mount Auruffaut; when that impious chief caufed the Black Stone to be torn from the corner of the facred Caaba, defolated the cities of Iflaum, and plundered and flaughtered the inhabitants (by which a mighty blow was given to our holy religion) Mocktaudir Billau drew forth his armies againft that abandoned fect, and extirpated them from the face of the earth: and thus fupported and defended the laws and the faith of Illaum.
"And in the fourth century Azzud u Dowla Delumi was the fupporter of the religion of Mahummud, on whom be God's peace and bleffing. For when, on Jو ot هُ U-3在 تislm dos (5y dU!

186 INSTITUTES

gun

 d w
\[
0 \text { F T M O U R. }
\]
account of the wickednefs and corruption of Muttei la- Book II. umurilla Ubbaufi, and the oppreffions and perfecutions exercifed by his fervants and dependants, our holy religion was neglected, and corruption and impiety became notorious in the cities of Iflaum ; Azzud u Dowla depofed him from the Khillaufut, placed his fon Taulaa Billau on the vacant throne, and by his exertions re-eftablifhed the true faith.

And Azzud u Dowla abolifhed innovations and things unlawful, ftopped the current of injuftice and oppreffion, and thus fupported the holy laws of Mahummud.

And Sooltaun Sunjur, the fon of Sooltaun Mullik Shaah, and the contemporary and difciple of Sheikh Ahmud Jaumi and Hukkeem Sunaï, was the promoter of the faith and the laws in the fifth century. For he extirpated the heretics who in thofe days had weakened the faith of Iflaum; and paid fuch pious obedience to the holy doctrines of Mahummud (God's peace be upon him) that in the period of his life he was not guilty of one action prohibited by the facred laws.

In the sixth century the fupporter of the faith was Ghauzaun Khaun the fon of Arghoon Khaun, the fon of Hullaukoo Khaun. For when the holy religion was almoft annihilated by the conquefts of the infidels of Toorkiftaun, Ghauzaun Khaun with one hun-

U ) ن. diïlin

divls (lg , hanlg د J ر

 Nu,

 Jgi ir elw (Slols رinal? U缺 : ,
 دliw, 2 ب \(\Lambda_{r}=0\) ung
dred thoufand Toorks (fuch was the will of the Almigh- Book II. ty) were at one time converted to the Mahummudan faith by Sheikh Ibraheem Hummuee in the plain of Laur; and joined in the facred exclamation, "There is no God but "God, and Mahummud is the Apoftle of God."
" And Ghauzaun Khaun rooted out idolatry and herefy; and eftablifhed the holy laws amongtt the furrounding nations.
"The fupporter of the faith in the seventh century was Aljauetoo Sooltaun, the fon of Arghoon Khaun, who was alfo named Sultaun Mahummud Khodau Bundeh. For when he fucceeded his brother Ghauzaun Khaun at the above period, and was informed that the duties of our holy religion were neglected to fuch a degree, that the people, after the profeffion of their faith, did not include the pofterity of Mahummud in their bleffings and benedictions on that holy prophet; he himfelf arofe and went forth to the imperial Musjid, and commanded the Theologians to be affembled before him.
"AND he demanded of the doctors of the law the caufe of this omiffion; and ordered them to deliver their fentiments concerning the propriety or impropriety of including the facred pofterity of the prophet in their prayers. They replied with one accord, that by the exprefs command of Almighty God the prayers of the faithful were due not only to the holy meffenger, but to his defcendants alfo.

190
INSTITUTES

 تinl og ك cier ublw didilo git رو Niان الهـ (少 aildi

 Nï̈nju dwy g أنی Shinly U,_ Junig zini vjan u ulin Ureg plal
OF T I M O UR.
"Several of the doctors faid, that Immaum Shaufeï had declared, that the facred fervice unattended by the ufual benedictions on Mahummud and his pofterity, were impious. Others acknowledged, that Immaum a Aazum had pronounced the prayers, in which the ufual petitions in behalf of Mahummud and his pofterity were omitted, to be void and of no effect.
" He then demanded of them, why, when they mentioned the prophet in their prayers, they included not his immediate defcendants. The doctors of the law were unable to reply, and the Sooltaun proceeded.
" In proof of the neceffity of including the fucceffors and pofterity of the prophet in our prayers two arguments occur to me. Firf, that as the wicked excluded the defcendants and fucceffors of our holy lawgiver from the benefit of their benedictions, fo Almighty God hath excluded them from the benefit of his protection, and hath cut off their pofterity from the face of the earth : for if any of their defcendants remain, none know them, none regard them : whereas the pofterity of the prophet are increafed to fuch a degree, that no one except the Almighty knoweth their numbers, and thofe in refpect and obedience to the holy apoftle (on whom be the bleffing of God) ftill offer up their prayers for his immediate defcendants.

> "SECONDLY, the religious rites and infti- tutions of all former prophets and meffengers have been either altered or annulled; for the rules prefcribed by the religions

U نو تا

 diiكيه

 © ان隹 גا准

J r-in U9:

religions which they eftablifhed were not adapted to all Book II. times and to all fituations. On the contrary, the religion of Mahummud (the peace of God be upon him) will continue, without change or abolition, to the end of time.
"IT is the duty therefore of the followers of our holy prophet, who in their prayers refpectfully mention his name, to include his defcendants alfo: that it may be known to the people that they are the fupporters of the religion of Mahummud, the expounders of the divine revelations, the guardians of the holy law, and the heirs of the prophets and apofles : that the knowledge of the true religon and the divine ordinances of Iflaum may be perpetuated by them, and that obedience and refpect to the defcendants of the prophet may be confidered as an indifputable and important duty.
"WHEN the Sooltaun had concluded, the people who were collected together in the Musjid, inftantly and with one voice, offered up their benedictions in favour of the prophet and his facred defcendants.
"The Sooltaun proceeded thus. "Since Aali has been acknowledged to be the firft, and Mahummud Mehdi the laft, of the fucceffors and immediate defcendants of the prophet, it cannot be lawful for me to affume authority over the dominions of the holy Mahummud without the affent of his and their pofterity; fince by fo doing I fhould be an ufurper."
ulis edons Ublw elts ug ت

 Uij نا
 dil ever., ing

تnl (u)

 Ni انر ous i cho ju
ur. J!g \(\quad\), U U Nit dola
1) \(ب \ddot{g}\)

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}
"WHEN this declaration of the Sooltaun reach-BookII. ed the ears of the people, thofe of the pofterity of the prophet immediately granted their confent. Having thus obtained their approbation of his authority, the Sooltaun ordained that agreeably to this regulation, the Khutbeh fhould be pronounced from the pulpits in the names of each of the fucceffors of the prophet, and that their names alfo fhould be impreffed on the coins of the empire.
"The ecclefiaftical decree which the theologians promulgated on this occafion, and to which they fubfrribed their affent, is as follows, "Aljauetoo Sooltaun " is the fupporter of the faith, and the reftorer of the "laws."
"In this the eighth century Ameer Sauhiba Kurraun is the supporter of our sacred reIIGION ; fince he hath revived and encouraged obedience to the holy laws in the different cities and nations of the earth, hath protected and reverenced the pofterity of the prophet of God, and with their affent and approbation hath affumed dominion over the empire of Mahummud."

When the letter of Meer Siud Shureef came unto me, I offered up thanks to Almighty God, and I invoked the holy Mahummud and the defcendants of Mahummud, that I might obtain their guidance and fupport in promoting our holy faith and in eftablifling the laws.

196
INSTITUTES

 تـو sim

㰬 Joly ru, ك (an un liuh_ ; \(\because \ldots i\) p,e \(e^{0^{j}}\) u, بر,

P牧 uil lرJg ciblw dyly 3 Jg
 Hil

And the Letter itfelf I fent unto my Peer, Book If. who wrote thus on the border of that Letter. "Be it " known to Ameer Sauhiba Kurraun, the promoter of "the faith, the eftablifher of the laws (with whom be "the protection of Almighty God) that this is a bleffing os extraordinary, and a mercy inconceivable, which the "s omnipotent creator hath vouchfafed to thee, the axis of " empire, in appointing thee the re-eftablifher of the "faith, and the fupporter of the facred laws. Encreafe " thou the number of thy good actions, that thy benevo" lent creator may encreafe his mercies unto thee !"

WHEN the epifle, bearing the fubfription of my Peer, was returned unto me, I reverenced and refpected the pofterity of the prophet, and the teachers of the doctrine of Inlaum; and in enforcing the facred laws I exerted myfelf more than before. And I commanded that the fubftance of the letter fhould be inferted in the regifter of my tranfactions.

When I re-eftablifhed the faith and the holy laws, I then began to form my civil regulations : and by law and by order I ftrengthened my government. And the regulations for giving fability to my government, I formed in this manner.

FIRst, I kept firm the foundation of my power by the true religion, and by the laws of the prophet, and by the love of the defcendants and venerable

IJlog Ug, o dijo j J lvinug engug riش̃luole

(ت̈) ponitie

 Niïitw Juno (ي̈ngul ) (siみư) d fij 1 f

 dug \(\log\) 片
 Jg

 cyn
companions of that holy leginator; and by regulations Book II. and by order I fo fecured my regal authority, that no one had the power to interpofe in my government.

SECONDLY, I kept my foldiers and my fubjects fufpended between hope and fear; and conducting myfelf towards my friends and my enemies with gentlenefs and with humanity, I either over-looked or patiently bore with their words and their actions.

Whoever, whether friends or enemies, fled unto me for protection; if they were friends, I treated them in fuch fort as tended to increafe their friendihip ; and if they were enemies, I fo conducted myfelf towards them that their enmity was fpeedily converted into affection.

Whoever had a demand upon me, I attempted not to diminih the value thereof: and thofe whom I perfonally knew, I threw not forth from my prefence.

And whoever, from the firft fhining forth of my fortune and power, had fought my protection, whether worthy or unworthy, whether their conduct towards me had been good or evil, when I afcended the throne of empire, I caufed them to blufh by my bounty and kindnefs ; and I confidered as undone the evil which they had done unto me, and I drew the pen of oblivion over the regifter of their actions.

品隹 rum
ارباب شڭ بر

朔

 عهله ونحاله ونايبان ， 部 با a d o \([\) هر

Thirdiy, I never gave way to the thirft Bookil, of revenge, nor did I ever fatiate my refentment on any one. Thofe who had injured me, I delivered over to the juftice of the Almighty.

I retained in my fervice warriors of approved valour, and foldiers of tried experience. And I admitted to my fociety men of exalted lineage, and the pofterity of the prophet, and theologians, and doctors learned in the law. And the feditious, and the wicked, and the inglorious I drove far from my prefence.

Fourthly, I drew to me the obedience of the people of God by complacency, and by mercy, and by indulgence. And I ever adhered to equity and juftice; and I retired far from cruelty and oppreffion.

At this time my Peer wrote unto me, faying, "Be it known to Abu'l Munfour Timour (on whom " be the bleffing of Almighty God) that the different " offices in an earthly empire are fymbols of thofe in the " empire of thy creator; in which there are labourers, " and agents, and deputies, and chamberlains; and they " are all bufied and occupied in their own proper depart" ments, and they feek not to over-leap the bounds allotted "them ; and they wait in perpetual obedience to the © will of the Lord.
" Therefore, thou muit be watchful, " that thy vizzeers, and thy foldiers, and thy labourers, " and thy fervants, and thy officers, being each of them

 تو بنظام وانتظام ر ر آيه ; ( (sin ol
隹位

 وانتظام زيب وزينت كخشيلبم وباوازده طايغه سلطنت خورا رlyont
"reftricted to their proper ftations, attend with due fub- Book II. "r miffion thy commands. And reftrain thou every "people and every tribe under thy dominion within their "proper limits: that thy empire may be eftablifhed on " the bafis of regularity and good order.
"But if thou regardef not the due ar" rangement of thy concerns, and attendeft not to the " juft fubordination of thy people, corruption, and vio4 lence, and diforders fhall find their way into every de" partment of thy government. Be it therefore thy care " to watch over and confine thy people, and thy concerns, " within the limits of fubordination and good order. "AND thou thall exalt the facred pofterity " of the prophet above all other ranks of thy people; rf and thou fhalt revere and honour them, and thou fhalt " not confider the greateft inftances of liberality, which " thy love for them fhall call forth, as the effects of pro" fufion. We cannot be profufe in our offerings to Al" mighty God. Regulate and govern thou thy empire by "the Twelve select Classes; and farewell."

When I received this letter from my Peer, I acted in obedience to all which he had commanded, and I gave order and connexion to the different departments of empire ; and I ornamented and beautified my power by regulations and laws : and I made my authority durable by the TWELVE CLASSES.
\[
\mathrm{Cc}_{2} \quad \text { REGU- }
\]
dij~ \(\int_{j ;-}\) plu

 Nїشا ر , اسceinl

ט ن ط
1 أروباب的

طايغه سيبر ارباب دمارا كاهم化 Pjg ! \(j\)
\[
\circ \text { O T I M OUR. }
\]

Regulations. By the twelve classes I Bookir. rendered ftrong and permanent the bafis and fuperftructure of my government; and I confidered thofe Claffes as the twelve months, and as the twelve figns of the zodiac, predominating over the concerns of my empire.

> The first class. I granted admir- fion to the defcendants of the prophet, and to theologians, and to doctors learned in the laws, and to holy men. And they reforted at all times to my palace, and they beautified and adorned my imperial affembly by their prefence. And they converfed on facred knowledge, and on government, and on wifdom : and to them I propofed queftions concerning thofe things which were lawful, and thofe which were forbidden.
The second class. Perfons of wif- dom, and deliberation, and vigilance, and circumfpection, and aged men endowed with knowledge and forefight, I admitted to my private councils: and I affociated with them, and I reaped benefit, and acquired experience from their converfation.

The third class. I revered devout and pious men; and I implored their prayers in the hour of retirement: and I fupplicated their bleffings on my actions. And in war, and in peace, and in my councils, and برض

 U, it,

 لها 11 (

 خور
\[
\text { , } \leqslant \text { cul }
\]

 "

 و
in my deliberations, I reaped the greatef advantage from Book II. their mediation. And by them I obtained victories in the day of battle.

Thus it came to pafs, when in an engagement with Touktumminh Khaun my forces were thrown into confufion by the fuperior numbers of the enemy, Meer Zeau u deen (of Subzvaur) who was noted for the efficacy of his prayers, bared his head, and ftretched forth his arms in fupplication: his prayer was not yet concluded, when the effects of his mediation became apparent.

And foalfo it came to pars, at a time when one of the inhabitants of my Hoorrum Surrai + was afflicted with a deadly diftemper. Twelve holy Siuds, celebrated for their piety, affembled together; and each of them devoted a year of his own exiftence to her prefervation : and the was reftored to health, and enjoyed the full meafure of their donation.

The fourth class. The Ameers, and the chiefs, and the commanders of my forces, I admitted to my councils; and I raifed them to exalted dignities; and I affociated, and converfed familiarly, with them.

AND I loved thofe intrepid warriors who had given repeated proofs of their courage and abilities. And I propofed queftions to them concerning the art of war, and the various modes of advancing in the field of battle, and of retreat in fituations of peril, and the me-
"
 plulber
 * cï
 عن天 ونع g وw-رؤ هفت U بی هِ

 هوراتب خول نكاه jor Chi co poluno uslang

\section*{O F TIMOUR.}
thods of charging and breaking the lines of the enemy, BookII. and of fkirmifhing, and all the other operations of war: and I placed confidence in them; and I confulted their opinions in proportion to their fkill and experience.

The fifth class. The foldier and the fubject I regarded with the fame eye. And the brave and the refolute from amongft my warriors I diftinguifhed by gifts and by honours.

AND I treated with dignity and attention the rulers and the chiefs of every province and kingdom; and I conferred rewards upon them, and I reaped benefit from their fervices.

AND I kept my troops in a fate of readinefs, and I advanced to them their wages even before it was due. Thus in my expedition againf Room, I gave unto my foldiers feven years wages; part thereof due, and the remainder in advance. And fuch was the difcipline which I eftablifhed amongft my troops and my fubjects, that the one was never injured or oppreffed by the other.

AND my foldiers of every rank I confined in fuch fort to their feveral fations, that they could not ftep beyond the limits prefcribed to them: and I neither exalted them above, nor deprefled them below the reft of my fubjects. And thofe of them who fignalized themfelves by eminent fervices, I rewarded with honours and donations.

210 INSTITUTES
 0U, ¢俍 ايشان 0
 يأهارl تا

 0يــوان シ

 ( A_نת -

And thofe of my officers whofe refolution Boos II. and abilities I had weighed and proved in the balance of trial, I received into my efpecial favour, and I promoted them to the rank of commanders : and, in proportion to their conduct, I advanced them to fuperior ftations.

The sixth class. From amonget the wife and the prudent, who merited truit and confidence, who were worthy of being confulted on the affairs of government, and to whofe care I might fubmit the fecret concerns of my empire, I felected a certain number, whom I conftituted the repofitories of my fecrets. And my weighty and hidden tranfactions, and my fecret thoughts and intentions I delivered over to them.

The seventa ciass. By the vizzeers, and the fecretaries, and the feribes I gave order and regularity to my public councils. I made them the keepers of the mirrour of my government ; in which they fhewed unto me the affairs of my dominions and my empire, and the concerns of my armies and my people.

AND they kept rich my treafury; and they fecured plenty and profperity to my foldiers and to my fubjects. And by proper and fkilful meafures they repaired the diforders incident to empire ; and they kept in order the revenues and the expences of government; and they exerted themfelves in promoting plenty and population throughout my dominions.
\[
\mathrm{Dd}_{2} \quad \text { THE }
\]

 و, وــاتغان \(r \mathrm{yg}_{\mathrm{g}} \mathrm{T} \rightarrow\) ( ووباتغان

طابغه

 (

را

 POri

 (5, آ

\section*{O F TIMOUR.}

\section*{The eighth class.}

Men learned Book II. in medicine, and thofe fkilled in the art of healing, and aftrologers, and geometricians, who are effential to the dignity of empire, I drew around me.

AND, by the aid of phyficians and chirurgeons, I gave health to the fick. And, with the affiftance of aftrologers, I afcertained the benign or malignant afpect of the fars; their motions, and the revolutions of the heavens. And, with the aid of geometricians and architects, I laid out gardens, and planned and conftructed magnificent buildings.

The ninth class. Hiftorians, and fuch as were poffeffed of information and intelligence, I admitted to my prefence. And from thefe men I heard the lives of the prophets and the patriarchs; and the hiftories of ancient princes, and the events by which they arrived at the dignity of empire, and the caufes of the declenfion of their fortunes.

AND from the narratives and the hiftories of thofe princes, and from the manners and the conduct of each of them, I acquired experience and knowledge. And from thofe men I heard the defcriptions and the traditions of the various regions of the globe, and acquired knowledge of the fituations of the kingdoms of the earth.
The tenth class. I united myfelf with holy and pious men, with thofe to whom the Almighty

 سشاه fl حاضّر داشتّه باشنا
 . dilute
,
隹
4 The firft, the third, and this (the tenth) class, appear on a fuperficial view to be the fame people, i.e. men devoted to the duties of religion; but, on a nearer examination, it is evident that they were clafles diftinct from each other. The firf were undoubtedly the heads of the Mahummudan church, the pofterity of Ali, the dignified prelates, and the eminent doctors of the law. The third class appears to be a flection (from the firft) of fuch eminent men as had rendered themfelves celebrated by their fuserior piety and religious attention to the laws. And by this (the tenth) clafs Timour evidently means fuck religious men, as had retired from the world un\% \(\log\)
\[
0 \text { F I MOUR. }
\]
mighty had given wifdom; + and I affociated with them; and I heard from them the word of God; and I acquired knowledge of the bleffings of a future ftate. And I faw them perform miracles and wonderful things; and I. reaped delight and fatisfaction from their converfation.

\section*{The eleventh class. I brought} into my palace artificers of every fort, and of every denomination; and I admitted them into my camp; that both at home and abroad they might fupply, and keep in readinefs, the neceffaries requifite to my foldiers.

\section*{The twelfth class. To travellers,} and to voyagers, of every country I gave encouragement ; that they might communicate unto me the intelligence and tranfactions of the furrounding nations.

AND I appointed merchants and chiefs of Kauruvvauns to travel to every kingdom, and to every country; that they might bring unto me all forts of valuable merchandize and rare curiofities, from Khuttau, and from Khutand devoted themfelves to folitude, to the fludy of the Koraun, and the regular performance of the religious duties prefcribed by their law-giver. Thefe hermits, or monks, like their brethren of the weftern church, acquired in all times a large fhare of popular refpect and veneration by their zufterities and apparent fanctity. They too performed their miracles and wonderful things; and, if the eaftern hiftorians may be credited, with as much dexterity and addrefs as any of thofe holy men and women on whom the honour of fainthip has been conferred by the infallibility of the Roman Pontiffs.
 gl
 1) ( a rug uni dug it

 ب! Nit gإر
据

+ ie. Whether Tatars or Perfians, Arabs or Syrians. Such are the confined meanings of the words Taucheek and Allium; but they frequently convey a more extenfive idea: for the Tatars ufe the word Taucbeek, and until tun, and from Cheen, and from Maucheen, and from Hin- Book II. doftaun, and from the cities of Arabia, and from Miffur, and from Shaum, and from Room, and from the iflands of the Chriftians; that they might give me information of the fituation, and of the manners, and of the cuftoms of the natives and the inhabitants of thofe regions; and that they might obferve, and communicate unto me, the conduct of the princes of every kingdom, and of every country, towards their fubjects.

Relative to the various tribes, whether Toork or Taucheek, Arrub or Ajjum, \(\dagger\) who fought fhelter under my government; thefe were the Reguliations which I eftablifhed.

First, I commanded that thofe who were of the pofterity of the prophet, or theologians learned in the laws, fhould be received with reverence and refpect; and that all their wifhes and defires chould be fulfilled; and that they fhould be fupported in affluence and honour.

And thofe who were foldiers, I ordered to be incorporated with my troops, and entertained according to their rank and their circumftances.

And thofe who were fkilled in mechanic arts, I directed to be employed in my fervice. And the the Arabs the word Ajjum or Ajjumi to diftinguifh any perfon, or people, of a different nation from their own. Thus Taucheek and Ajjum anfwer to our word forsigner.
 siod

 <hصe (元 diju N ها Nint a diilu, diرl تالـو p然g \(v_{j 3}\)

\section*{- TIMOUR.}
body of the people, the indigent and the poor, who had Book II. capacity and abilities, I commanded to be accommodated agreeably to their fituations.

I ordered that the merchant who had loft his property, fhould have fuch fums of money given unto him as were fufficient to reftore his capital to its original ftate; and that every hufbandman and every peafant, who was not poffeffed of the implements of hubbandry and cultivation, fhould be fupplied therewith; and that thofe, of whatever clafs or rank, who chofe the occupation of arms, fhould be received into military fervice.

AND the genuine defcendant of a foldier, refolute and brave, of whatever tribe or hord he might be, I ordered to be enrolled in the number of my forces, and to be promoted in proportion to his conduct and behaviour.

And I ordained that no perfon, whatever his rank, who entered my palace, fhould be excluded from the table of my imperial bounty.

And whoever was brought into my prefence, and attracted my notice, I commanded that honours Should be conferred upon him in proportion to his rank; and that every criminal who came for the firft time before my tribunal, fhould be pardoned; but that for the fecond, and the third, crime he fhould meet with punifhment adequate to his offences.
uni (i) gol ovjlgu un a

اول بايل ك位 ا) تimi پ
伿 y-0 \(\quad\),

 0,luole Jg JU

Thus I eftablifhed rules for the fecurity of Book II. my government.

I regulated my conduct by Twelve certain Maxims : and by them I feated myfelf firmly on the throne of empire. And from experience it is known unto me, that every prince who adhereth not to thefe Twelve Maxims, fhall reap little advantage from his dominion and regal fation.

First. It is neceffary that his words and his actions be his own. That is to fay, that his foldiers and his fubjects may know that what the king fayeth and doeth, he fayeth and doeth from himfelf; and that no other perfon hath influence therein.

Therefore it is requifite that a king be not fo guided by the conduct and the counfels of others, as to make them his affociates in his regal authority. For although he be obliged to hear good advice from all, yet he muft not to that degree attend unto them, as to enable them by their meafures and their counfels to become his equals, and in the end his fuperiors, in the concerns of his government.

Secondiy. It is neceffary to a king that he adhere to juftice in all his actions, and that he receive into his fervice minifters who are juft and virtuous. For if a king be guilty of oppreffion, an upright miniter may counteract the evil thereof. But if the minifter be با با转 ر dilo d~
 ن آ

קهازٍ بر عزبـت وتا

 باراي ג
unjuft and cruel, it fhall fpeedily come to pafs, that the Book II. edifice of his mafters's power and dominion fhall be levelled with the earth.

Thus Ameer Hooffein had a cruel and a wicked minifter, who levied oppreffive fines on the foldiers and on the fubjects; until in a fhort time by the oppreffions of that unjult and cruel minifter, the fabric of the dominion of Ameer Hooffein was laid in the duft.

Thirdey. In his injuctions and in his prohibitions he muft act with refolution and with firmnefs. And he himfelf muft iffue his royal commands, that no one may have the temerity, or the power, to interpofe, to alter, or to corrupt them.

Fourthiy. He muft be firm and confant in all his determinations. That is to fay, on whatever plan or enterprife he fhall refolve, he muft not alter his refolution, nor withdraw his hand from that enterprife, until he hath brought it to a fortunate conclufion.

Thefifth is the firit of command. For whatever command he giveth, it, is neceffary that that command fhould be obeyed; that no one flould have the power to act in oppofition thereto, even though in : convenience or mifchief fhould be the expected confequence of that command.

INSTITUTES
0 （blw a S and uo eotmred die以

后

 تiblw \(\Rightarrow\) 苗

 ت

 Niبibin نirs مico

\section*{- F TIMOUR.}

So it hath been related unto me, that Sool- Book II. taun Muhmood, emperor of Ghizni, ordered on a certain occafion that a ftone fhould be caft down at the entrance of the plain of Ghiznein : and the horfes of the people ftarted and fprang back from that fone. And although his fervants folicited his permiffion that they might remove the ftone from the entrance of the road, he refufed his affent : he anfwered unto them, ' I have iffued - forth the order; and I will not turn back from, or con' tradict, my own commands.'

Sixthly; (for from hence proceedeth fecurity and power) he muft not truft the concerns of his government to others, nor deliver over the reins of his authority into the hands of a fervant : for the world is full of treachery, and hath many lovers; and it may foon come to pafs that the powerful fervant fhall afpire to regal dignity, and feat himfelf on the throne of his mafter.

Such was the conduct of the minifters of Sooltaun Muhmood towards their lord. They expelled him from the imperial throne, and they divided his dominions and his power amongt themfelves. It is neceffary therefore that the powers and important affairs of government be divided ; and that they be entrufted to the care of divers perfons of approved fidelity, and of known loyalty; fo that being employed in their own proper departments, no one of them may afpire to the fupreme authority.

，位

تin－sy g olng تiblu jol u بت̈و و و （ Ju，

Solu
 نی̈rerling dijg－j \(\cup<\)－n－ne 元审 din！ulinul cta Unt untug ＂

Seventhly. On the affairs of his go- BookII. vernment he muft liften to the opinions of his fervants: thofe which are good, he muft lay up in the treafury of his heart, and call them forth into action at their proper feafons.

Eighthly. In the concerns of dominion, and in thofe things which relate to his fubjects and his foldiers, he muft not act by the affiftance and the advice of others. If his Vizzeers or his Ameers fpeak unto him concerning any one, whether that which they fay be good, or whether it be evil, let him hearken to them; but in forming his determination thereon let him be cautious and circumfeect, until the truth be apparent unto him.

Ninthiy. It is neceffary that the majefty of his dominion be fo impreffed on the hearts of his foldiers and his fubjects, that none fhall dare to difobey his orders and commands, or to revolt from their duty and obedience to his royal authority.

Tenthey. What the king doeth he muft do from himfelf; and he muft adhere to that which he fayeth : for unto a prince there is nothing fo valuable as a juft veneration for his royal word. This word is unto him a family of princes, and a rich treafury; it maketh to him numerous fubjects and powerful armies.

a ilo, 5 ;iblio.

0g unt \(\rightarrow^{\circ}\) dol Jhaj

位 untso lol j ا divg un ligg Jol ulwinl? uo ula - (ohn ,in of ugچas pugr gol野
 نه نغ, نيـر باشني نام
 Filü اليشان المير كربان نو

Eleventhly. In the affairs of his go- Book11. vernment, and in the iffuing forth his orders and commands, he muft confider himfelf as fingle and alone; nor muft he affociate any one with him in the adminiftration of his authority.

Twelfthly. He muft be acquainted with the manners and the difpofitions of his favourites and his confidents. And he muft act with caution and circumfection : for many are lovers of flander and of calumny, who may carry reports abroad, and communicate to the Vizzeers and the Ameers the words and the actions of their prince. Thus, it once happened unto me at a time when feveral of thofe whom I admitted to my private council proved to be the fpies of my Vizzeers and my Omraus.

Regulations for the forming of MY ARMY.

I ordained, when ten felect foldiers, men of proof, were collected together, that one of them, who was diftinguifhed for valour and for bravery, fhould, with the advice and the confent of the remaining nine, be appointed commander over them; and that he fhould be called Ounbaurhee :

And when ten Ounbaufhee were affembled together, that one of them who was qualified by fervice and abilities, Mould be appointed their leader; and that he fhould be ftiled Euzbaufhee :
\(23^{\circ}\)
INSTITUTES

زالده عاقل وido rict \(\int\) 生 ug إ با با با diluy víx-r
*

入-jilu oLE;

Liog trol it olum digle á pJje gol 04

And that, when ten Euzbauhhee were col- Book II. lected together, an officer of exalted lineage, the fon of a chief, of approved knowledge, and valour, and intrepidity, fhould be appointed commander over them; and that he fhould be called Mingbaufhee, and Leader of a thoufand. AND I gave power to the Ounbaufhees, that if any foldier under their command fhould die, or fhould defert, that they fhould appoint another foldier in his place. In the like manner I ordained, that the Euzbaufhee fhould appoint the Ounbaufhee, and the Mingbaufhee the Euzbaufhee; and that they fhould lay before me an account of the perfon who had died or deferted, and of the appointment of another in his ftead.

AND I commanded in the like manner, that, on military fervice and in every concern that related to government, the authority of the Mingbaumee fhould be eftablifhed over the Euzbaufhee; and the authority of the Euzbaufhee over the Ounbaufhee; and the authority of the Ounbauhhee over the common foldier; that they fhould chaftife thofe that were difobedient; and that thofe who in the day of battle were deficient in performing their duty, fhould be expelled; and that others fhould be appointed in their place.

The establishment of the pay of my forces.
I commanded that the fubfiftence of my troops, of the Omraus, and the Mingbaurhees, and the Euzbaufhees, villus, \(\leftrightarrows\), ن̈̈
-
 بها
 (؟ و باشٌ و و

 ت

 \(J_{5}\)
+ This mode of fixing the pay of the folder is fill practiced in Hondofaun. Every folder finds his own horfe, and receives pay in proportion to his value. Select men are fill taken into fervice with two, and formetimes july
\[
0 \text { F T I M O UVR. }
\]

Euzbaufhees, and the Ounbaufhees, and the common Book II. foldiers fhould be fixed and determined according to the following order.

I ordained that the fubfiftence of each of the private foldiers, if he were a fufficient and able man, fhould be fixed at the value of his horfe; \(\dagger\) and that the fubfiftence of my felect and chofen warriors fhould be eftimated at the value of from two to four horfes each.

AND I ordered that the fubfiftence of the Ounbaufhees fhould be ten times as much as the fubfirtence of the foldiers under them; and that the fubfiftence of the Euzbaufhees fhould be twice as much as that of the Ounbaufhees ; and that the fubfiftence of the Mingbaufhees fhould be three times as much as the fubfiftence of the Euzbauhhees.

And I ordained that the foldier who neglected his duty, \(\ddagger\) fhould be fined in one tenth of his pay. And I commanded that the Ounbaufhees fhould receive their fubfiftence under the controul of the Euzbaufhees; and that the Euzbaufhees fhould receive their fubfiftence under the controul of the Mingbaufhees; and that the Mingbaufhees fhould receive their fubfiftence under the controul of the Ameer ul Omrau. || times three, horfes each ; which are mounted by their fervants, and they receive pay in proportion.

I The word thus tranflated is Mogul, and the fenfe doubtful.
\| i.e. The chief of the Ameers or Nobles.
片 ن باتِ
 تا N

 \(1, i, 3\) i-يhصن
 a_i_ilw un uj, \(r\), ligg ( rios olg_-iig,

+ This regulation is not underfood by the the tranflator. The words \(\dot{Y}_{1}\) Jauroullaun, 7 fufauwullaur, and Kulluckicheaun are Mogul.
J, \({ }^{\circ}\)

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

AND I commanded that the pay of the BookII. Ameer ul Omrau fhould be ten times as much as the pay of the officer fubordinate unto him. And, in like manner, I ordained that the fipends of the Dewaunbeghi and of the Vizzeers fhould be ten times as much as the fubfiftence of the Ameers; and that the fubfiftence of the Yuffauwullaun, the Juffauwullaun, and the Kulluckcheaun fhould be eftablifhed at from one thoufand to ten thoufand. \(t\)

AND I ordained that penfions, and falaries, and fubfiftence fhould be conferred on the pofterity of the prophet, and the theologians, and the men of fcience, and the learned in medicine, and on the aftrologers, and the hiftorians, in proportion to their different ranks and ftations : and that the fubfiftence of the foot-foldiers, and the domeftics, and the Furraufhaun \(\ddagger\) fhould be fixed at from a hundred to a thoufand.

AND I ordained alfo that the Ameer ul Omrau fhould receive his fubfiftence under the infpection of the Dewaunbeghi and the Vizzeers. And I commanded that the Vizzeers and the Dewaunbeghi fhould lay before me the fatement of the falaries of each of my people, and pay them agreeably thereto.

AND I ordained that a written order for his fubfiftence fhould be delivered to each of my foldiers; and that the fums which from time to time were advanced unto him, fhould be written down on the back of that order.
\(\ddagger\) The Furraufbaun are the people employed to ereet the tents, &cc. olum digls utuilw) ol ( dilug?

 lios otㄷï䍝 ت vioul *

 1,

 ن

\title{
- F T I MOUR.
}

Concerning the aprointment and bookif. PAY OF MY TROOPS.

I commanded that the accompt of twelve monthis fubfiftence for the infantry, and the Kulluckcheaun, and the Yuffauwullaun, and the Juffauwullaun fhould be made out at one time; and that the money which was their due fhould be brought forth into the hall of audience, and there delivered unto them.

I ordered that the accompts of the fubfiftence of my cavalry in general fhould be made out every fix months; and that appointments to the amount of their pay fhould be delivered unto them from the treafury.

And I ordained that for the fubfiftence of the Ounbaufhees and the Euzbaufhees written orders Mould be given on the Maulaumauni + of the cities and the country; and that the interior diftricts fhould be allotted for the payment of the Mingbaufhees; and that the ftipends of the Ameers and the Ameer ul Omrau fhould be granted on the revenues of the frontier provinces.

AND I COMMANDED THAT THE DISTRIbution of the provinces, And the districts, SHOULD BE MADE IN THIS MANNER:

That the amount of the revenues of the various provinces and kingdoms fhould be divided into lots for more or for lefs, and that a royal affignment for the payment of each of thofe lots fhould be made out; and that thofe affignments fhould be brought into the hall
\[
+ \text { Impofts, duties, }
\]

INSTITUTES
باشيان برلئن

נ10, \(1,(5,0,0\) ens jo

g و و idol * * 保 rig gid aw l

+ Faugheer is a royal grant of certain lands; or more properly an affignmint of the crown revenues of a certain diftrict to any one, and revocable at the pleafure of the prince. The holder of this grant is called Faugbeerdaur. Silt;

\section*{OF T I M OUR.}
of audience; and that the Ameers and the Mingbaufhees Book II. fhould each of them take one of thofe affignments; and that if the amount thereof exceeded the fum of his fubfiftence, fome one elfe fhould participate with him; and if it were lefs, that another fhould be given in exchange, or added unto it.

AND I commanded that the Ameers and the Mingbaufhees, in collecting the revenues from the fubjects, fhould not on any account demand more than the taxes and duties eftablifhed.

AND to every province on which a royal affignment was granted, I ordained that two fupervifors fhould be appointed to that province : that one of them fhould infpect the collections and watch over the concerns of the inhabitants, that they might not be impoverifhed, and that the Jaugheerdaur + might not ill-ufe or opprefs them; and that he fhould take an account of all the fums which were collected in the province: and that the other fupervifor thould keep a regifter of the public expences, and diftribute the revenues among the foldiers.

And every Ameer who was appointed to a Jaugheer, \(\ddagger \mathrm{I}\) ordained that for the fpace of three years it fhould remain unto him; and that after three years the ftate of the province fhould be infpected. If the inhabi-

\footnotetext{
\(\ddagger\) In the original Yottool; which is Mogul, and has the fame meaning with Faugheer.
}

240
INSTITUTES
㥩吕 Nioui a些 ه ¢临
 ور \(5 \times\) ©
 كاونه وولايت بكيرد

هوإ سواررا علونه وولايت بكيرد

 وو；وiju هزار سواررا عاونه وولايت بکيرن ونب，
- F T I M OUR.
tants were fatisfied, and if the country was flourifhing \(\underbrace{\text { Book II. }}\) and populous, that he fhould be continued therein : but if the contrary fhould appear, that the Jaugheer fhould return unto the crown; and that for the three following years, fubfiftence fhould not be granted to the holder thereof.

AND I ordained that the collection of the taxes from the fubject might, when neceffary, be enforced by menaces and by threats; but never by whips and by fcourges. The governor whofe authority is inferior to the power of the fcourge, is unworthy to govern.

Concerning the subsistence of my Children and descendants.

I commanded that my eldeft fon, the heir to my throne, who is Mahummud Jehaungheer, fhould receive the fubfiftence of twelve thoufand horfemen, and the affignment of territories fufficient to defray the fame :

And that my fecond fon, who is Omur Sheikh, fhould receive the fubfiftence of ten thoufand horfemen, and lands correfpondent thereunto:

And that my third fon, who is Meeraun Shaah, fhould receive the fubfiftence of nine thoufand horfemen, and the affignment of a province for the payment of the fame:

AND that my fourth fon, who is Shaahrokh, fhould receive the fubfiftence of feven thoufand horfemen, and the affignment of a Jaugheer equivalent thereto :

242
INSTITUTES
ii
هفiت هذ الر سوارا علونه وولايت بكيزنه Uيكر جهاءت
:-指 ورو Niu, 5 ش

در باب وigg
隹
 بـرات ر Jgiu Jlmis ونبايـو وذوششًان

ايشّانرا درويش
I, oly

\section*{OT I M O UR.}

AND that my grandfons fhould receive fub- Book II. fiftence and lands for from three to feven thoufand horfe, each according to his capacity and abilities.

To all others who were related unto me, I commanded that fubfiftence and appointments fhould be given, from the rank of firf Ameer to the rank of feventh Ameer, according to the abilities, and the dignity, and the rank of each; and that every one of them fhould reft content with the fation wherein he was placed, and prefume not to exceed the limits prefcribed unto him; and that if any one of them fhould difobey this order, he fhould be called to a frict account.

Concerning the punishments of my children, and my grandchildren, and MY Relations, and my chiefs, and my miniSTERS.

I ordained, if either of my fons thould afpire to the imperial throne, that they fhould not prefume to put him to death, nor load him with chains; neither fhould they injure him in his limbs, or his organs; but that they fhould confine him in a prifon, until he returned back from his evil ways : that civil wars and convulfions might not arife in the land of the Lord.

And if any one of my grandchildren, or relations, rofe in enmity againft me, I ordered him to be reduced to the fate of a Dervaifh. +
t i. e. To be deprived of his honours and fortune ; to be reduced to a ftate of beggary.
 J; i

 باه diodiر بار در بــاب وزرا vil تigo aluuw隹 از ایشان ظا ها شول وزو وال dily j ه تmlg g

 dilu, 5 a را را als

AND if the Ameers; who are the bulwarks of empire, Should difobey in the hour of action, I ordered that they fhould be degraded from their commands, and deprived of their powers and their dignities; and that if any of them fhould be guilty of actions, from whence difturbances might arife in my dominions, that they fhould be delivered over to the judgement of their peers; and that if they were guilty of neglect in the line of their military duty, they fhould be claffed amongft the fribes ; and, if in that fation they were difobedient and refractory, that they fhould be expelled from the imperial fervice.

Concerning. the ministers, who ARE THE MOST RESPECTABLE AND CONFIDENTIAL OF THE SERVANTS OF ROYALTY.

I ordained, if they fhould be guilty of treachery in the concerns of the empire, or form attempts for the fubverfion of the imperial authority, that their judges frould not be precipitate in configning them over to death :

AND that they fhould difcover and afcertain who were their accufers, and firf try the honefty and truth of the witneffes on the touchtone of examination and proof: for the invidious and the flanderers are many; who from envy and felf-interet will cloath falfehood in the garment of truth, that they may accomplifh their own defigns.

Anv many there are, worthlefs and wicked men, who will fupport and encourage the enemies of their prince; and who by fraud, and artifice and treachery

J ر ریغ g sto Nijldil چانان
و \(ك\) تیهو با ：
 ［淮 j（ از 䏠，埌 gog كrرص

dil تrlo رl 1 U㲅 ele 5
OF TIMOUR.
chery will ruin and deftroy his loyal and faithful fubjects; Book II. and by falfehood, and perfidy, and deceit fhake and overturn the foundation of his empire.

Thus Ameer Hooffein entered into a treacherous correfpondence with one of my Vizzeers. And he adminiftered to his avarice, and he prevailed upon him to fow difcord and enmity between me and Eekoo Timour and Ameer Jaukoo, who were the finews of my power and fortune. And I penetrated into the defigns of Ameer Hooffein and my Vizzeer, and I liftened not to their accufations againft them.

AND thus alfo feveral of thofe in whom I confided, from envy and from malice, communicated fictitious tales unto me, both in public and in private, to the prejudice of Ameer Ubbaus, who was one of my moft powerful and moft faithful chiefs. And they kindled the fire of my refentment by their falfe reports; and in the moment of anger \(I\) ordered him, unheard and unexamined, to be put to death : and in the end I difcovered the perfidy of his accufers, and I was afhamed and confounded at my own conduct.

If the Vizzeers fuperintending the revenues, who hold the riches of the empire, were guilty of peculation therein; and if the fums which they appropriated to their own ufe, exceeded not the amount of their falaries, I ordered that it fhould be conferred upon them; that if they had taken fums to twice the amount digle ju liül odú ivaï digle luier gu el (Sg بإِّ difulu, , غا ها ها保

INSTITUTES

ر

 Nilif ب (sidul s. \(\leftrightarrows\) Niit با نو با آن نوشّه سان

 - 0 gin
of their fubliftence, it fhould be deducted therefrom ; and Book II. that, if they had defrauded the revenues to three times the amount of their falaries, the imperial collectors fhould levy it upon their fortunes.

AND I ordered that the collectors fhould not take more than was due ; but that their conduct fhould be governed by equity and juftice, that abufes might not creep into the ordinances of government.

I commanded that the tales of the wicked, the envious, and the malicious againft my Vizzeers fhould not be attended to. For minifters are a clafs of men who have many enemies; and the inhabitants of this world are fearchers after the things thereof. If a minifter patronizes and fupports them, they will deceive and betray him; and if he neglects thofe people, they will gird up their loins in oppofition unto him.

Chughtaï Khaun had a minifter whom the fons of calumny accufed of peculation to the amount of many thoufand pieces of money. When they prefented the impeachment to the king, he commanded the Vizzeer into his prefence, and thus reproached him, "It " is evident that thou art a wretch of a moft abject dif" pofition, fince being the minifter of a prince rich and "powerful as I am, thou canft be meanly content with * defrauding thy mafter of fuch poor and contemptible "fums as thefe." The fagacious and good Vizzeer, thus

INSTITUTES
 - inl
 j

厄 il 5 ,

Jiiluy lowh din umrog
 Jho با بhe dï; ainilus (369
OF TIM O UR.
honoured by the kindnefs of his prince, brought forth Book It. all that he had, and laid it at the feet of his lord; and thus preferved both his influence and his honour.

AND I commanded that if any one of my foldiers, exceeding the limits prefcribed him, fhould injure or opprefs the weak and the helplefs, he fhould be delivered into the hands of the injured perfon, that he might retaliate upon him.

AND if the chiefs or the nobles of any tribe or people extorted from the induftrious hufbandman his fmall pittance, I commanded that a fine fhould be levied on the guilty perfon in proportion to the degree of extortion, and to his ability to make retribution : and if the governor or fuperintendant fhould cruelly deftroy the property of a fubject, that he fhould be brought to punifhment : but I ordained that after conviction, if the guilty perfon was fined, in that cafe corporal punifhment fhould not be inflicted; and if corporal punifhment was inflicted, I ordered that he fhould not be fined.

Robbers and thieves, in whatever place they might be found, or by whomfoever detected, I commanded to be put to death.

\section*{AND I ordained, that, if any one feized by} violence the property of another, the value of that property fhould be taken from the oppreffor, and be reftored to the oppreffed.

C－ （ وزن ג～次 نـا 0رك ك

Dí
b سيور تr لroveg
 وريا，隹 و⿻بـ，الجپ Jlu＿ïlg

Concerning other crimes, the breaking of teeth, and the putting out of eyes, and the flitting and cutting off the ears and nofe, and wine-drinking and adultery, I ordained that whoever fhould be guilty of thefe, or other crimes, they fhould be brought into the court of the ecclefiaftical and civil judges : that the ecclefiaftical magiftrate fhould decide on thofe caufes, which are determinable by the facred laws; and that thofe which did not fall under his cognizance, fhould be inveftigated, and laid before me by the civil judge.

Concerning the appointment of MINISTERS.

I ordained that in Vizzeers four qualities fhould be particularly attended to: Firft, firmnefs and generofity: Secondly, underftanding and fagacity: Third1 y , the power of living in harmony with the foldiers and the fubjects : Fourthly, patience under difficulties, and talents for the cultivation of peace and tranquillity :

That whoever was endowed with thefe four qualities fhould be confidered as equal to the office of Vizzeer ; fhould be made both minifter and counfellor, and the reins of the concerns of the government, of the army, and the fubjects be delivered over to his care; that preeminence fhould be conferred upon him by four things, confidence, and efteem, and difcretionary power, and authority.

 و ونيكilu jug dodi गJ Ju ( نا ون وin هي !

U, شi Uو

 نـابی
 .
 0, آ

وزی Uul Uام 1,
OF T I M O UR.

That minifter fhall be equal to his office, who ordereth and conducteth the affairs and concerns of the government, of land, and of property, with uprightnefs, and integrity, and moderation ; who taketh not where it fhould not be taken, and remitteth not where it fhould not be remitted; who in his ordinances and prohibitions giveth proofs of lenity and of firmnefs; in whom hypocrify and diffimulation fhall not appear; who fpeaketh well of the foldier and of the fubject; and who neither heareth nor fayeth evil of another; who, if he difcovereth bad defigns in any one, fhall fo conduct himfelf towards him, that he fhall turn back from his iniquitous intentions; and who fhall do good to the man who doeth evil unto him, that he may return into the path of friendihip.

Let the Vizzeer who heareth and fayeth evil of others, who foweth contention, and who endeavoureth to ruin a good and virtuous man, from the malice which he beareth unto him, be expelled from his office.

The office of the Vizzaurut muft not be conferred on the wicked, the envious, the revengeful, or the feditious : for the confequence that fhall follow from the adminiftration of fuch men, is the fpeedy diffolution of the imperial fortune and empire.

Thus it happened to Mullick Shaah Siljokee. He difgraced his Vizzeer Nizzaum ul Moolluk, who 256

INSTITUTES
 (1,

 जشاشَ ا リا ترغي نـر نو

 عاليه (5)-ijg
\[
0 \text { F TIMOUR. }
\]
who was adorned with every great and fhining quality; Book II. and appointed an ignoble and worthlefs man in his place. By the ill conduct, vicioufnefs, and villainy of that minifter the foundation of the power of Mullick Shaah was overturned.

In this manner Al Kummi, who was noted for his malevolent and revengeful difpofition, was raifed to the dignity of firft minifter by Maatuffim Billau Ubbaufi. Influenced by the fecret rancour which he harboured in his foul againft the Khulleefeh, that wicked minifter deceived his mafter with the language of treachery; and exciting the ambition of Hullaukoo Khaun, drew the powerful arms of that prince on the head of the unfufpecting Khalif: he caufed his perfon to be feized; and that befell the Khalif which did befall him.

Therefore the Vizzeer to be chofen is a man of illuftrious defcent, and of a noble heart, and of a virtuous difpofition, and of prudent conduct. The truly illuftrious fwerve not from their duty; but in the bafe and ignoble fidelity and good faith are not to be found.

And every Vizzeer who conducteth himfelf in his high fation with uprightnefs and integrity; who directeth the various departments of government with rectitude, and with fidelity, and with refpect to the facred laws, let him be exalted to the higheft dignities.
\(25^{8}\)
INSTITUTES
（wiri \(\lambda\)

＜iniرu \(x=\) Lilu
组的 وو，وا روبو浣 直 lou lan viil
 dبا a \(\leqslant\) U J ار \(J 0\).

\section*{O F T I M O U R.}

AND if the minifter tranfacteth the im-BookII. portant concerns of empire by villainy and artifice, it Thall fpeedily happen that the power and profperity of that empire Ihall pafs away.

That minister is a wise minister, who in his conduct employeth both mildnefs and feverity; who is neither immoderately fevere, nor weakly compliant. For if he acteth with too much mildnefs and compliance, the avaricious and wordly-minded will opprefs and bear him down: and if his feverity be exceffive, the people will fly from before him, and at all times avoid his prefence.

Therefore that minister is a wise myNISTER, who regulateth and giveth order to the edifice of royalty by a juft knowledge of mankind, and by an uniform and prudent conduct; who in the execution of his office acteth with patience and forbearance, and conducteth the affairs of government with mildnefs and with feverity.

Let fuch a Vizzeer be confidered as a friend and companion in the imperial dignity. For the dignity of empire is fupported by extenfive territories, by a rich treafury, and by numerous armies: and thefe three things fhall be obtained and fecured by a WISE MINISTER.

A PERFECT MINISTER IS THAT MINISTER, who, in confequence of any harfhnefs that thall be offered unto him, permitteth not revenge and enmity to take poffeffion
\[
K k 2
\]

INSTITUTES
 تور Nilo, dï二 1 , ,

ا \(ا\) ens a גїا با

 dou hivi \(z^{3 \operatorname{lng}}\)
5igg

\section*{OF T I M O U R.}
of his foul. If he be malignant, and harbour revenge, Book II. he muft be watched with care and with caution; left he enter into confederacies with the enemies of the imperial power, and involve in confufion the revenues and the army of his prince.

An intelitigent and sagacious minister is THAT MINISTER, who fupporteth the fubject with one hand, and with the other hand holdeth up the foldier ; who receiveth not whence it fhould not be received; and who giveth not where it fhould not be given ; who letteth not vigilance and circumfection forth from his hand; who acteth with uprightnefs and integrity; who looketh forward to the conclufion and confequences of every tranfaction ; and who in negotiating the affairs of the empire feeth not his enemy before him.

That minister is an experienced and active minister, who keepeth in his eye the cultivation and population of the country, and the profperity of the fubjects, and the ftrength of the army, and the fulnefs of the treafury; who exerteth himfelf in promoting thofe meafures which are profitable to government, and hazardeth his fortune and his life in counteracting thofe, from which evil may follow to the imperial dignity; and who directeth the concerns of the foldier and the fubject with prudence and deliberation.

I NSTITUTES
J. أ 5 a 0.

 هش
 تnl ج, Sin,
4.

所 地 din بim

ترض i ا نو \(\zeta 1 d \leq \Delta i J, \int\) Jig sling dule dUl (slo Jgw)
 J|ïشا
\[
\begin{equation*}
0 \mathrm{~F} \text { T I M O UR. } \tag{3} \end{equation*}
\]

\section*{A virtuous minister is that minister, Bookif.} whofe good qualities predominate over his failings.

Thus I have heard, that the failings of Nizzaum ul Moolluk were vanquifhed by his virtues. At that time when he refolved to perform the holy pilgrimage, one of the men of God faid unto him; "Thy " good actions which thine forth in the glory and the " power of Mullick Shaah, and the bleffings which the " people of the Almighty receive from thy hands, are "equal to all the merits of pilgrimage and of fanctity."

And it has alfo been related unto me, that on the day when Aali Ben Luckti, who was the minifter of Hauroon ul Rufheed, determined to retire from the Vizzaurut; as his adminiftration had been favourable to the people of God, one of the holy priefts wrote to him, faying, "Thou fhalt continue to execute thy office in the "palace of the Khalif; thou fhalt not relinquifh thy au" thority: for the comforts and the benefits which thou " conferreft on the fervants of the Almighty, are fuperior "to all the good and glorious actions of thy life."

And fo alfo I have heard, that when it was demanded of the holy prophet, (on whom be the protection of God) "If thou hadft not been fent forth "the meffenger and prophet of the Almighty, what oc"cupation wouldeft thou have chofen?" He anfwered, faying,

264
INSTITUTES
 انیّار

 Uول

1. (cho
 و وبّ diou السابـ،

丳 و (S) ه \(\alpha\), čims
\[
0 \text { F T I M O U R. }
\]
faying, "I would have fought the fervice of princes; Book II. " that I might have been able to do good to the fervants "of my Creator."

AND it was on this account that I confented to accept the employments of minifter and general from Ouleaus Khaujeh, the fon of Tughulluk Timour Khaun ; that I might fuccour and fupport the people. And from the affiftance and protection which I afforded to his fervants, it may have come to pafs that Almighty God hath exalted me to the throne of empire.

AND if a minifter by fkilful meafures, or by the fword, conquereth or faveth a kingdom, let him be held in honour and refpect; and let him be exalted and filed, The lord of the sword and the pen.

A SKilful and able minister is that miniSTER, who, when neceffary, can by his counfels and abilities difperfe and divide the power of armies; and who, when occafion calleth, can by well-adapted and fkilful meafures unite them together; who hath the capacity to fow divifions among the forces of the enemy, and to make them fubfervient to his views, and to be the confervator of his prince and mafter; who can, by his fagacity, and wifdom, and forefight refolve and render eafy the momentous concerns and difficulties which furround a king; and who,
  بی غ غ

而 قوت和 velt rai

屏

 \(0,2 \rightarrow\) \(5_{j i}^{3}\)
OF TIMOUR.
if the affairs of empire be involved in confufion, can re- Book Ir. duce them to order by the hand of underftanding and reflection.

Thus at the time that Aali Beg Choun Ghoorbauni feized on my perfon, and confined me in a loathfome dungeon, filled with vermin; Aazeez u deen, who was one of my Vizzeers, came to me from Turmuz with fpeed; and lulling to fleep the attention of Aali Beg, and hiding his eyes from his prifoner, he gave fuch vigour to my hopes, that with the arm of fortitude and tefolution, and by the edge of the fword, I extricated myfelf from the guards which were ftationed over me, and recovered my freedom. In the like manner Nizzaum ul Moolluk delivered Mullick Shaah from the hands of Keefur.

LET therefore fuch a minifter be accounted the companion of the imperial fortune; let him be treated with kindnefs and affection; and let not his counfels be difregarded : for that which he fayeth, proceedeth from wifdom and underftanding.

If a king be oppreffive, and his Vizzeer be juft, the oppreffions of the king are moderated and rectified by the juftice of the Vizzeer; but if the Vizzeer be oppreffive, the affairs of that government fhall be fpeedily involved in confufion.

ت吕 و

 وتهور و شٌ

كِّ ?
 ( Niy,
,
 dolj unv il Ju Uiج

 \(=-\infty\) Suoly

\section*{- F T I M O UR.}

Regulations concerning the ap- Bookil. POINTMENT OF SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

I commanded that three hundred and thirteen perfons from among my chofen and fuperior fervants fhould be advanced to exalted dignities. And thofe were men who were renowned for their high lineage, and for noblenefs of mind, and for underftanding, and for penetration, and for refolution, and for intrepidity, and for fkill, and for vigilance, and for caution, and for forefight, and for deep reflection.

AND to each of them I appointed another perfon, who on the death of the firft fhould fucceed to his rank and dignity; and him I entitled AN EXPECTER of PREFERMENT.

AND thefe three hundred and thirteen Ameers were men of judgement and of knowledge; and they were learned in the arts of peace and of war; and they were fkilled in the evolutions of armies, and in breaking the lines of the enemy.

For by experience it is known unto me, that he only is equal to fations of power and dignity, who is well acquainted with the military art, and with the various modes of breaking and defeating hoftile armies; who in the hour of battle giveth not his heart forth from his hand, nor permitteth apprehenfion and terror to take poffeffion of his foul; who can direct the efforts of his troops ; and if their ranks be thrown into confufion, can by his abilities reftore them to order.

270
INSTITUTES

نايب وفـايم

渚

昷 الم

 \(\operatorname{ain}\) U

保

药

 ro
\(\mathrm{HE}_{E}\) is capable of filling the ftation of chief Book II. of the Omraus, who is worthy of being my lieutenant in peace and in war; who can rule the armies with majefty and with authority; and who hath the vigour to chaftize thofe who rife in oppofition to his commands.

I commanded, that of the fore-going three hundred and thirteen Ameers, four fhould be appointed Beglerbegs; \(\psi\) and that one fhould be exalted to the dignity of Ameer ul Omrau: whofe authority fhould be over the Ameers and the army, in the field and in action; and who in my prefence fhould act as my deputy.

Twelve other persons, men of reputation and renown, I exalted to high COMMANDS, ACCORDING TO THIS ORDER.

To the firft Ameer I gave in charge a thoufand men, and appointed him commander over them. And to the fecond Ameer I gave the command of two thoufand men ; and appointed him their chief. And, in the fame manner, to the third, and the fourth, and the fifth Ameer I gave the command of three, and four, and five thoufand men: and thus from the fixth to the twelfth Ameer, from fix thoufand up to twelve thoufand. And each, according to his rank, I appointed the deputy and reprefentative of his fuperior.

Thus I appointed the firft Ameer the deputy of the fecond, and the fecond Ameer the deputy of \(\dagger\) i. e. Generals or commanders of the firft rank.

272 INSTITUTES

 نايب قابم مغام وي كر دا

Prong
ك 5 باشي

居 Ninogic a dw رN

掘
 \(\Gamma_{j}\)
OF T I MOUR.
the third; thus alfo the eleventh Ameer the deputy of Book II. the twelfth Ameer, and the twelfth Ameer the deputy of the Ameer ul Omrau, and the Ameer ul Omrau my deputy: that if an accident fhould happen, the one might fupply the place of another.

I alfo commanded that from amongtt thefe three hundred and thirteen Ameers, a hundred fhould be ftiled Ounbaufhees, that one other hundred fhould be called Euzbaufhees, and that the third hundred fhould be ftiled Mingbaufhees.

AND I ordained that in times of fervice the Ameer ul Omrau fhould iffue orders to the Ameers, and the Mingbaufhees, and the Euzbaufhees, and the Ounbaufhees: and that the duty of the Ounbaufhee fhould not be impofed on the Euzbaufhee; and in the like manner that the duty of the Euzbaufhee fhould not be impofed on the Mingbaufhee; nor the duty of the Mingbaufhee on the Ameer; nor the duty of the Ameer on the Ameer ul Omrau :

And that on fuch fervice as might be executed by an Ounbaufhee, an Euzbaufhee fhould not be ordered; and that a Mingbaufhee fhould not be fent on a fervice which could be performed by an Euzbaufhee :

And that every one of the Ameers, who, from a fpirit of enterprife, demanded employment, that his requeft fhould be granted.

U

 , ر ر ر ارتا Niilu, ك

 U كا با

99

OF T I M OUR.
Regulations of promotions and REWARDS TO MY SOLDIERS FROM THE MEANEST TO THE MOST EXALTED.

I ordained, if any one of my felect foldiers diftinguihed himfelf in battle, that in recompence for the firf exploit he fhould be made an Ounbaufhee, and for the fecond exploit an Euzbauthee, and for the third exploit a Mingbaurhee; and that the Taubeenaun \(\dagger\) of the Ounbaufhee fhould for the firft exploit be raifed to the rank of Ounbaufhee.

I ordained alfo, that an atchievement which fprung from attention to perfonal fafety in the moment of peril, fhould not be regarded : for the ox will fometimes ftrike with his horns, and turn upon his purfuers. Therefore the firmnefs and the firit of the foldier muft alfo be confidered.

I commanded, when a Mingbaufhee vanquifhed the forces of his antagonift by the edge of the fword, that he fhould be raifed to the rank of firf Ameer: and that the firft Ameer, on defeating the army of his foe, fhould be appointed fecond Ameer : and thus, that every Ameer who fignalized his valour and abilities, and overthrew the forces of his enemy, fhould be promoted from his own to a fuperior fation : and that the private foldiers who diftinguifhed themfelves in battle, fhould be rewarded by an increafe of pay.
\(t\) i.e. The inferior to the Ounbauthee.
Mm2
To

276
INSTITUTES

 ز ; كار كال Jogog (\%
 ج
 U_i_inl:00, 5
位 با ك ( , Sind \(_{\text {this word is Mogul, and the meaning unknown. }}\)

To every foldier who turned his back in Book II. the hour of action, I ordered that Koornifh \(~+~ f h o u l d ~ n o t ~\) be given; and that if he fled from abfolute neceflity, he fhould be pardoned; and that if he fhould be ftruck with a panic, and fly in confequence thereof, that he fhould be pardoned alfo; \(\ddagger\) and that to every foldier, who fhould fight with refolution, and be wounded in action, a compenfation fhould be given; and that if he fhould be wounded in battle, and then retire from the field, his conduct fhould be applauded. The wound which he had received thould be confidered as a proof, that if he reached not to the enemy, yet the arm of the enemy extended unto him: his wound fhould be a witnefs in his favour.

I ordained that the right of the warrior fhould not be injured; and that the foldier who had grown in years Thould not be deprived of his fation or his wages; and that the actions of the foldier fhould not be fuppreffed: for thofe men who fell their permanent happinefs for perifhable honour, merit compenfation, and are worthy of reward and encouragement. If a foldier fhould be deprived of his reward, and his actions fhould be hidden from the light, it would be an act of injuftice.

I ordained that every chief, minifter, and foldier, who by his fervices had eftablifhed a claim on my fortune; who had defeated an army, or reduced a \(\ddagger\) The Mogul word is Bauwulli, and the fenfe is doubfful.
kingougr, با شُهشپر

il إبشان بشin i) der dild uiblw diljl

 , ; בil
,
j اه
 أنرّ oug i (s شi U oli ur jftiol kingdom, or diftinguifhed his valour in the hour of battle; Book II. that his claims fhould be regarded, and that the price of his fervices fhould be paid unto him :

AND that the aged warriors fhould be treated with honour and attention; and that their counfel and opinion fhould be heard (for that which they fay, muft proceed from experience) and that they fhould be confidered as the ornaments of my empire; and that on their demife, their fons fhould fucceed to their fations and dignities.

I ordained that the hoftile foldier taken in battle fhould not be put to death; and that military fervice and freedom fhould be offered to his choice; that if he confented to enter into my fervice, he fhould be received; if not, that he fhould be fet at liberty. In this manner I once gave freedom to 4000 Roomi. \(\dagger\)

I ordered that every foldier who had performed his duty, and fought with valour on the fide of my enemy, if, from choice or neceflity, he fought fhelter under my authority, that he fhould be received with confidence, and treated with honour and regard : fince he had performed his duty, and acted with fidelity to his former mafter.

Thus I rewarded Share Behraum; who in an action with Ameer Hooflein oppofed me face to face, and fought with aftonifhing valour: when through neceffity he fled to me for protection, I received him with honour.
+ Turks.
THUS

280
INSTITUTES
,隹 بط ; 0, ,

 umlэ آزبی ور>
 رט و جị il (ك Nil با
 قرا يوسí ا,
 5

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

Thus alfo Munguli Booghau, in the war BookII. of Bullukh, advanced with an army againft me; and before the engagement commenced, I fent propofals unto him, and endeavoured to draw him over to my fide. But he forgot not his duty to Tughulluk Timour Khaun; and he formed his troops in order of battle, and he charged my forces with undaunted refolution, and he was defeated.

AND when he afterwards voluntarily came unto me, and kneeled to my authority, I raifed him to an exalted ftation, and I included him in the number of my moft favoured fervants; and on all occafions I praifed and applauded his conduct. And fuch were the favours which I conferred upon him, that if any refentment remained in his heart, it was totally obliterated.

As he was a bold and intrepid warrior, he fignalized himfelf in my fervice, and conferred obligations upon me. And in the war of Azzurbauejaun, when I encountered Kurrau Eufoof, in the moment that my troops were difcouraged and thrown into confufion, he placed upon the point of his fpear the head of an hoftile commander; and he named it the head of Kurrau Eufoof, and called aloud to my forces, that Kurrau Eufoof was flain; and he gave courage to my foldiers. And he rufhed on the centre of Kurrau Eufoof's line, and drove him from the field. And this victory over Kurrau Eufoof I imputed to Munguli Booghau; and I exalted him to a fuperior rank.
dung \({ }_{j}\)

 لاً促品

V-jilg_
y تIg د טivic 1) Ioly \(\ddot{\sim}\) بوي)
Niï
 Jy
+ A kind of kettle-drum.

Regulations for encouraging my Ameers, and my Vizzeers, and my soldiers, \(\underbrace{\sim}\) AND MY SUBJECTS, BY REWARDS AND BY HONOURS.

I ordained that every Ameer who fhould reduce a kingdom, or defeat an army, fhould be exalted by three things, by a title of honour, by the ftandard, and by the Niccaureh; \(\dagger\) and that he Could be dignified with the appellation of Bahaudur; \(\ddagger\) and that he fhould be confidered as the affociate of the royal power and dignity; and that he fhould be admitted a member of my imperial council; and that the government of a frontier province fhould be conferred upon him; and that Ameers fhould be placed under his command. I alfo ordained that every Ameer who defeated a prince, or the for of a prince, or a Shaun, fhould be exalted after the fame manner.

Thus I rewarded Ameer Eekoo Timour; whom I had appointed to reduce Auroos Shaun. He conquered that prince ; and I conferred upon him a Tourmaun, \| the fandard, the military enfign, and the Niccaureh; I made him the affociate of my fortune; and I appointed him my Vizzeer and my advifer; and I gave him a place in my imperial council; and I conferred upon him the government of a frontier province ; and I placed Ameers under his command.

AND the envious uttered infinuations against him, that he had plundered the hord of Aurous Shaun, and that he had taken the foils to himself.
\(\ddagger\) The Brave.
\| The command of 10,000 men.

INSTITUTES

ذ

 و وو ( ا 00,g آ ت ت
 0) jog unt Sloito م

 تnolag
 تا انتّار ا را Ploug

\section*{- for M OUR.}

And my affections were turned afide from Eekoo Timour Book II. by their infinuations : but I had heard the hiftory of Behraum Joubeen, and from thence \(I\) had acquired experience.

For when the Khaukaun advanced againft Hurmuz, the fon of Nouhharevaun, with an army of three hundred thoufand fanguinary Toorks; that prince fent forth Behraum Joubeen (who had been the minifter, and the counfellor, and the general of his father) with three hundred and twenty thoufand Perfians to oppofe him. And he engaged that prince; and for three days, and for three nights, the flaughter continued with great fury ; till at length he defeated the Khaukaun, and difpatched intelligence of his victory to Hurmuz : and he alfo fent unto him the fpoils which he had taken.

And the envious and the flanderous, who influenced the councils of Hurmuz, forged accufations againft him, faying, "Behraum hath fecreted the treafures of the enemy; and he hath feized to himfelf the fword, and the crown, and the burkins of the Khaukaun (ornamented and adorned with jewels of price)."

And Hurmuz, from a mean and contemptible avarice, forgot the fervices of Behraum; and he credited the accufations of the flanderous, and felf-interefted, and pronounced him a traitor and a criminal ; and, in token of bis anger and contempt, fent a chain unto him, and a collar, and the veil of a woman.

وبهراث طوت در ك,

 الصا
 و:ــرا از NiUuانشا

چون اين تجــربه برداشتّه بونم بجه
 لاشته مبا

隹 جíc ctu هرتبه انَ بـينزابنه

\section*{- F T I MOUR.}

AND Behraum Joubeen placed the collar Book II. on his neck, and on his feet he faftened the chain, and he cloathed himfelf in the female attire. And he called the Ameers and the chiefs of the foldiers together, and, thus habited, he gave public audience to his people. And when the chiefs and the forces beheld the fituation of Behraum, they uttered revilings againft their prince, and they turned their hearts from their duty to Hurmuz.

AND under the banners of Behraum Joubeen, they proceeded to the palace of the King; and they deprived him of his regal authority; and they feated Khiffuro Purvaze upon the throne of the Perfian empire.

Having acquired this experience, that I might not draw upon me the revilings of my people, I ordered Eekoo Timour to appear before me; and I feated myfelf on my throne in the midft of my chiefs; and I gave admiffion to the people at large. And I commanded the wealth and the effects which had been taken from the tribe of Auroos Khaun to be brought forth; and I conferred the whole of the fpoils on Ameer Eekoo Timour, and on the warriors and the foldiers who had fought under his command.

And I ordained that every Ameer who acted with firmnefs in the day of battle, and defeated the enemy oppofed unto him, hould be promoted to a fuperior ftation.

\author{
Thus
}

甬 a j
 وعلم بوكي اززانى داشت

واهر

 جنانچ رha

 تو غنـي ه تm䒸
\[
O \text { F T I MOUR. }
\]

THUS, in an engagement with Touktummifh Khaun, Taubaun Bahaudur penetrated to the fandardbearer of that prince, and inverted the ftandard; and he was wounded in many places. And his enemies and the enviers of his renown fought to bury his valour in oblivion : but it was not confiftent with my juftice that I fhould thut my eyes to the merits of Taubaun. And I exalted him to a government; and I received him into my favour ; and I conferred upon him the ftandard of honour.

And I ordained, if an Ounbaufhee, or an Euzbaufhee, or a Mingbaufhee Ameer fhould vanquifh the forces of an enemy; that in reward to an Ounbaufhee the government of a city fhould be given; and that the reward of an Euzbaufhee fhould be the command of a province.

Thus, to Burlaus Bahaudur, who was an Euzbaufhee, and who in the war with Touktummifh Khaun engaged his enemy and defeated the army of the foe, I gave the command of the province of Hiffaur Shaudumaun.

And I ordained, when a Mingbaurhee defeated the forces of his antagonift, that he fhould be appointed the lord of a principality. Thus, when Mahummud Auzaud, in the war of Kuttour, vanquifhed the Seah pofhaun, \(\dagger\) who had defeated Burhaun Aghlaun, I + Wearers of black; fo named from the colour of their habits. They inhabited the mountains fouth of Buddukhfhaun.
 shing \(\therefore\) 后 \(\ddagger\) diرl

Nij ( وي الزانی (J)

reg dre

 وزتو diou!

+ Thefe words are Mogul, and their fignifications unknown.
\(\ddagger\) A belt, or girdle.
| The Toumaun Toghe and Cher Toghe are alfo a fort of ftandards of uly spears, appointed him to the dominion of the principality of Book II. Kunduz and Goulaub.

And I ordained, whoever of my Ameers fubdued and wrefted a kingdom from the hands of the enemy, that for the fpace of three years the vicegerency of that kingdom fhould be conferred upon him as a reward.

And I commanded that the felect foldier who diftinguifhed himfelf in battle, fhould be rewarded with a Kullung, \(\uparrow\) or embroidered Autaukeh, \(\dagger\) with a horfe, and with a fword, and with a Kummur; \(\ddagger\) and that he fhould be raifed to the rank of an Ounbaufhee : fo that for the fecond, and the third atchievement be might rife to the ftations of Euzbaufhee, and of Mingbaufhee.

Regulations for conferring the honours of the Niccaureh and the standard. I ordained that one ftandard, and one Niccaureh fhould be conferred on each of the twelve felect Ameers; and that the fandard, and the Nccaureh, and the Toumaun Toghe, and the Cher Toghe, \| fhould be granted to the Ameer ul Omrau:

And that a Toghe, and a Nuffeer § fhould be allowed to the Mingbaumee Ameer, and a drum to the Euzbaufhee and Ounbaufhee Ameers; and that to the fpears, with certain figures on the fummit, marking the rank and dignity of thofe to whom they belong.
§ A fort of trumpet.
\(\mathrm{O}_{2}\)
Ouyemauk

292 INSTITUTESO
 diol بر

ת-

 U_i_(Lin)

 g
O F T I MOUR.

Ouyemauk Ameers \(\dagger\) an Eurghee \(\ddagger\) fhould be granted; and that to each of the four Beglerbegs a ftandard, and a Niccaureh, and a Cher Toghe, and an Eurghee fhould be allowed.

AND I ordained that every Ameer who vanquifhed an army, or who conquered a country, if he were a firft Ameer, that he fhould be exalted to the rank of fecond Ameer; and if he were a fecond Ameer, that he fhould be raifed to the rank of third Ameer; and if he were a third Ameer, that he fhould be exalted to the dignity of fourth Ameer : and thus up to the eleventh Ameer. For if he were eleventh Ameer, I commanded that he fhould be appointed twelfth Ameer; and that the fandard, and the Toghe and the Niccaureh fhould be conferred upon him.

Thus I ordained that one Toghe fhould be allowed to the firf Ameer, and two to the fecond, and three to the third, and to the fourth Ameer four Toghes, and the Niccaureh: that by their valour and their conduct they might acquire to themfelves the dignity of the Toumaun Toghe and the Cher Toghe.

Regulations concerning the arms AND THE NECESSARIES OF THE SOLDIERS.

For the private foldiers I ordained, that on an expedition every eighteen men fhould take one
+ Chiefs of tribes, \(\ddagger\) Eurgbee is Mogul, and the particular fignification unknown ; but it evidently means fome mark of diftinction.

 شیر

 وتركش小i,_L.K.

 داشته باشد 任

 وتسا وتير ها
المبر اول :جرارز واز توانل بايكران tent; and that each man fhould be fupplied with two Book II. horfes, and with a bow, and with a quiver of arrows, and with a fword, and with a faw, and with an axe, and with an awl, and with thread, and with ten needles, and with a leathern knapfack;

AND for the felect warriors, that every five men fhould have one tent; and that each man fhould take with him a fkull-cap, and a breaft-plate, and a fword, and a bow, and a quiver of arrows, and his horfes agreeably to the regulations;

And that each of the Ounbaufhees fhould have with him one tent, and a coat of mail, and a fword, and a bow, and a quiver, and five horfes;

AND that every Euzbaufhee Thould have one tent, and ten horfes, and his arms ; fuch as the fword, and the bow, and the quiver, and the mace, and the club, and the coat of mail, and the breaft-plate;

And that each of the Mingbaufhees fhould have a tent, and a Sauehbaun ; \(\dagger\) and that of arms and of armour (the coat of mail, and the breaft-plate, and the helmet, and lances, and the fword, and quivers, and arrows) he fhould carry with him as much as he were able;

AND that the firft Ameer fhould carry with him a tent, an Autauk, and two Sauehbauns; and correfponding with his rank, fuch a quantity of arms and of armour, as might enable him to fupply the deficiencies. of others;

\footnotetext{
+ A fort of upper roof for the tent, which being elevated two or three feet above it, and projecting on all fides beyond it, defends the owner from the heat of the fun.
}

 d
;
Ulolan pj: unlt to y a pugi gel

 ونیا -jilgug

And thus alfo, that the fecond, and the BookII. third, and the fourth Ameer, and from him up to the Ameer ul Omrau, each according to his rank and his fation, fhould fupply and take with him his neceffaries, his tent, and his Autauk, and his Sauehbauns, and his horfes;

The firft Ameer a hundred and ten horfes, and the fecond Ameer a hundred and twenty horfes, and the third Ameer a hundred and thirty horfes, and the fourth Ameer a hundred and forty horfes; and thus up to the Ameer ul Omrau, who was not to take with him a lefs number than three hundred horfes.

AND I ordained that every one of the footfoldiers fhould take with him a fword, and a bow, and a bundle of arrows; and that he fhould carry with him as much as he was able, let it be more or let it be lefs; but that in times of war he fhould not have lefs than was eftablifhed.

Regulations of the imperial guards, and rules to be observed in the preSENCE, IN PEACE AND IN WAR.

I ordained that in times of peace the foldiers, the Ameers, the Mingbaufhees; the Euzbaufhees, and the Ounbaufhees fhould not appear in the Imperial Deewaun without their Koollauh, + their Mozeh, \(\ddagger\) and Surmozeh, \|l their Bukdeh, their Jaumeh § having the collar, and their fwords.
+ Cap. \(\ddagger\) Boots. \|A fort of leathern clog covering the foot of the boot. § Upper coat.
\[
\ddot{\ddot{j}} \text {, با }
\]
延 ه Niole بوز باشی
 ا jgw jj-ه ojjlgu با נ人_i_ \(\rightarrow\)

وابي دواز فوجی ت Ninimír alol

 3N

And I ordered that twelve thoufand Kulchee, + men of the fword, compleatly armed, fhould be cantoned in the palace ; to the right and to the left, and in the front and in the rear of the Imperial Deewaun : thus, that one thoufand of thole twelve thoufand fhould be every night upon guard ; and that over each hundred Kulchee an Euzbaufhee fhould be appointed; and that an Eokee \(\ddagger\) fhould be given unto him.

And I ordained that in times of war and in the field, each of the twelve felect Ameers, alfo the Mingbaurhees, and the Euzbaufhees and the Ounbaufhees fhould, with twelve thoufand horfemen compleatly armed, for the face of one day and one night, when marching, and when halting, be ready upon guard.

And I commanded that thofe twelve thoufand horfe fhould be divided into four divifions, and that one divifion fhould be pofted to the right of the camp, and one to the left thereof; and one in the front, and one in the rear ; and that every watch they fhould march out to the diftance of half a Furfung from the camp, and there lie upon their arms;

AND that each of thofe four divifions fhould appoint an advanced guard; and that each of the advanced guards fhould detach fcouts in their front ; and

\footnotetext{
+ A Mogul word, fuppofed to mean Guards.
\(\ddagger\) Mogul - A watch-word.
}
\[
\mathrm{P}_{\mathrm{p}}^{2}
\]

300
I NSTITUTES

(
JCii - i,bl il
(s) く抽 رو

ت ت ت
 Ug) sujul 1.

1jg تnoli روصّ
Jt
that they fhould perform their duty with care and circumfpection, and communicate intelligence of the approach of the enemy.

AND I ordained that to each of the four quarters of the camp a Kootwaul fhould be appointed; and that the police thereof fhould appertain unto him: that he fhould collect the cuftoms from the traders in the markets; and that if any thing fhould be ftolen from the camp, he fhould make it good.

AND I ordered alfo that four divifions of Chupkunchee fhould be appointed; that they fhould foour, and make themfelves mafters of, the circumjacent country to the diftance of four Furfung from the camp; and, if any one was murdered or wounded within that diftance, that they fhould be accountable; and that they alfo fhould be anfwerable for whatever was ftolen.

And I ordained that one third of the imperial forces fhould be appointed to guard the frontiers of my dominions; and that the remaining two thirds fhould attend my commands in the prefence.

Regulation of the departments of Vizzeers.

I ordained that four Vizzeers fhould be appointed to attend in the Imperial Deewaun.

First.

302
INSTITUTES
اول وزنر
 ت̈vig (s)grlog d_iLw, vir_ Uto (وig gتن:
 0,0

سيو! وزن ن \(\leqslant\) 隹

隹 Aing R

First. The vizzeer of the country and Bookif. the subject. It was the bufinefs of thisVizzeer to fuperintend, and communicate unto me, the concerns and the affairs of the country; and the fate and the fituation of the hufbandman, of the produce, and of the duties received, and of the deficiencies in the various provinc s, of the merchandize brought in and fent out of the land, of the cultivation, and the population, and the police of all my dominions.

Secondly. The vizzeer of the armies. It was his duty to lay before me the accompts of the wages due, and the affignments granted to the troops; and to inform himfelf of the fituations and circumftances of the foldiers (that they might not be diftreffed or oppreffed) and to communicate unto me the fate and the strength of my armies.

Thirdly. The vizzeer of the Sauir and Huvauee. It was his duty to take poffeffion of the effects of ablentees, + and of the defunct, and of thofe who had fled their country; and to receive religious donations, and the duties on the merchandize of comers and of goers, and the taxes on the cattle, and on the pafture lands, and on the refervoirs of water. And having taken poffeffion of the produce, he was to retain it as a depofit in his hands, and to reftore the effects of the abfentees and the defunct to their lawful heirs.
+ i.e. Such people as had difappeared fuddenly, and whofe abfence could not be accounted for.
Fourthly.

304
INSTITUTES
\(j x\) ت تiblw

 Ajludols نالّ
واين هونت وزبر تابع ديوان بيكي باشن
號 diiw

位 با 伿

 هن هاט باش் 0，10 vegse 3012

OF T I M O UR.
Fourthly. The vizzeer of the im- Bookif. perial household. It was his duty to fuperintend the receipts, and the difburfements, and the general expences.

And I ordained that three Vizzeers fhould be appointed over the frontiers and the domains appertaining unto the crown, and to regulate the concerns thereof.

And I ordained that thefe feven Vizzeers fhould be fubject to the controul of the Deewaunbeghee : and that under his infpection they fhould regulate and determine the affairs and the concerns of the revenues, and lay them before me.

I commanded that an Erzbeghee + thould be appointed; and that he fhould communicate to me the ftate of the foldiers, and of the fubjects, and the complaints of my people, and the increafe or decreafe of population and cultivation in my dominions, and the conclufion and determination of every momentous concern.

And I ordained that the Suddur ul Suddoor fhould lay before me the Sawurghaulaut \(\ddagger\) of the defcendants of the prophet, of the flipendiaries, and penfioners ; and that the ecclefiaftical judge fhould communicate unto me all ecclefiaftical concerns; and that the civil affairs fhould be laid before me by the civil judge.

\footnotetext{
+ A prefenter of petitions.
\(\ddagger\) Sawurghaul is a Mogul word, and fignifies a grant from the crown of lands or revenues to be enjoyed for ever by the poffeffor and his heirs. .
}
ynd voli diec J d \(\leftrightarrows\) Ygri, duw Uيتّو dilw, vi, بص

वوg

 عـ" .
人

ت
ت
2-0

AND I commanded that all concerns ap- \(\underbrace{\text { Book II. }}\) pertaining to the imperial dignity, the regulations of my dominions, and the difmiffion, and the changing, and the appointing of armies and of officers, and all confultations and plans of operation fhould be communicated unto me in my felect council.

AND I commanded that a confidential fe cretary (on whofe fecrecy dependence might be placed) fhould at all times attend, and minute down with the pen. of integrity the fecret tranfactions and deliberations.

And I ordained that writers of the general council fhould be appointed, and that they fhould relieve each other in the hall of the council, and that they fhould write down and preferve full and exact accounts of every matter and of every bufinefs which fhould be fettled and determined therein : and that all reprefentations made unto me, and all orders iffued by me, and every matter which was debated in council, fhould be written and inferted in the narrative of my tranfactions.

And I ordained that to every department of the departments of government an accomptant fhould be appointed; and that he fhould keep a jourral of the daily expences, and of the receipts and difburfements.

Regúlations of the governments of the Ameers of Auloosaut, and of Kushoonaut, and of Toumaunaut.
 هاله
 (

 قاخر الوسات وتو

gror

 jgilw ترذ طوغاي

 citigl

I ordained that the Ameer of every Auloos, Book II. of every Kufhoon, and of every Toumaun fhould, when called to fulfil his military fervice in times of war, felect and bring with him to the field from each Khirgauh* one horfeman, from each Duvvauleh Chouk + one horfeman, and from each Khauneh + one horfeman; and that the water and the forage on the lands where they fhould be fationed fhould be allowed unto them for their fubfiftence; and that an Eurghee and a Biruck \(\ddagger\) fhould be granted to the Ameer of every Auloos; and that thofe Ameers fhould attend in the field with forces proportioned to the ftrength and the numbers of their Auloofaut and their Toumaunaut.

AND I ordained that to twelve of the forty Ouyemauk which had fubmitted to my government, Tumghau \| fhould be given (that they might be claffed amongft my felect and fuperior fervants:) to the Ouyemauks of Burlaus, Turkhaun, Aurghoon, Jullauir, Toulkchee, Douldee, Moghool, Suldoze, Toughauee, Kypchauk, Aurlaut, and Tautaur.

AND from among the tribe of Burlaus I felected four Ameer ul Omraus, Ameer Khodaudaud (unto whom I gave the kingdom of Buddukhfhaun) and

\footnotetext{
* Khirgauh is Mogul, and fignifies a Tatar tent or hut.
+ Duvvauleh Chouk is Mogul, and the meaning unknown. Khauneh Signifies a houfe. \(\ddagger\) Mogul, a little flag. \|i.e. Pay.
}

ارزاني داشنّ واهير جأك لان
 ,

 واز الوس جالار تور تيهور وشير بهرابر الـا المير هششت ونهم ساخت وبيست نغرا يوز باشي بان
 المارت دالم بهادر را اهارت دالدم واز الوس بهرتبه المارت رسانيلام واز الوس jt

Ameer Jaukoo, and Ameer Eekoo Timour, and Ameer Book II. Soolamaun Shaah; on whom I alfo conferred the governments of frontier kingdoms. And a hundred others of the tribe of Burlaus I appointed Mingbaufhees. And I exalted Ameer Jullaul u deen Burlaus to the dignity of tenth Ameer; and Ameer Abou Saeed of the fame tribe to the rank of ninth Ameer.

And from amongt the tribe of Turkhaun I raifed Ameer Bauezzeed to the ftation of feventh Ameer; and I appointed twenty perfons of the fame tribe Euzbaufhees.

AND of the tribe of Aurghoon I raifed Taufh Khaujeh to the dignity of eighth Ameer; and I gave the appointments of Mingbaufhees, and of Euzbaufhees, and of Ounbaufhees, to twenty people of that tribe.

AND of the tribe of Jullauir I exalted Touk Timour and Share Behraum to the ranks of eighth and of ninth Ameer; and twenty of the fame tribe I appointed Euzbaurhees and Ounbaufhees.

And of the tribe of Toulkchee I conferred the dignity of Ameer on Aljauyetoo Burdi.

AND of the tribe of Douldee, I raifed Taubaun Bahaudur and Saun Bahaudur to the dignity of Ameers.

AND of the tribe of Moghool I exalted Khaujeh Aghlaun to the rank of Ameer.

AND of the tribe of Suldoze I appointed Elchee Bahaudur to the ftation of Ameer.

واز الوس طوغاي عاي در دوشِرا المارت واز الوس تِّ

层 واز الوسن تاتار كونك
 اليشانرا امبير الوس شاخت ورپپ بـا

 (len

 ونو
$ di \(\leqslant l \leqslant\) veltilyg djgg

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

\section*{AND of the tribe of Toughauee I appointed BookII.} Aali Durvaifh to the fation of Ameer.

AND of the tribe of Kipchauk I raifed Ameer Saur Booghau to the dignity of Ameer.

AND of the tribe of Aurlaut I appointed Ameer Muviud (unto whom one of my fifters had been given in marriage) Ameer ul Omrau: and Sullauichee Bahaudur of the fame tribe I made an Ameer.

AND of the tribe of Tautaur I raifed Kowvung Khaun to the rank of Ameer; and the remaining twenty eight Ouyemauk, unto whom the Tumghau had not been given, I appointed commanders over their own tribes : that in times of war and of fervice they might attend in the field, and bring with them their horfemen, agreeably to the regulation.

Rules concerning the conduct of SERVANTS TOWARDS THEIR PRINCE, AND OF THE PRINCE TOWARDS HIS SERVANTS.

Be it known to every good fervant, that that which he expecteth from his own dependant, his prince alfo expecteth from him. Let him not therefore be backward in his fervices; but let him know, that if his mafter be at firft well-inclined unto him, and afterwards be ill-inclined unto him, he muft lay the fault and the confequence to himfelf and not to his mafter.

HE is a good fervant who attacheth himfelf unto his mafter, and doeth his duty through that attachment.

INSTITUTES

隹 ט روز بروز در ترایل باشل

诺

ه, dus Aوپ

 لو Nï̈̈lje \(\leqslant\), jw & D ا نا \(\partial_{\text {div }}\) unbling

\section*{O T I M O UR.}

ON the fervant who is incapable of attachBook II. ment, and who harboureth refentment, contempt and ignominy fhall moft certainly fall in confequence of his evil qualities : but the profperity and the riches of the faithful and affectionate fervant fhall be daily increafing.

He is a good and faithful fervant who taketh not offence at the flights or the reprimands of his prince, who entertaineth not revenge in confequence thereof; but taketh the faults of his mafter upon himfelf: fuch a fervant is worthy of the affection and the kindnefs of his prince.

The fervant whofe eye is fixed on the morfels and the fragments \(\dagger\) which fall from the table of his lord, will undoubtedly be negligent in the moment of trial.

The fervant who forgetteth his duty in the hour of action, and turneth his face from the foe of his prince; let the face of that fervant be feen no more.

The fervant who in the hour of trial fearcheth after excufes; and who on the day of enterprife demandeth his difmiffion, and who keepeth his eye on the means of retreat, and who transfereth till to-morrow the bufinefs of to-day, (thus Boulau and Timour Aghlaun acted towards me, and deferted me in the hour of danger) let the names of fuch fervants be held in contempt; and let them be delivered over to the Almighty.

\footnotetext{
\(\dagger\) i. e. A felf-interefted and avaricious fervant.
}

INSTITUTES

di \(1,0 g\) ذ lii<i gu ज) die

\[
0, \int \alpha
\]

وهر نو كرى dilu, \(\curvearrowleft 5\) م

 j با لیار ط رlutg و! و! وا ع diuls * \(\stackrel{i l}{\leftrightarrows}\)

IT behoveth the prince not fpeedily to de- \(\underbrace{\text { Book II. }}\) grade the fervant whom he hath exalted, not to pull down him whom his own hand hath raifed up. Let him not neglect thofe whom he knoweth or remembereth.

And if it fhould chance that without caufe he put a good fervant to fhame, let him make amends by conferring two-fold honour upon him : and let him refer that fervant to his own affection and fidelity: for if he harboureth hatred and revenge, according to his evil qualities ignominy fhall be his reward. But the fervant who by good conduct acquireth a place in the heart of his prince, fhall profper in confequence thereof.

IF a fervant fpontaneoully, or otherwife, feparate himfelf from his mafter, and if he afterwards turn back unto him, let that fervant be received with honour : fince, afhamed of his defertion, he returneth again to his prince.

Every fervant who was faithful to his prince, and who drew his fword on the fide of my enemy; if fuch a man became my prifoner in battle, or if, hopelefs of reward from the foe, he came in unto me and offered his fervices, I ordained that he fhould be received with honour and efteem; and that his fidelity Thould be acknowledged and relied on; and that dignities fuperior to thofe, which he formerly poffeffed, fhould be conferred upon him.

Thus

INSTITUTES
< (SUg gull ghag

 خان نا انم pul uling نlines, ana س Uر بالر

 بh il بو
 व. diرl 5

\section*{Thưs Munguli Booghau, and Hydur An- Book II.} dookhodee, and Ameer Aboo Saeed, on the part of Tughulluk Timour Khaun, oppofed and attacked me with fix thoufand horfemen, on the banks of the water of Bullukh. Afterwards, taking offence at the conduct of Tughulluk Timour, they fought protection from me ; and I received them with honour and efteem : and I conferred upon them the provinces of Andijaun, and Hyflaur Shaudumaun, and Toorkiftaun.

AND I alfo ordained that the fervant of the foe who was in the confidence of his mafter, and, who in times of war and of fervice, vibrated the chain of friendihip with the enemy of his prince; and who forgot the facred ties of lord and of fervant, and the fidelity due for the falt and the bread which he had eaten; and who ftrove to make the enemy of his mafter the conqueror of his mafter; I ordained that fuch a wretch fhould never be admitted into my fervice. Time fhall hereafter inflict upon him his reward.

The fervant who quitteth his mafter in: times of trial, and offereth his fervices to another, is not worthy to be admitted: but when by many and long fervices his fidelity fhall be proved, he may then be received into favour. If in times of peace and tranquillity he of fereth his fervices, let him be received with kindnefs.
(S) \(<\)

 ك dijlu

准 g Aw)
o) \(i\) ا
 il

 dilog 5 diرّ 33

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

If a Vizzeer, or other fervant, through Book II. policy and defign, form an intimacy with his mafters foe; and endeavour, under the garb of that friendfhip, to promote the intereft of his prince, let him be efteemed amongt the wifeft and the beft of fervants and of friends. But if a fervant oppofe his mafters's intereft, and intrigue with the enemy, prefent fuch a fervant as a gift to the foe.

\section*{If a fervant fight valiantly and defeat his} foe, let not the infinuations of the envious be heard to his prejudice ; permit not his glory to be concealed, but let it be exhibited in ten-fold fplendor ; and let him be exalted to a fuperior fation, that other fervants may be infpired with a thirft for glory.

If a body of troops, or an Ameer, defert their prince, and unite with the enemy, let them not again be admitted into his fervice. Thus the leaders of the forces of Kufh turned from me their faces, and united themfelves with Ameer Haujee Burlaus; and after that I confided not in them.

Whatever fervant, unto whom the government of a kingdom thall be trufted, who treacheroufly leagueth with the enemy, and delivereth that kingdom into the hands of the foe; let him be put to death. But let the fervant, who defendeth and preferveth a kingdom, be raifed to a diftinguifhed and exalted rank.

322
INSTITUTES
م相教 \＆

隹 هїاذ cï̈l rïlm

 ulmal culdie diug I dilñ uno ulmalg تiيlis odioni as pus cisis

\section*{Of T I M OUR.}

Let the Ameer, who in the hour of peril \(\underbrace{\text { BookII. }}\) and diftrefs adhereth to his prince, and ftandeth firm in the field of flaughter, be confidered as a brother. THus at the time when the forces of Kufh deferted my ftandard, no one remained with me, or confented to thare my fortunes, except Ameer Jaukoo Burlaus; and I afterwards efteemed Ameer Jaukoo as a beloved brother ; and I admitted him to a participation in my fortunes; and I made him an Ameer ul Omrau; and I conferred upon him the kingdoms of Bullukh and of Hiffaur.

Regulations for my conduct and beHaviour both to friends and to enemies. On the day on which I conquered the kingdom of Tooraun, and mounted the throne of empire in the capital city of Summurkund, I conducted myfelf in the fame manner towards my enemies and my friends. The Ameers of Buddukhfhaun, and other Ameers of Kufhoonaut, both Toork and Taucheek, who had done me injuries; and who had practifed deceits upon me; and who had drawn their fwords in oppofition unto me; and who were alarmed by the remembrance of their evil conduct ; when they fubmitted to my authority, I received them with fuch kindnefs and courtefy, that they blufhed at my generofity and goodnefs.

And to every one, whom I had injured or diftreffed, I made compenfation; and I balanced the dif-

 كر0, ك ك ك كابل شاه . جون خبر جا Niluing Nïs
u0
仿 ת

 باشل واء
 ,

treffes which he had fuffered, by kindnefs and by gratui- Book II. ties ; and by proper marks of my favour I conferred honour upon him.

But on the Ameers of the tribes of Suldoze and of Jitteh I uttered execrations: for, having exalted Kaubul Shaah of the line of Chungaze to the dignity of Khaun, and fworn fidelity and friendfhip unto him, when they heard of my exaltation to the throne, they broke their faith and their engagements, and, to fiatter and to foothe me, put him to death.

AND to thofe who had envied my fortune, and who had endeavoured to fubvert my power, I conducted myfelf with fuch kindnefs and generofity, that they were confounded at my goodnefs, and funk under the fenfe of their own unworthinefs.

And my friends who prefented themfelves before me, thofe who had ever acted in fubmiffion to mywill, I confidered as the partners of my fortune : and I regarded not the riches and the wealth which I conferred upon them.

For by experience it is known unto me, that he is a firm affociate, who taketh not offence at the conduct of his friend; and who is the enemy of the enemy of his friend; and who hefitateth not to hazard his life, when occafion fhall require. Thus certain of my Ameers followed my fortunes eveh to death; nor did. I with-hold from them aught which I had.

INSTITUTES
,
 U.

 بر ونيز كi نـ

اء باره بر wر
尼

ت;
اله ت

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

And by experience it was known unto me, that a wife enemy is preferable to a fooling friend. Thus Ameer Hooffein, the grandfon of Ameer Kurghun, was one of thole fooling friends : and the mifchiefs which in his friendifip he did unto me, were fuch as no enemy would do in the excels of his enmity.

Amber Khodaudaud once fad unto me, "Watch thou thy enemy, as thou wouldft guard a ruby " of luftre, or a jewel of high price: but when thou "s meeteft with a ftone of Laukh, crush him thereon un"til not one particle of him remain."

He alfo faid, "When an enemy fleeth " unto thee for protection, and kneeleth before thee, " have compaffion upon him, and receive him with kind"nets." Thus I acted towards Touktummih Shaun. When he fled to me for fhelter, I treated him with tendernefs and humanity.

IF an enemy, after tarting of thy generofity and bounty, return again to enmity, deliver him over to the juftice of the Almighty.

He is a true friend who taketh not offence at the conduct of his friend; or if he doth, is willing to receive his acknowledgements.

Regulations of precedency and OF ADMISSION TO THE IMPERIAL PRESENCE.

I ordained that my fons, and my grandfons, and my relations, fhould, according to their dif-
\(3^{28}\)
INSTITUTES
 Niinkii تiblw Z
 sing

 باشيان ويوز باش dildi ungl? \(\because=\) تnd ט Ul山隹

 ط
 U dil!

\section*{OF T I M O UR,}
ferent ranks encircle and fit round the throne in regular Book II. order.

AND that the defcendants of the prophet, and the judges, and the theologians, and the learned men, and the prelates, and the grandees, and the nobles fhould fit on the right hand of the throne.

AND that the Ameer ul Omrau, and the Beglerbegs, and the Ameers, and the Nouniaun, and the chiefs, and the leaders of tribes, and of Toumaunaut and of Kurhoonaut, and the Mingbaufhee, and the Euzbaufhee, and the Ounbaufhee-Ameers fhould take their places fuitably to their ranks and their fations, on the left hand of the throne.

AND I appointed a place oppofite to the throne for the Deewaunbeghi and for the Vizzeers. And I ordered that the leading men and the magiftrates of the empire, fhould form a line and feat themfelves behind the Vizzeers ;

AND that the felect foldiers, who had obtained the title of Bahaudur, and the mighty men of prowefs fhould fit on the right hand in the rear of the throne. And the leaders of the light troops I ordered to be feated in the rear of the throne on the left hand.

AND I commanded that that the Ameer of the Hurrauwul Chould take his ftation in the front; and that the chief of the Yuffauwul + Thould ftand at the door of the imperial pavilion, oppofite the foot of the
+ The chief of the meffengers. Mogul.

330 INSTITUTES

 , in

U; ; , ט ا Ni_do 滋

 زام
\[
\text { < } \leqslant \operatorname{TH}_{0} \sigma_{j ;}
\]

.
 آوزي jl

\section*{O F T I M O U R.}
throne ; and the receivers of petitions on the right and BookII. on the left;

And that the foldiers in general, and the imperial domeftics, fhould ftand in lines according to their degrees, and be attentive to keep in their proper ftations.

And I commanded, that four Meer Tooz\(z u k+\) fhould eftablifh and preferve order in the imperial affembly; before, and behind, and on the right, and on the left of the throne.

AND I commanded, when the affembly was formed and regulated, that among the inferior people a thoufand difhes of meat, and a thoufand loaves, fhould be diftributed ; and that a thoufand difhes of meat and a thoufand loaves fhould be brought into the imperial affembly; and that five hundred of that thoufand fhould be fent to the Ameers of tribes, and to the chiefs; to each by his name, and by his title.

Regulations concerning thereDUCTION OF KINGDOMS.

IF in any kingdom tyranny, and oppreffion, and iniquity fhall be predominant, it is the duty of a prince, from a regard to juftice and the law, to refolve on the expulfion and extirpation of the authors of that oppreffion and iniquity ; and to affault that kingdom. For Almighty God from the fame motives will wreft that + Regulators, mafters of the ceremonies.

i

 تn｜ار هU

 ن ان م㐿 نlick g位 U，

\[
00, \leqslant \leq
\]

品

\section*{O) T I MOUR.}
kingdom from the hand of the tyrant, and deliver it over BookII. to the upright affailant. THUs, from a regard to juftice and the law, I delivered the country of Mauwur u Nuhur from the hands of the Ouzbuk tyrants.

AND in whatever country the holy laws are difregarded; where they neglect thofe to whom the Almighty hath given dignity ; where they injure and opprefs his chofen fervants; it is the duty of a conqueror, with a firm determination to fupport the faith and the laws of Mahummud (on whom be the bleffing of God) to invade that country: for the prophet of the Lord fhall affift him in all his undertakings. Thus I wrefted from Sooltaun Muhmood (the grandfon of Feeroze Shaah) from Mulloo Khaun, and from Saurung, the capital of the empire of Hindoftaun ; and I re-eftablifhed the true faith; and I overturned the habitations of the idols in that country.

It is the duty of a victorious king to bring: under his authority every empire or kingdom, where the inhabitants thereof are oppreffed by their prince and ruler, and where the hearts of the people are turned afide from their governor. No fooner fhall the upright prince approach, than that kingdom fhall fall into his hands.

Thus I delivered the kingdom of Khoraufaun from the princes of the houfe of Kurroot. As foon as I advanced, with the refolution to reduce the capital

334
INSTITUTES
－U \(H_{0}\) od آ
خرإ （
هـشّ هتّ̈ه جهان號
范渞 Wh N N هل عالبی洋 0．بِ جهاءت كه ！ و㡿 اور ورّ of Khoraufaun, Sooltaun Gheeaus \(u\) deen came forth unto Book II. me, and he delivered the treafures, and the wealth, and the kingdom into my hands.

AND in every kingdom, where herefy and fchifm fhall abound, and where the inhabitants of that country, both foldiers and fubjects, fhall be divided into different parties and factions, the deftruction of that kingdom is at hand; and it is the duty of a victorious monarch to invade that country. Thus I purified the kingdoms of Fauris and Erauk a Ajjum from the exiftence of the accurfed heretics; and I overturned the leaders of the factions, who had each of them elevated the ftandard of power, throughout thofe territories, and I delivered the fervants of God from their tyranny and oppreffions.

AND in every kingdom, where the articles of the faith of the inhabitants thereof fhall be altered from thofe of the defcendants of the prince of the prophets, (on whom be the bleffing of Almighty God) it is the duty of an Emperor to reduce that Kingdom, and to bring back the inhabitants thereof from their evil tenets. Thus I entered the kingdom of Shaum, and puniffed all thofe who held pernicious doctrines.

When I firt entered upon the reduction of kingdoms, I firmly adhered to four certain maxims. First, in thofe things which appertain to the acquifition of dominions, I acted from deep deliberation, and from mature counfel.

دوم انخيشٌّه وح ز

 سيوم سيصل وwيزلده مرUم مرUانه الصيل

 رو وتا آ

院

 نهيكشان وروز

\section*{of TIMOUR.}

SECondiy, I ufed reflection, and caution, Book II. and circumfpection, that I might not err in execution. And fuch was the favour of the Almighty, that every determination which I formed, proved in the end judicious and fuccefsful. I informed myfelf of the difpofitions and genius of the natives of every country; and I accommodated myfelf to their prejudices in the appointment of their governors.

Thirdiy, I united unto myfelf three hundred and thirteen refolute men, of nobility, of bravery, and of wifdom; and fo firmly were they united, that the whole, it might be faid, were as one perfon : and their refolutions, and their actions, and their declarations were the fame. When they faid, "We will do thus," they did it : for until they had concluded the enterprife on which they had determined, they withdrew not their hands therefrom.

Fourthey, I poftponed not till tomorrow the bufinefs of to-day. When lenity was neceffary, I acted with lenity; and in the hour of feverity I was fevere. At the time when delay was policy, I acted not with precipitation; and when expedition was neceffary, I was not guilty of delay: and the bufinefs which could be concluded by addrefs and negotiation, I committed not to the fword.

Clliهو
 تص

وصورت انج
وطرّبت ميك, آيم وuر
 .
 res l/tho وك واني ك居
 Niti

تwl tr
 وزربات

The day I paft in examining the difficul- Book If. ties of conqueft with wife and experienced men ; and in the night when I laid myfelf down in the chamber of repofe, I deliberated on the execution of my refolutions, and I formed the plan on which they were to be conducted.

AND I myfelf reflected on the meafures I fhould purfue in the reduction of kingdoms; how I fhould advance, and which way I fhould retreat. And I alfo confidered thofe things which concerned my foldiers, whom I fhould encourage and reward, and whom I fhould order upon fervice; that I might not err in my refolves. And I exerted forefight and circumfpection in every tranfaction. And the leaders of my foldiers who attached themfelves unto me, I treated with kindnefs and diftinction ; and I conducted myfelf with feeming attention towards thofe who were my enemies.

AND I confidered as bafe-born thofe on whom I had conferred favours, and who, for the good which they had received, returned evil. For it is the proverb of the prophet of the Creator of men and angels, - That the bafe-born will not depart from the world, - until he hath deceived and injured his patron, and be' nefactor.'

My venerable Peer wrote unto me, faying, "It is thy duty to act in obedience to the commands of "thy God and the prophet of thy God, and to protect

Nig-

 ( ل Nilo Uil_ris Jisl g \(\alpha\)布 5,0 ب
 : Str St \(^{\circ}\)
\%
 ها diu, 5 lin, 5
AلH
併, ك unu, \(\Leftrightarrow\) olsg
"and affift the defcendants and pofterity of that holy BookII. " meffenger.
"And thofe princes who feed on the boun"ties of the Creator, and yet rebel againft their God and " his prophet, thou fhalt drive out from the kingdoms of "the Lord. And thou fhalt act with juftice in the land " of thy Creator: for it is faid, That dominion may be "continued to the infidel; but that to the tyrant it fhall " not be continued.
"AND it is thy duty to root out from the "country of God all pollutions and abominations; for " evil practices have that effect on the world, which per" nicious aliment hath on the human body. Obliterate "every veftige of cruelty and oppreffion.
"AND afcribe not the continued profpe"rity of the tyrant in this world to the merits of the " tyrant : for the caufe of the long duration of the power " of the wicked and the oppreffors is this, that they may "bring forth into action all the wickednefs and all the "crimes which they have treafured up in their hearts, " and then be overtaken by the wrath and indignation of ©s Almighty God.
"Is fhall fometimes come to pafs, that " the omnipotence of the Creator fhail at once chaftize " the cruel, and the wicked, and the impious, with a " variety of punifhments; by chains, and by prifons; "s and by defolation, and by famine, and by hunger; by " an univerfal peftilence, and by fudden death; and by " unforefeen deftruction.

342
INSTITUTES
و ونيك وانـو ju
 انت̈ل gاز وظا ن نكوي ونس תس سیب بسیاري نعهت ايشان را بايل 淄 Nigit

 biw,

 vievtog " that the juft, and the religious, and the virtuous, and " the innocent fhall be overtaken and involved in the ca" lamities of the evil doers. For the fire, which falleth " in the wildernefs of reeds, confumeth both the green " and the dry.
"AND be not furprized at the profperity " and the fuccefs of the impious, and the wicked, and "the infidel, and the tyrant. And err not in thy conclu"fions, and fay not unto thyfelf, The good things of " the wicked, and of the impious men, and of the tyrant " are increafed unto them ; although in wickednefs, and " in tyranny, and in impiety they daily increafe.
"THOU oughteft firft to underftand the "caufe of their increafing profperity. For the caufe is, "that perhaps (refiecting on the bounties of their true "benefactor) they may turn back from their wickednefs " and oppreffions, and be grateful for the favours which "they receive.
"BuT if they neglect to pay the tribute " of gratitude to their God, and return not back to the " holy gate, and if they forget the bounties of their " Creator, and the prophet of their Creator, they fhall in "the end be overtaken by the anger and the yengance of "the omnipotent chaftifer."

When the letter of my venerable Peer came to my hands, I wrefted from the grafp of the oppreffors

344
INSTITUTES

Timur \(\rightarrow\) •
 uT ا تهظاب واحترام نهودم وwيورغال ووظيغه وهرسوم بايشان . وخوردان واطنال را جّاي نززند دانستخ ور وسياه أن
位

保 كارازند واكابر واش,اتـ را بهراتب عاليه اهتياز دالم وابواب ging را 1 5

\section*{OF T I M O UR.}
preffors and the infidels, and from the feditious, and the Book II. wicked, and the impious, the lands of the Lord: and I girded up my loins to extirpate and deftroy them.

Regulations concerning the goVERNMENT OF CONQUERED KINGDOMS.

In every kingdom which I conquered, I refpected thofe who were worthy of refpect, and I venesated and honoured the pofterity of the prophet, and the theologians, and the learned, and the holy men; and I conferred upon them eftates, and penfions, and appointments. And I confidered the powerful and the opulent of that country as my brethren; and as my children, the poor and the helplefs infants thereof.

AND the foldiers of that kingdom I admitted to my prefence; and I foothed and encouraged the fubjects; and I kept both the one and the other furpended between hope and fear. And to the good of every country I did good; and I expelled from my kingdoms the vicious, and the wicked, and the feditious.

The bafe and the abject I confined within their proper bounds; and I permitted them not to exceed the limits prefcribed them. And on the nobles and the grandees I conferred preeminence by exalted dignities; and I threw open the portals of equity and juftice in every country; and I clofed up the avenues to cruelty and oppreffion.
保 ＊ 0 g 5 PJو
保

I
 dijlis ونكـوتوال؟ Un S dشا uther in it دونو人ít ：

\(>012\)

\section*{- FTI TMOUR.}

AND every kingdom which I reduced, I Book II, gave back the government of that kingdom to the prince thereof; and I bound him in the chains of kindnefs and generofity; and I drew unto me his obedience and fubmiffion. The refractory I overcame by their own devices; and I appointed over them a vigorous, and fagacious, and upright governor.

And I commanded that the thieves and the high-way robbers of every country fhould be put to death; and that the feditious, and the vicious, and the profligate fhould be banifhed from the realm ; and that vagrants and buffoons fhould not be permitted to refide-in the cities or in the country;

AND that a magiftrate fhould be appointed in every city and in every town, who fhould watch over the conduct of the foldier and the fubject; and that he fhould be accountable for every thing that was ftolen.

AND I ordered that guards thould be ftationed at the entrance of the roads; and that they fhould watch and defend the roads and the ftages ; and conduct in fafety from fage to ftage the merchandize, and the effects, and the property of the merchant and the traveller; and that if any lofs or deficiency fhould be found therein, that they fhould be anfwerable for the value thereof.
 i (ي) diiKi it號
\[
\lambda_{j, \ldots}<\left[5={ }^{-\infty}\right.
\]

وأم ذ Uj, <

okwg تnejg تiarog abo
 ز Jrs

AND I commanded that the governors BookII. fhould not prefume to punifh or opprefs any one of the inhabitants of the towns or the cities under their jurifdiction, on the accufation (or information) of the malevolent, and the profligate and the felf-interefted; but that after conviction, according to the FOUR INSTITUTIONS, a fine fhould be levied on the guilty perfon in proportion to the mifdemeanour.

AND I ordained that the poll-tax and the houfe-tax fhould not be levied on any town, or on any city whatever; and that no one of the foldiers fhould prefume to enter by force the dwelling of a civil inhabitant, or to feize on the cattle, or the property, of the fubject;

AND that in every concern of the inhabitants of every country, the governors thereof fhould in their conduct keep within the limits of equity and juftice. And I ordained that fubfiftence fhould be allowed to the mendicants of every kingdom, that the practice of beging might be abolifhed.

Regulations for the obtaining intelligence and information of the state OF THE EMPIRE, AND OF THE PROVINCES, AND OE THE SOLDIERS, AND OF THE SUBJBCTS.

I ordained that on every frontier, and in every country, and in every city, and in every camp a writer of intelligence fhould be eftablifhed; and that \(35^{\circ}\)
INSTITUTES
 g Uut俒路

 Niشً ，㥩
放 （ \＆ I Pror

\[
\pi-\infty,
\]

N ＊㥩 suläng
O F T I M OUR.
each fhould write to the imperial prefence, with truth and perfpicuity, full accounts of the conduct and the behaviour of the governors, and of the officers; and of the foldiers, and of the fubjects; and of the fate of my own armies, and of thofe of foreign powers; and of the bringing in, and the carrying out of all merchandize and commodities; and of the entrance, and the departure of all ftrangers, and of all Kauruvvauns of every country; and of the tranfactions of the neighbouring kingdoms and princes, and of their conduct and behaviour; and alfo of the learned and fkilful men of diftant countries, who might turn their faces towards my dominions :

AND that if the writer of intelligence was guilty of falfehood, and wrote not the true fate of the facts, his fingers fhould be cut off : and that if he fuppreffed the laudable actions of a foldier, or wrote an unjuft account thereof he fhould be deprived of his right hand: and that if he wrote a falfe account from enmity and from malice, he fhould be put to death. And I commanded that thefe accounts fhould be tranfmitted unto me day by day, and week by week, and month by month.

And I ordained, that a thoufand fwift ca-mel-men, and a thoufand fwift horfe-men, and a thoufand expeditious foot-men fhould be felected; and that they fhould inform themfelves of the occurrences of the countries, and of the frortiers; and of the intentions and \(35^{2}\)
INSTITUTES
هـام آر خنانْ
 J｜chlg

توقـتـت
Uル هر نواه

ز zw J J ט زهیی据 （ تنـو بان هiblw بـــرانــراذ 观保 （thino
the defigns of the neighbouring princes; and that they Book II. fhould return unto the prefence, and give me information thereof, that I might provide the remedy before the evil arrived.

Thus I received intelligence of the defeat of Touktummifh Khaun by Auroos Khaun. I knew that Touktummifh Khaun would fly for protection unto me; and I made the neceffary preparations to fupport Touktummifh, and to wage war with Auroos.

Thus at the time that I was about to undertake the reduction of the empire of Hindoftaun, information was brought unto me, that independent princes and chiefs were feated on the throne of government in every quarter of thofe dominions;

Thus, that Saurung, the brother of Mulloo
Khaun, had elevated the ftandard of power in the land of Mooltaun ; and that in Dehli Sooltaun Muhmood Khaun had erected the enfign of authority ; and that in the territories of Lauhore Mulloo Khaun had drawn together a numerous army; and that Mubbauruk Khaun had afpired to the regal title in the kingdom of Kunnouj; and that in every province of the provinces of Hindoftaun fome one had affumed the regal dignity.

When I received this information, the conqueft of that empire appeared ealy in my fight; but in the eyes of my foldiers it was an undertaking of difficulty.
Yy THUS,

 ا ت آ ب dil

 r, ¢ \(\leftrightarrows\)保 (jgg) , -

نا
 -

㑕
نو ; il JIgoly

Thus, when I had fubdued the empire of BookII. Hind, I received intelligence that the Keefur of Room had ravaged certain of my provinces; and that the natives of Goorjiftaun, exceeding their proper limits, had advanced to certain caftles which were befieged by my forces; and that they had given fuccour to the inhabitants of thofe caftles.

And I reflected with myfelf, that if I tarried longer in the empire of Hindoftaun, diforders would arife in the kingdom of Eraun. Having fettled the affairs of the empire of Hind, I returned from thence with fpeed. And I halted for a few days in Mauwur u Nuhur; and from thence I proceeded towards Room and Goorjiftaun ; and I conquered the whole of that extenfive empire.

Regulations concerning the conduct to be observed towards the natives, and the inhabitants, of every country. And of the establishments of the shrines of the SAINTS, AND OF THE FATHERS OF THE HOLY RELIgion. And of the gifts and pious donations.

I ordained, in every kingdom which fhould be fubdued, that the warrior of that, kingdom who fubmitted unto me fhould be received into my fervice; and that the fubjects and the inhabitants of that country fhould be protected from injuries, and from flaughter, and from rapine, and from flavery;

 بï
  Niهs

 بتّس

 enge

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

AND that their effects and their property \(\underbrace{\text { Book II, }}\) Should be protected from ravage and from plunder; and that the foils which had been gathered from that coontry fhould be taken from the fpoilers;

And that the pofterity of the prophet, and the theologians, and the holy and the learned men, and the nobles and the grandees should be treated with honour and refpect; and that the chiefs, and the leading men, and the principal men of the towns and the villages, and thole who followed agriculture, fhould be protected and encouraged;

And that the fubjects in general fhould be kept fufpended between hope and fear ; and that when guilty of a crime, they fhould be fined in proportion to the offence, and to their ability.

AND I ordained that to the pofterity of the prophet, and to the theologians, and to the learned, and to the holy men, and to the religious, and to the reclue in every country which mould come under my dominion, lands, and penfions, and appointments fhould be granted; and that fubfiftence and fupport should be allowed to the poor, and to the helpless, and to the indigent; and that to the teachers, and to the learned in religion falaries should be granted;

AND that for the fupport of the fhrines and the fepulchres of the faints, and the fathers of the 3

INSTITUTES

مرنان عالي ابن ابسي طالب كـب范 وبـرونه
عنه اعظا ابو خنينغ رهr واك ja جزار وغيره حاصلات ماناين وتح كانـد وبجهت رونــه هتبركه الماب علي ابن

\(*\)

\section*{- I I M O UR.}
holy religion, lands fhould be appointed; and that car- Book II. pets, and food, and lamps fhould be allowed to thofe who refided therein:

And firf, that for the holy fhrine of the commander of the faithful, the king of men, Aali \(\uparrow\) the the fon of Aboo Taulib (on whom be the favour of God) the diftricts of Bukhf and Jilleh fhould be affigned;

AND that for the pure fhrine of the Imaum Hooffein (whom the Almighty reward) and for the fhrine of the mirror of the faints, Sheikh Abdulkaudir; and for the fhrine of the great Imaum Aboo Khunneefeh (the mercy of God be upon him) and for the fepulchres of the other faints, and fathers, and diftinguifhed men of the holy religion, who refted from their labours in the city of Bughdaud; that for each of them, according to their dignities, the lands and the villages of Kurbullau and of Bughdaud, and other diftricts fhould be affigned;

AND that for the fupport of the holy fhrines of Imaum Moofi Kauzim, and Imaum Mahummud Nukki, and Soolamaun Faurfi, the fertile lands of Juzzauir and other cities fhould be granted;

And that for the fupport of the facred fepulchres of Imaum Aali, the fon of Moofi, the lands of Kutteh Buft, and the environs of the city of Toos fhould be affigned; and that carpets, and lamps, and
+ The fourth Khalif, and fon-in-law to the Mahummudan lawgiver.

360
INSTITUTES

 هِ

 bxig \(\because \leq l_{r} \because-w l_{\mathrm{H}} \rightarrow\) g بنهج goly

daily bread fhould be allowed to the religious; and that Book II. benefactions and gifts fhould be granted for the fepulchres and the Maufoleums of each of the faints of Eraun and of Tooraun.

And I ordained that, in every kingdom which fhould be conquered, the mendicants of that country fhould be gathered together; and that fubfiftence and daily bread fhould be allowed unto them; and that they fhould be made penfioners and beg no more. And if after they were made penfioners they continued the practice of afking alms, I commanded that they fhould be fold into foreign countries, or expelled from the realm : that the race of beggars might become extinct in my dominions.

Regulations concerning the colzection of the revenues and the taxes from THE SUBJECTS ; AND THE ORDER AND THE ARrangement of the provinces; and the cultiVATION, AND THE POPULATION, AND THE GOVERNMENT, AND THE POLICE OF THE EMPIRE.

I ordained that the revenues and the taxes fhould be collected in fuch a manner, as might not be productive of ruin to the fubject, or of depopulation to the country. For the ruin of the fubject caufeth a diminution of the imperial treafures; and a diminution of the imperial treafures effecteth the difperfion of the troops; and the difperfion of the troops produceth the extinction of the imperial power.

INSTITUTES

 ع Niliej?

Nilij \(z\) ن

 نَ
 ©

 diilugr estum? \(5 \lg\)

AND I ordained that, in every country BookII.
that fhould be fubdued (to the inhabitants of which charters of fafety and fecurity from dangers fhould be granted) the produce and the revenue of that country fhould be infpected;

If the fubjects were fatisfied with the old and eftablifhed taxes, that thofe taxes thould be confirmed, agreeably to the wifhes of the fubjects; or if not, that they fhould be determined according to the REGUlation.

AND I ordained that the duties fhould be determined in proportion to the produce of the cultivated lands; and that the taxes on the produce of thofe lands fhould be affixed and afcertained:

Thus firf, that the cultivated grounds of the fubject, which fhould be made fertile by the water of canals, or by fprings, or rivulets, or rivers (if thofe waters flowed perpetually and continually) fhould be fuperintended by the officers of the crown; and that of the amount of the produce of thofe grounds, two thirds fhould be allowed to the poffeffor thereof, and one third be paid into the royal treafury;

AND if the fubject fhould confent to pay the tax for the reftricted lands in fpecie, that for the grain due to the treafury the fum hould be fixed on the fubject according to the current price of the grain ; and that correfponding to the current price of the grain, the money Ohould be paid to the foldiers; \(\psi\)
+ If the price of grain was low the foldiers pay was lefs, if high, it was more: that is to fay, it was always exactly proportioned to the value of the neceffaries of life.
\(3^{64}\).
INSTITUTES
Ug diw *rwق \(\xrightarrow[\mu]{\mu}\)

 di, Ju U Jlo vivlle ö̈ JLio (S)glug Nint نور (S ، ار (3بانیا die dr ex

+ A Sterreeb is a certain land-meafure, as our acre.
jwg

\section*{OF T I M OUR.}

AND if the fubject fhould not be fatisfied BookII. with the mode of collection, and with the partition of the general produce into three parts, that the reftricted lands fhould be divided into firft, and fecond, and third Jurreeb; \(\dagger\) that the produce of the firft Jurreeb thould be eftimated at three loads, and the produce of the fecond Jurreeb at two loads, and the produce of the third Jurreeb at one load; and that half thereof fhould be eftimated as wheat, and half thereof as barley; and that of the total amount one half of the produce fhould be collected ;

And if the fubject, notwithftanding this, fhould be unwilling to pay the tax in kind, that the value of a load of wheat fhould be fixed at five Mifkauls of filver, and the value of a load of barley at two and a half Mirkauls of filver ; and that the duty of the Kellaah \(\ddagger\) fhould be exacted over and above : but that nought elfe fhould be demanded of the fubject under any pretext or denomiaation whatever;

AND that the reft of the lands of the hufbandman, thofe which produced in the autumn, and in the fpring, and in the fummer, and in the winter; and the lands which depended on the rain for fertility, fhould be divided into Jurreebs; and that of the produce of thofe which were numbered, a third or a fourth fhould be collected;
I. What this duty is, is unknown to the tranflator.

And

366
INSTITUTES

ومواضض ع وآث
 به هسات وبوه عهل نكاينه

بر رعيت مال وجهات اطالت نهايند وچون

愔 " Niانرو

गا di \(\leq\)

N

AND that the duties on the herbs, and on Book II. the fruits, and on all the-other productions of the country, and on the refervoirs of water, and on the commons, and on the pafture lands fhould be fixed and determined according to the ancient and eftablifhed practices : and if the fubject fhould not be content therewith, that the collections fhould be fettled according to the Huft and Bood. +

And I ordained that, before the time of the gathering in the grain, the taxes fhould not be demanded; and, when the period of the harveft arrived, that they fhould be collected at three different times ;

AND if the fubject paid the royal dues fpontaneoufly, that a tax-gatherer fhould not be appointed over him; and if there fhould be occation for a tax-gatherer, that he Chould levy the duties by threats and by authority; but that he fhould not make ufe of the cudgel, and the cord, and the fcourge; nor prefume to confine the fubject in fetters and in chains.

A N D I ordained, whoever undertook the cultivation of wafte lands, or built an aqueduct, or made a canal, or planted a grove, or reftored to culture a deferted diftrict, that in the firft year nothing fhould be taken from him, and that in the fecond year whatever the fubject voluntarily offered fhould be received, and that in the third year the duties fhould be collected according to the regulation.
\(t\) This regulation is not underfood by the tranflator.
\(-368\) INSTITUTES

诺 \(\int\) و

 d＿i＿i i وموانـ

 كه gأس نهون ك ورو

原 كa از از

多 （5u－mo

\section*{OF TI M OUR.}

AND I ordained, that if the rich and the Book II. powerful fhould opprefs the poorer fubject, and injure or deftroy his property, an equivalent for the damage furtained fhould be levied on the rich oppreffor, and be delivered to the injured perfon; that he might be reftored to his former eftate :
\(A_{N-D}\) that all ruined lands which lay uncultivated (if there were no owners to thole lands) fhould be annexed to the crown. And if there were owners, and thole owners were reduced to diftrefs, I ordained that the neceffary fupplies fhould be granted unto them, that they might cultivate their lands anew.

And I commanded that the ruined bridges fhould be repaired; and that bridges fhould be conftucted over the rivulets and over the rivers; and that on the roads, at the diftance of one ftage from each other, Kauruvvaunfurai + fhould be erected; and that guards and watchmen fhould be ffationed on the road; and that in every Kauruvvaunfurai people fhould be appointed to refides; and that the watching and the guarding of the roads should appertain unto them : and that thole guards fhould be anfwerable for whatever fhould be ftolen on the roads from the unwary traveller.

And I ordained that in every town and \({ }^{*}\) in every city a mofque, and a fchool, and a monaftery, + Buildings for the reception of travellers. A a a

安
 هتٌر, هو هو تعهر ثنرّ نـاينه

 ته ع. נ)luols; i, it

هiرlu ووزيــ سيون از بــاكي ضبط اموال غايب " دiز joly
and an alms houfe for the poor and the indigent, and an hofpital for the fick and infirm fhould be founded; and that a phyfician fhould receive a falary, and fhould be appointed to attend the hofpital : and that in every city a governtment-houfe, and a court for the adminiftration of juftice fhould be built : and that fuperintendants Should be appointed to watch over the cultivated lands, and over the hufbandmen.

AND I ordained that in every country three Vizzeers should be fationed. The first for the fabjeet, To keep a regular account of the taxes and the duties received, and what fums, and to what amount, were paid in by the fubject, and under what denomination, and on what account ; and to preferve an exact ftatement of the whole.

The second for the folder, To take account of the fums paid to the troops, and of the fums remaining due unto them.

The third, To take poffeffion of the Amwail a Ghauibi, + and of the cuftoms on the comers and on the goers; and of the revenues of the Baud and the Hovvaui; and to take poffeffion of the effects of thole who should become infane, and of thole who died inteftate, and of thole who fuffered by the laws. And he was to take poffeflion of thole effects with the approbation of the magiftrate and of the ecclefiaftical judge.
+ The effects of people loft, or absconded.

H ـرص Nï̈，

＜
咱说 از
位 باشل ونراز ；
نيز هrراه كردانی

و！واست رون

نه ذوج مرتب سازنل بريّ ترتيب قول بفه فوج وبرانغار

ونـو فو فراورل oly

AND I commanded that the property of BookII. the deceafed fhould be reftored to the lawful heir; and if there fhould be no heir, that it fhould be expended in pious ufes, or be fent to the holy city of Mecca.

Regulations of war: for entering into and retiring from the field of battle; AND FOR FORMING THE LINE; AND FOR DEFEATing Armies.

I ordained, if the enemy exceeded not twelve thoufand cavalry, that an Ameer ul Omrau fhould command the oppofing army: and that twelve thoufand horfemen of the Ouyenauk, and the Toumaun; alfo Mingbaufhee, and Euzbaufhee, and Ounbaufhee Ameers fhould be placed under his command:

AND that he fhould advance to within the diftance of one day's march from the enemy; and that he fhould halt oppofite unto them, and fend me information thereof.

AND I commanded that thofe twelve thoufand horfe fhould be formed in nine divifions after this manner: The main body one divifion, and the right wing three divifions, and the left wing three divifions, and the advanced guard one divifion, and the advanced guard of the advanced guard one divifion :

AND that the right wing fhould confift of its own advanced guard, and its right and its left divifions; and that the left wing fhould alfo confift of its own advanced guard, and of its right and its left divifions.
(1)

伍 شیشاع آن \(\lambda\) gion ger ص-: آرا؟ Jو ك از
 باوازه بild تصـ تیبر

(5) وا
 dilo,s jugriong
\(\dagger\) Ullab ackbur, God is great.
3019

AND I ordered that the general fhould Book II. attend to four particulars in his choice of the field of battle.-First, the water thereof.-And secondiy, the flrength of the ground, that his flanks and his rear might be covered. - And thirdly, that his fituation be more elevated than the fituation of the enemy; and that the fun be not in his front, that the glare thereof dazzle not the eyes of his troops.-Fourthly, that the ground before his lines be extenfive and open.

And I commanded that the army flould be marfhalled, and the line be formed on the day preceding the action; and that (the forces being ranged in order of battle) they fhould march towards the enemy; and that they fhould not turn the heads of their horfes from the direction in which they were advancing; that they fhould neither incline to the left nor to the right. And when the eyes of the army fell upon the forces of the enemy, I ordered that they fhould utter a great fhout, and repeat the Tuckbeer + with a loud voice.

And I commanded, if the Auriz \(\ddagger\) of the army faw that the leader thereof was deficient in his duty, that he fhould deprive him of his command, and appoint another in his place; and that he fhould open and communicate to the Ameers and to the foldiers the order which I had delivered unto him for that purpofe.

\footnotetext{
\(\ddagger\) A fort of field-deputy, appointed to obferve the conduct of the commander in chief.
}
\(37^{6}\)
INSTITUTES
טضز
ك

\(\leadsto\) ه 花
 قاذتّن خورا غنیا

 تnt توص
 نٌ غix

\section*{OETIMOUR.}

AND I ordained that the general of the BookII. army fhould, in conjunction with the Auriz, reconnoitre the numbers of the foe; and that he fhould compare his chiefs with thofe of the enemy, and confront them to each other accordingly; and that he fhould take the neceffary precautions to fupply all deficiencies; and that he fhould confider well the different kinds of arms ufed by the foldiers of the enemy and by his own; and that he fhould obferve the motions of his foes, whether they advanced into the field flowly and in good order, or whether they rufhed forward in confufion;

AND that he thould confider and comprehend the movements and the order of the enemy's battle, whether they charged at once and in an united body, or by detachments, the one fucceeding the other ; and that he fhould obferve, in the moment of affault, whether the enemy advanced and retired, and prepared to charge again, or whether they appeared fatisfied with their firft attempt. When the latter is the cafe, it is the duty of the foldier to bear lightly the fhock of the enemy's attack, and to ftand firm and patient. For bravery is but patience and firmnefs for an hour.

AND I ordained that until the foe advanced to the attack, he fhould not be attacked. And I ordered, when the enemy entered the field of battle, that the at-

浣 ترموUن افواج نهانانه باشه

راقو ا 过 Alog？
lug 0 ，ا，我 هhot ر د y

1）وأه
＂

 il \({ }^{\prime \prime}\) eis tention of the general fhould be turned to the conducting Book II. and the directing of the efforts of his troops.

FOR the duty of the commander is to goo vern and to guide the movements of his forces; and to be cool, and firm, and collected within himfelf in the hour of trial ; and to confider each divifion of his army as a particular inftrument of the inftruments of war; as the arrow, and the battle-axe, and the fword, and the mace, and the poniard, and the dagger; and to direct the edge or the point of each in the moment of neceflity.

And it is the duty of a general to confider, himfelf and the nine divifions of his army as a wreftler who entereth into action, and fighteth with every part of his body - with his arms and with his feet, and with his breaft, and with his head. And there is ground for expectation, when eight affaults fhall have been fucceffively made on the line of the enemy, that in the ninth frock they will certainly be defeated.

AND it is the bufinefs of a fkilful general firft to charge the foe with his advanced guard. And let him then fend forward the advanced guard of his right wing to fupport them; and after them. the advanced guard of the left wing: that three fucceffive fhocks may be given to the force of the enemy. And if at this juncture the advanced guards fhould flrink back from before the foe, let him direct the firf divifion of the right wing to

380 INSTITUTES

عتّ ويك فوج نـو جرانغاررا برانN وذْ g ونتّظر رايات

 נور Jg（Sjg di匚⿱艹⿸⿻一丿又土
 تو J0，\({ }^{\text {Ju }}\) وس位

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}
charge, and after them the fecond divifion of the left Book II. wing: and if victory proceedeth not from them, let him order the fecond divifion of the right wing into action, and let them be followed by the firft divifion of the left wing. And in this fate of the conflict let the commander difpatch information unto me.

And let him depend upon the arrival of my ftandard, and reffing on the favour of Almighty God, advance himfelf upon the foe, and confider me as prefent in the action. For when (by the favour of God) eight fucceffive flocks have been given to the ftrength of the enemy, they muff fink under the ninth, and the victory be obtained.

AND it is the bufinefs of a general neither to be rah nor precipitate; but to direct the operatons of his troops with firmness and presence of mind. And when he himfelf fall be obliged to enter into action, he muff not, whilit he can avoid it, give himfelf up to death : for the death of the general bringeth dirgrace upon the army, and encreafeth the obftinacy of the enemy.

Therefore it is the duty of a commander to Shun temerity, and to act with deliberation and prudence : for temerity is the offspring of the devil. And let him alpo be careful that he venture not into a fituation, out of which he cannot extricate himfelf and his army.
ذـوج ثراول
نوج هراول
\[
\text { نوج هراول برانغار } \quad \text { هوراول جرانغار }
\]

برانغار نوج برانغار*دوبم نوج اول فوج جرانغار*دوب نوج

> تــول

See Plate I.
;
اسر نهوه Sa ال

 در ركاب وي با اهرايا وقشونات وتومانات والوسات كـه از

واهر نهوهم

 تا دوازنه تـزك
 UL
+ Paibkbauneh is the tent, or fet of tents, of the prince; which on a march are fent forward and erected againft his arrival at every ftage: i. e. there are two lets of tents, and thole at the firft ftage, when ftruck and fent forward, are not unloaded at the fecond, but proceed on to the third flage, and وسردار

\section*{OF TIMOUR.}

Thus I formed regulations for BookIt. the arrangement of my superior armies.

If the forces of the enemy exceeded in number twelve thoufand horfemen, and were inferior in number to forty thoufand, I ordained that one of my fortunate fons fhould command againft them ; and that two Beglerbegs, and the Ameers, with the Toumaunaut, and the Kufhoonaut, and the Auloofaut, in number not inferior to forty thoufand men, fhould attend his command:

And that the troops and the officers, who compofed this vietorious army, fhould confider me as prefent in the field, and give not forth from their hands their difcipline, and their courage and their conduct.

And I commanded, when my Paifhkhauneh \(\uparrow\) was brought. forth, that twelve bodies of troops Thould be ordered out; and that an Ameer of the Ameers of the Auloofaut fhould be appointed to each, and that they fhould caufe them to perform their exercifes and evolutions; that they might keep before their eyes the twelve military regulations, \(\ddagger\) which I had eftablifhed for forming, and for breaking the line of battle, and for advancing, and for retreating.
and are there pitched. And thus the tents at the fecond ftage are, when the prince departs, fent on to the fourth ftage, fo that the two fets are inhabited alternately.
\(\ddagger\) There regulations are not in the MS, and therefore are fuppofed to lave been omitted by the tranfcribers through ignorance or inattention.

 تعین نـا 1）ونيــيز بی （位位 dier，انو وخولرا S，怰 小

 بايل هو dilu,

Jg

\section*{OF TI M O UR.}
\(\mathrm{HE}_{\mathrm{E}}\) is a commander, who, numbering the Book II. chiefs of the forces of the enemy, appointeth proper chiefs in oppofition unto them ; and who confidereth with the eye of attention the veteran folders of the foe, the bow-men, and the fword-men, and the fpear-men; and who obferveth the motions of the enemy, whether they advance into the field of battle lowly and in jut order, fquadron by fquadron, or whether they ruff forward in confufion; who pre-examineth the approach to the field, and alpo the avenue of retreat ; and who pencetrateth the order of the enemy's battle.

For it fall fometimes come to pals, that they will caufe their numbers to appear foal, and put on the femblance of flight and difmay. A general therefore mut not permit himfelf to be deceived, and drawn into danger, by their pretended flight.

He is an able and experienced commander, who underfandeth the difcipline and the faience of war, and who knoweth what division to fend forward to the charge, and what evil to remedy by his kill, and what meafures to follow in attacking the enemy. He is a general who comprehendeth the intentions of the foe, and who obferveth their mode of attack, and counteracteth their motions and defigns.

THE general who commands forty thoufand horfe, muff form them into fourteen fquadrons after this manner.

 J رыі جرانغار مرتب
نوج با هراول چhاول كـرu

 آن wd فوج J gi...

I Koul; the main body.
2 Burraunghaur; the rear line of the right wing.
3 Hurrauwul a Burraungbaur; the advanced guard of the rear line of the right wing.

4 Furraungbaur; the rear line of the left wing.
5 Hurrauwul a Jurraunghaur; the advanced guard of the rear line of the left wing.
Joying

First, let him arrange his own line, and Bookif, call it the Koul. \({ }^{\text {a }}\) Let him afterwards form the Burraunghaur \({ }^{2}\) with three fquadrons; and let one of thofe three fquadrons be called the Hurrauwul a Burraunghaur. \({ }^{3}\) And with three other fquadrons let him form the Jurraunghaur; \({ }^{4}\) and let him name one of thofe fquadrons the Hurrauwul a Jurraunghaur.s

AND thus alro let him form, and ftation, three other fquadrons in the front of the Burraunghaur, and call them the Chuppauwul. \({ }^{\circ}\) And let him appoint one of thofe fquadrons the Hurrauwul a Chuppauwul. \({ }^{\top}\)

AND in the fame manner let him arrange three other fquadrons, and form them in the front of the Jurraunghaur, and call them the Shuckauwul ; \({ }^{\circ}\) and let him nominate one of thofe fquadrons the Hurrauwul a Shuckauwul. \({ }^{\text {? }}\)

And let him afterwards form in perfect order the grand Hurrauwul, \({ }^{\text {º }}\) which thall be pofted in the front of the Koul, from the bow-men, and the fwordmen, and the fpear-men, and the warriors of proof: that thefe troops charging with loud fhouts, may difperfe and defeat the advanced guards of the enemy.

6 Chuppauwul; the front line of the right wing.
7 Hurrauzoul a Cbuppaurwul; the advanced guard of the front line of the right wing.

8 Shuckauwul; the front line of the left wing.
9 Hurrauwul a Shuckauwul; the advanced guard of the front line of the left wing.

10 Grand Hurrauwul; grand vanguard.

dre نیا
ת Mor , د نـر
 ر به片 ركا

as (ruic Jhile de nwl bly, give花 din بر ذر gin بابی
 diluil
 4.

AN D it is the duty of the general to keep Book II. his eye on the motions of the foe, and to chaftize thofe officers under his command, who, without orders, prefume to advance upon the enemy.

AND it is the duty of the general to attend to the onfet of the enemy, and not to venture to attack them, until they advance to the charge. And when they advance, it is the duty of the general to examine their order of battle, in what manner they come into action, and in what manner they retire therefrom, and after what manner he fhall engage them; whether they charge and retire, and, feeking advantage therein, put on the femblance of flight ; and then, feizing a favourable crifis, rally and charge again.

AND it is the duty of a commander not to purfue the enemy who without caufe flieth from the field: for fuch an enemy may be well prepared for his defence.

AND it is the duty of the general to obferve whether the enemy advance into the field of battle, and charge in an united body; or whether they commence the attack with the fquadrons of their right and their left wings. Let the commander firft oppofe his Hurrauwul unto them, and pufh them on to the charge.

AND after them let him fend forward the Hurrauwul a Chuppauwul and the Hurrauwul a Shuckauwul to fupport the grand Hurrauwul. And in ايشّان كــو اول

 ش̈شار 供 仿秋 （ نـنـايل
 J0，之
延 ulg \(\langle\)（ivg コ， 5 وبر والن
 \({ }^{\ddot{i}}\)
the rear of them, let him order into action the firff fquadron BookII. of the Chuppauwul and the fecond fquadron of the Shuckauwul, and after them the fecond fquadron of the Chuppauwul and the firft of the Shuckauwul.

If from thefe feven fhocks which the enemy fhall have received, the victory be not obtained, let him at this period fend forth the Hurrauwul a Burraunghaur and the Hurrauwul a Jurraunghaur, until nine charges be made on the enemy's line.

AND if victory followeth not from thefe nine fhocks, let him fend into battle the firt fquadron of the Burraunghaur and the fecond fquadron of the Jurraunghaur.

If by thefe eleven efforts alfo the victory be not decided, let him order to the charge the fecond fquadron of the Burraunghaur and the firft of the Jurraunghaur. Thus it may be expected that by thefe thirteen fucceffive charges the lines of the enemy may be broken, and the glory of the day be acquired.

But if it fhould come to pafs that the victory fhould not be won by thefe thirteen attacks, it is at this crifis the duty of the general to form his Koul in exact order, and put them in motion. Let him fhew himfelf as a lofty mountain to the eyes of the enemy, and move forward with flownefs and regularity.

AND let him direct his veteran bands to rufh on the foe fword in hand, and command his archers to gall the enemy with their arrows. And if the fate of Ddd
 رايات هس باشی
\[
\begin{aligned} & \text { را, ه } \\
& \text { هراول }
\end{aligned}
\]
\[
\begin{aligned}
& 3 \\
& \text { See Plate II; pag. } 383 .
\end{aligned}
\]

و
- F T I MOUR.
the day fhould ftill remain in fufpence, let the general Book II. himfelf advance into action and depend on the appearance of my victorious ftandards. \(\uparrow\)
+ This paflage is unintelligible.
Ddd 2
Thus
il

 a كِرْ華 تخ diís

 هiاU, \(\varsigma\) هimlآ ذورا

\section*{OF T I M O UR.}

Thus alfo I ordained, that if the enemy Thould in number exceed forty thoufand horfe-men, that the eyes of the Beglerbegs, and the Ameers, and the Mingbaufhees, and the Euzbaufhees, and the Ounbaufhees, and the felect warriors, and the foldiers in general thould be fixed on my victorious ftandards. \(\dagger\)

And I commanded, that the chief of every fquadron to whom I iffued my orders, thould act conformably to the tenour of thofe orders, and prefume not to deviate therefrom; and that every one of the Beglerbegs, and the Ameers, who was tardy in performing, or difobeyed, the orders which I fent unto him, fhould be inftantly put to death; and that his Kotul, who is the expecter of promotion, fhould be appointed to his command.

AND I ordained, that from among the forty Ouyemauk of the Aloofaut, the Kufhoonaut, and Toumaunaut, that the twelve Ouyemauk who had obtained the Tumghau, \(\ddagger\) fhould be divided into forty fquadrons; and that the Ameers of the twenty eight Ouyemauk who had not obtained the Tumghau, fhould form their line in the rear of the Koul; and that my fons and my grandfons fhould draw up their forces before the right of the Koul ; and that my relations and my kindred, with the troops under their command, fhould take their fation

\footnotetext{
+ i.e. That he would lead them in perfon.
# Thofe who received military pay.
}

398
INSTITUTES
خورا جا
ور نو
 جرانغار oتّر, ر (آنیا وريT فو位 viilu, \(\leftrightharpoons\), ولر diilu, 5 ,
وبِ فـو دií gog
before the left of the Koul ; and that thofe troops fhould Book II. be bodies of referve, and that they fhould difpatch fuccour to every quarter, where re-inforcement fhould be wanted:

AND that fix fquadrons fhould conftitute the Burraunghaur, and that one other fquadron fhould be appointed the Hurrauwul a Burraunghaur: and thus alfo, that fix fquadrons thould form the Jurraunghaur; and that one other fquadron fhould be nominated the Hurrauwul a Jurraunghaur.

AND thus alfo I ordained, that fix fquadrons fhould be pofted in the front of the Burraunghaur, and that they thould be denominated the Chuppauwul; and that one other fquadron fhould be formed, and appointed the Hurrauwul a Chuppauwul :

AND that in the fame manner fix other fquadrons fhould be ftationed in the front of the Jurraunghaur; and that they fhould be called the Shuckauwul; and that one other chofen fquadron fhould be appointed the Hurrauwul a Shuckauwul.

AND I ordained that fix other fquadrons, headed by diftinguifhed Ameers, and compofed of warriors of proof and experience, fhould be advanced before the Chuppauwul and the Shuckauwul; and that they fhould be called the grand Hurrauwul:

AND that one other fquadron, over and above thofe fix fquadrons, fhould be pofted in their front; and be denominated the Hurrauwul a Hurrauwul :

400
INSTITUTES
 ?

 Lo.

 وپ-ون كَا

 . gأس نون伿 Cliج
 ض்

And that two Kurrauwul Beghs, + with de- Book II. tachments of their brotherhood, thould be pofted to the right and to the left of the Hurrauwul a Hurrauwul; and that they fhould be the Deedbaun \(\ddagger\) on the army of the enemy.

And I ordained that no one of the commanders of the forty fquadrons, until he received orders from me, fhould prefume to enter into battle ; and that until the moment of his fervice arrived, he fhould not move from his ftation; and that he fhould ftand ready and prepared for action :

AND when he received orders to engage, that he fhould accommodate his mode of attack to that of the enemy; and that he fhould oblerve in what manner the foe advanced into battle, and counteract his defigns; and that he fhould, by fkilful and judicious difpofitions, carry into effect fuch of his own movements as had been traverfed by the enemy.

AND I ordained, when the Hurrauwul a Hurrauwul began the action, that the leader of the grand Hurrauwul fhould order his fix fquadrons to charge fuccefively; that by fix fhocks, repeatedly given, the enemy may be broken and thrown into confufion. It

\footnotetext{
+ Kurrauzul Beghs; chiefs of the light troops or fcouts.
\(\ddagger\) Deedboun; obfervers, people appointed to reconoitre the motions of the enemy.
}

Eec

402
INSTITUTES

 در

仿
 NiJ, ك (و) Nilgu ! 1, را Cowly د0,
 \(\int\), را ( عiu

is at this crifis the duty of the leader of the Chuppauwul to detach his, fix fquadrons one after the other to fupport the grand Hurrauwul; and afterwards to advance, himfelf, to the charge.

And in the fame manner alfo, let the commander of the Shuckauwul pufh forward fucceflively his fix fquadrons to reinforce thofe who are engaged; and lafly let the commander himfelf advance into action. Thus, by the power and affiftance of Almighty God, when eighteen charges fhall have been made on the line of the enemy, they will break and difperfe.

But if notwithftanding thofe fhocks re- ceived by the foe, they fhould continue refolute and firm, it is then the duty of the chief of the Burraunghaur to difpatch forward his Hurrauwul, and of the leader of the Jurraunghaur to fend forth his Hurrauwul alfo.

When thofe two Hurrauwuls advance and charge on the right and on the left of the enemy, their order and their ftrength thall certainly be broken.

But if it fhould come to pafs that the foe fill continues firm, let the leaders of the Burfaunghaur and the Jurraunghaur order their fquadrons fucceffively on to the charge. And if they fee that the enemy give not way to the efforts of the imperial forces, the leaders of the Burraunghaur and the Jurraunghaur muft themfelves advance, and rufh upon the foe.

404
INSTITUTES
，كا
Nil jü， uigit
届

 （保 ه قو
 I）ناطاw

 J 土 \(^{2} 0\) U digit وبامبي

AND if at this period the commanders of BookII. the Burraunghaur and the Jurraunghaur fhew themfelves deficient in their duty, the royal princes, and thofe related to the imperial family, who are the referves of the Burraunghaur and of the Jurraunghaur, muft advance to. the affault.

AND they muft keep their eyes on the commander and the ftandard of the commander, and prefs upon the foe with valour and intrepidity. They muft endeavour to feize the general of the hoftile army; and they muft frive to invert the ftandard of the foe.

AND if, notwithftanding there fhocks, the enemy fill remain firm and unmoved, the royal guards, and the felect warriors of the Koul, and the forces of the Ouyemauk, which were formed in the rear of the Koul, muft rufh forward, together and at once, to the charge.

> AND if at this period the victory be not decided, it is the duty of the emperor, with fortitude of heart and with exalted refolution, to put himfelf and the Koul of his army into motion.

> THUS I acted in my engagement with Keefur. I commanded the Ameer Zaudeh Meeraun Shaah, who was the leader of the right wing of my forces, to charge headlong on the left of Keefur. And I fent orders to Ameer Zaudeh Sooltaun Muhmood Khaun, and to Ameer Soolamaun, who commanded my left wing, to attack the right of Keefur.

حو وبا

 خور با انـوراج

بطر

انتّاد
 نی وبرا نكونسار

لو

氾 نien保
 ترتيب آراستّن قه Nil anve

\section*{OF T I M O UR.}

AND I iffued directions to the Ameer Zau- Book II. deh Aboo Bukkur, who led the referve of the right, to advance upon the Koul of Yeldurrum Bauezeed, \(\dagger\) who was pofted on an eminence: and laftly I myfelf, with the forces of the Koul and the Ouyemauk, turned the face of . refolution toward mine enemy.

The armies of Keefur were defeated, and put to flight at the firft onfet. And Sooltaun Muhmood purfued the vanquifhed Keefur; and he made him my prifoner, and he brought him to the royal tent. By this difpofition alfo I conquered Touktummifh Khaun, and caufed his ftandard to be inverted.

If the enemy frould become formidable, and throw into diforder the Chuppauwul, and the Shuckauwul, and the Burraunghaur, and the Jurraunghaur, and fhould advance to charge the Koul ; it is then the duty of the emperor to conduct himfelf with courage and with fortitude, and to proceed to repel and difperfe the foe.

THUS I acted in the engagement with Shaah Munfoor, who penetrated even to the Koul of my army. I oppofed him in my own perfon, face to face, until he fell lifelefs on the plain.

The plan of the arrangement OF FORTY SQUADRONS, FORMED FROM THE TWELVE Ouyemauk who had obtained the Tumghau.

\footnotetext{
+ Bajazet.
}
\(\underset{\approx}{\Rightarrow}\) تnا
\[
0
\]

نو
Jg Jy,
\(J, g=J, 0\)
J杧 J, \(\because=\)
\[
\begin{aligned}
& \text { هراول } \\
& \text { هرارو برانغار } \\ & \text {, } \\
& \text {, }
\end{aligned}
\]

نو פو
J. 3
?
- Uil ounurj

F I N I S.

\section*{I \(\quad \mathbf{N} \quad \mathrm{D} \quad \mathrm{E} \quad \mathrm{X}\)}

\section*{O F}

\section*{PERSONS AND PLACES.}
N.B. \(m\). fignifies mentioned.

AALI, firft fucceffor of Mahummud, 193. one of the orthodox Khalifs, \(31, N\). commander of the faithful, 183 . fon of Aboo Taulib, 359. the diftricts of Bukhf and Jilleh, affigned for fupporting his Phrine, ibid.
Aali, fon of Moofi Jaufir, 185.
-Beg Choun Ghoorbauni takes Timour prifoner, 37. is afhamed of his conduct, ibid. commands Timour's arms to be delivered to him, and difmiffes him with marks of difrefpect, \(i\) ibid.

BEN LUCKTI, minifter of Hauroon ul Rufheed, diffuaded from refigning his office, 263 .
-Durvaish, of the tribe of Toughauee, made Ameer, 313.

Yezzudi, his relation differs from Timour's, \(23, \mathrm{~N}\). his hiftory inferior to that of Timour, written by himfelf, \(27, \mathrm{~N} .123, \mathrm{~N}\). ignorant of the plot between Tinfour and the ftandard-bearer of Touktummifh Khaun, ibid.
Aazeez \(u\) deen, one of Timour's

Vizzeers, affifts Timour in extricating himfelf from prifon, 267.
Abdullah, a fervant of Timour, who accompanied him in reconnoitring the caftle of Kurfhee, 99.
Aboo (or Abau) Bukkur. See Ameer Zaudeh.
-Tauhir heads the fect of Ku raumuteh, 185 . feizes the city of Mecca, ibid. martyrs 30,000 pilgrims on mount Auruffaut, ibid. takes away the black ftone from the temple of Mecca, ibid. is totally defeated by Mocktaudir Billau, ibid.

Abu'l Munsoor Timour, or TaMERLANE, defcended in a right line from Kaujooli Bahaudur, fon of Toumunch Khaun, \(25, \mathrm{~N}\). of the fame lineage with Chungaze Khaun (GhengisCan), ibid. begins his enterprifes at 12 years of age, 163. Upon Tu-A.D. ghulluk Timour Khaun's firft inva- 1359 fion of Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur, is doubtful whether he fall flee into Khoraufaun, or fubmit to Tughulluk Timour, 17. asks counfel of his Fff Reer, PEER, is advifed to fubmit, ibid. goes to the Ameers of Jitteh, and diverts them by prefents from ravaging Mauwur u Nuhur, 19, 21 . departs from the Ameers, and goes to Tughulluk Timour, 2I. Tughulluk reftores to him the Toumaun of Ameer Kur-r-rchaur Nooyaun, and appoints him gove : or of Mauwur u Nuhur, \({ }^{23}\). \({ }^{1} 3^{65}\) he lofes the government of Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur, and accepts the poft of counfellor and general to Ouleaus Khaujeh, 25. is accufed of rebellion, 27. ordered to be put to death by Tughulluk Timour, ibid. the order falls into his hands, ibid. he gathers together the youth of the tribe of Burlaus for his defence, 29. refolves to oppofe the Ouzbuks, \(i b\). the people of Mauwur u Nuhur unitethemfelves with him, \(i\) ibid. is nominated to the empire by the people of Mauwur u Nuhur, 3 I . is defirous of attacking the Ouzbuks, ibid. the worthlefs reveal his intention, \(i b i d\). he deliberates concerning attacking the Ouzbuks in Summurkund, ibid. fears the people of Mauwur u Nuhur will fhrink back from their engagements, 33 . quits Summurkund, and retires to the neighbouring hills, ibid. waits feven days, expecting to be joined by the people of Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid. no one joining him, he proceeds to Buddukhfhaun, ibid, goes to Ameer Goolaul, who directs him to proceed towards Khauruzm, ibid. promifes Ameer Goolaul the revenue of Summurkund for one year, if he defeats the Ouzbuks, ibid. is attacked by Tukkul Bahaudur with 1000 horfemen, whom he oppofes with 60 warriors, 35 . flays 950 of them, with the lofs of 50 of his own, ibid. is called a wonderful man by Ouleaus Khaujeh and the Ameers of Jitteh, ibid. his fortune reduced very low, ibid. wanders in the defart of Khauruzm, with his wife behind him on horfe-back, ib. & 37. of his ten affociates, three (natives of Khoraufaun) defert him, \(i\) ibid, is taken prifoner by AaliBeg Choun Ghoorbauni, and confined in a dungeon 62 days, ibid. wrefts a fword from one of the guards, and forces his way into the prefence of Aali Beg , ibid. is difmiffed by Aali Beg with marks of difrefpect, ibid. proceeds to the defart of Khauruzm, 39. is joined by twelve horfemen, ibid. is attacked by the Toorkummauns, ibid. and recognized by Haujee Mahummud, one of the Toorkummauns, who joins him, ibid. his troops increafe to 60 horfe-men, ibid, journeys towards Khoraufaun, 41. is joined in the way by Mubauruk Shaah. Sunjuri, governor of Maukhaun, with 100 foldiers, and by many others, ibid. difperfes his people in the environs of Bokhaura, and advances towards Summurkund, 43. is joined in the way by Tumookeh Kouchein with 15 horfe-men, whom he fends to. Mubauruk Shaah, ibid. enters Summurkund by night, ibid. and paffes. 48 days undifcovered in the houfe of his fifter Kuttulugh Turkaun Aughau, ibid. narrowly efcapes being difcovered, ; ibid. flees from Summurkund by night with 50 horfe-men, and proceeds towards Khauruzm, ibid. encamps at Atcheghi, 45. his family, and feveral others, join him, ibid. his army increafes to near 1000 horfemen, ibid. departs thence, and fubdues the countries of Baukhtur Ze meen and Kundahaur, ibid. arrives at the river Hiremun and fojourns there, \(i b i d\). is joined by near 1000 horfemen, and Kurrumfeer fubmits to his authority, ibid. determines to invade the kingdom of Seiftaun, 47. receives rich prefents from the governor of Seiftaun, and joins him. againft his enemies, ibid. is attacked by the foldiers and people of Seiftaun, ibid. wounded in his arm and foot by an arrow, ibid. obtains the victory, ibid. fojourns in Kurrumfeer sill his wounds are healed, 49. departs from Kurrumfeer with 40 horfemen, and proceeds towards the mountains of Bullukh, ibid. is joined by Suddeuk Burlaus with 15 horfe-men, ibid. alfo by Kurraunchee Bahaudur with 100 horfe-men, 51. encamps in the valley of Arfuff, ibid. is joined by 70 warriors, 53 . collects his people together, and makes a feaft, 55 . his forces increafe to 313 horfe-men, ib. determines to reduce the caftle of Aulaujou, ibid. is joined by 300 men of the tribe of Doulaun Jauwun, who defert from the caftle, 57. arrives at the defile of Souf, ibid. is joined by Umlis with 200 hore-men, ibid. receives intelligence of the army of Jitteh, 59. marches to the freights of Guz, ibid. encamps in the plain of Ilchce Booghau, ibid. receives intelligence that feveral Ameers of Jitteh are coming to join him with 1000 horfe-men, 61. encamps on the banks of the river, oppofite the army of Jitteh, ibid. forms his troops in order of battle, 63 . engages the forces of Jitteh, and drives back the fquadrons of Ameer Aboo Saeed, ibid. oppofes Hydur Andookhodee and Munguli Booghau face to face, and defeats them and the whole army of Jitteh, ibid. croffes the Jihoon at Turmuz, 65. is attacked by furprife by the army of Ouleaus Khaujeh, ibid. defends himfelf in a peninfula, 67 . encamps oppofite the Jetes for the fpace of a month, ibid. fends forces to purfue the Jetes, ibid. encamps at Khullum, ibid. arrives at Kunduz, and is joined by the people of Yeurldaiee, 69. marches to Taulkhaun, and is joined by many of the foldiers of Buddukhfhaun, ibid. arrives in the kingdom of Khuttulaun, ibid, fojourns in the Dufht of Koulauk, 71. receives intelligence that the Jetes, confifting of 20,000 horfemen, are encamped at the bridge of Sungheen, ibid. receives an ambaffador from the Jetes, fhews him his army twice and difmiffes him, ibid. receives intelligence that 6000 horfemen are coming upon him, 73. his army feized with a panic, ibid. atattacks the advanced guard of the Jetes, and drives them back to the bridge of Sungheen, 77. ftations 2000 men at the bridge opg Ate the Jetes, ibid. fwims ny'gr the river with 5000 men, 79. and encamps on a hill above the enemy, ibid. the Jetes pretend a flight, he penetrates their defign, ibid. is attacked by them, 81. defeats Ouleaus Khaujeh, and drives him beyond the Sihoon, 83 . returns in triumph to 1363 Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid.

He meditates how he may attain the fovereign power, 85 . admits Ameer Hooffein partner of his fortune, ibid. is always oppofed by him, ibid. make him fwear friendfhip, ibid. gains over to his intereft Sheikh Mahummud with feven Kufhoons, ibid. gives to each Ameer of thofe Kufhoons the command of a province, ibid. confers a province on Share Behraum, 87. gains over feveral Ameers by his kindnefs to Ameer Hooffein, ibid. feveral of his Ameers confider themfelves as his equals, ibid. he determines to reduce them all to fubjection, 89 . gains over to his intereft Ameer Haujee Burlaus, ibid. wins Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir to his intereft by kindnefs, 91. takes poffefion of the lands of Sheikh Mahummud, deceafed, 89. oppofes Ameer Hooffein to Ameer Ilchee Booghau Suldoze, 9 r. gains over Mahummud Khaujeh Erudee by giving him a province, ibid. fows divifion amongft the princes of Buddukhfhaun, and gains them feverally to his intereft, ibid. affifts Ki Khiffero againft Aljauitoo Burdi, ibid. reconciles them together, and 「ends them againft Ameer Khizzur Yeflooree, 93.

Invited by Ameer Hooffein to a conference at the pafs of Chuckchuck, 101. fecretes a number of warriors about the pafs, for fear of treachery, ibid. is informed of Hooffein's perfidy by Share Behraum, 103 . defeats the army fent by Hooflein to circumvent him, and maches to \(\ldots\) Bee, ibid. upbraids Hooffein with his treacherye 105. loles the cafle of Kurfhee, 93 . croffes the Jihoon under preter ce of going to Khoraufaun, 95. meets a Kauruvvaun going to Kurlhee, ibid. fends a fpy with them to "if:over the fituation of the enemy, ibic. -atives on the banks of the Jihoon till the fpy returns, 97. re-croffes the tiver with 243 warriors, and arrives at Sharekund by forced marches, ibid. halts at the diffance of 3 miles from Kurfhee, ibid. commands fcaling ladders to be prepared, and goes by night, accompanied by 2 perfons only, to reconnoitre the caftle, 99. difcovers the guards afleep. ibid. brings up his warriors, and sakes poffeffion of the caftle, ibid. He marches towards Bullukh, and encamps on the frontiers, 109. Ameer Hooffein comes forth to fight with him, ibid. he defeats him and befreges him in the caftle, ibid. takes the caftle. ibid. Hooffein flain, ibid. Receives an ambaffador from Auroos Khaun, 115 . attacks Auroos Khaun and puts him to flight, 117.

Pretends to return from Bullukh to Summurkund, III. turns back, and takes Mullik Gheaus \(u\) deen in Hurraut, \({ }^{11} 3\). fubdues the whole country of Khoraufaun, ibid.

Receives the fubmiffion of Aali, governor of Mauzinduraun, 117 .

Summons the rulers of Seiftaun, Kundahaur, and of the Afghauns, to fubmit to him, 115 . is obeyed, ibid, Sends armies againft the countries of Kilaun and Jurjaun, I19. conquers the city of Isfahaun, and ftations 3000 men there, ibid. commands a general flaughter to be made of the people of Isfahaun for their rebellion and cruelty, ilia. Purfues Touktummifh Khaun 5 months in the Dufht of Kipchauk, 12 I. his army reduced to great flraits for want of provifion, ivid. is oppofed by TouktummifhKhaun with a very numerous army, 123. his Ameers difheartned, ib. he plots fecretly with the ftandardbearer of Toaktummifh, ibid. his Ameers take courage from the intrepidity of his fons and grandfons, 125. appoints the prince Aboo Bukkur, with 8000 men, the advanced guard, ibid. commands his troops in the heat of battle to pitch their tents and prepare victuals, ibid. obtains the victory through his intrigue with the ftandard-bearer of Touktummifh, ib. Marches into Erauk a fecond time, and collects an army of 80,000 men, 1393 121. is attacked in perfon by Shaah Munfoor, ibid. fends an ambaffador to Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir, to inform himfelf of his abilities, 125. receives his account, 127 . arrives fuddenlyat Bughdaud, and conquers it, ib. Marches a fecond time into the Dufht I 395 of Kipchauk, and, having conquered the countries of the 5 th and 6th climates, returns victorious to Summurkund, 129. Demands counfel of his fons 1398 and Ameers concerning the reduction of Hindoftaun, ibid. feeks an omen in the Koraun, 133 . pitches his tents towards Hindoltaun, ibid. commands the prince Peer Mahummud Jehaungheer, with 30,000 horfe-men, to fubdue Mooltaun, ibid. orders Sooltaun Muhmood Khaun, &c. with 30,000 men, to go againft Lauhore, 135. he bimfelf, with 32,000 horfe-men, forms the main body, ib. his whole army confifts of 92,000 horfe-men, ibid. proceeds to Hindoftaun, ibid. is informed that the Oughauns infeft the road to Hindoftaun, and plunder therein, ibid. is requefted by Mullik Mahummud to revenge the murder of his brother Lufhkur Shaah upon Moofi his murderer, 137. feeks to get Mullik into his power by policy, ibid. is thot at by an arrow, ibid. is oppofed by Sooltaun Mahmood, and Mulloo Khaun, with 50,000 men, and 120 elephants in Debli, 139 . pretends fear, in order to draw them out of Dehli, ibid. defeats Sooltaun Muhmood, and gains immenfe fpoils, ibid. conquers Dehli in the fpace of one year, and returns to Summurkund, \(i b\). receives information of the encroachments of the people of Goorjiftaun, 14I. fummons his armies to join him at Isfahaun, ibid. arms himfelf, 143 .

1400 fubdues the caftles of Seewaus' and Goorjiftaun, and divides the foils amongft his foidiers, ibid. punifhes the feditious of Azzurbauejaun, ibid. fubdues Mulluteah and the neighbourhood thereof, ibid. fubdues Hullub and Humfau, 145. determines on the reduction of Miffur and Shaum, ibid. is oppofed by Keefur, at the inftigation of Kurrau Eufoof, with a mightyarmy, ibid. writes a letter to Keefur, 147, reduces the city of Dummifhk, 149 . receives by his ambaffador a letter of defiance from Keefur, ibid. marches towards Bughdaud by the way of Mooful, ibid. turns back by the way of Tubburaze, and arrives at Bughdaud, 151. fubdues the caftle and city of Bughdaud, after a fiege of 2 months and fome days, ibid. commands it to be razed to the ground, ibid. fojourns fome time in the kingdom of Azzurbauejaun, ibid. collects his forces together from all quarters to oppofe 3402 Keefur, 153. departs from Azzurbauejaun to wage war with Keefur, ibid. is oppofed by Keefur, with 400,000 men, ibid. affaults Keefur and takes him prifoner, and obtains a compleat victory, ibid. returns triumphant to Summurkund, after a war of 7 years, ibid.

Abulghazi Khaun, 27, N .

\section*{Afghaun. See Oughaun.}

Alchoun Bahaudur, brother of Beghchuck, marches againft Timour, 65.
Aljaie Turkaun aughau, fifter of Ameer Hooffein, and wife of Timour, 35,43 : carried behind hima on his horfe in the defart of 太'hauruzm, 35. fecured iniz, houfe of the Toorkummauns, 39. ecreted by Timour in the environs of Bokhaura, 43 . Aljauito (or Aljauttoo) Burdi, flees to Timour for helter, 91 . is reconciled to Ki Kl/iffero, 93 .
SOOLTAUN, fon of Ar- ghoon Khaun, fupporter of the Mahummudan faith in the 7 th century of the Hij. I89. on the death of his brother, affembles the Siuds and Theologians in the imperial Mufjid, anid asks their confent to his afcending the throne, ib. and 193. obtains it, 195. ordains that the names of all the fucceffors of the prophet fhall be recited in the Khutbeh, and impreffed on the coins of the empire, \(i b\). Alkummi, a man noted for his malevolent and revengeful difpofition, 257. raifed to the dignity of prime minifter by Maatuffim Billau Ubbaufi, ibid. betrays the Khalif into the hands of Hullaukoo Khaun, ibid.
Allugh Tuktimour, one of Tughulluk Timour Khaun's generals, fent to invade Mauwur u Nuhur, 19 . Ameer ul Omrau, of Ameer Hooffein, fubmits to Timour, IIr.
Amefr Aali, ruler of Mauzinduraun, feeks protection from Timour, 117.

Aboo SaEED, of the tribe of Burlaus, 3II. made general of the Jetes, 6I. his fquadrons defeated by Timour, \(6_{3}\). taking offence at the conduct of Tughulluk Timour Khaun, flees to Timour, and is appointed by him ninth Ameer and governor of a province, 319,311 .

BAUEZZEED, of the tribe of Turkhaun, made feventh Ameer, 3II.

Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir, ruler of the province of Khujjund, 9 r. asks counfel of Timour, I5. retires into Khoraufaun, 27. forced to fubmit to Timour, 91 .

Biaun Suldoze, father of Sheikh Mahummud, 85, 89.
- Goolaul, a devout man confukit by Timour, 33. advifes Timour to go to Khauruzm, ibid. is promifed the revenue of Sumurkund for one yeat, if Timour proves victorious, ibid.

HAUJEE Burlaus, uncle of Timour, 15, N. afks counfel of Timour, ibid. the troops of Kuif defert Timour and join him, 321. unites himfelf with Timour, 89 .

Hindookeh deferts the army of Jitteh, and joins Timour, 59.

Hoossein. See Hoossein.
Ilchee Booghau Suldoze lays claim to the city of Bullukh, 91 . is oppofed by Ameer Hooffein through the policy of Timour, ibid.

JAUKOO, of the tribe of Burlaus, 311 . one of the chief fupporters of Timour's power, 247. alone remains with him after the defertion of the forces of Kufh, 323. Ameer Hooffein endeavours in vain to fet Timour at variance with him, 247 . is made Ameer ul Omrau, 323. and governor of a frontier kingdom, 311 . appointed to the government of Bullukh and Hiffaur, 323.
-. Jullaul u deen deferts the army of Jitteh, and joins Timour, 59. Khizzur Yessooree takes poffeffion of Tauflikund, \(93^{\circ}\) is reduced low, and flees to Timour, ib. -. Khodadaud, of the tribe of Burlaus, made Amcer ul Omrau and governor of Buddukhfaaun, 309. his advice to Timour, 327.
--Kurgun, or Cazagan, grand.father of Ameer Hoofein, \(67,85,327\). - Kurrauchaur Nooyaun, fifth anceftor of Timour, and Vizzeer of Chughtauee Khaun (fon of Changaze Khaun) 23, N. Tou-

\section*{X \(\quad 0\) F} maun of, reftored to Timour by Tughulluk Timour Khaun, ibid.
Ameer Moosi, ftationed at the bridge of Sungheen oppofite Ouleaus Khaujeh, 77. and in Kurfhee againft Timour, 93 - furrounds Timour therein with twelve thoufand horlemen, 9 . is defeated, ibid.
- Muviud Aurlaut, fationed at the bridge of Sungheen oppofite Ouleaus Khaujeh, 77. made Ameer ul Omraü, \(3^{13} 3\).

Sauhiba Kurraun, Lord of the fortunate Conjunotion. Timour fo called, 181, \(183,195,197\).

SAur Booghau, of the tribe of Kipchauk, made Ameer, \(3{ }^{1} 3\).

Slfe u deen joins Timour, \(53^{\circ}\) is honourably received by him, 55 .

Sheikh Mahummud, fon of Biaun Suldoze, joins Timour, 85. deftroyed by drinking wine, 89 . - Soolamaun Burlaus deferts the army of Jitteh, and joins Timour, 59. one of the commanders of the left wing in Timour's engagement with Keefur, 405. m. 73.

Timour, Tamerlanefo called, \(3^{1}, 39,53,57,97\), 111 .

UBBAUS, one of Timour's moft faithful chiefs, 247. put to death by him unjuftly, ibid.

ZaUdeh Aboo Bukkur, grand/on of Timour, appointed commander of the advanced guard, in the engagement with Touktummifh Khaun, 125. leads the referve of the right wing in Timour's engagement with Keefur, 407.

Meeraun Shafh, commander of the right wing of Ti mour's forces in his engagement with Keefur, 405.

Sooltaun Muhmood Khaun, nominal emperor of Chughtauee, fent by Timour to attack Lauhore, with 30,000 horfe-men, 135 . one of the commanders of the left wing in Timour's engagement with Keefur, 405.
AMUVEAH (or AMU) the Jihoon, focalled

\section*{PERSONS AND PLACES. vii} from the city fituate near it. Lat. about \(39^{\circ}\). Long. \(62^{\circ}, 10^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour croffes it, 95 .
Andijaun, a city of Toorkiftaun, Lat. about \(42^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). Long. \(69^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. fiom Lond. the government of, given by Timour to Munguli Booghau, 319 .
Anduraub, a city of the province of Bullukh, fituate at the foot of the mountains which divide the dominions of the Great Mogul and Perfia from Great Bukharia; Lat. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). L. \(69^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\).E. from Lond. Timour encamps there, 35 .
Angooreah, a city of Anatolia on the river Melus, 150 miles E. of Conftantinople (remarkable for the viciories of Pompey and Timour over Mi thridates and Bajazet). Lat. about \(39^{\circ} \cdot 50^{\prime}\). Long. about \(33^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour marches by the way of, to attack Bajazet, 153 .
Arabia, cities of, m. 217 .
Arghoon Khaun, father of Ghauzaun Khaun, 187.
Arhung, [fuppofed to be the fame as Arhungferai] a city of Tookhuriftaun on the river Jihoon, Lat. \(37^{\circ}\). Long. \(66^{\circ}\). from London. Country of, feized by Ki Khiffero and Aljauitoo Burdi, 91.

Arkunut, tribe, Haujee Beg of, 19. Arsuff, valley of, Timour encamps there, 5 I .
ATCHEGHI, a billy country, lying near the Jihoon. Timour encamps there, 45 . Aulaujou, caftle of, reduced by Timour, 57.
AURGHOON, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Taufh Khaujeh of, made eighth Ameer, 3 II. twenty perfons of, promoted, ibid.
Aurlaut, tribe of, receive Tumghau, 309- Ameer Muviud of, made A. meer ul Omrau, \(3^{\mathrm{I}} 3\). Sullauichee Bahaudur of, made Ameer, ibid, Auroos Khaun fends an ambaflador to Timour after the defeat of Touktummifh Khaun, 115 . is attacked unprepared, and vanquifhed by Timour, 117. m. 283 .

AURUFFAUT, mount of, 30,000 pil= grims martyred there, 185 .
Azzud u dowla Delumi fupporter of the Mahummudan faith in the 4th century of the Hij. 185. depofes Muttei Laumrilla Ubbaufi from the Khillaufut, and places Taulaa Billau, his fon, on the throne, \(18 \%\).
Azzurbaurjaun, a provizac of Perfia, part of the antient Media. It is bounded on the \(N\). by the province of Shurwaun, ay the \(S\). by the provinces of Erauk a &ijjum and Kurdiftaun (the ancient Aflyria), on the E. by the pravince of Kilaun and the Carpian Fea, and on the Weft by Turkomania. Touktummifh Khaun fends a mighty army upon it, 127. the feditious of, chaftifed by Timour, 143 . Timour fojourns there, 151 . departs thence, 153 .

\section*{B.}

Baubau Aali Shaah, a dervife, his advice to Timour, 89.
Baukhtur Zemeen, fubdued by Timour, 45,163 .
BEGCHUCK, one of the Ameers of Jitteh, appointed by Tughulluk Timour Khaun to ravage Mauwur u Nuhur, 19.
Behraum Joubeen, general to Hurmuz, with 320,000 Perfians engages the Khaukaun, and after a battle of three days and three nights, defeats. him, 285. unjuftly accufed to Hurmuz of having fecreted the enemy's treafures, ibid. pronounced a traitor, and treated with contempt by Hurmuz, ibid, depofes Hurmuz, 287
Behraum Jullauir joins Timour, 45.

Bokhaura, the capital of a province of that, part of Mauwur u Nuhur now called Bucharia Proper, fituate in about \(39^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). of Latitude, Long. \(63^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\).E. from London. Environs of, two hundred perfons, difperfed in, 43. Aljaiè Turkaun Aughau, fecreted there by Timour, ibid. m, 45 .

\section*{viiis}

\section*{I N:DEX OF}

Boulau deferts Timour in time of danger, \(3^{15}\).
Boulaud Booghau [fuppofed to be the fame as the preceding] feparates from Timour, 69.
BUDDUKHSHAUN, a city of the province of Bullukh, fituate at the foot of the mountains which Jeparate Hindoftaun foim Great Tartary, on the N. Fide of the Jihoon, about 100 miles from its fource, and 230 from Bullukh. Lat. \(37^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). Long. \(69^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime} \cdot\) E. from Lond. Princes of, piepare for war, 69. foldiers of, join Timour, ibid. princes of, fubmit to his authority, ibid. after their treachery to Timour, received by him with kindnefs, 323 . m. \(33,67,91\), III, 135 .

Bughdaud, the capital of the province of Erauk a Arrub, fituate on the Tigris. Lat. \(33^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(44^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). E. from London. Conquered by Timour, 127. furrounded by an army under Timour's fons, 151 . befieged by Timour himfelf, and taken after a fiege of two months, ibid. razed to the ground, ibid. m. 125, 149 . revenues of, affigned for fupporting the fepulchres and fhrines of the faints, 359.
Bukhf and Jilleh, diftricts of, affigned for fupporting the fhrine of Imaum Aali, fon of Moofi, 359.
Bullukh, the capital of a province of that name, fituate towards the borders of Perfia, about 50 miles \(S\). of Turmuz on the river Dehafh, Lat. \(37^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long. \(64^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). E. from London.
\(S\). of Summurkund and \(E\) of that divifion of Mauwur u Nuhur, called Proper Bucharia. Its length, according to modern geographers, is about 360 miles, and its breaath about 250. Kingdom of, Timour fojourns' there, 49. hunts in the mountains of, 5 I . taken from Timour by Ameer Hooffein, 87. claimed by Ameer Ilchee Booghau, 9r. given to Ameer Hooflein by Timour, 107. Timour encamps there, \(109 . m_{0}\) III, \(\mathrm{IX}_{3}\). given to Ameer Jaukoo Burlaus, 323 . Burhaun Aghlaun, 289.
Burlaus, tribe of, \(m_{*} 29,93\) appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. four Ameer ul Omraus felected from it, ibid. two Ameers of, promoted, 311. a hundred Mingbaufhees appointed therefrom, ibid.
Burlaus Bahaudur (one of Timour's Euzbaufhees) engages Touktummifh Khaun, and defeats him, 289. is appointed governor of Hiffaur Shaudumaun, ibid.
Burtun Khaun, 25, N.

> C.

Cheen, kingdom of, its prince called Fughfoor, 131.
Chuckchuck, pals of, Timour and Ameer Hooffein agree to meet there, 101.

Chughtauee Khaun, fon of Chungaze Khaun, 23, N. his conduet towards a minifter accufed of peculation, 249.
Chughtauee, the countries of Tranfoxiana, \(\xi^{\circ} c\). which were given to Chughtauee Khaun. The Toumaunaut and Kufhoonaut of, become celebrated on account of Timour's exploits, 93.

Chungaze Khaun, (or Ghengis Can) \(23, \mathrm{~N}\).
D.

DaUood, armour of, Timour cloaths himfelf in it, 143 .
Daurau, name given to the king of Hindoftaun, 13 I .
Deaur a Bukkur, the capital of a province of the fame name, fituate on the Tigris, near its fource, 212 miles \(E\). of Hullub, and 26I N. of Bughdaud. Lat. \(37^{\circ} \cdot 42^{\prime}\). Long. \(40^{\circ} \cdot 17\). E. from London. Bajazet fends his forces againft it, 153 .
DEHLI, the capital of Hindoftaun, fituated on the river Jumna, 142 miles \(N\).
of Agra, and 339 S. of Lauhore, Lat. \(28^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). Long. \(87^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Caftle of, fortified by Sooltaun Muhmood, I39. fubdued by Timour, ibid.
Doulaun Jauwun, three hundred mien of the tribe of, join Timour, 57.
Douldee, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. two perfons of, made Ameers, 3 II.
DUMMISHK, the capital of the Soutb pari of Shaum, ninety five miles N.E. of Jerufalem, and two bundred and ten S. of Hullub. Lat. \(33^{\circ} \cdot 23^{\prime}\). Long. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). E. from London. Mullik Furruj arrives there, 149. reduced by Timour, \(i b i d\).
DURbund, a city of Daugheftaun, on the W. coaft of the Cafpian Sea. Lat. \(42^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long. \(50^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour paffes by it in his way to the Dufht of Kipchauk, 127. Touktummifh Khaun fends a mighty army that way againft Azzurbauejaun, ibid.

\section*{E.}

Eekoo Timour, conquers Auroos Khaun, 283. is promoted by Timour, ibid. is accufed to Timour of having appropriated to his own ufe the fpoils taken from Auroos Khaun, ib. commanded to appear before Timour, 287. the whole of the fpoils taken from Auroos Khaun, conferred on him and his foldiers, ibid.
Erauk A Ajjum, or Perfian Erauk, the chief province of Perfia, lying in the centre of that king dom, bounded by Kilaun and Azzurbauejaun on the \(N\). Khooziftaun and Fauriftaun on the \(S\). by Khoraufaun and Kurdiftaun on the W. Its capital Isfahaun. Cleared from heretics by Timour, 335. m. 125.

Erauk a Arrub, or Babylonian Erauk, comprijes the difficts which lie on each fide of the Tigris, having Deaur a Bukkur on the Weft, and Koo-hiftaun on the Eaf. Its capital Bugh. daud, \(m .125\).
Erauk, people of, petition Timour on account of the oppreffions of the race of Muzuftur, 117.
Timour draws his army into it, 119 . attacks it a fecond time, 12I.
ERAUKS, THE TwO, the paskiors of, petition Timour to punifh the infidels of Goorjiftaun, I4I.
\(E_{\text {RAUN }}\), all the country lying between the Jihoon and the Tigri's, i.e. Perfia and the neighbouring countries. m. 13x, 355.
\[
\mathrm{F} \text {. }
\]

Fauris, or Perfis, a province of Perfia, bounded by Erauk a Aijum on the \(N\). by Kurmaun on the E. by the Perfian Gulf on the S. by Khooziftaun on the W. Its capital Shauraze, m.141,355* Fughfoor, a title given to the king of Khuttun, Cheen and Maucheen, I31. Furrukh, left governor of Bughdaud by Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir, 151. drowned in the Tigris, ibid.

\section*{G.}

Ghauzaun Khaun, (fon of Arghoon Khaun and grandfon of Hullaukoo Khaun) promoter of the faith in the 6th century of the Hij. 187. converted, with 100,000 Toorks, to the Mahummudan faith by Sheikh Ibraheem Hummuee in the plain of Laur, 189.

Ghiznein, 225.
Ghizni, the capital of a province Separated by mountains from the North Weft parts of Hindoftaun, fituate near Kundahaur, and lying to the South of Gaur. Lat. \(33^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(66^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Emperor of, will not fuffer a ftone to be removed, which he had placed at the entrance of the plain of Ghiznein, 225 .
Goolaub, Mahummud Auzaud appointed governor of, 29 I .

Gg \(g\)
GOOR.

Goorjistaun, a province of Afia, bounded by Circaffia on the North, by the Carpian Sea on the Eaft, by Armenia on the South, and by Mingrelia on the Weft. Its capital Teflis. Lat \(43^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime} \cdot\) Long \(\cdot 47^{\circ} \cdot 24^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Its inhabitants comp....id of by the governors of the two Erauk, 141. fubdued by Timour, 143. m. 155.
Gurkus, tribe of, governed by Mooft, 135.

Guz, ftreights of, Timour arrives there, 59.

\section*{H.}

Haujee Mahummud, a Toorkummaun, 39. recollecting Timour, commands the people to defift from attacking him, and joins him himfelf, ibid.

Muhmood Shat YessooREE fucceeds to the command of the armies of Jitteh, 21.
Hind, king of, called Daurau, 13 I. m. 355. See Hindostaun.

Hindostaun, a large country lying between \(7^{\circ}\). and \(37^{\circ}\). Lat, and between \(64^{\circ}\). and \(93^{\circ}\). E. Long. from London. Bounded by Ouzbuk Tartary and little Thibet on the North, by Thibet, the kingdom of Afem, Ava and Pegu on the Eaf, the bay of Bengal and the Indian ocean on the South, the Indian ocean and Perfia on the Wef; being about 2043 miles in length from \(N\). to S. and 1412 in breadth from \(E\). to W. Fortified with many ramparts, 129. always governed by the Shaahinfhaah, or king of Eraun and Tooraun, 13I. road of, infefted by the Oughauns, 135. cleared by Timour, 137. its chief city, conquered by Timour, 139 . the reduction of, \(m .353\).
Hiremun, river, takes its rije in a range of mountains in Lat. about \(30^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\circ}\). Long. \(64^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). from Lond. paling by Seiftaun, a branch of it falls into the lake Zare, 23 s miles S. W. of Kun-dahaur, in Lat. \(33^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long \(\cdot 60^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. of Lond. 1 imour fojourns near it, 45 .
Hissaur, or Hissaur Shaudumaun, kingdom of, given to Ameer Jaukoo Burlaus, 323. m. \(3^{19}\).
Hoossein, (Ameer Hoossein) grandfon of Ameer Kurgun, joins Timour in the defarts of Khauruzm, 35. his fifter wife to Timour, ibid. comes to Timour, 67. his ill conduct occafions the delertion of Timour's officers, 6 g . wants to eftablifh himfelf on the throne of Mauwur u Nuhur, 85. always envies and oppofes Timour, ibid, is forced to fwear friendfhip to him, ibid. feeks to overthrow Timour, ibid. takes the country of Bullukh and the caftle of Shaudumaun from Timour, ibid. is oppofed in his claims by Ilchee Booghau Suldoze, 91. breaks his oaths with Timour, 93. takes the caftle of Kurfhee from Timour by fraud, and places a ftrong garrifon in it, ibid. fends a Koraun to Timour, fwearing friendfhip upon it, ror. defires to have a perfonal conference with Timour at the pafs of Chuckchuck, ibid. flays Share Behraum, 103. his treachery to Timour, ibid. receives a letter from Timour, and is confounded, 105. is prefented with the country of Bullukh and the caftle of Shaudumaun by Timour, 107. feeks to take Mauwur u Nuhur from Timour, ibid. fights feveral times with Timour, and is always defeated, ibid. flays Humoochee the brother of Ki Khiffero, ruler of Khuttulaun, ibid. comes forth to fight with Timour, 109. is defeated and flain, ibid.
- loft his dominions through the oppreffions of a wicked and cruel minifter, 203.
bribed one of Timour's Vizzeers to raife enmity betwixt Timour and Ameer Jaukoo and Eekoo Timour, 247. his defign difcovered, ibid. his friendfhip more hurtful to

Timour

Timour than the malice of his greateft enemies, 327 .
Hoossein, the Khalif, 183.
Hukkeem Sunnai, cotemporary with, and preceptor to, Sooltaun Sunjuri, 187.

Hullaukoo Khaun, father of Arghoon Khaun, 187 . excited by Alkummi to attack Maatuffim billau Ubbauff, 257.
HulLub, the prefent metropolis of Shaum, Lat. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 12^{\prime}\). Long. \(37^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). E. from London. Subdued by Timour, 145. Timour arrives there in his march againft Keefur, 149. Keefur fends troops againft it, 153 .
Humoochee, brother of Ki Khiffero, flain by Ameer Hooffein, 107.
Hums, Keefur fends troops againft it, 153. See Humsau.

Humsau, a town of Shaum near Hama, Lat. \(34^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(38^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Subdued by Timour, 145 .
Hurmuz, fon of Noufharevaun, fends Behraum Joubeen, with 320,000 Perfians, to oppofe the Khaukaun, 285. forgetting the fervices of Behraum, pronounces him a traitor, and treats him with contempt, ibid. is depofed, 287.
Hurraut, a city of Khoraufaun, 171 miles S. E. of Toos, Lat. \(34^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long. \(59^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Prince of, Mullik Gheaus u deen, 113 . conquered by Timour, ibid.
Hydur Andoukhodee advances to fight with Timour, and is defeated, 63. taking offence at the conduct of Tughulluk Timour Khaun, flees to Timour, and is appointed by him governor of a province, 319.
Hyssaur. See Hissaur.

\section*{I.}

Immaum a Aazum, his opinion, 191. Hoossein, revenues affigned for fupporting his fepulchre, 359 .
Mahummud Nukki, ibid. Moosi Kauzi, m. ibid. Shaufer, 19 I .

IsFAHAUN, the capital of the province of Erauk a Ajjum and of ail Perfia in Afia, lying about 223 nilies \(N\). of the Perfian Gulph, and 321 S. of the Cápian Sea. Lat. \(3^{2^{\circ}} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(51^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). E. from London. Conquered by Timour, ing. people of, rebel and flay the goverimor with the whole garrifon, ibid. all cominatiued to be put to the fwors, ibid. appointed a place of rendevouz for Timour's forces, 14 I .
JiHOON, the ancient Oxus, a river rifing in mount Imaus in the Nortbern parts of India in Afra, Lat. \(39^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). and running N. W. througb Uuzbuk Tartary, divides it from Perfia. Forty leagues from its mouth, it divides into two branches; one falling into the Caf pian Sea, Lat. 44. the oiber into the lake Aral, Lat. \(42^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long. \(59^{\circ}\). \(50^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour halts there fome days, 65 . croffes it, 67 . m. \(23, \mathrm{~N}\).

Jilleh. See Bukhf.
Jitteh, a kingdom baving Toorkiffaun on the \(E\). the river Sihoon on the \(S\). Kipchauk on the W. and part of Toorkiftaun on the \(N\). . m. 19, 23, &cc. &cc. JouJI, tribe of, abandoned by Touktummifh Khaun, 125. m. 129.
Jullauir, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. two Ameers of, promoted, 31r. twenty people of, promoted, ibid.
JURJAUN, country of, m. 117 .
JuZzauIr, lands of, affigned for fupporting the fhrines of Immaum Moofi Kauzim, Immaum Mahummud Nukki , and Soolamaun Faurfi, 359.

> K.

Kauboolistaun, the province of Kaubul, 163.
Kaubui, capital of Kaubooliftaun, \(N\). W. of Hindoftaun, and about 110 miles \(E\). of Kundahaur. Lat. about \(34^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(69^{\circ} \cdot 12^{\prime}\). E. from London. Peer Mahummud Jehaungheer ffationed there with 30,000 men, 133 .

Kaubul

Kaubul Shaah, of the line of Chungaze, flain by his Ameers, to ingratiate themfelves with Timour, 325.
Kaujooli Bahaudur, brother of Kubbul Khaun, eighth anceftor of Timour, and great grandfather of Kurrauchaur Nooyaun, 25, N.
Keesur, or Bajazet, fuppofed to be dofcended from a Toorkummaun failor, \(14 \%\) N. refolves on a war with Timour, at the inftigation of Kurrau Eufoof, 145. comes down with a mighty army, and calls the forces of Miflur and Shaum to his aid, ibid. receives a letter of advice from Timour, 147. marches to oppofe Timour, with 400,000 men, 153. is defeated, and brought prifoner to Timour, A. D. 1402, ibid. m. 355, \(405,407\).
Kehulkeh, caftle of, Timour fends his Kurrauvul'againft it, 65 .
Khaujeh Aghlaun, of the tribe of Moghool, made Ameer, 3 II.

Shums U DEEN, fepulchre of, Ameer Hooffein fwears friend hip to Timour there, 85 .
Khaukaun, The, advances againft Hurmuz with 300,000 Toorks, 285. is defeated by Behraum Joubeen, after an engagement of three days and three nights, ibid.
Khauruzm, a kingdom fituate on the Eaftern Shore of the Cafpian Sea, near the mouth of the Jihoon, having Mauwur u Nuhur on the E. Khoraufaun on the S. and great Tartary on the \(N\). it extends from \(37^{\circ}\), to \(42^{\circ}\). of Lat. and from \(52^{\circ}\). to \(62^{\circ}\). of Long. from Lond. Timour advifed to go thither, 33. Tukkul Bahaudur engages with him there, 35 .
——defart of, Timour wanders in it with his affociates, and is taken prifoner, 37.
Khillautee, a town of Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur lying near the Jihoon. The Ameers of Jitteh encamp there with 20,000 horle-men, 7 I .
KHiook, a town of Khoraufaun, fituate near the Jihoon, W. of Bokhaura. Lat. about \(39^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(62^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). E. from London. Tukkul Bahaudur its governor, 35 .
Khissuro Purvaze, advanced to the throne of Perlia, in the place of Hurmuz depofed, 287.
Khorausaun, a province of Perfia, bounded by the mountains of Bullukh (wbich feparate it from Mauwur u Nuhur) and the province of Kundahaur on the - \(E\). by Seiftaun on the \(S\). by the provinces of Erauk a Ajjum and Mauzinduraun on the \(W\). and by the province of Afterabad and the river \(\mathrm{Ji}-\) hoon (wbich feparate it from Khauruzm) on the N. Its capital Hurraut. Ameer Haujee Burlaus and Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir retire thither upon Tughulluk Timour Khaun's firft invafion of Mauwur u Nuhur, 17.m. 15, 113, 141, 333.
KhujJund, a city of Mauwur u Nuhur - fituate on the river Sihoon, about 7 days journey N. E. of Summurkund. At this place is a famous paffage over the river, Lat. \(41^{\circ} \cdot 15^{\prime}\). Long. \(67^{\circ}\). \(30^{\prime}\). E. from London. Waters of, croffed by Tughulluk Timour Khaun with intention to invade Mauwur u Nuhur, 15 . crofied by Ouleaus Khaujeh in his flight from Timour, 83 .
Khullum, a fown of Tookhauriftaun, Lat. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(65^{\circ} \cdot 5^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour encamps there, 67.

Khuttulaun, a province fituate between the rivers Vakhfh and Hurraut, and bounded by Tartary, Buddukhfhaun, and the territory of Bullukh. Timour arrives there, 69 . feized by Ki Khiffero and Aljauitoo Burdi, 9r. Khuttun, the country of, m.1 1 I, 163 . Khuzzaur, a town of Mauwur e Nuhur fituate S. of Kufh, in Lat. \(38^{\circ}\). \(30^{\prime}\). Long. about \(65^{\circ}\). The armies of Tughulluk Timour Khaun arrive there, 19.
Kilaun, a province of Perfia bounded by the Carpian Sea on the N. by Khorau-

\section*{PERSONS AND PLACES. xiii}
faun on the E. by Erauk a Ajjum on the \(S\). and by Azzurbauejaun on the \(W\). m. I4I.

Kipchauk, (called by Europeans Grand Tartary) contains all the country fituate between the Leffer, or Crim Tartary and Toorkiftaun. Tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Ameer Saur Booghau of, made Ameer, 313.
Dufht of, the Ameers of Tughulluk Timour Khaun rebel there, 23. Timour enters it, 129. fubdued by Timour, 117.
Kooch Timour, (fon of Begchuck) an Ameer of Jitteh, 71.
Koottub ul Aktaub, Timour's Peer, 125. See Peer.
Koulauk, Dufht of, Timour fojourns there, 71 .
Kowvung Khaun, of the tribe of Tautaur, made Ameer, 3 I 3 .
KUBBUL KHAUN, (twin-brother of Kaujooli Bahaudur, and fon of Toumunch Khaun) great grandfather of Chungaze Khaun, m. \(25, \mathrm{~N}\).
KUNDAHAUR, Capital of a territory of the fame name, Jturate on the confines of Perfia and the dominions of the Great Mogul, 436 miles N. W. of Lauhore, Lat. \(33^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). Long. \(67^{\circ}\). 10'. E. from London. Subdued by Timour, 45, m. 14I.
KUNDUZ, a town of Tookhauriftaun, Situate in Lat. \(3^{\circ} \cdot 3^{6^{\prime}}\). Long. \(66^{\circ}\). \(0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour arrives there, 6 g . and appoints Mahummud Auzaud governor of it for his bravery againft the Seah Pofhaun, 291.

Kunnouj, a lown and kingdom fituate between the two arms of the Ganges, 282 miles E. of Mooltaun. Its Ca pital Kunnouj is in Lat, \(26^{\circ}\). \(45^{\prime}\). Long. \(80^{\circ} .10^{\prime}\).E. from London. Mubbauruk Khaun afpires to the fovereignty of, 353 .
Kurbullau, a town of Erauk a Arrub on the W. Fide of the Euphrates. Lat.
\(32^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(44^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). E. from London. Lands and villages of affigned to fupport the fepulchres and flrines of the faints, 359.
Kurmaun, a province of Perfia fituate between Fauris and Seiftaun, extending from the frontiers of Erauk a Ajjum to the Areights of Hormuz, m. 141 .
Kurrau Eusoof, the Toorkummaun, defeated by Timour, 28> firs up Keefur to make war upon him, \(145^{\circ}\). Timour demands him of Keefur, 147. he molefts the Kauruvvauns going to the facred cities, 153.
Kurraunchee Bahaudur, joins Timour with a hundred horfe-men, whom he had feparated from the armies of Jitteh, 51 .
Kurroot, houfe of, Timour delivers Khoraufaun from its princes, 333 .
Kurrumseer fubmits to Timour, 45. Timour fojourns there for two months, 49.
Kurshee, a town of Mauwur u Nuhur, at fome diftance to the North of the Jihoon. Lat. \(3^{\circ}\). \(35^{\prime}\). Long. \(64^{\circ}\). \(0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Taken by fraud from Timour, 93. Timour attacks it with 243 warriors, 7 . taken by Timour, ibid. and 99 . Timour furrounded therein by Ameer Moofi and Mullik Bahaudur, 9.
IUUSH, a city of Mauwur u Nuhur, a few wiles to the \(E\). of Kurfhee, and S. of Summurkund. Principality of, \(m, 45, \mathrm{~N}\). its forces defert Timour, and join Ameer Haujee Burlaus, 321.

KUSHMEER, a kingdom fituate on the W. fide of the Ganges, and on the E. Fide of the Indus. Part of Timour's troops march that way againft Lauhore, I35. Kutteh Bust, lands of, affigned to fupport the Shrine of Immaum Aali, fon of Moofi, 359.
Kuttoor, a mountain of Buddukhthaun. The Seah Pofhaun vanquifhed near it, 289.

Kuttulug Turikaun Aughau, eldeft fifter of Timour, fecretes him in her houfe forty days, 43 .
Kylanaut, m. 163. See Kilaun. Kypchauk. See Kipchauk.

\section*{L.}

LAUHORE, capital of the province of Punjaub in Hindoftaun, 322 miles W. of Dehli. Lat. \(31^{\circ} \cdot 53^{\prime}\). Long. \(73^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). from London, Part of Timour's forces march againft it, 135 . territories of, a numerous army drawn together in by Mulloo Khaun, 353.
Laur, a city of Fauris, 372 miles \(S\). of Isfahaun. Lat. \(27^{\circ} \cdot 20^{\prime}\). Long. \(53^{\circ}\). 35'. E. from London. Plain of, a hundred thoufand Toorks converted at once there by Sheikh Ibraheem Hummuee, 189.
Lushieur Shaah, brother of Mullik Mahummud, killed by Moofi, 137.

\section*{M.}

Maatussim Billau Ubbausi makes Alkummi his prime minifter, 257. is betrayed by him into the hands of Hullaukoo Khaun, and put to death, ibid.
Mahummud, the Arabian Law-giver, 9. number of his Attributes ninety \(\mathrm{twO}_{2}\) 135. prayers due to him, and his defcendants, 189 . a proverb of his, 339.
pofterity of, exalted above other men, 203. penfions and falaries ordained them by Timour, 235 .
Mahummud Auzaud, one of Timour's Mingbaufhees, vanquifhes the Seah Pofhaun in the war of Kuttoor, 289 . is appointed governor of K unduz and Goolaub, 291.

Jehaungheer, Timour's eldeft fon, the fubfiftence of twelve thoufand horfe-men allowed him for his fupport, 24 I .

Mahummud Khaujeh Erudee, of the Hord of Tauemun, having feized the country of Shereghaunaut, oppofes Timour, 9r. fubmits to Timour, on his prefenting him with another province, \(i b i d\).
- MEHDI, the laft of the 12 fucceffors of Mabummud, 193. Maukhaun, a city of Khoraufaun, Lat. \(37^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(60^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). from Lond. Its governor Mubbauruk Shaah Sunjuri, 41 .
Maumoon ul Rusheed, fupporter of the Mahummudan Faith in the 2d century of the Hij. 185. abrogated feventy two unorthodox tencts, and eftablifhed the true rites according to the Sunna, ibid. took poffeftion of the government by the confent of Aali, the fon of Moofi Jaufir, ibid. who was appointed by him fucceflior to the Immaumut, ibid.
Mauwur u Nuhur, or Tranfoxiana, comprebends in general the whole country Situate between the Jihoon and Sihoon. Its capital Summurkund. (N. B. Some modern geographers apply the name of Mauwur u Nuhur to a part of Tranfoxiana, called the province of Summurkund, about 540 miles long from \(W\). to E. and 500 broad from S. to N.) People of, unite themfelves with Timour, 29. make a written engagement to fupport him with their lives and fortunes, ibid.
country of, is opprefied by the Ouzbuks, 27. detivered by Timour, ibid. is cleared from the abominations of the Ouzbuks, 87 . from difcord and anarchy, 93 . being delivered from uppreffion, fubmits to Ti mour's gove nment, ro7. Timour halted there a few days in his march from Hindoftaun to Room and Goorjiftaun, 355. m. 333 .
Mauzinduraun, a province \(S\). of the Cafpian Sea. Governor of, Ameer Aali, feeks protection of Timour, IIT. m. \(1 \times 18\), I4I.

Mecca,

MECCA, capital of a territory bearing its name, and of all A rabia Felix in Affa, the birth-place of Mahummud. It lies 200 miles S. of Medina. Lat. \(21^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(38^{\circ}\). \(50^{\prime \prime}\). E. from Lond. Seized by Aboo Tauhir in the thiid century of the Hij, I85. m. 373.
Meer Siud Shurreef (one of the moft refpectable doctors of the eighth century of the Hij.) a Jetter of his to Timour, 181, 183, &c. m. 195. ZEAU U DEEN, (probably the fame as Siud Zeau u deen) a holy man noted for the efficacy of his prayers, 207. prays for Timour's fuccef's during his engagement with Touktummifh Khaun, ibid.
Meeraun Shafh, Timour's third fon, the fubfiftence of nine thoufand horfe-men allowed him for his fupport, 24I. See Ameer Zaudeh Meeraun Shaaf.
Missur (or Egypt), forces of, called to the aid of Keefur, 145. defeated by Timour, 149. m. 143 .
Mocktaudir billau Ubbausi, promoter of the Mahummudan Faith in the third century of the Hij. 185. totally defeats Aboo Tauhir, and his affociates, ibid.
Moghool, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Khaujeh Aghlaun of, made Ameer, 3 II.
Mooltaun, a city of Hindoftaun (capital of a province of the fame name) 414 miles W. of Dehli. Lat. \(29^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(71^{\circ} \cdot 10^{\prime}\). E. from London. The prince Peer Mahummud Jehaungheer ordered to go againft it, 133.m.353.
Moosi, the Oughaun, head of the tribe of Gurkus, attacks Lufhkur Shaah the Oughaun, 135. kills him, 137. is flain himfelf,-ibid.
Moosi Jaufir, father of Aali, 185.
Moosul, a city of Deaur a Bukkur, fituate on the W. Bore of the Tigris. Lat. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). Long. \(43^{\circ} \cdot 30^{\prime}\). E. from Lond. Timour marches by the way of, to invade Azzurbauejaun, 149 .
Moscow, Timour penetrates as far as, 129, N.

Mubbauruk Khaun afpires to the fovereignty of Kunnouj, 353.
Mubbauruk Shaah Sunjuri, governor of Maukhaun, joins Timour with an hundred foldiers, 41. advifes him to quit the defart, ibid. joins him at Atcheghi, 45.
Mughrib, kingdom of, m. 163.
Mullik Bahaudur and Ameer Moos I fit down in Kurfhee with 12,000 horfe-men, 7. Burkook, 149.
Furruj, king of Miffur and Shaum, departs to Dummink, 149. is purfued by Timour, ibid. defeated, ibid.

Gheaus u deen, ruler of Khoraufaun, is in great fear of Timour, III. hearing of Timour's departure, remits of his diligence and caution, 113 . is furprized and taken by Timour, ibid.
\(\square\) MAHUMMUD, brother of Lufhkur Shaah, folicits Timour to revenge his brother's death, 137 . is confined by Timour, ibid.

Shanh Siljokee lofes his kingdom, by difgracing a worthy minifter, and appointing a worthlefs man in his place, \(255,257\).
Mulloo Khaun, Vizzeer of Sooltaun Muhmood, on Timour's invafion of Hindoftaun, gathers together a numerous army in Lauhore, 353. in conjunction with Sooltaun Muhmood, oppofes him in Dehli with 50,000 horfe-men, and 120 elephants, 139. their troops defeated, ibid. he is deprived of his power by Timour, 333.

Mulluteah, a town of Room, capital of Little Armenia. Lat. \(38^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Long. \(39^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). from Lond. Subdued by Timour, 145 .
Munguli Booghau Suldoze, governor of the caltle of Aulaujou under Ouleaus Khaujeh, 55. refures to hearken to Timour's propofals, 57 . leaves the caftle, and flees from Timour, ibid. in the war of Bullukh advances with an army againft Ti-mour, 281. Timour attempts in vain to corrupt him, ibid. he charges Timour with undaunted valour, and is defeated, ibid. taking offence at the conduct of Tughul. Timour Khaun, he flees to Timour, and is by him appointed governor of a province, 281, \(\mathrm{F}^{\circ}\). fignalizes himfelf in Timour's fervice, 281. rallies Timour's troops, when thrown into confufion, and decides the victory, ibid. is promoted by Timour, ibid.
Muttei Laumrilla Ubbausi, depofed from the Khillaufut, 187.
Muzuffur, race of, accufed to Timour of oppreffion, 117 .

\section*{N.}

Nizzaum ul Moolluk, Vizzeer to Mullik Siljokee, 257. unjuftly difgraced by him, ibid. his failings exceeded by his virtues, 263 . is diffuaded from his intention of going on pilgrimage, ibid. he delivered Mullik Shaah from the hands of Keefur, 267 .
Nousharevaun, father of Hurmuz, m. 285 .

\section*{O.}

Omur Abdul Azeez, the fupporter of the Mahummudan faith in the firft century of the Hij. 183. abolifhed the profane practice of execrating Aali from the pulpits, 183.
- Sheikh, fecond fon of Timour, 24 I . the fubfiftence of ten thoufand horfe-men allowed for his fupport, ibid.
Oughauns, inbabitants of the mountains S. of Kundahaur. Certain of, infeft the road to Hindoftaun, 135. are extirpated by Timour, 137.
Ouj Kurrau Bahaudur fationed at the bridge of Sungheen, oppofite Ouleaus Khaujeh, 77.

Ouzbuks, probably in this work the fame as the Jetes. At prefent the Ouzbuks, or Uzbecs, poffes all the couniry between the Caf ian Sea and the dominions of the Great Mogul. Are guilty of cruelty and oppreffion in the kingdom of Mauwur u Nuhur, 27. are attacked by Timour, ibid. extirpation of, authorized by the Siuds, 29. extirpated from Mauwur u Nuhur, 87. from Tooraun, 105 . garrifons of, in certain caftles of Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid. are drawn out by the policy of Timour, and flee, 10\%. m. 333 .

\section*{P.}

Peer Mahummud Jehaungherr, Jon of Mahummud Jehaungheer. His opinion concerning the conqueft of Hindoftaun, 129. ordered by Timour to march from Kaubul with 30,000 horfe againft Mooltaun, 133 .
R.

Room, (Anatolia, or Afia Minor) is terminated on the \(N\). by the Euxine Sea; on the E. by Georgia, Armenia, and Turcomania; on the S. by Shaum and the Levant; and on the W. by the Archipelago, Hellefpont, and Propontis. King of, called Keefur, 131. country of, Timour fends an army to ravage it, 153 . entirely conquered by Timour, 355 .
Roomi, Turks, inhabitants of Room, 279.

\section*{S.}

Saun Bahaudur, of the tribe of Douldee, made Ameer, 3 II.
Saureek Bahaudur, an Ameer of Jitteh, 7 I .
Saurung, brother of Mulloo Khaun, affumes

\section*{PERSONS AND PLACES. xvii}
affumes the fovereignty of Mooltaun, 353. difpoffefled by Timour, 333.

SEAF POSHAUN, inhabitants of the mountains S. of Buddukhflaaun, 289, and \(N\). defeat Burhaun Aghlaun, ibid. are vanquifhed by Mahummud Auzaud, ibid.
Seliwaus, a city of Room, Lat. \(39^{\circ}\). \(6^{\prime}\). Long. \(38^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). E. from London. Subdued by Timour, 143.
Slistaun, a prozince of Perfia. Its capital Zurunge is fituate in Lat. \(32^{\circ}\). 25. Long. \(61^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Governor of, fends prefents to Ti mour, and requefts his protection, 47. joins with his enemies againft Timour, ibid. is conquered by \(\mathrm{Ti}-\) mour, ibid.
__ armies of, ordéred to make ready for war, 141 .
Shath Munsoor oppofes Timour face to face, and is flain, 407.
Shathrokh, Timour's fourth fon, the fubfiftence of nine thoufand horfe-men allowed him, 241. his opinion concerning the war of Hindoftaun, 129 .
Share Behraum, of the tribe of Jullauir, 3II. had feparated from Timour to go to Hindoftaun, 55 . returns to him, ibid. attempts to corrupt the governor of the caftle of Aulaujou, 57. feparates from Timour, 69 . returns to him, 87. informs him of the defigns of Ameer Hooflein, 103. is flain by Ameer Hooffein, \(i b\). -he had deferted Timour and united with his enemies, 17 r . was pardoned by Timour in confideration of his valour, ibid. was made ninth Ameer, 311. fought againft Timour with attonifhing valour, 279. fled to him for protection, and was honourably received, ibid.
Sharauze, capital of Fauris, about 176 miles S. of Isfahaun. Lat. \(29^{\circ}\). \(50^{\prime}\). Long. \(53^{\circ}\). \(10^{\prime}\). E. from London. Inhabitants of, rebel, 12I. are reduced by Timour, ibid.

Sharekund, a town of Mauwur u Nuhur N. of Kurfhee. Lat. \(3^{\circ} \cdot{ }^{\circ} 40^{\prime}\). Long. \(64^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour halts there, 97 .
Sharevaun. See Shurwaun.
Shaudumaun, or Hissaur Shaudumaun, a town of Saganian. Lat. \(3^{8^{\circ}}\). Long. about \(65^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). Taken from Timour by Ameer Hr zikin, \(8 \%\). given to Ameer Hooffein by Timour, 107. m. 319.

SHAUM (or Syria) a country in Afia bounded on tbe W. by the Mediterranean, on the \(N\). by mount Armenus, on the E. by the Euphrates, and on the S. by Arabia Petrea. Its capital Dummifhk. Forces of, called to the aid of Bajazet, 145. conquered by Timour, 149. m. 163. Heretics of, punifhed by Timour, 335 .
Sheikh Abdul Kaudir, lands al* lowed for fupporting his fhrine, 359 -- Ahmud Jaumi, contemporary with, and preceptor to, Scoltaun Sunjur, 187.
- Ibraheem Hummuee converts a hundred thoufand Toorks at once in the plain of Laur, 189.
Shungoom, an Ameer of Jitteh, 7I.
Shurwaun, a province of Perfia fituate on the Cafpian Sea. Its capital Shamaki is in Lat. \(40^{\circ} \cdot 50^{\prime}\). Long. \(60^{\circ}\). \(\mathrm{o}^{\prime}\). E. from London. Touktummifh Khaun's army marches by it, to invade Azzurbauejaun, 127. m. II7.
Shurwaunaut, m. 163.
Sihoon, or the Jaxartes, bounds Mauwur u Nuhur on the N. m. 23, N.
Sind, or the Indus, rifes in the mountains which divide Tartary from India, and paffing through Kufhmeer and Mooltaun, empties itfelf in the Indian Sea. Croffed by the armies of Timour, in their, way to Mooltaun and Lauhore, \(133,135\).
Siud Hoossun advifes Timour to quit the defart of Khauruzm, 4I. joins him, 45.

Siud Zeau u Deen, 41. See Meer Zeau u Deen.
Soolamaun, mountain of, m. I33, \(247,248\).

Faursi, a revenue affigned for fupporting his Shrine, 359 . Sooltaun Ahmud Jullauir, governor of Bughdaud, receives an Ambaflader from Timour, 127. treated contempruoufly by the Ambafiador in a letter to Timour, ibid. flees towards Kurbullau, ibid. departs from Bughdaud leaving one of his officers to defend it, 15 I .
\[
\text { Gheaus u Deen, } m \text {. II } 3 \text {, }
\] 335. See Mullik Gheaus u Deen.

Hoossein, fon of Timour's daughter named Akia Beghi, his opinion concerning the war of Hindoftaun, 13 I. Khaun nominal emperor of Chugtauee. See Ameer Zaudeb.

MUHMOOD, emperor of Ghizni, an inftance of his determined refolution in enforcing his commands, 225. depofed by his minifters, ibid.
- Muhmood Khaun, ruler of Dehli, 353. oppofes Timour with 50,000 men, 139 . is defeated, and flees to the mountains, ibid. Mullik Shaah, promoter of the faith in the fifth century of the Hij. 187 . contemporary with, and difciple of, Sheikh Ahmud Jaumi and Hukkeem Sunnai, ibid.
Subzvaur, m. \(20 \%\).
Suddeuk Burlaus, of the race of Yeldurreen Kurrauchaur Nooyaun, joins Timour with 15 horfe-men, 49.

Suldoze, tribe of, appointed to leceive Tumghau, 309. Ilchee Bahaudur of, made Ameer, 3 II.
Ameers of, fwear fidelity to Kaubul Shaah, 325 . hearing of Timour's exaltation to the throne break their faith, and put him to death, ibid. execrated for it by Timour, ibid.
Sullauichee Bahaudur, of the tribe of Aurlaut, made Ameer, 313 .
Summurkund, capital of Mauwur u Nuhur, fituate in the valley of Sogd, about 7 days journey N. E. of Bokhaura. Lat. \(39^{\circ} \cdot 40^{\prime}\). Long. about \(65^{\circ}\). \(0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour returns thither after the conqueft of Hindoftaun, 139. after the defeat of Bajazet, 153. m. 31, 323.
Sungheen, bridge of, 7I. ftation of Ouleaus Khaujeh, 77.
\[
\mathrm{T} .
\]

Taubaun Bahaudur, of the tribe of Douldce, 3 II. in an engagement with Touktummifh Khaun, penetrates to the ftandard-bearer, and inverts the ftandard, 289 . his enemies feek in vain to obfcure his. renown, ibid. received into favour, and promoted by Timour, ibid. made Ameer, 3 II.
Taulaa Billau, fon of Muttei laumrilla Ubbaufi, appointed to the Khillaufut, in the room of his father, by Azzud u dowla, 187.
TAulkhaun, a town of Tookhauriftaun. Lat. \(36^{\circ} \cdot 50^{\prime}\). Long. \(67^{\circ}\). E. from London. Timour arrives there, 69.

TAush Khaujeh, of the tribe of Aurghoon, made eighth Ameer, 311 .
TAUSHKUND, a town of Toorkiftaun fituate near the Sihoon. Lat. \(42^{\circ}\). Long, about \(63^{\circ}\). E. from London.
Tautaur, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Kowvung Khaun of, made Ameer, 313 .
Tigris, river, Furrukh drowned in it, 151.

Timour, or Tamerlane. See Abul Munsoor Timour.
Timour, river, croffed by Timour, 129.

Timour Aghlaun, m. 3 In.
Timour

Timour Khaujeh Aghlaun, with his forces, joins Timour, 45 .
- Noubukaun, fecond Ameer of Jitteh, 71.
Tooraun, all the countries fituate beyond the Jihoon. Timour becomes lord of it, 87 . clears it of the Ouzbuks, 105. certain of the feditious of Khoraufaun, fent thither, 143.
- Saints of, benefactions and gifts granted for their fepulchres and maufoleums, 36 r , m. 163 .
TOORKISTAUN, infidels of, almoft annihilate the Mahummudan religion by their conquefts, 187 . a hundred thoufand of them converted at one time by Sheikh Ibraheem Hummuee, 189. m. 319.
\(\rightarrow\) king of, called Khaukaun, 131.
Toos, a city of Khoraufaun 123 miles S. E. of the Cafpian Sea, and 604 S. W. of Bokbaura. The revenues of its environs, affigned for fupporting the fepulchre of Immaum Aali, fon of Moofi, 359.
Toubuk Bahaudur joins Timour, 53.

Toughauee, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Aali Durvaifh of, made Ameer, 3 rr.
Touk Timour, of the tribe of Jullauir, made eighth Ameer, 3 II.
Touktummish Buddau Khaun, defeated by Auroos Khaun, 115 .
fandard inverted by Taubaun his haudur, inverted by Taubaun Bahaudur, ibid. his army defeated by Burlaus Bahaudur, 289. fleeing to Timour, is treated by him with kindnefs, 327 . defeated by Auroos Khaun, 353.
Toulaun Booghau, fent to Timour by the Ameers who deferted from the army of Jitteh, 59.
Toulkchee, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Aljauitoo Burdi of, made Ameer, 3 I I.
Toumuneh Khaun, father of Kubbul Khaún and Kaujooli Bahaudur, and fourth anceftor of Chungaze Khaun, 25, N.
Tubburauze, a city of Azzurbauejaun, 396 miles \(N\). of Isfahaun. Lat. \(38^{\circ} \cdot 25^{\prime}\). Long. \(47^{\circ} \cdot 0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Timour marches towards it, \({ }^{151}\). turns back by the way of, ibid.
Tubburistaun, a provingsof Perfia, having the Cafpian Sea on the N. Kilaun on the W. Erauk a Ajjum on the \(S\). and Khoraufaun on the \(E\). Armies of, ordered to make ready for war, 14 r.
Tughulluk Khaujeh, brother of Khaujeh Beg, Ameer of Jitteh, 71. (1)Khaujeh Burlaus (probably the faine as the preceeding) joins Timour, 53. and is received by him with marks of joy and refpect, 55.
Timour, Suldoze, overpowered by Timour, 75 and 77. line of Chumour Khaun, of the rie of Chungaze, 15. his Ameers rebel in the Dufht of Jitteh, II. follows the advice of Timour, ibid. croffes the Sihoon at Khujjund, 15. determines to reduce Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid. iffues mandates of fummons to Timour, Ameer Haujee Burlaus and Ameer Bauezzeed Jullauir, ibid. rejoiced at the coming of Timour, 21 . follows his counfel, \(i b i d\). hears that the Ameers of his three Armies had received prefents from the inhabitants of Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid. turns them out of their commands, and appoizts Haujee Muhmood Shaah Yeffooree to fupply their place, \(i b i d\). difturbed at the rebellion of his chiefs, afks counfel of Timour, 23. returns back to the Dufht of Jitteh, ibid. gives Timour the government of Mauwur u Nuhur, ibid. reftores him the Toumaun of Ameer Kurrauchaur Nooyaun, ibid. breaks his engagements with Timour, and brings an army a \(\mathrm{Hhh}_{2}\), and brings an army a fecond time againft Mauwur u Nu hur, 25 . gives the government of it to Ouleaus Khaujeh his fon, ibid. and appoints Timour minifter and general to Ouleaus Khaujeh, ibid.
TUKKUL BAhaUdUR, governor of Khiook, falls upon Timour with a thoufand men, 35 .
Tumookeh Bahaudur, fent over the river at S'urmuz with three horfemen to gain intelligence of the Jetes, 59. returns after four days, ibid.
-Kouchein joins. Timour with 15 horfe-men, 43. is fent by him to Mubbauruk Shaah, ibid.
Turkhaun, tribe of, appointed to receive Tumghau, 309. Ameer Bauezzeed of, made feventh Ameer, ibid. twenty perfons of, made Euzbaufhees, ibid.
Turmuz, a city of Mauwur u Nuhur fituate on the Jihoon, about 50 miles N. of Bullukh, being a famous paflage over the river. Lat, about \(37^{\circ}\). Long. \(66^{\circ}\). \(0^{\prime}\). E. from London. Waters of, croffed by Tumookeh Bahaudur, 59. by Timour, 65. land of, the armies of Jitteh plunder there. 59. Old, the Ameers who deferted the army of Jitteh arrive there, 59.

\section*{U.}

Ubbaus, one of the three Orthodox Khalifs, 183.
Umlis, fon of Toumun Bahaudur, coming into the neighbourhood of Bullukh to plunder, joins Timour with 200 horfe-men, 57.

\section*{Y.}

Yeldurrum Bauezzeed, or Bajazet, 149, 407. See Keesur.
Yessoor, tribe of, affift Ameer Khizzur Yeffooree, 93. are pillaged by Ki Khiffero and Aljauitoo Burdi, ib. Yeurldaiee, people of, join Timour, 6 g .

\section*{I N D E X}

\section*{OF THE}

\section*{PRINCIPAL MATTERS.}

ACCOMPTANT, one, appointed by Timour to every department of government, to keep a journal of the daily receipts and difburfements, 307 .
Alous. See Auloos.
Alms-houfe, one, ordered by Timour to be built in every city for the poor, 219.

Ameer, a prince or leader; a title given to all the nobility of the firft rank in the Mogul empire, \(15, \mathrm{~N}\).
Ameers, divided into twelve ranks, of which the Ameer ul Omrau is chief. (See Ameer ul Omrau.) The Firft to be made Second on his fignalizing himelf; the Second, Third; the Third, Fourth; 8cc. 275,293. One Toghe allowed to the Firft, two to the Second, three to the Third, four and the Niccaureh to the Fourth, & cc. up to the Ameer ul Omrau. (See 2gI.) The Firft to bring with him into the field a hundred and ten horfes, the Second a hundred and twenty, &c. 297. revenues of the frontier provinces affigned for their payment, 237 . are enjoined, in collecting the revenues, not to exact more than the accuftomed dues on any pretence, 239 .
are to hold a Jaugheer for three years; and longer, if the inhabitants are fatisfied with their conduct, 24I to be degraded from their commands, if they difobey orders in time of action, 245 . to be exalted by a title of honour, the ftandard, the Niccaureh, the appellation of Bahaudur, and other dignities, on their defeating an army, or reducing a kingdom, 283 . to be appointed to the vice-gerency of a kingdom for three years, upon their conquering it, 291. if tardy in executing, or difobedient to, commands, to be inftantly put to death, 397 .
Ameers, Three hundred and thirteen, of wifdom and judgment, felected from Timour's chofen and fuperior fervants, and advanced to exalted dignities, 26 g . who were as firmly united together, and to Timour, as if one foul had animated thern all, 337. never defifted from an undertaking till they had brought it to a conclufion, ibid. an expecter of preferment appointed to fucceed on the death of each, ibid. a hundred ftiled Ounbaufhees; a hundred, Euzbaufhees; and a hundred, Mingbaufhees, 273. Four of thefe appointed Beglerbegs; and one, Ameer ul Omrau, 271.

Ameers, Twelve of reputation and renown exalted to high commands by Timour, each commanding a fquadron proportionate to his rank, 271 . and each being deputy to his next fuperier, ibid. the Twelfth Ameer, a commander of twelve thoufand horfe, and deputy to the Ameer ul Omrau, 273.
Ameer ul Omrau, Cbief of the Ameers or Nobles, \(233, \mathrm{~N}\). his office to iffue orders to the Ameers, 273. and to fuperintend the payment of the Mingbaufhees, 233. his pay ten times as much as that of the officer fubordinate to him, 235. receives it under the infpection of the Deewaunbeghee and Vizzeers, ibid. a ftipend granted him from the revenues of a frontier province, 237 . is not to perform the duty of an Ameer, 273. not to take lefs than three hundred horfes with him into the field, 297. infignia of his office, the Standard, Niccaureh, Toumaun Toghe and Cher Toghe, 291. his place in the Deewaun on the left fide of the throne, 329.
Ameers of Auloofaut, their orders for entering the field, 309. an Eurghee and Birruck granted to each of them, ibid.
- of Hurrauwul, their place in the Deewaun, in the front of the throne, 329.
were to of Kufhoonaut, what they were to bring into the field and what fhould be allowed them, 309 .
ibid.
Ameer Zaudeh, a fon or grandjon of a King or Emperor, 405.
Amwaul a Ghauibi, the effecis of people loft or abfonded, 371.
Arabic, fentences quoted in it, 74,88 , \(118,132,180,188\).

\section*{OF THE}

Arrub or Ajjum, Arabian or Perfian, mo: 217, 323.
Artificers, of every fort, of Timour's XI. Clafs, 215 . admitted into his palace and camp, ibid. thofe of the tribes which fubmitted to him, employed in his fervice, 217 . Architects employed by Timour in raifing magnificent buildings, 213 .
Aftrologers, of Timour's VIII. Clafs, 213. effential to the dignity of empire, ibid. affift him in afcertaining the benign or malignant afpects of the ftars, ibid.
Audience, hall of, the infantry &c. paid there, 237. affignments for the payment of the Ameers and Mingbaufhees delivered there, 239 .
Auloos, a tribe or hord. Plural, Auloofaut.
Auriz, a fort of feld-deputy, 375, 377.
Autaukeh, an embroidered one, a military reward, m. 291.
Authority, Timour's, fo fecured by order and regulation that none had power to interpofe in his government, 199.

\section*{B.}

Bahaudur, the brave, an appellation given to thofe who fignalized themfelves in battle, 283, N .
Baudi and Huvvaui, revenues of, 37 r . See Huvvaui.
Bauwulli, a Mogul word, its meaning unknown, 277.
Begging not allowed by Timour, 349 , 361. See Mendicants.

Beglerbegs, generals or commanders of the firft rank, \(m .271\). if tardy in executing, or difobedient to commands, to be inftantly put to death, 397.

Birruck, (Mogul) a little flag, 309.
Buffoons and vagrants, not to be fuffered in city or country, 347.
Bukdeh, part of the drefs of ceremony of the Ameers, &cc. 297.

\author{
Burraun-
}

\section*{PRINCIPAL}

Burraunghaur, the rear line of the right wing, 38 g . confifts of 3 fquadrons in an army of 12,000 , ibid. of 6 in an army of 40,000, P. 399. when to enter into action, 393, 403. m. 405 , 407.

\section*{C.}

Caaba, the black fone torn from its corner, 185.
Cavalry, their accompts made up halfyearly, 237. paid from the treafury, ibid.
Cher Toghe, a fort of fandard or fpear, a military diftinction granted to the Ameer ul Omrau, 291.
Chupkunchee, four divifions of, appointed to feour the country round the camp, 301.
Chuppauwul, the front line of the right wing, 389 . when to enter into action, 393. confifts of fix fquadions, when the army exceeds 40,000 , ibid. their order of entering into action, 403. \(m .407\).

Claffes,
Timour divides his people into XII. 205. and confiders them as the 12 months, and as the 12 figns of the Zodiac, predominating over the concerus of his empire, ibid.
Clafs I. The defcendants of the Prophet, theologians, doctors learned in the law, and holy men, ibid.
II. Perfons of wifdom, deliberation, vigilance, circumfpection, and aged men, ibid.
III. Devout and pious men (fuppored to be a felection from the firf clafs), 215 , and N .
IV. Ameers, chiefs, and commanders of forces, 207.
V. Soldiers and fubjects, 209.
VI. A felected number from amongft the wife and prudent, to whom fecrets and the moft hidden tranfactions were entrufted, 211.
VII. Vizzeers, fecretaries and fcribes, ibid.

\section*{M ATTERS.}
VIII. Phyficians, furgeons, aftrologers, and geometricians, 213 .
IX. Hiftorians, and men of knowledge, ibid.
X. Holy and pious men, poffefled of wifdom (fuppofed to be Hermits or Monks), 215 , and N.
XI. Artificers of all forts, ibid.
XII. Travellers, voyagers, rnerchants, and chiefs of Kaurruvvauns, ibid.

Conduct, an account of Timour's, left by him as an example to his fons and defcendants, for the attaining and preferving of dominion, \(158,159\). He promoted the worfhip of Almighty God, and always fupported rhe Mahummudan faith, 159 . ranked his people under different claffes (fee Claffes) 159, 201. always complied with times and occafions, 161 . conducted the affairs of his empire with generofity, patience, and policy, ibid. fo regulated his government by order and difcipline, that none of his fubjects could afpire beyond their refpective degrees, ibid. encouraged his officers and foldiers by his liberality, ibid. fhared with them in all their labours and hardfhips, ibid. on his acceffion to the throne, abandoned eafe and fafety, to eftablifh the glory of his name, 163 . gained the affections of his people by juftice and clemency, \(i b i d\). by rewards and punifhments kept his fubjects divided between hope and fear, 165 . compaffionated the lower ranks of his people, ibid. always gave fentence agreedbly to the facred law, ibid. received with kindnefs all who fubmitted to him, ibid. treated with efteem and veneration all perfons diftinguifhed for religion or learning, ibid. affoci ted with good and learned men, intreated their fupport, and fought fuccefs from their prayers, 167 . loved the poor, and neither opprefled nor excluded them his favour, ibid. attended not to malevolent infinuations, ibid.
ibid. mads one undertaking the fole object of his attention, until it was brought to a conclufion, ibid. dealt not with feverity towards any, nor was oppreflive in any of his actions, ibid. enquired into the laws and regulations of ancient princes, and therefrom felected models for his own imitation, ibid. efteemed the great as his brethren, and the poor as his children, 169 . made himfelf acquainted with the difpofitions and wihhes of the inhabitants and nobles of every country, and appointed over them governors adapted thereto, ibid. punifhed all who were guilty of oppreffion or cruelty, ibid. received all officers, of what tribe, country, or nation foever, with particular refpect, 171 . always repaid the value of fervices, ibid. and 199. received his enemy with kindnefs and liberality when he fubmitted, and pardoned difloyalty in confideration of valour, \(i 6\). peculiarly diftinguifhed in his profperity all thofe with whom he had been connected in the days of diftrefs, 173 , 199. fhewed clemency to his relations, ever fubftituting pardon in the place of punifhment, ibid. and \(N\). dealt with every one according to his opinion of the perfon's worth, ib. conducked himfelf with caution and policy towards friends and enemies, ibid. honourably treated the captive who had behaved with fidelity to his mafter, ibid. and confidered the foldier of the foe who deferted in the time of action, as the moft deteftable of men, 175. fo fecured his authority by regulations and order, that none had power to interpofe in his government, 199. either overlooked, or bore with patience, the faults of thofe about him, ibid. buried in oblivion alk paft evil actions, ibid. never gave way to revenge, 201. ordered that all reprefentations fent to him, all orders iffued by him, and every matter debazed in council to be inferted in the narrative of his tranfactions, \(30 \%\) expelled from his prefence the wicked and feditious, ibid. obtained the obedience of his fubjects by complacency, mercy and indulgence, ibid. commanded that every perfon who came before him, and attracted his notice, fhould receive honours proportionate to his rank, ibid. regulated his conduct by certain maxims and rules (fee Maxims and rules), 221 and 335 . thofe admitted not into his fervice who had been faithlefs to his enemies, 319 . on his attaining fupreme power, he conducted himfelf in the fame manner both to friends and enemies, 323 . and received his enemies who had injured and practifed deceit upon him with fuch kindnefs that they blufhed at their own unworthinefs, ibid. and 325. made compenfation to every one whom he had injured or diftrefled, and balanced his diftreffes by kindnefs and gratuities, ibid. and 325 confidered his friends who had always athered to him, as the partners of his fortune; and regarded not the riches and wealth he conferred upon them, 325. overcame the refractory by their own devices, 347 . confined the bafe and abject within their proper bounds, 345. gave back the government of every country to its refpective prince, and fecured his obedience by kindnefs, 347 . protected the inhabitants of every conquered kingdom from injuries, 355 . and ordered the fpoils taken thence to be re-taken from the fpoiler, 357.
Council, general, writers of, appointed to keep a full account of all matters debated there, which were ordered to be inferted in the narrative of Timour's tranfactions, 307. the malevolent and evil not fuffered to enter therein, 167. Timour's Ameers, chiefs, and commanders of forces admitted thereto, 207.

Council, private, perfons of wifdom, deliberation, vigilance and circumfpection, and aged men admitted thereto, 205. feveral members thereof, treacherous to Timour, 229. all matters appertaining to the imperial dignity, the appointment of officers, plans of operation &zc. communicated to Timour therein, 307. fecretary appointed to attend it, ib. See Secretary.
Counfel, one of the chief fupports of empire, 7. ufed by Timour in all his enterprifes, 9,15 . two forts of, of the tongue, and of the heart, \(I_{3}\). that of the heart alone attended to by Timour, ibid. that rejeeled which caufed difunion amongft his foldiers, 15. that only regarded, which was given with firmnefs and judgment, ibid.
Counfellors, thofe only worthy who fteadfaftly adhere to their determinations, 13 .
Criminals, pardoned by Timour for their firft offence, 219 . adequately punifhed if they offend afterwards, ibid. not to be fined and corporally punifhed at the fame time, 25 I.

\section*{D.}

Deedbaun, obfervers, people appointed to reconnoitre the motions of the enemy, 401.
Deewaun, none to appear there in time of peace without the drefs of ceremony, 297. the drefs of ceremony defcribed, ibid.
Deewaunbeghi, prefulent of the council. \(23, \mathrm{~N}\). his place in the Deewaun oppofite the throne, 329 . his fubfiftence ten times as much as that of an Ameer, 235. fuperintends the payment of the Ameer ul Omrau, ibid. his office to lay before the emperor the fatement of the falaries of the people, and to pay them agreeably thereto, ibid. m. 305 .
Dervaifh, a bermit or monk, Timour's grand-children to be xeduced to this fate when they rebel, 243 . people of this profeffion, loved by Timour, \(167 . m .8 \mathrm{~g}\).
Defigns, formed by Timour forthe reduction of kingdoms, and for his conduct towards friends and enemies, &cc. 3 .
I. When Tughulluk Timour Khaun firf invaded Mauwur u Nuhur, 19.
II. When Tughulluk invaded Mauwur \(u\) Nuhur a fecond time, 25.
III. When Aali Begh Choun Ghoorbauni had imprifoned him, 35 .
IV. When he had efcaped from Aali Begh, and was fojourning in the defart of Khauruzm, 39.
V. When he had gathered together ans army, and was meditating the invafion of Mauwur u Nuhur, 45.
VI. When Kurrumfeer had fubmitted to him, and he was collecting an army to fubdue Mauwur u Nuhur, 49.
VII. When his army was increafed to 313 horfe-men, and he was meditating the reduction of Aulaujou, 55 .
VIII. When he was oppofed by the army of Jitteh, 6r.
IX. When he had defeated the army of Jitteh, and was endeavouring to eftablifh his regal power, 65 .
\(X\). When he departed to fubdue the countries of Buddukhfhaun, \(6 \%\).
XI. When Buddukhfhaun had fubmitmitted to him, and he was meditating the conqueft of Khuttulaun, 6 g .
XII. When fome of his chiefs were diffatisfied, and he was endeavouring to reconcile them, 73 .
XIII. When he was oppofed by Ouleaus' Khaujeh at the bridge of Sungheen, 77.
Defigns, Timour's, for fubduing Hurraut, 1 II. for conquering the countries of Seiftaun, Kundahaur, and the land of the Oughauns, II 3 . for vanquifhing Auroos Khaun, I15. for fub.duing Kilaun, Jurjaun, Mauzinduraun, Azzurbauejaun, Shurwaun, Fauris and Erauk, II7. for reducing Touktummifh Khaun, 121. for conquering Bughdaud and Erauk a ArIi i rub,

\section*{xxvi}
rub, 125. for extirpating Touktummifh Khaun, 127 . for reducing the empire of Hindoftaun, 129. for clearing the road to Hindoftaun of the Oughauns, \({ }^{2} 35\). for vanquifhing Sooltaun Muhmood, the ruler of Dehli, and Mulloo Khaun, 137 . for reducing the country of Goorjiftaun, 141. for conquering Miflur and Shaum, 145. for fubduing the cities of Room, and defeating the armies of Keefur, 149.
Drum, one, allowed to the Euzbaufhee and Ounbaufhee Ameers, as a military diftinction, 291.
Dufht, a large plain, or champain country.
Duvvauleh Chouk, one horfe-man to be brought from each by the Ameer of every Auloos, 309 and N.

\section*{E.}

Empire, without religion, likened to a naked man, 175. and to a houfe without a roof, gates, or defences, ibid. the offices in an earthly one, fymbols of thofe in the heavenly, 201. it's concerns neceflary to be divided amongft many, left too much being entrufted to one, he become too powerful, 225. will decay, unlefs eftablihhed in morality and religion, 175. it's chief fupport deliberation, counfel, and provident meafures, 7. phyficians, furgeons, and geometricians effential to it's dignity, 213.

Eookee (Mogul) fuppofed to fignify a watch-word, 299.
Erzbeghee, a prefenter of petitions, 305 , N.

Eufoof, Fofeph, chap. of, \(m\). 19. the \(^{\text {. }}\) Koraun opened by Timour at that place, on his feeking an omen, ibid.
Euzbaufhee, commander of a bundred, 229. the manner of his appointment, ibid. has power to appoint an Ounbaufhee, 23 I . may be appointed by a Mingbaufhee, ibid. his fubfiftence double that of the Ounbaufhee, \(233^{\circ}\) receives his fubfiftence under the infpection of the Mingbaufhee, ibid. his duty not to be impofed on the Mingbaurhee, 273. to be appointed Mingbaufhee on his fignalizing himfelf, 275. the command of a province to be given him on his conquering an enemy, 289. his accoutrements of war, 295. his drefs of ceremony in times of peace, 297 . his place in the Deewaun on the left fide of the throne, 329.3 m. 397.

\section*{OF T H E}

\section*{F.}

Friend, ufeful in all places, 103. a firm, is the enemy of his friend's enemy, and fears not to hazard his life, when neceflary, 325 . a foolifh, is worfe than a wife enemy, 327 . a true, is not offended at the conduct of his friend, ibid, and 325 .
Furrauthaun, people employed to ereciz tents, 235. fubfiftence of, fixed at from 100 to 1000, ibid.
Furfung, a league of about fox thoufand yards, \(9, \mathrm{~N}\).

\section*{G.}

General (or Commander), of Timour's IV. Clafs, 207. his place in the Deewam on the right fide of the throne, 329. admitted to Timour's private councils, 207. queftions concerning the art of war & cc. propofed to him by Timour, 209. to be deprived of his command, if found infufficient, 375. his duty, to reconnoitre the enemy, and compare his chiefs with thofe of the foe, and carefully to examine the enemy's weapons and mode of attack, 377 . not to begin the engagement, till firft attacked by the enemy, ibid. to govern the movements of his forces, and to be cool, firm, and collected within himfelf, 379 . to confider himfelf and his army as a wrefter, who fighteth with every part of his body, ibid. the manner in which he ought to attack the enemy, ibid. and 38 I . he muft not be rafh and precipitate, nor expofe himfelf unneceflarily to danger, 38 I . his death bringeth difgrace upon the army, idid. A good one numbereth the chiefs of the forces of the enemy, and appointeth proper chiefs in oppofition to them, 387 . pre-examineth the field of battle and order of the enemy, ibid. underftandeth the fcience and difcipline of war, and what meafures to purfue in attacking the enemy, ib. comprehendeth their intentions, and counteracteth their motions and defigns, ibid. and 269.-of 40,000 horfe directions for, 387,389 . his duty to watch continually the motions of the foe, and to chaftize thofe officers, who, without orders, advance on the enemy, 39I. not to purfue an enemy, who, without caufe, fleeth from the field, ibid. Directions for his attacking the enemy, 391, 393. a treacherous, to be put to death, 32 . .

\section*{PRINCIPAL}
Geometricians, of Timour's VIII, Clafs, 2I 3. efteemed by him as effential to the dignity of Empire, ibid. affifted him in planning and conftructing magnificent buildings, \(i b\). Governors, thofe not fit to govern, whofe authority is inferior to the power of the fcourge, 24 I . their duty to levy fines on the guilty proportionate to their mifdemeanours, 349.

Guards ftationed at the entrance of soads, to defend the merchants and travellers, 347,369 : accountable for the value of every thing loft therein, \(i b\).

\section*{H.}

Hermits, (or Monks) fuppored to be the holy, pious men of Timosur's X.

Clafs, \(215, \mathrm{~N}\). knowledge of a future ftate acquired from them, ibid. delight and fatisfaction reaped from their converfation and working of miracles, ibid.
Hijrut, or Hijreh, the Mabummudan Era, commencing \(A, D, 622, m, 153\).
Hiftorians, of Timour's IX. Clafs, 213. treated with efteem and veneration by him, 165. his knowledge of hiftory and geography acquired from them, ibid.
Hoorrum Surrai, Seraglio, a lady of Timour's, receives the donation of 12 years of life from 12 Siuds, 207.
Horpital, Timour orders one for the fick to be built in every town and city, 371. a phyfician appointed to attend it, ibid.
Hunter \(\mathrm{Dr}_{\text {, h }}\) his MS. fragment of the Life of Timour written by bimfelf, refutes an affertion of Ibn Arabfhaah, \(25, \mathrm{~N}\).
Hurrauwul, the advanced Guard, 77. in an army of 12,000 confifts of one fquadron, 373. firft oppofed to the enemy, 39 r .
- Grand, the Grand V anguard, 389 . in an army of 40,000 confifts of fix fquadrons, 399. their order of entering into action, 401. fupported by the Chuppauwul, 403.
a Burraunghaur, the advanced guard of the rear line of the right wing, \(3^{89}\). confifts of one fquadron, ibid. and 399. when to enter into action, 393, 403 .
a Jurraunghaur, the advanced guard of the rear line of the right wing, 389 . confifts of one fquadron, ibid. and 399 . when to enter into action, 393, 403 .
a Chuppauwul, the advanced guard of the front line of the rigth wing, 389 . confifts of one fquadron, ibid. and 399. when to enter into action, 39 I .
a Shuckauwul, the advanced guard of the front line of the left wing, 38 - confifts of one fquadron, ibid. and 399. when to enter into action, 39 r.
a Hurrauwul, the advanced guard of the advanced guard, 399. confifts of one fquadron, ibid. begin the action, 401.
Hufband-man, The, not pofieffed of the implements of agriculture, to be furnifhed therewith, 219. fupplies to be granted to the diftreffed, that he may be enabled to cultivate his ruined lands, 369 . fuperintendants appointed to watch over him and the cultivated lands, 371.
Huft and Bood, fome regulation for collecting certain duties, 367 .
Huvvaui and Baudi, the third Vizzeer in every country to take poffeffion of their revenues, 371 . See Sauir.

\section*{1.}

Immaum, a prieft or prelate.
Immaumut, the office of Immaum. Aali appointed fucceffor to it, 185 .
Intelligence, concerning foreign princes and countries, tranfmitted to Timour by 1000 fwift camel-men, 1000 horfemen and 1000 foot-men whom he felected for that purpofe, ibid. alfo by travellers, whom he encouraged for the fame, 215 . and by merchants and chiefs of Kauruvvauns, 217.
writer of, an officer appointed by Timour in every place, to fend him a full account of all things tranfacted therein, 349, 35 I how punifhed for giving falre accounts, 351.

Inaum, religion of, the fame as the Ma-bummudan, m. \(175,177,179,183,189\), 193, 197. See Religion.

\section*{J.}

Jaugheer, a royal grant of certain lands; or more properly, an afsignment of the crown-revenues of a certain difrici to any one, and revocable at the pleafure of the prince, 239, N.

\section*{O F T H E}
Jaugheerdaur, the bolder of a faugbeer, \(239, \mathrm{~N}\). his conduct infpected by two fupervifors, ibid. the fate of his province to be infpected after three years, ibid. to be deprived of it, and his fubfiftence, for 3 years, if the inhabitants are diffatisfied, 24I. Jaumeh, an upper coat, a part of the drefs of ceremony of the Ameers, 8rc. 297.

Judge, one, appointed in every city and town, 177.
_one, eftablifhed for the army, I77.
\(\longrightarrow\) one, for the fubjects, \(i\) ibid. one, in equity, appointed by Timour, to tranfmit to him all matters of litigation, 179 .
ecclefiaftical, (and the Suddur) ordered to lay before Timour, from time to time, all the ecclefiaftical affairs of the empire, 179. and to decide on cafes determinable by the facred law, 253.
- civil, his office to lay before Timour thofe cafes which were not determinable by the facred law, ibid. Judges, their place in the Deewaun on the right fide of the throne, 329 .
Jurraunghaur, the rear line of the lefe wing, 389 . confifts of 3 fquadrons in an army of 12,000 , ibid. of fix fquadrons in an army of 40,000 , p. 399. when to enter into action, 393,403 . referves of, thofe related to the imperial family, 405 . who when the commander of the Jurraunghaur fails in his duty, muft advance to the affault, \(i\) ibid.
Jurreeb, a certain land-meafure. Reftricted lands, divided into firf, fecond and third Jurreebs, when the fubject was diffatisfied with the mode of collection, 365 .
the eftimation of the produce of the firf, fecond, and third, ibid. lands depending on rain, divided into, ibid.

\section*{PRINCIPAL}

Juffauwullaun, probably fome particular order of foldiers, \(m .235\). fubfiftence of, eftablifhed at from 1000 to 10,000 , ibid. were payed yearly together with the infantry &c, in the hall of audience, 237.

\section*{K.}

Kauruvvauns, \(m, 95,97,153\). their departure and arrival, regiftered by Timour's writers of intelligence, 351 .

Chiefs of, appointed by Timour to travel into different countries, to bring back merchandize, and to inform him of the fituation, manners, and cuftoms of the inhabitants, 215, 217 .
Kauruvvaunfurai, buildings for the reception of travellers, ordered to be built in every road at the diftance of a ftage from each other, and people appointed to refide there, 369 .
Keefur, title of the Turkifh emperors, 131.

Khaun, a prince or emperor, 283.
Khaukaun, title of the King of Toorkiftawn, 13 I .
Khauneh, a houfe, 309.
Khillaufut, the office of Khalif, \(m, 187\). Khirgauh, a Tartar tent or hut, 309 .
Khulleefeh, a fuccefor of Mahummud, m. 257. the Fourth Khulleefeh, a queftion propofed to him, 17. his anfwer, ibid. N.B. This Fourth is Aali, who is elfewhere filed fir \(\rho\) fucceflor of Mahummud. His being called both fir \(\hat{A}\) and fourth, is occafoned by the different Sects of Mahummudans, fome bolding that Aali was the frr \(\rho_{\text {, others }}\) that Aboo Bukkur, Omur, and Of maun preceded him. Timour was of this latier fect, who are called Sunnites.
Khutbeh, a difcourfe read by the Mullas on fridays in the Mofques, in which the prince then reigning is prayed for. Aljauitoo Sooltaun orders the names of the fucceffors of Mahummud to be recited therein, 195.

King, A, ought not fpeedily to degrade the fervant whom he hath exalted, nor to neglect thofe whom he knoweth or remembreth, 317. but if he chance unjuftly to difgrace a faithful fervant, he ought to confer double honour upon him, ibid. his duty to extirpate the authors of tyranny and oppreffion from every kingdom, 33 1 , 333. ought to eftablifh the true faith, by invading thofe countries wherein it is neglected, ibid. his duty to invade a kingdom divided by factions, and herefies, 335 . -twelve Maxims necefliary for every one to adhere to, 22I. See Maxims. Kings, nothing more worthy their valour than conquering kingdoms and empires, and waging holy war with infidels, 141. Timour obtained the Thrones of twenty feven, 163 .
Koollauh, a cap, part of the drefs of ceremony, 297.
Koornifh, not to be given to the foldiers who turn their backs in battle, 277.

Kootwaul, one appointed in each quarter of Timour's camp, 301. his office, ibid.
Koraun, Timour feeks an omen in it concerning his fubmitting to Tughulluk Timour Khaun, 19. concerning his attacking the army of the Jetes, 75. concerning his taking the abfolute command. 89. concerning his invading Hindoftaun, 133 , m.IOI.
Kotul, a perfon appointed to fucceed on the death or difmiffion of an officer, 75.

Koul, the main body, 389 . when to enter into action, 393, 403. order of the troops near it, 397, 399.
- of Yeldurrum Bauezzeed, attacked by Aboo Bukkur, 407.
of Timour, penetrated to by Shaah Munfoor, ibid.
Kulkchee, twelve thoufand men of the fword, cantoned in and about the palace, 299.

\section*{XXX}

\section*{INDEX}

Kulluckcheaun, probably fome particular order of folatiers, m. 235. fubfiftence of, eftablifined at from 1000 to 10,000 , ibid. payed yearly, together with the infantry, &cc. in the hall of audience, 237.

Kullung, a military mark of diftinction, 291.

Kummur, a belt or girdle, 291.
Kuraumuteh, a feit founded by Kuramut in the third century of the Hij. They feize the city of Mecca under Aboo Tauhir, I85.
Kurrauwul, plur. Kurrauwulaun, light troops, or foouts, 65,401 . negligence of, occafions Timour's being furprized by Ouleaus Khaujeh, 65. bring intelligence to him of the army of Ameer Hooffein, 103. are ftationed on each fide of the Hurrauwul a Hurrauwul, 401.

Beghs, commanders of the Kurrawulaun, ibid.
Kufhoon, a body of military men fomething lefs than the Toumaun, 29, N. Plur. Kufhoons, and Kufhoonaut, m. 85,323 .

\section*{M.}

Maulaumauni, impofs, or duties, 237, and N .
Maxims XII; neceffary for every prince to adhere to, 22I.
I. To make it evident to all his fubjects, that his words and actions are his own, and that none elfe hath influence therein, ibid. to hear the counfel of all, but not to be fo far guided thereby, as to make them his equals in the concerns of government, ibid.
II. To adhere feadfaftly to juftice in all his actions, and to employ virtuous and juft minifters, ibid.
III. To act with fuch refolution and firmnefs in his commands, that none may prefume to violate them, 223 .
IV. To perfift invariably in his determinations, till they are brought to a sonclufion, ibid.

OF THE
V. To enforce obedience to his commands, whatever be the refult, \(i\) ibid.
VI. Not to truft the concerns of government, or his authority, to any one, 225 .
VII. To attend to the opinions of his fervants, and to felect what is good therefrom, \(22 \%\).
VIII. To be cautious and circumfpect in forming his determinations; not fuffering himfelf to be influenced by the information of his officers cencerning any one, until the truth be proved, ibid.
IX. To fo imprefs the majefty of his dominion on the hearts of his fubjects, that none may prefume to difobey his commands, ibid.
X. To adhere to that which he fayeth; his word being the moit valuable of all things, ibid.
XI. To confider himfelf as fingle and fole governor; not allowing any one to become his affociate, 229 .
XII. To make himfelf acquainted with the manners and difpofitions of his courtiers and favourites, and to be very cautious in whom he repofeth confidence, ibid.
Maxims IV. fteadfaftly adhered to by Timour in his reduction of kingdoms, 335 .
I. To enter upon every enterprize with deep deliberation, and mature counfel, ibid.
II. To ufe policy and circumfpection in executing his defigns, 337. to inform himfelf of the difpofitions and genius of the natives of every country; and to accommodate himfelf to their prejudices in the appointment of their governors, ibid.
III. To gain the affections and attachment of a felect part of his Nobility, ibid. See Ameers.
IV. Always to act with expedition, except when delay was policy; and with feverity or lenity, as occafion required. Never to commit to the fword what might otherwife be effected.

\section*{PRINCIPAL}
fected. To fpend the day in examining the difficulties of conqueft with wife and experienced men, and the night in deliberating, and forming the plan for the execution of his refolutions, 339 .
Mendicants, fubfiftence allowed them by Timour, 349,361 . to be fold, or expelled his dominions, if, after receiving this fubfiftence, they continued to afk alms, 36 I .
Meer Toozzuk, regulators, mafters of the ceremonies, 331, and N.
Mingbauhhee, leader of a thoufand, the manner of his appointment, 231. appoints the Euzbaufhee, ib. his fubfiftence three times as much as that of the Euzbaufhee, 233. receives his pay under the infpection of the Ameer ul Omrau, ibid. the interior diftricts allotted for his fubfiftence, 237. to be appointed Ameer on his fignalizing himfelf, 275 . to be appointed lord of a principality on his defeating the forces of his antagonift, 289. his accoutrements of war, 295. his drefs of ceremony, 297. his place in the Deewaun, on the left fide of the throne, 329. m. 273, 397.
Minifter. See Vizzeer.
Mifkaul, an arabic drachm, the \(12^{\text {th }}\). part of an ounce, m. 365 .
Mogul words, diftinguifhed from the Perfian by an afterik in this edition, 3 , N.
Monaftery, one, ordered by Timour to be built in every city, 179.
Mofque, one, ordered to be built in every town by Timour, 371.
Mozeh, boots, part of the drefs of ceremony of the Ameers, 29I, Musjid (or Mofque) the imperial, the theologians affembled there by Aljauitoo Sooltaun, 189. m. 193.

\section*{N.}

Niccaureh, a kind of kettlsodirum, 283, and N .

Nooyaun, a prince or defandant of a prince, \(23, \mathrm{~N}\).
Nouniaun, of the fame fignification as the preceeding, 329.
Nuffeer, a fort of trumpet, a military diftinction allowed to the Mingbaufhee Ameer, 29 I.
O.

Omens, fought for by Timour previous to all his undertakings, 19. one, drawn from the Koraun, concerning his fubmiffion to Tughulluk Timour Khaun, ibid. concerning his attacking the Jetes, 75. concerning his taking the abfolute fovereignty, 89. concerning his expedition againft Hindoftaun, 183.
Ounbaufhee, commander of ten, 229. the manner of his appointment \(i 6\). upon the death of a foldier has power to appoint another in his place, 231. may be appointed by the Euzbaufhee, ibid. his fubfiftence ten times as much as that of the common foldier, 233. receives it under the infpection of the Euzbaufhee, ibid. his duty not to be impofed on the Euzbaufhee, 273. to be appointed Euzbaufhee on his fignalizing himfelf, 275. the government of a city to be conferred upon him on his vanquifhing an enemy, 289. his accoutrements of war, 295. his drefs of ceremony, in time of peace, 297. his place in the Deewaun on the left fide of the throne, 329. m. 397.

Ouyemauk, a Tartar hord, or tribe, 309 , &x.
P.

Pailhkbiauneh, the tent, or fet of tents, of a prince; which on a march are Jent forward, and erefted againf his arrival at every fage, \(385, \mathrm{~N}\).
Peer, a kind of ghotly fatber, \(5, \mathrm{~N}\). Timour's Peer, his name and character, ibid. his letters to Timour; concerning concerning government, 5 . concerning his feeking protection from Tughulluk Timour Khaun, 17. concerning his being appointed by the theologians Supporter of the Mahummudan faith, 197. concerning the proper adminiftration of empire, 201. concerning the profperity of wicked men and tyrants; their certain deftruction ; and why the juft fometimes fuffer calamities, 341 , 343. concerning Mullik Gheaus u deen, II3: concerning Timour's invafion of Erauk, 125.
Philofophers, treated with efteem and veneration by Timour, 165.
Phyficians, of Timour's VIII. Clafs, 213. effential to the dignity of empire, ibid. falaries appointed by Timour for thofe who attended the hofpitals, 371 .
Plan, Timour rejected every one in which the hazard was two-fold, and chofe that where the peril was fingle, 11. always acted on one which was uniform and good, ibid.
Poor, accommodated by Timour agreeably to their fituations, 219. almshoufes ordered to be built for them in every town and city, 369 .

\section*{R.}

Rebellion, punifhed, in Timour's fons, by imprifonment, 233. in his relations, by confifcation of their eftates, ibid. in others, fometimes by death; but not haftily inflicted, 245
Region, or Climate, the fifth and fixth conquered by Timour, 129. m. I3r.
Regulation, Timour's, concerning the divifion of his people into Claffes, 205. concerning thofe tribes which fubmitted to him, 217 . for the forming his army, 229. the payment of his forces, 23I. the diffribution of provinces and diftricts, 237 . the maintenance of his children and defcendants, 241. the punifhments of his children, grand-children, relations, chiefs and minifters, 243, 245 . the payment of his minitters and fuperior officers, 253,269 . the promoting and rewarding his foldiers, 275. the conferring honours and rewards on his Ameers, foldiers, and fubjects, 283 . concerning the arms and neceffaries of foldiers, 293. the honours of the Niccaureh and Standard, 291. concerning the impefial guards, with rules to be obferved in the Prefence, in times of war and peace, 297. the departments of Vizzeers, 301. the governments of the Ameers of Auloofaut, Kufhoonaut, and Toumaunaut, 307. the behaviour of fervants towards their prince, and of the prince towards his fervants, 313. concerning his own conduct towards friends and enemies, 323: precedency and admiffion to the imperial prefence, 327 . the reduction of kingdoms, 33 r . the obtaining of intelligence and information of the ftate of all his dominions and fubjects, 349 . the conduct to be obferved towards the people of every country, 355. the flhrines of faints and fathers, and concerning gifts and pious donations, ibid. taxes, the cultivation, population, and police of the empire, 361. war, 373. the arrangement of Timour's fuperior armies, 385 . twelve military regulations mentioned, ibid.
Religion, adherence to, and encouragement of, the chief fupport of empire, 159. the bafis of all grandeur and power in an empire, 175. Mahummudan, the eftablifhed religion of Timour's empire, ibid. its promulgation and fupport, Timour's firft regulation, 177. Timour proclaimed its Reftorer and Supporter by the theologians, and declared to be fo appointed by God, 183. a propagator of, fent in every century by the Almighty, ibid. the foundation of Timour's power kept firm by it, 197.

\section*{PRINCIPAL} teachers of, appointed by Timour in every city, 179. and falaries granted them, 357.
Robbers, wherever found, or by whomfoever detected, to be put to death, 251.

Rujjub, the 7th month of the Mabummudan year, \(153^{\circ}\)
Rules, Twelve, eftablifhed by Timour for the fupport of his glory and empire, 159.
I. To promote the worfhip of God, and to propagate the Mahummudan faith throughout the world, ibid.
II. To confider his people as divided into XII. different clafles, and to affign them fuitable ftations, ibid.
III. To ufe counfel, deliberation, and provident meafures; and to comply with times and occafions, 16I.
IV. To regulate the concerns of his empire by order and difcipline, ibid.
V. To reward liberally his officers and foldiers, ibid.
VI. To gain by juftice and equity the affections of his people, ibid.
VII. To treat with profound refpect men of learning and religion, 165.
VIII. To make one bufinefs the fole object of his attention, till accomplifhed; and to regulate his conduct by the good example and inftitutions of former princes, \(16 \%\).
IX. To make himfelf perfectly acquainted with the circumftances and fituations of all his fubjects, and to appoint over them governors adapted to their manners and wifhes, 169.
X. To reccive all who fubmitted to him with diftinction and refpect, and to honour them according to their different degrees, ftations, and merits, 171.
XI. To treat with diftinguifhed favour his relations, and thofe whom he had known in the days of his adverfity, 173.
XII. To hold in high efteem his foldiers; and to honour thofe of the enemy who had behaved with bravery

MATTERS.
xxxiiii
and fidelity to their prince, ibid.

\section*{S.}

Sauhebaun, a fort of upper roof for the tent &cc. 295 and N, 297.
Sauir and Huvvauee, the Vizzeer of \(f_{s}\) his office, 297.
Sawurghaul, pl. Sawurghaulaut, a grant froms the crown of lands or revenues to be enjoyed for ever by the poffeffor and his beirs, 305 , and N.
School, one, ordered by Timour to be built in every city, 369 .
Secretary, confidential, appointed by Timour to minute down all fecret tranfactions and deliberations, 30\%.
Shuckauwul, the front line of the right wing, 389 . confirts of 3 fquadrons in an army of 12,000 , ibid. of ' 6 in an army of 40,000, p. 399. when to enter into action, 393,403 .
Siuds, defcendants of Mabummud, of Timour's III. Clafs, 205. feventy, maflacred by the Ouzbuks, 27. prayers of, implored by Timour, 205. their bleffings, fupplicated by him on his actions, ibid. the greatef advantage reaped from their mediation, 207. victories obtained through their prayers, ibid. an inftance thereof, ibid. twelve holy, reftore one of Timour's wives to health for 12 years, each giving her a year of his own exiftence, ibid.
Slander, many people lovers of it, 229. Soldiers, equally regarded as the fubjects by Timour, 209. kept in readinefs, and their wages advanced to them before they were due, \(i b i d\), confined to their refpective ftations, ibid. thofe rewarded who fignalized themfelves, \(i 0^{\text {a }}\). thofe of the enemy, incorporated with Timour's troops on their fubmiffion, 217 . defcendants of, enrolled amongf the imperial forces, and promoted according to their conduct, 219 . ten diftinguifhed, appoint the Ounbaufhee, 229. fubfif-

Kkk tence

\section*{xxxiv}

INDEX
tence of, fixed at the value of their horles, 233 . fubfiftence of the foot, fixed at from 100 to 1000 , ibid. a written order for their fubfiftence to be delivered to each, 235 . the foot, paid yearly, and the horie, halfyearly, ibid. on their being guilty of oppreffion, to be delivered into the hands of the oppreffed, 25I. to be promoted to the rank of OunbauThee, on their firf fignalizing themfelves, 275. their firmnefs and fpirit to be confidered, ibid. Koornifh not to be given to thofe who turn their backs in battle, 277. thofe to be pardoned, who flee from abfolute neceffity, or who are ftruck with a panic, ibid. their wounds to be confidered as proofs of their valour, and they to be rewarded accordingly, ibid. - their rights not to be invaded, ibid. not to be deprived of their rank and pay, when advanced in years, ibid. the aged warriors to be treated with honour, their counfel to be regarded, and themfelves to be confidered as the ornaments of the empire, 279. their fons to fucceed to their dignity and ftation, ibid. thofe taken in battle, not put to death by Timour, ibid. received into his fervice, if they confented; if not, were fet at liberty, ibid. thofe treated by Timour with honour and confidence, who after behaving faithfully to their Prince, left him through neceffity, ibid. and 317 . their habiliments of war, 293, 295, 297. character of the good and faithful, 313 , 315, 317, 319. any one quitting his mafter in time of peace, may be received by another, 319. the glory of him who defeateth his enemy, to be exhibited in a toa-fold light, and himfelf to be promoted for the encouragement of others, 321. he to be prefented as a gift to the foe, who oppofeth his mafcer's intereft, and leagueth with the

\section*{0 F THE} enemy, ibid. his duty to bear lightly the fhock of the enemy's attack, and to ftand firm and patient, \(377^{\circ}\) to be rewarded with a Kullung, or embroidered Autaukeh, with a horfe, fword, and belt, on his diftinguifhing himfelf, 291. the infinuations of the envious not to be heard againft a valiant one, 32 . one of tried magnanimity more valuable than a thoufand who want difcretion, 7 . thofe prohibited Timour's fervice, who had been faithlefs to his enemies, 319. to be received with honour, on their fpontaneous return to their mafter after defertion, 317 .
Subordination, neglect of, caufeth corruption and violence, 203.
Suddur, or Sedr, his authority, 177 , N. appointed by Timour to watch over the conduct of others, to regulate the manners of the times, to appoint fuperiors in holy offices, and to ordain penfions &c, ibid. ordered to lay before Timour all ecclefiaftical affairs, 179,305 .
Sunna, the traditions of Mahummud, which by the orthodox Moflems are confidered as a fupplement to the Koraun, and of equal authority, 185 .
Supervifors, two appointed by Timour to every province on which a royal affignment was granted, 239. their office, ibid.
one appointed by the Suddur to infpect the weights and meafures, 177.

Surgeons, of Timour's VII. Clafs, 213. effential to the dignity of empire, \(i b i d\).
Surmozeh, a fort of leathern clog covering the foot of the boot, a part of the drefs of ceremony of the Ameers &c. 297. Sword, one tenth of the requifites for conducting the affairs of dominion, 7. far inferior to policy, ibid. nothing to be committed to it, which can otherwife be effected, 339 .

\section*{PRINCIPAL MATTERS.}
T.

Taxes, the poll and houfe, not to be levied on any town, 349. old ones, to be continued, if agreeable to the fubjects of any reduced kingdom, 363. to be determined according to the fertility and quantity of cultivated lands, ibid. equal to \(\frac{1}{3}\) of the produce, if the lands were watered by perpetual fprings, ibid. value always fixed according to the value of the neceffaries of life, ibid. equal to half the produce of the land, divided into Jurreebs, 365 . equal to \(\frac{2}{3}\) or \(\frac{x}{4}\) of the lands depending on rain, ibid. not to be collected before the gathering in of the grain, \(36 \%\) may be collected by threats, but not by actual punifhment, 24I. a gatherer of, not to be appointed, if the fubject pay fpontaneoufly, 367 .
- on herbs &c. determined according to the ancient practice, 367. to be fettled according to the Huft and Bood, when the fubjects are diffatisfied, ibid. collected at three different times after harveft, ibid. not fettled till three years after the firft cultivation of wafte lands, and then determined according to the Regulations, ibid.
Theologians, of Timour's I. Clafs, 205. their place in the Deewaun on the right fide of the throne, 329 . treated by Timour with efteem and veneration, 165. accefs to him granted them at all times, ibid. queftions propofed to them by him concerning things lawful and forbidden, 205. thofe of the enemy received with reverence, on their fubmiffion, 217 , 357. penfions, falaries, and fubfiftence allowed them by Timour, 235, 357. they decree Timour to be the Reftorer and Promoter of the Mahummudan faith, 18 I . felections from the works of former ones, 183,185 , \(187,189,191,193,195\). Were affembled by Aljauitoo Sooltaun, \(189^{\circ}\) decreed that prayers were due to the defcendants of Mahummud, ibid. their decree concerning Aljauitoo Sooltaun, 195. concerning Timour, ibid.
Toghe, one, to be allowed to the Mingbaufhee Ameer, 29I. See Cher Toghe.
Toork or Taucheek, explained in N , 217. m. 171, 323 .

Toorki language (or Mogul) Timous writes in it to Ameer Hooflein, 103. Toumaun, a military fief capable of fending forth 10,000 fighting men; it alfo fignifies that number of men collecied together, \(23, \mathrm{~N}\).
Travellers, of Timour's XII. Clafs, 215. ftructures built for them in every road, 179: encouraged by Timour to bring intelligence concerning foreign nations, 215 .
Tumghau, Soldier's pay, \(309, \mathrm{~N}\).
Tyrant, his profperity not to be afcribed to his merit, 34I the caufes of the long duration of his power, ibid. dominion rather continued to an infidel than to him, ibid. the caufe of his increafing profperity, 343.
U.

Univerfe, The, preferved from confufion by the deity's being abfolute alone, 8 g .

\section*{V.}

Victory obtained by the divine favour, not by greatnefs of armies, 7. Timour's afcribed by him to the aid of the Almighty, 7, 35, 39, 127. obtained by the prayers of devout and pizus men, 207. foretold to Timour by a voice from heaven, 7.9. hidden by the curtain of fate, 145 .
Vizzeers, of Timours VII. Clafs, 211. the moft refpectable and confidential of the fervants of royalty, 245 . their Kkk 2 place

\section*{sxxvi} INDEX place in the Deewaun oppofite the throne, 329 . their fubfiftence ten times as much as that of the Ameers, 235. their office to lay before the emperor the affairs of his whole government, 211. to keep the treafury rich, ibid. to infpect the revenues and expences of government, ibid. not to be haftily punifhed, when accufed of treachery, 245. their punifhment, when guilty of peculation, 247,249 . are a clafs of men who have many enemies, 249 . are betrayed by thofe they patronize, and oppofed by thofe they neglect, ibid.

Four qualities neceffary for Vizzeers,
I. Firmnefs and generofity.
II. Underftanding and fagacity,
III. A capacity of conciliating mens affections.
IV. Patience under difficulties. Pre-eminence to be conferred on fuch minifters by confidence, efteem, difcretionary power, and authority, 253 , 257. - to be ftiled Lords of the fword and pen, upon their conquering or preferving a kingdom, 265. to be expelled from their office, if they fay evil of others, and endeavour to ruin the good and virtuous, 255. their office not to be conferred on the wicked and revengeful, ibid. nor on perfons of mean birth, 257.
Vizzeer, a bad, caufeth the deftruction of his mafter's power, \(223,259,267\). -_ a wife, he who ufeth mildnefs and feverity in moderation, 259.
_ a perfect, who never giveth way to revenge, ibid.
- an intelligent and fagacious, who acteth with circumfpection and policy, 261.
an experienced and active, who attendeth to the population and cultivation of the country, and hazardeth his fortune and life in the fervice of his mafter, ibid.
-a virtuous, whofe good qualities exceed his failings, 263 .

\section*{OF THE}
a fkilful and able, who hatls capacity to divide or unite the power of armies, and to fow divifions amongt the enemies of his mafter, 265. four appointed to attend the imperial Deewaun, fubordinate to the Deewaunbeghee, 301,307 .
-I. of the country and the fubject, his office, 303 .
_ II. of the armies, his office, ibid.
III. of the Sauir and Huvvaui, his office, ibid.
IIV. of the imperial houfe-hold, his office, 305 .
- Three, appointed over the frontiers, and the demefnes of the crown, ibid. fubordinate to the Deewaunbeghee, ibid.

Three, to be ftationed in every country, 37I. their offices, &c. ibid.

\section*{W.}

Wicked and feditious, expelled by Timour from his prefence, 201.
Word, nothing fo valuable to princes as having a juft veneration for it, 227. equal to a family of princes and a rich treafury, ibid. maketh numerous fubjects and powerful armies, ibid.
Y.

Yettool, a royal grant. See Jaugheer. Yole Bolifhun, a Mogul expreffion, ufed by Timour to Ouleaus Khaujeh, 83.

Yuflauwullaun, a fort of guards or meffengers, their fubfiftence eftablifhed at from 1000 , to 10,000, p. 235 . paid yearly, together with the infantry & \%c. in the hall of audience, 237.
chief of, ftationed at the door of the imperial pavilion, 329 :

The Names of the principal Perfons and Places mentioned in this Work, according to the different Orthography of Mr. Davy, and Monf. Petis de la Croix; accommodated to the Ufe of thofe who wifh to compare the different Accounts.

\section*{( xxxix)}

\[
\begin{gathered} \text { SPECIMENS } \\ \text { COMPOSITION } \\ \text { COMTHE } \end{gathered}
\]

PERSIAN LANGUAGE.

See the Preface.

\section*{(xLiI)}

The Exordium of JAUM I's Poem, entitled,

\section*{Eufoof and Zoolleikba.}

IN the name of him whofe name is the refuge of the Souls of the faithful;
Whofe praife is the ornament of eloquent tongues.
The moft high, the only God, the eternal, the omnifcient ; He who beftoweth ftrength and power on the feeble and the helplefs.
The heavens he illumines with multitudes of conftellations;
And with the human race he decorateth the earth, as with flars. He who prepared the vaulted roof of the revolving fphere,
Who raifed up the quadruple fold of the elements.
He who gives fragrance to the bofom of the rofe-bud,
And ornamenteth the parent-fhrub with wreaths of flowers.
He weaveth the garment for the brides of the fpring,
And teacheth the graceful cyprefs to erect his head on the border of the lake.
He crowneth with fuccefs the virtuous intention,
And humbleth the pride of the felf-conceited.
He accompanies the folitude of thofe who watch the midnight taper;
He paffeth the day with the children of aflicion. From the fea of his bounty iffues the vernal cloud, Which waters alike the thorn and the jeflamine.

From the repofitory of his beneficence proceeds the autumnal gale,
Which befpangles with gold the carpet of the garden.
It is his prefence that enflameth the orb of day,
From whence every atom derives its light.
Should he hide his countenance from the two great luminaries of the world,
Their migbty fpheres would defcend quick into the area of annihilation.
From the vault of heaven to the centre of the earth, Which ever way we direct our thought and imagination; Whether we defcend, or haften upwards,
We fhall not difcover one atom uninfluenced by his power.
Wifdom is confounded in the contemplation of his effence;
The inveftigation of his ways exceeds the powers of man.
The angels blufh at their want of comprehenfion;
And the heavens are aftonihed at their own motion.

A PRAYER directed by the Brahmins to be offered up to the Supreme Being; written originally in the Sbanforit Language, and tranflated by C. W. Boughton Rouse, Efq; from a Perfic Verfion of Dara Shekoo, a Son of Sbab Yehan, Emperor of Hindoftan.

ORUDER, I reverence thee in thy Majefty and in thy Difpleafure. I reverence thy Arrows, which convey deftruction; and thy bow, thy quiver, and thy arms, which are the givers of victory. Look toward me with that countenance of benignity, mild like the face of the moon, by which thou beftoweft joy, and doeft away all fins.
- O THOU, who art the Lord of mighty mountains, difpel the pains of all mankind; make them joyful and defend them from harm: and grant that I may remain fecure under thy guardianfhip and protection. Thou art the great Phyfician of Phyficians ! heal thou my infirmities; difperfe my vicious and malevolent inclinations, which lead me into the road of evil.

I reverence thee in the Sun, which is thy Image, whilit it featters a hundred thoufand vivifying rays over the univerfe; whilft in meridian brightnefs it diffufes gladnefs; nor lefs when at morn or eve its flaming countenance denotes thy anger. Turn away that anger from me. I reverence him who is the fource of joy to living creatures, whofe nature is exempt from decay, and knows not the increafe of age. - To Him and all that fprings from Him I owe reverence and honour.

O RUder, fring thy bow to defend me from all my open or fecret enemies. Shoot the arrows of thy quiver to deftroy them. When thou haft deftroyed my enemies and unftrung thy bow, and taken off the points of thy arrows, and art rejoiced; then grant that I likewife may rejoice. But thy bow is not like other bows, nor thy arrows like other arrows. Thou needeft not to ftring the bow, nor to fharpen the points of arrows. Thou needeft not the fword like other fwords, to accomplifh thy purpofes. O thou who canft fulfil defires, whofe defigns no enemy can baffle, guard and protect me on every fide, and drive my enemies far from me.

ORUDER, thy arm is like fhining gold. Thou art the Lord of all armies. All caufes of things have their origin in thee. Thou art the caufe of caufes. Thou art fpace. The verdure of the fields is thine. Thou art Lord of all the beafts, and the birds, and other living creatures. Thou art the Guide. Every light that fhines is thy light. Thou entereft into all: thou fuftaineft all.

O Punisher of thofé who go aftray, O Lord of life, O pureft of Beings ! terrify not thy creatures, frike them not, deftroy them not : nor let even one of them fuffer pain from thee. \(O\) thou, who giveff frength to the feeble, and medicines to the fick; grant me thy fupport, that I may enjoy health and live. ORUD.ER, turn my underfanding toward thee, for thou art the Lord of power. I befeech thee to keep all creatures which belong to me, whether man or beaft, in quiet and fecurity. Preferve all the inhabitants of this city. Afflict them not with ficknefs: do thou, RUDER, give them health, and drive difeafes far from them. We all come before thee in fupplication. Grant unto us all thofe bleffings, which our fathers afked of thee for us, when they were defirous of bringing us into exiftence. Old men, and young children, and infants yet unborn, all join in facrifice and prayer unto thee. O thou, who art ever young and mighty, thou fource of joy, be gracious toward me. O thou, who wantef nothing, who art worthy of adoration, I reverence thee. O thou, who employeft thy arms for my fecurity, who haft thoufands of thoufands of weapons; featter my enemies, and deftroy them : for thou, RUDER, art fupreme in every part of nature. Exert for my protection thy powers, which are over the earth, the air, and the heavens, and under the earth : which fhew themfelves in the plains, in the vegetation of the trees, in the various fpecies of living creatures, in the waters, and in food provided for the fupport of life. Thou, who deftroyeft all which eat the food and drink the waters; who art amidft the guardians of the highways and in the places of worfhip; in all thou art the infinite RUDER : in every one I implore thee to protect me, and to difarm my enemies. To thee, and all thy other various powers and attributes not here enumerated, I offer reverence. Ten times toward the Eaft, ten times toward the South, ten times toward the Weft, and ten times toward the North, I bow myfelf before thy earthly powers, and invoke their aid that I may enjoy health and fee the deftruction of my enemies. Ten times toward the Eaft, ten times toward the South, ten times toward the Weft, ten times toward the North, and ten times with my eyes on Heaven above, I bow myfolf before thy aerial and heavenly powers, whofe arrows are the wind and rain: I invoke their aid, that I may enjoy health, and fee the deftruction of my enemies. Every one of thefe is RUDER; whofe infinite power I reverence: RUDER, whofe fullnefs is in all. All that has been, it is He. All that is, it is He. All that fhall be, it is He.

The foregoing Prayer is extracted from the Judger Bede: to wobich it may be curious to Jubjoin a Defcription of RUDER, to wobom it is addrefled, as contained in another facred Book, intitled the Atherbun Bede.

THE Angels having affembled themfelves in Heaven before RUder, made obeifance and afked him, O Ruder, what art thou? RUDER replied, were there any other, I would defcribe myfelf by fimilitude. I always was, I always am, and always fhall be. There is no other, fo that I can fay to you, I am like Him. In this Me is the inward effence, and the exterior fubftance of all things. I am the primitive caufe of all. All things that exift in the Eaft, or Weft, or North, or South, above or below, it is I. I am all. I am older than all. I am King of Kings. My attributes are tranfcendent. I am truth. I am the firit of creation; I am the Creator. I am the knowledge of the four Bedes.* I am Almighty. I am purity. I am the firft, and the middle, and the end. I am the light. And for this purpofe do I exif, that whofoever knows Me, may know all the angels, and all books, and all their ordinances. And whofoever knows the learning of the Bedes, from thence he will learn the duties of life, he will underftand truth, and his actions will be virtuous. And to thofe who practife virtue, will I give fullnefs and tranquillity.

Ruder having pronounced thefe words to the Angels, was abforbed in his own brightnefs.

\footnotetext{
* The facred Writings of the Hindoos in the Shanfcrit language.
}
\(\tau H E\) foregoing Specimens I intended to bave introduced by an Eflay of fome extent on the great importance and utility of the Perfian Language, and by a Propofal for eftablifting a Perfian Profefforfhip in the Univerfity of Oxford. But baving fince met with a pampblet of much merit, written fome years ago by Governor Hastings, directed to the fame object, I bave thought it unnecelfary to profecute my defign.

Wbilft I was engaged in writing the intended Effay and Propofal, I received from \(M r\). Davy, in anfwer to my repeated enquiries, the following Letter: which places the importance of the Perfian Language for tranfacting the Company's affairs in India, in fo clear and juft a light; is founded througbout on fuch friking facts; and fupported and illuftrated with jo many judicious obfervations and remarks; that I conceived it to be bigbly worthy the attention of the Eaft India Company, and of the Gentlemen in their fervice. Imprefled with this idea, notwithfanding I afterwards relinquifbed my original defign, I determined, if poffible, to lay the Letter before the Public: but as it was communicated for my private ufe only, Mr. Davy's approbation was neceflary for the purpofe; wbich, at my particular folicitation, be bas been pleafed to grant.

\section*{\(\times \infty \times \times \times \times \times \times \infty \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \times \infty \times \times \times\)}

M m m

\section*{( 2 )}

\section*{}

Gloucefter, Sept. 24. 1779.

\section*{My GOOD FRIEND,}

IN compliance with your repeated applications, I have at length taken up my pen, with a determination to reply as fully as poffible to all your Enquiries.
"I CANNOT communicate any "important facts of times or places, when and where a want of knowledge of the Perfian in the fervants of the Company has been attended with particular difadvantage to their affairs in a political point of view:" one only, fupported by proof, occurs to my memory, of which I fhall fhortly take notice. Such facts, in their full extent at leaft, have not lately exifted; becaufe, for fome years paft, a a few gentlemen have been found tolerably well qualified to act as Perfian interpreters in the tranfaction of the Company's more important concerns with the native Powers. That fuch facts did formerly exif, is certain; and that the want of fuch knowledge now would be attended with ftill worfe effects is as certain. To prove which, I think, you will meet with little difficulty. The fame reafons which will eftablifh the authority of the fore-going obfervations, will moreover be fufficient to prove the pofitive neceflity of a ftill more extenfive and general knowledge of the Perfian, than has hitherto been acquired by the gentlemen in India.
"We are to confider, that the territories now under the dominion of the Eaft India Company, the provinces of Bengal and Babar, with part of Orifa, the coaft of Coromandel, and the fettlements on that of Malabar, are together twice as extenfive as Great Britain and Ireland. In a word, fuch is their extent, and fuch their importance, that it has been deemed neceffary to keep on foot an army of fifty thoufand difciplined men for their defence and protection: for that is the amount of the forces of the three eftablifhments, Bengal, Madrafs, and Bombay. Thefe rich and fertile territories, except where embraced by the ocean, are feparated and furrounded by native independent Princes and Powers, fome of them exceedingly formidable. It follows, that dominions fo extenfive and fo fituated, muft be fecured and protected as much by policy as by arms : a valt political fyftem muft be eftablifhed; an exact and perfect balance of power mult be preferved; the weak muft be fupported, the too powerful muft be circumfcribed and depreffed. For thefe purpofes Friendfhips, Alliances, and Treaties, muft be formed with fome in oppofition to others; and thefe Alliances, Treaties, and Friendfhips, muft again be diffolved, and give way to others, as the ftrength, influence, and refources of the different independent Princes of the Empire may be diminifhed or increafed. Hence the everlafting train of conferences, correfpondences, and negotiations, with the native Powers. Hence the neceffity of watching their motions, difcovering their hidden ftrength and refources, and diving into their fecret councils, connections, and alliances. Thefe are all bufineffes of the firft importance; they require the ftricteft integrity, and the moft profound fecrecy in the negotiators: and finally, thefe bufineffes are all to be tranfacted in, and by the affiftance of, the Perfian tongue.
"Mr. Orme, a very accurate and able hiftorian, whofe long refidence in India enabled him to acquire a perfect knowledge Mmm \({ }^{2}\) of the fubject, gives a very ftriking inftance of the fatal confequences that may enfue from employing native interpreters in our tranfactions with the princes of Hindortan ; and judicioufly points out the pofitive neceflity of entrufting the execution of fuch important concerns to European gentlemen only *. Nothing indeed can be more abfurd or dangerous, than for the government in India to rely on the honour and integrity of natives for the tranfaction of fuch weighty, political matters, as I have pointed out; and more efpecially to confide in that inferior clafs of them, who are content to bear the yoke of fervitude under a foreign power from neceffity, or pecuniary motives. Such are all the native fervants to Europeans. But that natives of a fuperior rank are not altogether proof againft the influence of gold, I have met with feveral inftances. A very ftrong evidence of the above affertion I have now in my poffefion; namely, exact copies of all the Letters wrote by the reigning Mogul, Sbaab Aulum, in the years \(71,72,73\), to the feveral independent Princes of the Empire. Thefe copies were regularly tranfmitted by one of the King's confidential fecretaries, and often came into my pofleffion, before the perfons to whom they were fent could receive the originals. By this means the councils, negotiations, and intrigues of the court of Dehli, and of others, the native Powers and Princes of Hindoftan, were entirely laid open to our infpection. This happened during the period that I had the honour to fill the poft of Perfian Secretary to Sir Robert Barker, the then commander in chief of the forces of Bengal. The above, I think, is a ftrong and pointed proof : and it follows, that European gentlemen only can, in prudence and in policy, be entrufted with this important bufinefs; and that a partial knowledge of the Perfian Language is by no means fufficient to qualify even them to be trufted. To be able fimply to converfe in the Perfian, is a very inade-

\footnotetext{
* Vide Hift. of the Military Tranfactions of the Britifh Nation in Hindoftan. Vol. I. p. 350 , &c.
}
quate degree of knowledge. A Perfian interpreter fhould not only be able to fpeak fluently in the Language, but to read all fuch Letters as he may receive; not only to read all fuch Letters, but to anfwer them with bis own hand, if the importance of the fubject, of which they treat, fhould render it neceffary. Otherwife the fecret negotiations and correfpondence of government are liable to be made public through the medium of the native Muncbees, or Writers, whom he will be obliged to employ and truft. Some natives he muft have, to affift in the ordinary bufinefs, from its great multiplicity; but even this, by a proper encouragement of the fudy of the Language, might be obviated. Junior fervants, when qualified, might be appointed to act under their Seniors, and the natives be totally excluded. And fuch a Plan, I am convinced, would be productive of much advantage.
"From the foregoing hints, I dare fay, you will be able to prove, that the ftudy of the Perfian, in a political point of view, is highly worthy of encouragement.
"The general ftudy of this valuable Language, abftracted from all political views, is a matter of very great importance to the Eaft India Company. How it is poffible that their civil fervants fhould be able to do their duty effectually in the various pofts and offices to which they are appointed, without any knowledge of it, is difficult to conceive. That by far the greater number of them do perform the bufineffes allotted to them without a knowledge of any of the country Languages, is certain; but that the manner in which they perform them muft be exceedingly defective, every one will be convinced, by reflecting on the nature of the offices which they fill. Servants of all ranks* are detached from the prefidency, and fpread

\footnotetext{
* By thefe are meant Writers, Factors, junior and fenior Merchants, and in the more important departments, often members of the Council: but thefe laft are generally affifted by European Interpreters.
}
abroad throughout the provinces and diftricts of the Company's territories, for the purpofes of fuperintending the cultivation and regulation of the countries, the adminiftration of juftice in the Kucheries, or native courts of Judicature, and the collection of the Revenues *. Many alfo are appointed to the different Factories, to fuperintend the fabrication and making up of the Inveftments for the European market.
"Having given this detail of the employments, to which the fenior and junior civil fervants of the Company are in rotation appointed, I think it will be needlefs to dwell on the great utility, and indeed abfolute neceffity of a knowledge of lome language or other, underfood in the country, to gentlemen fo employed + ; or to fhew how much more effectually they would be able, with fuch knowledge, to do their duty, than they can now through the medium of their Surcors, or native Clerks \(\ddagger\), to whom, from an ignorance of the language, they are obliged, in a great meafure, to delegate their authority, to pay an implicit attention to their advice and opinions, and, what is ftill worfe, from the above deficiency, to receive through them every complaint and grievance of the fubject; though the complaints are frequently levelled againft thofe very Agents,

\footnotetext{
* It may be neceffary to obferve, that this arrangement took place but a very few years ago; and therefore the importance of the Perfian in the point of view now under confideration, is to be dated from that period only.
\(f\) It is true, that in Bengal, but in Bengal only, an acquaintance with the dialect of that province, might be made to anfwer the purpofes of gentlemen employed as above-mentioned: but as that dialect would be of very little ufe to them, even in the neighbouring province of Bahar, much lefs in any other part of Hindoitan; as the Perfian, on the contrary, is the polite language throughout the Empire; and as it is impoffible to acquire a knowledge of that, without forming, at the fame time, a familiar acquaintance with the Moors, from the intimate connection between them; and as the Moors is the vulgar tongue of all the Mahummudan natives, and is as well known to the generality of the Aborigines or Hindoos, as to the Mahummudans themfelves; for thefe reafons it is evident, that the Perfian is moft worthy the attention of Europeans.
\(\ddagger\) The Surcors are all Hindoos; and by fome little knowledge of the Englifh, which they are careful to acquire, are enabled to act as Interpreters to the gentlemen who employ them.
}

\section*{( 10 )}
and the grievances complained of generally originate from theis knavery, avarice, and extortion.
"True it is, that in Bengal, the Dialect bearing that name is now mof frequently ufed in the tranfacting of mercantile concerns; but it does not follow, that the Perfian language, and that of Hindoftan (vulgarly called the Moors) are therefore entirely fuperfluous : on the contrary, I conceive it to be eafy to prove, that if the Company's civil fervants were generally acquainted with the Perfian, they would find themfelves enabled to fill every department in which they could poffibly be placed, without the affiftance of any mediam whatever.
"In a private commercial ligbt alfo, I think, much may be faid in its favour. Individuals, fuch as could find leifure to fudy the language, would reap a fingular advantage from the knowledge of it. In the weftern provinces of Hindoftan, though not fo univerfally in Bengal, the Perfian is ufed in all mercantile tranfactions: and if the ftudy of it was generally followed, and applied to practice, hundreds of Surcors and Banians, who now eat up two thirds of the merchants profits, opprefs the country under the name of Englihh Gomaufbtebs, and brand the character of their mafters with infamy, might be difcarded and turned adrift; or at leaft meet with fuch checks, as would, in a great meafure, put a flop to their rogueries.
"IT may be further obferved, that the fudy of the Perfian is by no means unworthy the attention of the Military, for this plain reafon; becaufe it is the beft, and indeed the only road to a perfect acquaintance with the language of Hindoftan; without which, no officer, however great his military abilities, can be efteemed properly qualified to commard a battalion of our native troops. The lofs of more than one detachment from that very deficiency, has proved this beyond difpute. It may be added, that an officer on a detached command, mutt always. have occafion to correfpond, fometimes to negotiate with the chief men of the diftricts and provinces, where he may be, or through which he may have occafion to pals : and thefe negotiations, however trifling they may at firft appear, have been frequently known to lead to matters of vaft importance. This is another, and, I think, no bad reafon, why an officer ought to be acquainted with the Perfian and Hindoftan languages.
" IN oppofition to the foregoing it may be afferted, that the difficulties attending the ftudy and acquifition of a copious and elegant language, differing totally from our own in phrafe and idiom, and cloathed in unknown, complex, and obfcure characters, would be infurmountable to many; and that the various occupations and bufineffes, in which the Company's fervants in India are employed, cannot afford them leifure and opportunity to engage in fo troublefome and arduous an undertaking; and therefore, as heretofore, the acquifition of this valuable knowledge muft be left to thofe young men, who, from curiofity, ambition, or fuperior abilities, are inclined to devote themfelves to fuch difficult fudies. In reply to the firff of the above objections, I can, from perfonal knowledge, venture to affirm, That a very moderate hare of abilities and of memory, fupported by a common proportion of perfeverance and attention, are fufficient to overcome the ideal difficulties, arifing from the copioufnefs of the language itfelf, from the difference of the idiom, and from the obfcurity of the character.
"In anfwer to the fecond, I will allow that the occupations and employments of the Company's junior fervants are many and various; and that if pleafure and diffipation be admitted of the number, they have not a moment to fpare. But fuppofing it practicable for them to curtail their attendance on the laft mentioned important bufinefles but for two fhort hours in the day, I do affert, that they may with eafe make themfelves mafters of the language, and that in a very moderate fpace of time.
"The advantages arifing from a knowledge of the Perfian to gentlemen in India have not, till within thefe few years, been perfectly underfood. In fact, its genesal utility has not exifted but from that period, when the Company found it neceflary to place the entire adminiftration of the provinces of Bengal and Babar in the hands of their own proper fervants. It is therefore reafonable to fuppofe, that a circumftance which did not immediately ftrike many of the ableft of their fuperior officers abroad, could not fuddenly engage the attention of their adminiftration at home. And hence we muft account for the little encouragement hitherto given to the ftudy of the Perfian language.
"BuT I conceive it is now evident, that the Court of Directors, from the information which they have from time to time received, are fully convinced of its great utility; and that they are determined to promote the cultivation of it to the utmoft of their power. For to this intention we muft afcribe the very neceffary encouragement which they have given to the learned Author of the Perfian and Arabic Dictionary ; the firft volume of which has been already publifhed. Of this valuable work, as appears by the printed propofals, they have engaged to take one hundred and fifty copies: which, it is reafonable to fuppofe, they intend to diftribute among their fervants abroad, and thereby to facilitate the ftudy of the language, now rendered infinitely more eafy than it was formerly, by the labours of the foregoing and another learned Author; whole Grammar, added to this Dictionary, has entirely removed every poffible impediment. Indeed, all that appears wanting at prefent to promote a general application to the Perfian in India, is a proper encouragement on the part of the Eaft India Company, fupported by their orders and authority; and a confequent conviction in their junior fervants, that a knowledge of that language is neceffary to their promotion. If they were taught to know, that an acquaintance with the Perfian was the principal avenue, through which they were to expect to arrive at faperior rank, and that that knowledge for the future would be fo far fubftituted in the place ef feniority, as to render feniority of no avail without it, it would then become the principal object of the junior claffes of their fervants; and the language of courfe would be generally ftudied.
"It may be added, that the above fcheme, though a partial, would be no bad fcale, by which to meafure the abilities of their younger fervants: for though a knowledge of that language in the perfons who poffeffed it, could not point out the extent of their abilities; yet the want of that knowledge in thofe who could not acquire it, would certainly difcover thofe who had no abilities at all. For a man who, 10 circumfanced, wanted talents, memory, or perfeverance to form a moderate acquaintance with any language whatever ; although he might make a tolerable fmith, or carpenter, or bricklayer, would certainly turn out a very bad merchant, a very indifferent infpector of a province, or military officer.
"In my ideas of the utility and importance of a knowledge of the Perfian in the fervants of the Company, I am fupported by the opinions of feveral of the firf Characters who have appeared in India; amongft whom, Mr. Hastings, now Prefident of the fupreme Council in Bengal, and the late Governor Vansittart, are particularly diftinguifhed. Thofe gentlemen did not think the Perfian unworthy their attention; they found leifure to acquire a knowledge of that, and, confequently, of the language of Hindoftan; in which they doubtlefs found their advantage. And I have been credibly informed, that both Mr. Vansittart and Mr. Hastings had in contemplation the eftablifhment of an Academy in England, in order to promote the fudy of the Perfian language ; and to enable fuch young men, as were intended for the India fervice, to acquire the rudiments of that ufeful knowledge at home. The return of thefe gentlemen to India rendered their intentions abortive: but thofe intentions, neverthelefs, tend to prove the high idea they entertained of its importance and utility.
"In a word, the neceffity of a knowledge of the Perfian, to gentlemen refiding in India, may, I think, be placed in a very clear point of view, by the following concife and fimple Query, or Comparifon. If an inhabitant of France, a Spaniard, a Swede, or a Dane, were to vifit England with a view of improving his fortunes, would it not be neceffary for him to learn the language of this country, in order to render himfelf capable of filling any employment whatever, either Civil or Military?
"THE general ftudy of the Perfian language would be productive of one other advantage to the Eaft India Company, well worthy their attention. From the fmallnefs of the number of thofe who have acquired a practical knowledge of the Perfian language, and the fill fmaller number who have returned to England poffeffed of that knowledge, I have been led to believe, that a Department, which I fhould confider of much importance to the Company, has not hitherto been eftablifhed. If the fudy of the Perfian fhould meet with the encouragement it merits, and, in confequence thereof, the application to that fudy fhould become general, many gentlemen might return from India well qualified for the purpofe, and with fuch moderate fortunes, as might not place them above the acceptance of the office \(I\) am about to point out. It is well known, that the Court of Directors annually receive from their fettlements in India, Letters, Memorials, Treaties, and other important papers, in the Perfian language, tranfmitted to them as vouchers by their officers abroad. It is true, that tranflations of fuch Papers are ufually fent with the originals. But it muft be well known to gentlemen converfant in India affairs, that from many circumfances, accusate tranflations of fuch Letters, Memorials, and Treaties, by a gentleman unbiaffed by party, faction, or intereft, and under their own immediate protection, muft be highly acceptable and advantageous to the India Government at home. Such a perfon would alfo be able to tranflate into the Perfian language all fuch Treaties and Letters, ais they might havejoccafion to fend or write to the native Pow/rs of Hindoftan ; which might be tranfmitted to India under their proper Seal, and confequently not be liable to an erroneous tranflation abroad.
"I have been informed from good authority, that feveral gentlemen in the Direction, a very few years ago, were Sifficiently convinced of the utility of fuch an eftablifhment. The arrangement and expences of a regular Perfian Secretary's Office at the India Houfe, by fome who are advocates for œconomy, might be efteemed an objection: but this, I conceive, may be eafily obviated. For fuch a perfon as I have pointed out, might be induced, for a moderate falary to undertake the Office : he might refide in, or at any diftance from the Capital ; the neceffary papers might be tranfmitted to him by their proper Secretary for the time being, and might be returned by him to the fame Secretary, with their tranflations.
"The foregoing Obfervations contain all that occurs to me on the fubject, and I fincerely wifh, that they may afford you fome little affiftance, in proving the high importance of Perfian literature ; and that yotu will be enabled to point out the propriety of promoting in this country the ftudy of a language, fo neceffary to the fervants of the Company, fo advantageous to the Company themfelves; and, from the extent and wealth of their Territories and Commerce, not an unimportant object to the Britifh Nation.

> I am, &cc.

\author{
WILLIAM DAVY."
}

\section*{F I N I S.}```

[^0]:    * Notwithftanding Mr. D o w E's affertion to the contrary, there is reafon to believe that various tranflations of Shanfcrit books have been compofed in the Perfian language; and that the theology and philofophy of the Hindoos have been a fubject of enquiry amongtt men of rank in Indoftan, when letters were mucb cultivated. In a curious and valuable work compofed about two centuries ago by the command of the Emperor Akbar, we find a large account of the aftronomy, philofophy, religious principles and cuftoms of this very fingular nation. This is not the only Perfian work that illuftrates the hiftory of a people fo little known. A tranflation has been made into the fame language of the famous Shanfcrit poem, called Mahbarit (or the great war) faid to contain a hundred and twenty thou fand ftanzas. We find likewife that Dara Shekoo, one of the fons of the Emperor Shah Jehan, paid fuch attention, and gave fuch encouragement to the profeffors of the Hindoo Religion, that he was treated as an infidel by his younger brother Aurengzebe, who made this partiality a plea for exciting all the Mahommedans againft him, and preventing his fucceffion to the empire of his father. This learned prince was the author of many works, the moft valuable of which, perhaps, is his fummary of the Four Bedes (or facred books) of the Hindoos, containing very curious and abftract difcuffions of their metaphyfics and religious principles, upon the nature and exifence of the world - of the Jupreme Being - of the buman mind and its faculties - of the worfhip due to the fupreme Being, as fole Creator of the world &c. &c.

    Some tranflated fragments of this work, as well as the original Perfian, having been fhewn me by Mr. Rouse, I was highly ftruck with the fublimity and beauty of many of the paffages; and judging that a fpecimen would be extremely acceptable to the readers of this volume, I requefted leave to infert at the end of it One of the Prayers directed by the Brabmins to be offered up to the Supreme Being.

[^1]:    + A city of Mauwur u Nuhur, or Tranfoxiana, Long. 99. Lat, 39.

[^2]:    * Furfung is a league of about fix thoufand yards.

[^3]:    * i. e. If he fent Forces, and went not himfelf, they might be defeated; or they might be prevailed upon to join the rebels : but the latter, if he went himfelf, was not to be apprehended.

[^4]:    - i.e. Jofeph. Alluding to the protection which that patriarch afforded to his family, when in Egypt. See Sale's Al Koran. Chap. 12.

[^5]:    * Having taken all his own tribe, and all the principal people of Mauwur u Nuhur along with him. Vide Fragm, Hift. p. 327 et 328 . MS. Hunter.

[^6]:    + The Caliphs Abaubukkur, Omur, Ofmaun and Aali.

[^7]:    * A religious man, celebrated for his piety,

[^8]:    * Natives of Khoraufaun.

[^9]:    * io e. Timour.

    4 Friday, the Mahummudan fabbath. G 2 prefcribed

[^10]:    $\ddagger$ Literally, temporary buts or cantonements.

